The American's Creed

I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign Nation of many sovereign States; a perfect Union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice, and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag; and to defend it against all enemies.

—WILLIAM TYLER PAGE.

The Ascended Master Saint Germain

Oh blest Saint Germain, Dear,
Thou Holy Great One
We love Thee and bless Thee,
Thou God from the Sun.

We feel Thee and see Thee
The work Thou hast done,
For the Cup Thou dost carry
O'erflows from the "One".

Chorus

We praise Thee and greet Thee
Thou Great Lord of Light
And raise now the Scepter
To Thy glorious Height.

We wield all Love's Power
Love's Wisdom and Might;
Blaze through us forever
Thy Flame - dazzling bright.

PROTECTING AMERICA'S BUSINESS — No. 132

Almighty Ascended Masters and Cosmic Powers of Light! Sweep thru the business world of the United States of America! Dissolve and consume every destructive force and everything that attempts to limit the service of constructive business to the people. Annihilate cause, effect, record and memory of every vicious thing in our land; and bring forth the Perfection Saint Germain wants our people to have and see it is eternally sustained.

COSMIC PROTECTION — No. 133

Make the following call many times a day:

"Mighty I AM Presence" and all Great Beings and Powers of Light! Release an action of the Blue Flame from out the Great Central Sun and sweep it thruout the mental and feeling world of our people and into the government of the United States of America! Dissolve all destructive conditions, activities, impulses; cause, effect, record and memory and replace them by the Ascended Masters' Victory, Purity, Authority and Perfection eternally sustained.

(Copyright by St. Germain Press, Inc., 1940)

I call to the "Mighty I AM Presence" and Higher Mental Body of everyone in America! Descend with full Ascended Master Power and place Your Arms about the physical body of everyone in our land. Hold bound and inactive everything human until it is raised to the Light of Thy Heart and every destructive thing is consumed by the Pressure of Light! Hold our beloved United States of America in "the Light as of a Thousand Suns" and increase that Pressure of Light, until every destructive thing within our borders is annihilated from the Universe cause, effect, record and memory; and forever replaced by the Substance of the Goddess of Purity, the Legions of Light, the Power of Harmony and Victory's Victory of the Light in full Dominion forever! I thank Thee it is done.

ILLUMINED OBEDIENCE No. 135

"Mighty I AM Presence," Great Ascended Masters and Powers of Light! Sweep into that condition! Dissolve it, cause, effect, record and memory! Replace it by the Ascended Masters' Illumined Obedience to Life which is strong enough to know what to do and determined enough to do it! See that individual gives obedience to Life now and forever.

(Copyright by St. Germain Press, Inc., 1940)

PROTECTING YOUR ENERGY No. 136

"Mighty I AM Presence" and my Higher Mental Body! Descend in full Ascended Master Power behind me and place Your Hands over my solar plexus. Hold me tight and draw me within the Flame of Your Heart and see I stay there forever.

CONTROLLING SPEECH No. 137

"Mighty I AM Presence" and my Higher Mental Body! Stand behind me and keep Your Hands on my mouth this day. Don't let me say one thing that is not the Ascended Masters' Words.

INDIVIDUAL PROTECTION No. 138

Speaking directly to the Higher Mental Body of destructive individuals, say:

In the Name of the "Mighty I AM Presence," descend and clamp Your Arms around that individual! Take him (or her) into Your Flame. Crush out of existence every destructive impulse and release the Ascended Masters' God-control thru him (or her). Make that one unable to do anything destructive to our people!

No. 149

"Mighty I AM Presence," Great Host of Ascended Masters and all Great Beings and Powers of Light from the Great Central Sun! Sweep into every communistic activity on the West Coast of the United States of America (or any other location) this very moment with a tidal Wave of Blue Flame and annihilate their hypnotic domination of the people! Withdraw all energy, money, influence, power and supply from them and collapse them in the midst of their own viciousness. Take them bound, helpless and inactive to the compound of Light and hold them there, until their viciousness is burned out; and they serve the Light in humble grateful obedience forever. Seek out every individual among their ranks who has been hypnotized into serving them! Cut those individuals forever free from that influence. Walk thru their mental and emotional bodies and consume everything human. Replace it by everything Divine and claim all into the Victory and Service of the Light who really want the Constructive Way of Life. Blaze this same activity into the German bund! Dissolve and annihilate that and all other such activities from our Country

(Copyright by St. Germain Press, Inc., 1940)

this very hour, by whatever action of the Blue Flame is needed.

We call directly to the Archangel Michael, our Beloved Messenger and the Great Goddess of Light to sweep Your Pressure of Light into every one of those individuals, with such an Almighty overwhelming Power that those destructive forces are cleared from our country today and forever; and replaced by the Legions of Light to hold Eternal Victory and Dominion of Your Light forever.

POWER OF THE GREAT SILENCE No. 150

"Mighty I AM Presence"! See that within My Tube of Light I am always held within the full Power of the Great Silence.

SHUTTING YOUR DOOR No. 151

"Mighty I AM Presence"! You shut my door against that condition and don't let it in any more. You take command and hold a Pressure of Light inside of me greater than that discord and see that I never accept any such thing again!

CHARGING YOUR TUBE OF LIGHT No. 152

Every morning: "Mighty I AM Presence"! Charge my Tube of Light and fill and surround me with the Power and Feeling of

No. 251

(Try to FEEL and stand firmly by it, that you are cut free from every limiting, discordant thing and that it is dissolved and consumed. Each night before you retire, go by yourself and with your hands raised to the 'Presence' Say to It:

'I thank You, "Mighty I AM Presence," Great Host of Ascended Masters, Mighty Legion of Light and Great Cosmic Beings that I am cut FREE this night. I accept my Freedom in the fulness of Thy Presence, Oh "Mighty I AM," and the Assistance of the Cosmic Beings, the Legion of Light and the Ascended Host of Light.'

This is particularly for the individual just before retiring. Your Acceptance of this (in your FEELINGS) will make it possible to continue this activity until you have the full, complete conviction that you are actually, even in the outer manifestation. WHOLLY

* (Copyright by St. Germain Press, Inc., 1940)

FREE, for that is actually the case. I want you to FEEL and Accept it. If you do that, you really WILL BE FREE. Then, as you call the Powers of your 'Presence' into action, you will find in many instances, instantaneous response.

ANNIHILATING INSANITY No. 252

"Mighty I AM Presence," Great Host of Ascended Masters and all Great Beings from the Great Central Sun! Release whatever Dispensation and Action of the BLUE FLAME are required to annihilate all insanity, depravity and crime from mankind, the earth and its atmosphere forever! Annihilate! Annihilate! Annihilate! their cause, effect and record! Replace them by the Substance and Cosmic Power from the Goddess of Purity, Harmony and Victory's Victory of the Light! Send the Legions of Light to take possession and produce Perfection which holds humanity and the earth free forever from these destructive conditions, and we call It to be eternally sustained.

ASCENSION DAY: 40 Days after Easter No. 253

At mid-night previous to Ascension Day, ask the Presence to take you into the Heart of the Great Central Sun and charge you with the Full Ascended Master Consciousness of all the Ascension means to you.

(Copyright by St. Germain Press, Inc., 1940)

At noon (12:00 o'clock) the following day, be quiet for half an hour or an hour, give conscious recognition to your Presence and ask It to see that you make your Ascension in this embodiment without fail! Then ask the Presence to give you the FEELING of the Ascension!

LOVED ONES PASSED ON No. 254

"Mighty I AM Presence" and Great Host of Ascended Masters! Go to my loved one and give him (or her) the help needed. If possible see that he makes his Ascension, or take him to some Ascended Master and see he has full instruction of the "I AM" in the Higher Mental Body. See that he is set free in the Victory and Power of Light.

EXPANDING LIGHT IN BODY No. 255

"I AM" the Presence within the UNFED FLAME in this heart speaking to the Intelligence in every point of Light in this body. I command you in the Authority of Life to expand, expand and again expand the Perfection of the "Light of God that never fails," to produce instantaneous peace, ease, comfort and full Ascended Master Perfection in every atom of my mind, body, being, world, atmosphere and environment and hold it eternally sustained and ever-expanding with the "Light and Power of a Thousand Suns"!

(Note: See and feel the Points of Light in every cell of your body expand and blaze until you feel yourself a Blazing Dazzling Pure White Sun whose Light fills the room.)

COMING ELECTIONS No. 256

"Mighty I AM Presence," Great Host of Ascended Masters and all Great Beings and Powers of Light from the Great Central Sun! Come forth in Your Limitless Overwhelming Presence and take possession of every person in America! Charge forth Your Irresistible Dazzling Light in the coming elections and see that only individuals who serve the Light are elected and placed in all Governmental offices and positions! See that only those who serve the Light remain in them in the future. Place Ascended Master Friends of the Light in every position of authority and power in the United States of America and hold them there to produce and maintain the Victory of the Light in full possession of America forever, until all are free in the fullness of the Ascension!

ALL NECESSITIES OF LIFE No. 257

"Mighty I AM Presence" and all Great Beings and Powers of Light from the Great Central Sun! Raise up Ascended Master Friends in our government, our industries, transportation, communication and all channels of food supply for America, who will bring forth and hold Ascended Master Victory, Power, Protection and Perfection of the Light in all activities governing and acting for the United States of America and its people. See that Divine Order and Divine Justice are maintained in all these activities. Blast and annihilate all obstruction to the immediate answer and sustained fulfilment of our call!

BLESSING THE ASCENDED MASTERS No. 258

"Mighty I AM Presence" of every human Being on earth and Great Central Sun! Pour forth all the Love, Light, Victory, Power, Gratitude, Majesty, Perfection and Glory to our Beloved Saint Germain, our Beloved Messenger and all the Ascended Masters and Great Beings of Light who have protected mankind thru the centuries and who have brought us this far in the Light of Freedom! STUDY GROUP OUTLINE No. 262

NOTE: The following changes are made so all Groups will be uniform. We ask all Groups—Regular Study Groups, Decree Groups, Minute Men, Daughters of Light, Young People and Patriotic Groups—to follow No. 1 Outline with these changes, without omissions or additions (except in the case of adding more Decrees and Songs where indicated).

Please read Instructions in May 1940 "Voice of the 'I AM'"

CALL TO THE FLAME — Correct as given in Outline.

SIX COSMIC LIGHT DEGREES

1. Mighty Cosmic Light, come forth and do Your Perfect Work NOW!

Mighty Cosmic Light, come forth and claim Your Own NOW!

Mighty Cosmic Light, come forth and take Your Toll NOW!

2. The Forces of Light move into action with Full Power and are Victorious NOW! (Repeat 3 times)

3. Mighty Arcturus and Great Goddess of Liberty! Come forth this instant in that Light as of a Thousand Suns dissolve and consume all human selfishness and discord from the planet forever! (Repeat 3 times)

4. "The Light of God never fails" (Repeat 3 times) and follow with: and the "Mighty I AM Presence" is that Light!

(Copyright by St. Germain Press, Inc., 1940)

5. In the Name of the "Mighty I AM Presence" we say to all human creation: "You have no power! Your day is done! Be thou dissolved and consumed from the face of the earth forever!" (Repeat 3 times.).

6. The Limitless Legions of Light now sweep across the face of the earth, and all human darkness disappears! (Repeat 3 times.).

Follow these six calls with:

We charge all our music and Decrees with Saint Germain's, Jesus', Nada's and the Divine Director's Ascended Master Consciousness, Instantaneous Activity and Fulfillment, eternally sustained and ever expanding. We thank Thee Thou dost always answer our every call—instantly, infinitely and eternally.

Visualize nine (9) UNFED FLAMES—three on the West Coast, three in the central part of the United States of America and three on the East Coast, expanding into the Panama Canal and up into Alaska; then repeat the "I AM" nine (9) times, visualizing the UNFED FLAME in each city. Follow this with—"the Victory and Power of Light everywhere forever!"

SING IF DESIRED—Always sing one song to America and follow with Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag; then follow with: "America we love you" (Repeat 3 times) "and our love is great enough to hold you eternally Victorious in the Light." Then repeat American's Creed.

ANNOUNCEMENTS — (Seated) — Correct as given in Outline.

8. Use one of Our Messenger's Invocations or Records, if available; followed by a short Silence and Outpouring of Love, with attention focused on the "Mighty I AM Presence," our Beloved Messenger, G. W. Ballard, the Ascended Masters and Cosmic Beings.

9. INVOCATION—Hold to Invocation as given in Note No. 1 without fail, as this momentum needs to be built as powerfully as possible for your Ascension and that of those in America and the world who are to be raised at this time. (Use this regardless of previous verbal or written instructions.)

SING IF DESIRED.

(Copyright by St. Germain Press, Inc., 1940)

10. Use New Entity Decree No. 213 in Special Decree Book.

11. Correct as given. Description in Feb. 1940 Voice may be added, but may not replace either of the other descriptions.

We have recently released Mr. Ballard's description of the Chart on a Phonograph Record which should be used wherever possible; that His Voice may charge forth Its Power into the Study Groups. This may be substituted for the description in 1937 Magazine. The description in 1936 and 1940 Magazines may be added as time permits.

12. Correct as given in Outline; follow with Decree No. 250 in Special Decree Book.

13. Correct as given in Outline.

14. Correct as given in Outline.

15. Omit entirely.

16. Omit raising of hands, but give the Decree in Note No. 5.

17. Omit entirely.

18. (Seated) Correct as given in Outline.

SING IF DESIRED

(Copyright by St. Germain Press, Inc., 1940)

19. Issue Decrees in Notes 6, 7, 8 and 9.

20. Use shorter Decree No. 26 in Volume V.

21. Leader should read excerpts from the Discourses in the Books or Magazines. (No meeting should be held without something being read from them, charging the atmosphere with the Ascended Masters' Words.)

22. Correct as given in Outline.

23. Use Decree No. 220 in Special Decree Book.

24. (Seated) Correct as given in Outline.

25. Correct as given in Outline, except Decree 68 (83)—Use Decree No. 65 in the Special Decree Book instead. The Decree referred to in April 1937 "Voice" is being put in Special Decree Book also.

(At this point sing and issue as many Decrees as time permits; but please do not inject any discussions of any kind into the pattern being built.)

26. Benediction must be taken from the Discourses, or use one of Mr. Ballard's Victrola Records. The entire Service is conducted in the most sacred manner possible, but with a happy dignity; exactly as if Saint

LIGHT OF MY HEART

(Melody—Original: by Godfré Ray King) Key of F
(Published by Saint Germain Press)

Out of the Presence of Life, I come!
Knowing the fulness of all to be done;
Clothed in Thy Garments of Crystal Light,
Endowed with Thy Power to make all things right.
Powers of Light! All Hail Thy Great Name!
All Hail! All Hail! Thy Name!

Light of my heart, Eternally Free!
Make me FEEL NOW all Life holds for me,
Make me express all the Beauty Thou art,
Hold me forever within Thy Pure Heart!
In Thy Pure Heart, never to part, truly,
Mankind has waited so long to hear
The full Truth of Life that will make all things clear.
Now to the "I AM," we sing our praise
And pour forth Its Glory, Its Mighty Light Rays!
All conquering now! Victorious! All Free!
To Life, to Light, to Love!

Light of my heart, Eternally Free!
Make me FEEL NOW all Life holds for me,
Make me express all the Beauty Thou art,
Hold me forever within Thy Pure Heart.

(Copyright by Saint Germain Press, 1939)

In Thy Pure Heart, never to part! by the Light of the world, with Thy Unfed Flame
Cleanse and perfect all in Thy Mighty Name!
Lift ALL to Freedom! Give ALL new birth!
Adorn with Thy Glory the children of earth!
I blaze Thy Light, Thy Almighty Rays!
"I AM"! "I AM"! "I AM"!

LOTUS MY LOVE

(Melody—Original: by Godfrē Ray King) Key of G
(Published by Saint Germain Press)

Lotus, my Love, I adore you
With the Purest Light of my heart,
In Its ever-expanding Glory
Holding us, that we never depart
From the Majesty of Its Presence,
Whose Domain transcendent—fair
Now our happiness is—Oh! so Perfect!
Love's Eternal Vict'ry there.

We were lifted in Power Victorious,
As the Light sent us onward to serve;
And we carry Its Freedom forever
To release the Great Truth men deserve.
As we stand in Its Rays of Glory
All protecting with Its Mantle bright,
We free all men from their discord
Come! Glory and Victory of Light!

When at last all our service is over,
And the Vict'ry of Light holds Its Reign,
We ascend into Light's Mighty Presence
As we sing our Eternal Refrain.
Our release to Thy Heights triumphant
Brings an Ecstasy so sublime,
As we enter the "I AM Presence,"
In the Power of Love Divine.

(Copyright by Saint Germain Press, 1939)

Lotus, my Love, I adore you
With the Purest Love of my heart,
In Its ever-expanding Glory
Holding us, that we never depart
From the Majesty of Its Presence,
Whose Domain transcendent—fair
Now our happiness is—Oh! so Perfect!
Love's Eternal Victory there.

We are clothed in the Armor of Lightning
With the Sword of Blue Flame in our hands,
We are shod with the Diamond-tipped
Sandals
Now to fill with Thy Glory all lands.
Perfect Peace to the earth, Oh Children!
"I AM" bringing the Answer—Light's Call!
We live in Its Heart forever
Victorious! Triumphant o'er all!

O, WORLD VICTORIOUS

Awake! O, World! in Glory Sublime!
Awake! Awake! feel Light's Bright Day!
Arise! Arise! in Vict'ry Divine
Beloved "I AM," our Perfect Way.

CHORUS

O, World! we call for thy Freedom now!
O, Light! release Thy full Pow'r!
O, Children of earth whose hearts are Light,
Great Presence hold all close each hour;
To Life that beats each human heart,
To Light that is all Supreme,
To Love that gives Victori'us Pow'r,
"I AM" your Great Light Stream.

O, "Mighty I AM," O, Heart of God,
Speak with Thy Pow'r of Blessing;
Shower Thy Presence of Light o'er the earth
With Love, transcendent, caressing:
Offer Thy Cup of Liquid Light
That all may drink of Its Magic Pow'r;
Transporting Thy Children to Thy Heights Divine,
For they are Thy Rarest Flowers.

Awake! O, World! in Glory Sublime!
Awake! Awake! feel Light's Bright Day!
Arise! Arise! in Vict'ry Divine
Beloved "I AM," our Perfect Way.

O, World! we call for thy Freedom now!
O, Light! release Thy full Pow'r!
O, Children of earth whose hearts are Light,
Great Presence hold all close each hour;
To Life that beats each human heart,
To Light that is all Supreme,
To Love that gives Victori'us Pow'r,
"I AM" your Great Life Stream.

O, Great Ascended Host of Light!
O, Gods of the Mountains of Mighty Pow'r!
O, Cosmic Masters, we sing Thy praise,
The Presence "I AM," this Magic Hour.

RAINBOW RAYS

(Melody—Original: by Godfré Ray King)
(Published by Saint Germain Press)

The "I AM" Rays bring happiness
From out the heart of Light!
Mighty Golden Arrows speeding
They rush to banish night;
Golden Rays follow quickly on
In Freedom everywhere;
The Pink Rays with Eternal Peace
Clothe us in Jewels rare.

Golden Rays give glorious rest
Pointing to all Life's Way!
Violet Rays consume mistakes
Divine Love fills each day;
Crystal Rays with their Radiance
Make happiness complete;
The Blue Ray lends Its Mighty Pow'r
We never know defeat.

We sing thy praise, Oh great Light Rays!
Take thy Dominion now;
Enfold each one in perfect health
Mighty Presence endow;
Powers of Light to set all free
By thy great Law Divine;
Blaze the feeling of all mankind
With Love's liquid sunshine.

(Copyright by Saint Germain Press, 1939)

Mighty "I AM" with Rainbow Rays
Charge thy Power of Light!
Hold in Harmony of the Spheres
Thy Radiance blazing white;
Our call to the Presence is sure
To "I AM" all must bow;
In conscious sustained attention
Love's Victory reigns now.

Golden Rays give glorious rest
Pointing to all Life's Way;
Violet Rays consume mistakes
Divine Love fills each day;
Crystal Rays with their Radiance
We never know defeat;
The Blue Ray lends its Mighty Power
Makes Happiness complete.

VOICE OF THE PRESENCE

(Melody—Original: by Godfré Ray King)
(Published by Saint Germain Press)

Voice of the Presence with Almighty Pow'r
Sing in our hearts Thy Joy each hour.
Speak our Decrees in Thy Clarion Voice
And make our decision Thy Perfect Choice.
Harmony hold in our every desire,
Charge all our actions with Violet Fire,
Clothe us in Thy Seamless Garments of White,
Protect us with Jewels of Light.

We call to the Presence of Life today,
Make us obedient in Thy Way,
Enfold us in Thy Mighty Tube of Light,
Give us the use of Thy Perfect Sight.
Blaze through us sustained Thy Unfed Flame
And speak the full Glory of Thy Name;
Oh, Blue Flame encircle Thy children now,
To Thy Great Power all earth must bow.

Oh, "Mighty I AM" with Thy Dazzling Rays,
Direct us in Thy Perfect Ways,
Hold us in Thy Happiness so complete,
Thy Harmony knows no defeat.

(Copyright by Saint Germain Press, 1939)

In Service to Thee which we wish to give,
Enable us to always live
The Perfection of Life, which is in Thee,
The Vict'ry now forever free.

We call to the Presence of Life today,
Make us obedient in Thy Way,
Enfold us in Thy Mighty Tube of Light,
Give us the use of Thy Perfect Sight.
Blaze through us sustained Thy Unfed Flame
And speak the full Glory of Thy Name;
Oh, Blue Flame encircle Thy Children now,
To Thy Great Power all earth must bow.

"I AM" the Glory of the Stars!
"I AM" the Sun's great Light!
"I AM" the Energy of Life!
"I AM" Thy Light so bright!
"I AM" the Voice of the Presence!
"I AM" the Breath of Flame!
"I AM" the Pow'r of Love Divine!
"I AM" God's Mighty Name!

ROSE OF LIGHT

(Melody—Original: by Godfré Ray King)
(Published by Saint Germain Press)

Glistening Rose of Light!
Blazing forth so bright,
Giving all Thy fragrance to the earth.
From Thy heights above,
In the Heart of Love,
Are Messengers—Your heart and mine.
In Thy Light Rays
Are God's Perfect Ways,
Filling all space, blessing all mankind.
Our Heart's pure Love
Our Presence above
Happy, Perfect Light of God are we.

Behold! the Power of Light!
Thy enfolding Love, all-caressing now!
In Thy Heart "I AM."

Rose of Light whose Heart is Purest Gold,
Rarest perfume is Your healing gift.
Blessings fill the air, Your Petals now unfold,
All men's consciousness You lift.

Wondrous in Your Velvet Beauty Fair
As You pour Your Blessing everywhere
Miracles of Joy You clothe in Crystal White
We bless You, Precious Rose of Light.

(Copyright by Saint Germain Press, 1939)

From the Spheres of Power
Comes the Cosmic Hour
Raising all into their Freedom now.
We sing our song of praise,
Held in Crystal Rays,
"Mighty I AM Presence," we are One!
Ascended Master Rose of Light!

GODFRÉ RAY KING.

SON OF LIGHT

The Glory of Life has sent you to serve
On the Wings of Light with Its Pow'rs above;
To call forth Perfection of Life everywhere
Through the Power of your Divine Love.

CHORUS

Oh, Son of Light! our own Precious Heart!
In your Great Power hold your Scepter Bright,
Blazing each hour your Transcendent Light,
Now facing your Glorious "I AM"!
As you take complete charge, feel your Great Presence now,
Directing Light Rays of Power,
Endow the children of earth, who adoring, do vow
Forever to serve only your Great Command.

Powers of Light! Oh, "Mighty I AM,"
Charge all with Thy Glorious Freedom!

Your Presence Majestic now reigns supreme,
Holding you in Its own Great Height!
Revealing the Secrets of Life to you now,
In your world filled with Substance of Light.

(Copyright by Saint Germain Press, 1939)

CHORUS

Oh, Son of Light! our own Precious Heart!
In your Great Power hold your Scepter Bright,
Blazing each hour your Transcendent Light,
Now facing your Glorious "I AM"!
As you take full command, feel your Great Presence now,
Directing Light Rays of Power,
Endow the children of earth, who adoring, do vow
Forever to serve only your Great Command!

Oh, Wondrous "I AM"! Thy Students of Light,
Now charge with Thine own Great Command!

CALL TO LIGHT

I call to Thee, Oh, Light Supreme Release Thy Cosmic Rays!
Project Them in Thy Splendor now,
In the Mighty coming days.
Speak Thy Power in clarion tones,
Make Thy Light the attraction!
Take Thy Dominion on the earth!
Command Thy Light into action!

CHORUS

I call, I call in Thy Mighty Name,
Perfection ordained;
Reveal, Reveal Thy Blest Secrets now on
Life's Golden Page;
Rejoice, Rejoice in Thy Cosmic Rays are
Life's Perfect Ways!
"I AM," "I AM" Light's Victory now
and Earth's Golden Age.

Oh, Light of Life, I call Thy Power
In my use of the Sword of Blue Flame;
To cut away, dissolve and consume
The mistakes of men who are to blame;
To live again in Perfection secure,
Robed in Thy Mighty Rays of Blue;
I move with Invincible Power of Light,
In the world "I AM" all made new.

(Copyright by Saint Germain Press)

CHORUS

I call, I call in Thy Mighty Name,
Perfection ordained;
Reveal, Reveal Thy Blest Secrets now on
Life's Golden Page;
Rejoice, Rejoice in Thy Cosmic Rays are
Life's Perfect Ways!
"I AM," "I AM" Light's Victory now,
and Earth's Golden Age.

CODA

"I AM," "I AM," ALL LIGHT "AM I."
"I AM," "I AM" Thy Quenchless Flame!
I call, I call, ALL LIGHT to claim!
Arise! "I AM" Thy Mighty Name!

THE SILENT SENTINEL

(A tribute of Love to the Washington Monument, at Washington, D. C.)

(Melody—Original: published by Saint Germain Press)

Oh, Mighty Silent Sentinel! to Him our country loves!
We gaze in rapture on thy height, as all around thee moves;
Enfolding thee in pink and white, the cherry blossoms blow,
Reflecting thee like beauteous gem, abides the pool below.

Oh, Mighty Silent Sentinel! e'er guarding our bright shores
And watching o'er our Blessed Land above its open doors,
Thy glory and thine own great height forevermore doth tell
The purpose of America—Light's Cup and Freedom's Bell.

Oh, Mighty Silent Sentinel! brought forth by Thee—"I AM,"
A focus of Light's own Great Pow'r—the Precious Unfed Flame!

(Copyright by Saint Germain Press, 1939)

Till Vict'ry true and Flame of blue reveal Thy Great Light Ray!

Oh, Mighty Silent Sentinel! of strength and courage rare,
Remind us often of Life's Gifts and God's own Loving Care,
The Mighty Source of Light—"I AM"!
from whence we all have come
And Him whose Love hath set us free—our own George Washington.
Oh, Mighty Silent Sentinel! The Great "I AM" o'er all America, we answer you—
With Legions at your call.

CHANERA.

"I AM" COME

(Melody—Original: by Godfré Ray King)
(Published by Saint Germain Press)

"I AM" come in full Glory,
In Light all Supreme!
Behold! I stand by you,
Releasing My Stream
Of Power Victorious,
Of All-conquering Love—
"I AM" Jesus Ascended,
"I AM" come from above!

"I AM" come now to greet you,
I offer My Hand,
I Pour out My Blessing
To cover your land
I Illumine, Beloved,
Raise all to My Height
"I AM" Jesus who loves you!
"I AM" come in Great Light!

"I AM" come and My Blessing
Shall lift all mankind;
In Life all transcendent
True Peace shall they find:
And Masters Ascended
With Legions of Light,
"I AM" bringing to free all!
"I AM" come in full Might!

(Copyright by Saint Germain Press, 1939)

"I AM" come and stand ready
To help set you free;
Your Life and Its Power
Are full Victory!
Be now Its Perfection
Triumphant o'er all!
"I AM" your own Great Presence!
"I AM" come at your call!

"I AM" come and forever
I walk by your side;
My Arms shall enfold you
I ever abide:
Be fearless and dauntless
Do all I have done!
"I AM" ever your Scepter!
"I AM" come you have won!

"I AM" come ALL-COMMANDING,
Your Freedom is here!
Arise! take Dominion!
And sweep your world clear
Of all that has bound you!
Accept now! be free!
"I AM" Real and Eternal!
"I AM" come! Behold Me!

NADA OUR LOVE

(Melody—Original: by Godfré Ray King)
(Published by Saint Germain Press)

Oh! Nada! Flower of Loveliness,
The Rarest Jewel Thou art;
We always feel enfolding Rays
Flow from Thy Loving Heart,
To clothe us in full Mastery;
Now wield Thy Sword above,
All glorious in Thy Dazzling Pink,
Nada, our own Precious Love.

In the Radiance of Thy Presence,
All our discord melts away,
In the Power of Thy Light Rays,
Bring in the Cosmic Day
To charge the atmosphere of earth
With Victory and Light,
Now lift the world forever Free
To Thine Own Cosmic Height.

In Thy Palace of Exquisite Beauty,
In the Realms of Blazing Light,
All Thy Treasures so priceless are gathered,
To dispense from Thy Great Height—
To bless all in their journey;
In their Vict'ry o'er the earth,
Calling all to their Freedom
In Light's eternal birth.

(Copyright by Saint Germain Press, 1939)

Oh, the Glory of Thy Mighty Service
Thru' all ages of the past,
We give gratitude now and forever,
That we have reached at last
The "Great I AM" Our Presence,
As It rules thruout all space
Glory of all creation
Majestic in Its Grace.

Oh! Nada! Flower of Loveliness,
The Rarest Jewel Thou art;
We always feel enfolding Rays
Flow from Thy Loving Heart,
To clothe us in full Mastery;
Now wield Thy Sword above,
All glorious in Thy Dazzling Pink,
Nada, our own Precious Love.

AMERICA!
OUR OWN BELOVED LAND

(Melody—Original: by Godfró Ray King)
(Published by Saint Germain Press)

Oh, ring the Bell of Liberty,
America set free—
Land of Light and Justice,
Oh, God we trust in Thee;
To clear Our Land from shore to shore
Of all destructive force,
To guide our glorious Ship of State
Upon Its Perfect Course.

CHORUS

God bless you, Oh America,
Our own Beloved Land—
We lift our hearts in gratitude
That we may ever stand
And call the Pow'r of God's Great Light
To keep you now secure,
You shall stand forth the "Great I AM"
Your Peace and Light endure.

Oh, Goddess of our Liberty,
By Thy Great Pow'r and Light
Raise all in Thy Glory,
Give all their full birth-right;
Thy Blessing to America
Is thrilling to behold,
May all arise and make the call,
"Glory of Life unfold"!

(Copyright by Saint Germain Press, 1939)

CHORUS

God bless you, Oh America,
Our own Beloved Land—
We lift our hearts in gratitude
That we may ever stand
And call the Pow'r of God's Great Light
To keep you now secure,
You shall stand forth the "Great I AM"
Your Peace and Light endure.

America, we love you,
Our Flag so great and true
Its waving banner o'er Our Land
Shall bring an age all new;
Oh, patriots of old come forth!
Legions of Light command
And make of earth a Paradise
All held in God's own Hand!

FINALE

America, Oh Land of Light,
We make the call today—
Reveal Your heart the Unfed Flame,
By God's Great Cleansing Ray;
Lift all our hearts! Command all free!
Make all fulfill Life's Plan!
Attain your Goal, America,
Our own Beloved Land!

GODDESS OF PURITY

I come at the Call of the Cosmic Light,
In this hour of man's greatest need,
That the Power of My Enfolding Love,
May plant in the earth Its seed;
To grow in the Light Its rarest Flowers,
The fulfillment of God's Perfect Plan;
And blazing the Light of thousands of Suns,
To express all the Beauty "I AM."

CHORUS

Oh! Goddess of Purity, Wondrous One,
In the Pow'r of Thy Great Name,
Release from the Heart of the Presence secure,
The Glory of Thy Domain;
Enfold the Earth in Thy Fragrance Pure,
In Mighty Cleansing Rays;
Clothe all in Armor of Crystal Light,
Their defense in the coming days.

How I longed for the Call, Oh children of earth,
That the Law of Life now demands
To again return and give you release,
Thru the Great "I AM" Commands;
The One Certain Source of Freedom
That now is My Gift to all,
That will bring Everlasting Purity,
Full Vict'ry at each one's Call.

CHORUS

Oh! Goddess of Purity, Wondrous One,
In the Power of Thy Great Name,
Release from the Heart of the Presence secure,
The Glory of Thy Domain;
Enfold the Earth in Thy Fragrance Pure,
In Mighty Cleansing Rays;
Clothe all in Armor of Crystal Light,
Their defense in the coming days.

At last, all arise in the Presence "I AM,"
To their Homes in the Realms of Light—
To enjoy forever the Treasures there,
In the Goddess of Purity's Height;
Then to rejoice in the Cosmic Power,
Directing Thy Mighty Light Rays;
While bringing Peace never known to man,
The New Age with Its Golden Days.

MIGHTY VICTORY

Oh, Victory unto Thy Height,
We call Thy Almighty Name!
Thy Light flashing now resplendent
Releasing the Unfed Flame,
Thy Vict'ry shall claim earth's children,
Mighty Guardian in Thy Right,
Thou hast revealed the Cosmic Law
"I AM" the Power of Light!

CHORUS

Oh, Victory, our Victory!
We walk in Thy Garden fair,
Such dazzling exquisite Beauty,
Its Fragrance is Oh! so rare!
Thy Mighty Ascended Power
Holds us in Thy Vict'ry too,
We shall attain full Mastery
And live in Light's world with You.

Thy Fiat changed the Law of earth,
Released in its place Thy Truth!
Oh, cut away all binding force,
Charge us with Eternal Youth!
Enfold the earth in Violet Fire,
"I AM" then God's full control,
The Flame consumes each wrong desire,
Perfection is our True Goal.

CHORUS

Oh, Victory, our Victory!
We walk in Thy Garden fair,
Such dazzling exquisite Beauty,
Its Fragrance is Oh! so rare!
Thy Mighty Ascended Power
Holds us in Thy Vict'ry too,
We shall attain full Mastery
And live in Light's world with You.

Great Cosmic Being, Victory,
Blest Lord of the Unfed Flame!
From Venus, Star of Happiness,
We heard Thy most Sacred Name;
It calls to us thru Cosmic space,
We listen and hear Its Sound
Oh, Mighty Master Victory!
Let Vict'ry thru earth resound!

Thy Victory forever more,
Its Light in Its Cosmic Force
"I AM" is Light's Great Victory!
"I AM" our Eternal Source!

OUR OWN JESUS

(Melody: THE STRIFE IS O'ER—Episcopal Hymnal)
Key E

Master Jesus! Blessed Loved One! "Mighty I AM"!
We greet Thee now, Beloved One,
Blaze Thou through us, Thy Light as the Sun!
Make us like Thee all Victory won,
Mighty "I AM"!

Master Jesus! we now greet Thee! "Mighty I AM"!
In Thy full Love, so great to all
Comes speeding through the Help we call;
Thy Mighty Pow'r the Cosmic Light Is Thy Great Might!

Master Jesus! walk Thou with us! "Mighty I AM"!
Come to us now as once before,
Oh, come step through the Open Door;
Walk, talk and smile with us as of yore
In Thy Great Love!

Now we FEEL Thee! Now we SEE Thee! "Mighty I AM"!
Take Thou our hands, Oh, Jesus Dear!

(Copyright by Saint Germain Press, 1939)

Consume all doubt, all grief, all fear!
With us abide! Be ever near!
"Mighty I AM"!

CHANERA.

BELOVED MASTER, JESUS

(Melody: OH, LITTLE TOWN OF BETHLEHEM)
Key of F

Oh, Jesus, Thou Great Conqueror,
We greet Thee, Lord of Life
And call to all Great Hosts above
To still all earthly strife.
Thou art the Mighty Presence,
The Glorious "Great I AM,"
Thou art the Cosmic Master now,
The Conquering Pure Love Flame.

Let all of earth behold Thee,
Thou Radiant God of Light;
For all shall know Thy Blessed Power,
Thy Presence and Thy Might.
In This full Cosmic Glory,
Reveal Thy Heights to all
That earth may sing Thy Praises, too,
And hear the "I AM CALL."

Let all now see Thyself, Thy Way
And know Thee in the Light!
Come, walk and talk in Perfect Bliss,
Filled with Thy Glory bright.
Let all now see their Presence,
The Glorious "Great I AM"
And ever live within Its Heart,
The Blessed Unfed Flame.

CHANERA.

BELOVED NADA

Nada Dear! Oh, One so fair!
We love You;
Presence of the Sunshine Hair!
Oh, come through!
Glorious One so dazzling bright,
Raise us to Thine own Great Height,
Pour through us Thy Heavenly Light,
Dear Nada, we love You!

Let Thy Flame of Pink and Gold
Flood forth now!
Let Thy Glorious Love enfold,
Show us how
Radiant is Thy Mighty Power,
Conquering all each day, each hour;
Thou art God's Own Blest Love-Flower,
Dear Nada, we love You!

Nada Dear! Thy Light so Pure
Raises all;
Lifts us into Victory sure
Through our call:
On the Radiant Wings of morn,
Peace on earth again is born,
Beauty doth the world adorn,
Dear Nada, we love You!

GREAT SANAT KUMARA

A Lord of the Flame from Venus

(Melody—Original: published by Saint Germain Press)

Sanat Kumara, the Lord of the world,
Thou Who didst come from afar!
Come to be Ruler of children on earth,
From Venus that Blest Distant Star:
Thou art the Lord of the Flame from above,
Glorious, Supreme evermore—
Oh, Thou Blest One! Oh, Thou Great Lord of Love!
'Tis Thee Whom we love and adore:
Oh, Thou Blest One! Oh, Thou Great Lord of Love!
'Tis Thee Whom we love and adore.

Sanat Kumara, Thou Lord of Great Light!
Pouring Thy Love o'er the earth,
Blessing mankind with Thy Glorious Peace
And giving all now a new birth!
Come forth and greet us in Thy fullest Power,
Set all now free by Thy Flame!
Seal us within the Great Heart of the Sun,
Our Presence, the "Mighty I AM":
Seal us and hold us within the Great Sun—
Ascended into our "I AM."

(Copyright by Saint Germain Press, 1939)

Sanat Kumara, from Great Cosmic Heights,
"Mighty I AM"! Thou didst come!
Cloth'd in White Fire, the Blest Unfed Flame,
To seek and enfold everyone!
In Thy True Glory and Power untold,
Dwell we at last now all FREE;
Charge us with Thy Mighty Flame of Pure Love
And blaze forth Thy Great Victory!
Charge us with Thy Mighty Flame of Pure Love
And blaze forth Thy Great Victory!

CHANERA.

BELOVED META

(Melody: ALL GLORY, LAUD AND HONOR—Episcopal Hymnal) Key of C

All Glory, Love and Honor
To Thee, Oh Meta Dear,
Let all the earth behold Thee,
Mankind Thy Sweet Voice hear.
Thou art of Love and Light and Joy
The very Self Supreme;
Thou art the "Unfed Flame" of Life,
The Glorious Great "I AM."

In Vict'ry, Joy and Power,
In Blazing Light come through!
Reveal Thy Great Dominion,
Show all Thy Presence True!
Send forth Thy Healing Rays of Love,
Thy Glorious "Unfed Flame,"
Release Thy Mighty Pow'r of Peace
The Blessed Great "I AM"!

Thy Garment of Perfection
From Thy Great Heart of Light,
Enfolds the "I AM" Children
And clothes Them with Thy Might.
In Splendor all transcendent,
Blaze forth, Thou Mighty One!
Oh, Presence of the Great "I AM,"
Thou Beauteous Glorious Sun!

CHANERA.

THE SILENT WATCHER

(Melody—Original: published by Saint Germain Press)

Oh Silent Watcher of Infinity!
Great Brooding Presence,
All dwell within Thee;
Boundless Thy Love
In earth, and sky and sea;
Oh Silent Watcher,
Thy Great God-Self, we see.

Oh Silent Watcher,
Great God from the Sun!
I feel Thy Love
For Thou and I are One.
Shed forth Thy Light,
Let all Thy Love now be;
Oh Silent Watcher
Through all Eternity.

Oh Silent Watcher,
Blessed Self of me!
Oh Love Divine,
Thy Light is all I see;
Thou Great God Presence,
Evermore just Thee;
Oh Silent Watcher,
Oh Love, now speak to me.

(Copyright by Saint Germain Press, 1939)

Oh Silent Watcher,
Lord of Love Supreme,
From Thy Great Heart
In one Unending Stream,
Thy Great Light flows
From Thee; Great Sun above;
Oh Silent Watcher,
Thou art the Self of Love.

CHANERA.

GREAT CYCLOPEA

(Melody: PRAISE YE THE FATHER—by Gounod)
Key of F

Great Cyclopea of Cosmic Power and Majesty!
God of Creation, Thou Lord of all Infinity!
God of the Silence, All Light and Love's Supremacy!
We all adore Thee within our hearts eternally.

Lord of the Light, of God's All-Seeing-Eye!
Thy Presence Bright raises all
And lifts them unto Thee on High:
Send forth to earth
Thy Great Legions of Light Almighty!
Let Them rule evermore in Triumph NOW
All call Thee, Great Cyclopea!

Come! Come! in Thy Glory,
All Great Hosts of Light and Power!
Flood forth Thy Love's Lightning
And set mankind forever free!
Great Gods, Who o'er mountains reign,
Glorious Presence of the "Great I AM"!
Cyclopea, Lord of Love's Great Light and Flame,
All Victorious NOW!

CHANERA.

BELOVED LETO

(Melody: JUANITA) Key of E♭

Leto, Blest Leto, Thou whose Heart is made of Light!
Leto, Blest Leto, radiant, pure and bright!
Come to us in Splendor,
Teach us earth's veil to step through;
Open now the True Way,
Let us come to You!

Leto, Dear Lady Leto!
Glorious, True and Holy One,
Leto, Dear Blessed Leto!
Thou art a Dazzling Sun!

Wield now Thy Scepter! command us to come all free
Into our Presence and commune with Thee!
Through Thy Light our Victory
Is forevermore made sure,
Through the "I AM Presence,"
Are all things made Pure.

Leto, Dear Lady Leto!
God's own Messenger of Light,
Leto, Dear Blessed Leto!
Call we to Thy Height.

CHANERA.

ARCTURUS! WE GREET THEE!

(Melody: COLUMBIA, THE GEM OF THE OCEAN)
Key of A♭

Great Arcturus! America greets Thee!
And sends her Eternal Love so free.
Thou Great Elohim of Creation,
Thou art a Guardian of our Liberty!
We raise high now in silent salutation
Our Bright Symbol of Gold and Pink and Blue—
Charge it now with Thy Infinite Protection
From Thy Octave blaze Thy Light through and through!
We, the Children of Light all stand TRUE!
For we raise our hands high unto You
And with joy say in humble salutation;
"Oh, America! we love you, we DO"!

Oh, accept now Thou Blessed Arcturus,
Our hearts' deepest gratitude and praise;
Because of the stand Thou hast taken,
Our Blessed Flag of Freedom now we raise;
We rejoice at the Great Command Thou issued,
That the Great Light as of a Thousand Suns,
Shall flood forth in Its Glorious Perfection,
For America! YOUR VICT'RY IS WON!
Oh, the Vict'ry of Light Now has come!

(Copyright by Saint Germain Press, 1939)

And the New Golden Age has begun;
So together, we say in adoration:
The Americas in FREEDOM ARE ONE!

BELOVED MESSENGERS OF LIGHT—THE BALLARDS

(Melody: JINGLE BELLS) Key of G

Our hearts with love o'erflow
And blessings from above
Are crowding in on every hand
And drenching us with Love.
A song of happiness
We sing in sweet refrain
Our "Mighty Presence" answered us
And sent you back again!

CHORUS

Daddy dear, we love you
Blessed Mama too,
Don and Margy and the Staff
With a Love that's true.
We do call earnestly
Morning, night and noon—
Saint Germain—PLEASE SEND THEM BACK
To bless us VERY SOON!

To precious Saint Germain
For all that He has done,
We offer all we are and have
Till His Great Vict'ry's won.
In humble gratitude
We thank Him now for you,
Our Precious Messengers of Light
Who prove WHAT WE CAN DO!

(Copyright by Saint Germain Press, 1939)

CHORUS

We love you, we love you,
Blessed Ballards dear!
*Philadelphia holds you close
In hearts of joy and cheer.
Filled with Light's happiness
So we shall remain,
Till our Precious Saint Germain
SENDS YOU BACK AGAIN!

*Insert name of any city here.

MIGHTY ELOHIM

(Melody: MELODY IN F by Rubinstein) Key of F or G

Elohim Mighty!
We greet Thee in song,
Guardians of earth's
Own children so long!
Loose Thy Great Light Rays
And lift all on high,
Almighty Elohim!

Elohim Mighty!
Expand now Thy Light,
Clothe all earth's children
In Love's own Might,
Let Thy Pure Substance
Release now to all,
Hear Thou the "I AM" call!

Wield now Love's Scepter
In Thy Great Cosmic Glory;
Reveal to earth Thy True Self
In song and story
Praise Thee, Elohim!
Oh Praise Thee "Great I AM."
Praise Thee Elohim—Elohim—Elohim!

All in their hearts
Ever feel Thy Great Love
Enfolding each one

(Copyright by Saint Germain Press, 1939)

Now from above;
Set all who love Thee
Eternally free,
Great Blessed Elohim!

CHANERA.

ECSTASY

(Melody—Original: published by Saint Germain Press)

I pledge the Unfed Flame a vow,
Its Glory all-commanding now;
I face my Source above and see
My Presence smiling down at me.

I feel Its Great Enfolding Love
Pouring o'er me from above;
I gaze into Its Glorious Eyes,
I hear It say: "Arise! Arise!"

I see Its Blazing Heart of Light
Its Beauteous Garments dazzling bright;
I ask Its Help and do implore,
I hear It say: "Adore! Adore!"

I watch Its Light become a Sun
Whose Rays pour out to everyone;
I now behold These seem to blend,
I hear It say: "Ascend! Ascend!"

I must obey Its Mighty Call
Surrendering now myself—my all;
I do attain my Victory,
I hear It say: "All free! All free!"

Its Arms reach out and raise me high,
Its Light illumines all the sky!

(Copyright by Saint Germain Press, 1939)

I hear It say: "My Self now BE!
For 'I AM' thee and Thou are ME!"

CHANERA.

THE ASCENSION

(Melody: ALOHA OE) Key of A

I feel my God Flame touch my brow,
The Breath of Love—eternal now,
I raise my eyes and Lo! I see,
My own Great God Self over me.
A Dazzling Cloud envelops all,
I hear my Real God Presence call!
I feel a surge of Love's Great Might,
I enter deep Its Breath—Its Light.

I see within this Pulsing Flame,
I listen and hear my Secret Name!
I feel the Glow—the Great Flame Breath,
"I AM" the Victor over death!
I stand forth free—ASCENDED NOW!
To my Heart's Light all things do bow:
"I AM" a Being of Cause alone
And that Cause Love—the Sacred Tone!

I pour out Life—I lift, I raise,
My Heart o'erflows and sings Its praise;
My Power strengthens and inspires,
My Great Light Rays are God's Own Fires.
"I AM" a Sun! My Love Its Light!
All else grows dim—earth lost to sight:
I know that "I AM" GOD—the ONE!
The Source! the Great, Great Central Sun!

GREAT LOVE STAR

(Melody: ON THE WINGS OF SONG by Mendelssohn)
Use Piano Arrang.—Carl Fischer Edition Key of A♭

Great Star of Love and Power,
Great Star of Love and Light!
Pouring Thy Radiance each hour,
Revealing Thine own Heart Bright.
Thy Gifts ever flowing to serve us,
Thyself a Glad Gift—all so free
Redeems mankind in joy and peace;
Thyself, let all now BE!
Flash forth in Thy Full Splendor,
Let earth Thy Full Love see!

Great Star from Heights transcendent,
Great Star of Hope! now rend
All that would bind us in earth's sphere
Oh, help us to ascend!
Blaze forth Thy Flame White and Golden,
Clothe all in Thy Substance of Light,
Make us now hear Thy joyous Song,
Point all unto Thy Height!
Come forth! reveal Thy Secret!
The "Mighty I AM" Light!

Great Star of Cosmic Essence,
Great Star of Vict'ry Supreme!
Thy Rays earth now enfolding
And ent'ring Thy Life's Stream!

(Copyright by Saint Germain Press, 1939)

"Mighty I AM" Presence!
Great Love Star!
Just Thee!

CHANERA.

RAISE US!

(Melody: HOLY, HOLY, HOLY) Key of E♭

Raise us, raise us, raise us
Great "I AM" to Thee!
Raise us, raise us, raise us
And set us ever Free!
Raise us, raise us, raise us
Love and Light Divine!
Raise us, Oh raise us,
We are ever Thine!

Guard us, guard us, guard us,
By Thyself above!
Guard us, guard us, guard us
Through Lightning of Thy Love!
Guard us, guard us, guard us,
Secret Heart of Light!
Guard us, Oh guard us,
By Thy Glorious Might!

Charge us, charge us, charge us
With Thy Strength and Pow'r!
Charge us, charge us, charge us,
With Thyself ev'ry hour!
Charge us, charge us, charge us,
Let Thy Presence prove!
Now we are charged by Thee
Wher'er we move!

CHANERA.

ABIDE IN ME

(Melody: ABIDE WITH ME) Key of F

Abide in me,
Oh, Blazing Great "I AM"—
Pour through me now,
Thy Glorious pure God-Flame!
Draw all to Thee
Into Thy Heart of Light,
Drench us with Thy Great Love,
Raise us tonight!

Flood forth through all
Thy Heart's own Golden Light!
Illumine earth
And make it dazzling White!
Perfect and free
And blest forevermore;
We make this call
And Thy Great Help implore!

Dwell Thou in me,
Oh, Dazzling Great "I AM"!
Expand Thy Light—
Send forth Thy Great Love Flame!
Project to all
Thy Mighty Conquering Power,
Move forth in Victory
Supreme this hour!

CHANERA.

"I AM" THE PRESENCE

(Melody—Original: published by Saint Germain Press and LaGOLONDRINA)—Key of D

"I AM" the Presence—the Great Eternal One,
"I AM" the Presence—from the Great, Great Central Sun!
"I AM" the Presence—Secret Heart of Light,
"I AM" the Presence' Love Flame blazing bright!

CHORUS

"I AM" all Light, all Light am I,
"I AM" in earth and sea and sky!
"I AM" the Light of God raised High,
"I AM" all Light, all Light and Joy, am I!

Beloved Great God-self, come blaze Thou through me!
That all on earth express full Mastery!
Pour through me now Thy Loving Flame Supreme,
In Victory, Thou Mighty "I AM"!

CHORUS

CHANERA.

OH, PRESENCE OF THE DIAMOND HEART

(Melody: DRINK TO ME ONLY WITH THINE EYES)
Key of E♭—F

Oh, Presence of the Diamond Heart!
In Victory now I come,
Bearing the "Cup of Liquid Light"
All earth-born battles won.
I raise my Sword and now step through;
Within the Flame to You,
And You, the Heart of Light in all
Reveal the great, the small.

Oh, Presence of the Diamond Heart!
All Ecstasy Supreme.
Thy Joy is now encompassing
My own Life's Radiant Stream;
Is ever pouring out Its Light,
Is All Perfection too,
"I AM" Thy Presence, Lord of Life
Oh, Great Love-Flame, just You!

Oh, Presence of the Diamond Heart!
My Source of Love and Pow'r.
Clothed in Thy Dazzling Armor bright,
I move each blessed hour.
On Wings of Joy, I come to all
In Vict'ry's Pledge to man;
Blaze forth Thy Triumph, Oh Great One,
Most Glorious Blest "I AM"!

CHANERA.

(Copyright by Saint Germain Press, 1939)

HOLY "I AM"

(Melody: HOLY NIGHT) Key of C

Great "I AM"—Pure God Flame,
Source of all, Great Thy Call,
Coming now into the earth,
Raising all into Light's Birth—
Blaze! Thou "Great I AM,"
Conquer all now by Thy Flame!

"Mighty I AM," Glorious "I AM"!
Loose Thy Power, every hour!
All consuming by Love's Holy Light,
Make the earth pure, dazzling and bright,
Cosmic Hour of Love!
Raise all to Thyself above!

Cosmic Light! blaze forth bright!
Through each day, light the way,
For mankind in Love Supreme;
Blaze! Oh Blaze! Thou "Great I AM"!
Come! Oh, Unfed Flame!
Heart of the "Mighty I AM"!

CHANERA.

THE HAND OF MY PRESENCE

(Melody—Original: published by Saint Germain Press)

The Hand of My Presence is held now in mine,
The Hand of My Presence makes all things Divine,
The Hand of My Presence points all now on high,
The Hand of My Presence holds all—you and I.

CHORUS

The Hand of My Presence fills me with Its Great Light,
The Hand of My Presence makes me dazzling bright,
The Hand of My Presence projects forth Its Flame,
The Ha-nd of My Presence writes now Thy Great NAME!

The Hand of My Presence heals all man's distress,
The Hand of My Presence gives all—nothing less!
The Hand of My Presence wields Power and Love,
The Hand of My Presence holds mine from above.

CHORUS

The Hand of My Presence makes music and sweet song,
The Hand of My Presence holds mine all day long,
The Hand of My Presence fills my heart with Peace,
The Ha-nd of My Presence makes all discord cease.

2nd CHORUS

The Hand of My Presence gives me all Its Power,
The Hand of My Presence does all every hour,
The Hand of My Presence sends forth Its Great Rays,
The Ha-nd of My Presence holds my hand always.

CONTEMPLATION

(Melody: THE CHURCH'S ONE FOUNDATION)
Episcopal Hymnal—Key of E♭

My "Mighty I AM Presence" all blazing up above,
Forevermore enfolds me in Its Transcendent Love:
Its Arms reach out and hold me within Its Heart so bright,
"I AM" Its Own Great Power! "I AM" Its Blessed Light!

"I AM" Its Great Perfection now pouring out to all!
"I AM" Its Mighty Glory now answering every call!
Within Itself so dazzling, forever I abide,
Again with earth's blest children, I walk now side by side.

I come in all Love's Power to set Light's Children free!
I come at last commissioned—"I AM" Envoy from Thee!
In Vic-tor-y and Triumph, I wield my Scepter bright,
"I AM" the ONLY PRESENCE! "I AM" the COSMIC LIGHT!

(Copyright by Saint Germain Press, 1939)

I come to bring Love's Blessing, in Crystal Armor White!
A Sword of Flame before me moves with Resistless Might!
And Legions without number sweep in THEIR VICTORY!
The COSMIC LIGHT all blazing sets earth forever free.

COME THOU ALMIGHTY KING

Key of G

Come, Thou Almighty King!
Help us Thy Name to sing,
Help us to praise!
Thy Self all glorious,
O'er all victorious,
Come and reign over us,
Ancient of Days!

Come, Thou Incarnate Word!
Gird on Thy Mighty Sword,
Our call attend!
Come, and Thy People bless;
Come, give Thy Word success;
'Stablish Thy righteousness,
"Mighty I AM"!

Come, Holy Comforter!
Thy Sacred Witness bear,
In this glad hour!
Thou, Who Almighty art,
Now rule in every heart
And ne'er from us depart,
Almighty Power!

To Thee, Great One in Three!
Our highest praises be,
Hence evermore;

ONWARD, CHILDREN OF THE LIGHT

(Melody: ONWARD CHRISTIAN SOLDIERS) Key of E♭

Onward, Children of the Light!
March in glad array,
Evermore Victorious
Love's Eternal Way!
Carry forth Light's Victory
By Thy Heart's own Love
Sweep all now before Thee,
The "I AM Presence" prove!
Onward, Children of the Light!
March in glad array,
Always God-Victorious
Love's Eternal Way!

Onward, Children of the Light!
Love forevermore,
Thine own "I AM Presence,"
God's Great Open Door.
Come now through into Its Light
And the Unfed Flame;
Worship at Its Altar
The Blessed "Great I AM."
Onward, Children of the Light!
Love forevermore,
You are now the Presence,
God's Great Open Door!

THE COSMIC LIGHT

(Melody: LONDONDERRY AIR) Key of D

Great Cosmic Light from out the Dazzling Central Sun, Releasing now Thy Substance to the earth,
Transmuting all by Thy Majestic Radiant Pow'r
And raising all into the new rebirth.
Oh, blaze Thou forth in Thy Celestial Glory!
Reveal to all Light's Children once again
The Power of "Light" and tell the wondrous story
Of all creation and God's Mighty Cosmic Plan.

Oh, Cosmic Light place now on earth's great Altar,
The Unfed Flame and hold us in Its Heart—
Oh, let our footsteps henceforth never falter
And from Thy Mighty Radiance never part.
Great Quenchless Light! drench earth and all her children
Oh, give us vision brighter to aspire
Set mankind Free! Ascended in Light's Glory!
Within Thy Holy Pulsing All-creative Fire!

LIGHT'S TRIUMPH

(Melody: THE SOLDIER'S CHORUS from "FAUST")
Key of G

Love and the Victory of Light has come!
Triumph and Freedom at last are won!
Joy from the Great Great Central Sun
Now floods forth to all,
And answers our call
Most Holy One!

Children of the Light, send forth your call!
Set the whole earth free—by your Love to all!
Blaze forth all of Thy Might, Thou "Great I AM"!
All earth serves the Light, by Thy Great Command!
By Thy Great Command.

Great is our Glory and Power of Right,
Strong is our courage to reach the Height,
Brave are the Children of Love and Light,
Come forth in Thy Flame! Oh "Mighty I AM."

Great Ascended Host! come quickly through
In Thy Great Love, and Light and Splendor;
Oh, "Mighty I AM," from Thy Great Heart send forth
Thy Word that now heals all.

(Copyright by Saint Germain Press, 1939)

Great Legions of Light! forevermore burst all
Of earth's dark chains asunder!
Angelic Host, come quickly come, and take command!
Come Cherubim and Seraphim in Vict'ry's Might!
Blaze forth Thy Power and evermore rule us
Through Thy Great Cosmic Messengers
Of Life and Light on high!
"Mighty I AM"! Thou Source of man!
Great Unfed Flame—Blest Elohim!

Glory and praise to our Source on High!
Great One of God's All-Seeing-Eye,
Lord of the earth and sea and sky!
Victorious NOW—to Thee! all men bow.
Oh, "Mighty I AM"—Life's Eternal Flame
Thou God-Self of me!
Thy Great Crystal Ray illumines my Way!
And "I AM" ALL FREE—Oh GREAT GREAT "I AM."

MARCH ON!

(Melody: MARCH FROM "AIDA") Key of G
(Brown Song Book—C. Birchard Co.)

March On! Liberty's host, march on!
Bearing the Sword of Light.
Thou hast prevailed o'er the foe
With its hordes of night.
March On! conquering fear and hate,
Bringing Love's decree;
Praise be to God!
For the earth and its children are free!
Hark to the trumpet call!
Sounding for Freemen all!
Singing the Jubilee
Of earth made Free!

March On! conquering fear and hate,
Bringing Love's decree:
Praise be to God!
For the earth and its children are free!
March On! thine avenging lance
By the Right was blest,
Thou hast fought for the Heights
Till ye stand on the crest:
March On! where Thy Banners lead,
Banners of Victory;
Praise be to God!
For the earth and its children are Free!

AMERICA IS FREE

(Melody: BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC)
Key of B♭

Our eyes have seen the Glory
Of the Risen Hosts of Light,
Who blaze throughout America
Their Rays to scatter night;
And this They have accomplished
By the Power of Their Might,
AMERICA IS FREE!

CHORUS

Praise the "Mighty I AM Presence,"
Praise the "Mighty I AM Presence,"
Praise the "Mighty I AM Presence,"
AMERICA IS FREE!

The Messengers of Saint Germain
Have brought to us the Word,
That our Beloved Country
Is the Jewel of the Lord;
With gratitude and loyalty
Our hearts are deeply stirred—
AMERICA IS FREE!

CHORUS

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

Key of B♭

Oh say! can you see, by the dawn's early Light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming!
And the rocket's white glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that Our Flag was still there.

Oh! say, does that Star-spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the Land of the Free and the home of the brave?

On that shore dimly seen through the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?

(Copyright by Saint Germain Press, 1939)

Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected now shines on the stream;
'Tis the Star-spangled Banner; Oh, long may it wave
O'er the Land of the Free and the home of the brave!

Oh, thus be it ever, when freemen shall stand
Between their loved homes and the war's desolation!
Blest with Victory and Peace, may the heaven-rescued land
Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation!
Then conquer we must! for our cause it is just,
And this is our motto—"In God we do trust":
And the Star-spangled Banner in triumph does wave
O'er the Land of the Free and the home of the brave!

AMERICA

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of Liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrim's pride;
From every mountain side,
Let Freedom ring.

My native country, thee—
Land of the noble free—
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills,
Like that above.

Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet Freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake,
Let all that breathe partake,
Let rocks their silence break—
The sound prolong.

Our fathers' God to Thee,
Author of Liberty,
To Thee we sing:

Long may our land be bright

Ascended Hosts of Light!
Shine on our loved America,
And hold her in Thy Might.
Shine on our loved America,
And hold her in Thy Might.

Pour over her Thy Golden Flame,
Encircle her in white;
Protect and bless her in Thy Name;
And hold her in Thy Light.
Protect and bless her in Thy Name,
And hold her in Thy Light.

America, the Shining One,
The Jewel burning bright;
Oh, hold her Flaming Sceptre high,
A Crown of Living Light,
Oh, hold her Flaming Sceptre high,
A Crown of Living Light.

America Invincible,
Triumphant in the Right;
Oh lead her on to Victory,
And crown her Land of Light.
Oh lead her on to Victory,
And crown her Land of Light.

MY PROMISE

"Lo 'I AM' with you always,"
Is My Promise true;
The Way I have opened,
I point It to you!
My Help "I AM" pouring,
Do now your own part;
Oh, call unto your Presence,
Feel It now in your heart!

"Lo 'I AM' with you always,"
Those Words long ago,
Rang out o'er the ethers
To let mankind know
My Love and My Vict'ry
That each must attain;
For Cosmic Light in Its Splendor
Shall now rule earth's domain.

"Lo 'I AM' with you always,"
Because We are One;
God Beings of Life's Flame
Come forth from the Sun.
Then will you believe Me
When I call to you?
"I AM" Light's Full Perfection
Be ye all Perfect too!

Arise! Be Victor'ous!
It is your birthright:
You too are a Being
From out God's own Heart;
"I AM" Life's Mighty Power—
And we never can part.

"Lo 'I AM' with you always,"
In all that you do,
When it is constructive
You are Myself too;
To feel now My Nearness,
My Presence so bright,
Enfold you each hour
In My Great Cosmic Might.

"Lo 'I AM' with you always,"
I now make the Call—
Come! Great Cosmic Powers
Give Help that frees all!

New date set for I Am trial

The justice department in Washington has not yet decided whether to have another go at trying Mrs. Edna W. Ballard, her son Donald and four other leaders of the I Am religious movement on mail fraud charges.

That was the statement of Asst. United States Atty. Ralph Lazarus to Federal Judge Paul J. McCormick yesterday in asking for a continuance of the trial until July 7.

Lazarus said the attorney general's office is balking at the prospective expense of another trial unless further evidence is developed.

'I Am' Trial Opens Today

Special Guards Assigned to Handle Crowds in Ballard Mail Fraud Case

Deputy marshals and special guards yesterday were aesigned to the court of Federal Judge Leon R. Yankwich to handle the crowd of followers and curiosity seekers expected to attend the opening this morning of the trial of Mrs. Edna Ballard, her son Donald and eight others of the "inner circle" of the I Am movement.

The case attracted capacity crowds at the preliminary hearings.

LIST 19 COUNTS

The Ballards and their co-defendants are accused of 19 counts of mail fraud in connection with the organization and operation of the nation-wide movement.

Charles H. Carr, chief defense counsel, will be aided in the defense by Judge James R. Armstrong, former Oklahoma jurist, W. I. Gilbert Jr. and Ames Peterson.

The case will be prosecuted by James E. Ruffin, special assistant to the Attorney General, and Norman Neukom and Ralph Lazarus, Assistant United States Attorneys.

OTHER DEFENDANTS

The defendants in addition to the Ballards are Charles Sindelar, artist; Mrs. Pearl Sindelar, group leader; Frank Von Derhoya, assistant; Paul Stickell, "messenger;" Louise Majerus and William J. Cassiere of Chicago, and Grant L. Lewis, assistant to Mrs. Ballard.

The government charges that the defendants used mails to defraud persons from all parts of the country through false representations that Mrs. Ballard, her son Donald and her late husband, Guy W. Ballard, had attained a supernatural state of self-immortality and had been selected by St. Germain as the medium for the transmission to mortals of the words of the ascended masters.

MONEY COLLECTED

As a result of these asserted fraudulent representations, the government maintains, they collected large sums of money.

Attorney Carr, however, contends that all contributions in the furtherance of the I Am movement were voluntary.

Today will probably be entirely consumed by the selection of a jury to hear the case which is expected to last two months.

Judge Delays Action in 'I Am' Retrial

As forecast Sunday, the United States Attorney General has not yet decided whether to retry Mrs. Edna Ballard, "I Am" leader, her son Donald and four "messengers" on charges of using the mails to defraud in connection with the promulgation of the organization's teachings.

When the case was called for resetting yesterday, Federal Judge Paul J. McCormick was informed that the government wished more time to study the case's many ramifications.

As a result, Judge McCormick continued the case until April 21 at which time Asst. U. S. Atty. Ralph Lazarus said he expects a decision will have been reached.

Continuance to be asked today in new I Am trial

The leading presence of the nationwide I Am movement, Mrs. Edna W. Ballard, is scheduled to materialize in court today to hear Federal Judge Paul J. McCormick set trial for the mail fraud case against them.

Mrs. Ballard is named defendant along with other I Am leaders.

But because United States Atty. Gen. Robert H. Jackson has not yet reached a decision to retry the case, defense attorneys said they would ask a six weeks continuance.

The jury which recently tried the case disagreed, and the transcript of testimony was sent to Washington, D. C., for a final decision whether or not it should be retired.

It was the first major prosecution of a semireligious group in the United States.

Ballard Group Free to Leave

'I Am' Defendants on Whom Jury Disagreed Get Court Permission

Mrs. Edna Ballard, leader of the nation-wide "I Am" activity, now is free to go anywhere she chooses just so long as she returns when, if ever, her retrial on mail fraud charges is set.

This was made possible yesterday when Federal Judge Paul J. McCormick granted the request of Charles H. Carr, attorney for Mrs. Ballard, permitting the "I Am" leader to leave this jurisdiction.

OTHER DEFENDANTS

Permission also was given for other defendants on whom the jury was unable to reach a verdict in the recent trial to leave Southern California. These other defendants, Paul Stickell, William J. Cassiere, Betty Mundy, Louise Majerus and Donald Ballard, son of Mrs. Ballard, now are formulating plans to carry on the work of the "Mighty I Am Presence."

It was disclosed that Stickell, a Chicago lawyer, left for the Middle West to carry "the light" and that Cassiere is en route through the South on a similar mission.

SURETY CONSENT

Judge McCormick granted Attorney Carr's petition after the Western Surety Co. filed a consent to the request with the court.

It was disclosed also that tomorrow Attorney Carr will appear and attempt to have returned to Mrs. Ballard a number of exhibits used during the trial by the government, particularly the letters written to her by her late husband, Guy W. Ballard, at the time he was at Mt. Shasta.

The question of whether the government intends to retry Mrs. Ballard and the five others on whom the jury failed to reach an agreement still is to be answered.

TO ATTORNEY GENERAL

Local Federal officials admitted they placed before the Attorney General the full record of the proceedings during the seven-week trial.

Originally the government indicted 24 persons connected with the "I Am" activity charging them with using the mails in a scheme to defraud. A number of defendants later were dismissed on motion of the government. One was eliminated by Judge Leon R. Yankwich, who presided at the trial, and the jury acquitted three. There were no convictions.

'I Am' Jurors Acquit Three, Split on Six

Government Undecided Whether to Give New Trial to Mrs. Ballard

After deliberating nearly four days, a jury in Federal Judge Leon R. Yankwich's court yesterday disagreed as to the guilt or innocence of Mrs. Edna Ballard, her son, Donald, and four others of the "inner circle" and acquitted the three remaining defendants, all of whom have been charged with mail fraud arising from their participating in the "I Am" activity.

Those acquitted are Charles Sindelar, painter, his wife, Pearl Sindelar, and Frank Von Derhoya, a member of the staff. In addition to Mrs. Ballard and her son, Donald, the jury was unable to reach an agreement as to Betty Mundy, Louise Majerus, William J. Cassiere and Paul Stickell.

UNDECIDED ON RETRIAL

"We have not decided," said U.S. Atty. William Fleet Palmer, "whether to retry Mrs. Ballard and the other defendants on whom the jury disagreed."

"We shall go on serving in the Light," said Mrs. Ballard. "Almost without exception those who have brought greater good to mankind have been first crucified and then sainted."

The verdict was received by Judge Yankwich in a courtroom crowded with followers of the movement after the jurors reported they considered it hopeless to deliberate longer.

The trial began last Dec. 3 and was placed in the jury's hands late last Thursday afternoon.

TWO SAVED MRS. BALLARD

Only two men stood between Mrs. Ballard and a possible maximum prison sentence of 87 years, it was disclosed by L. R. Henderson, foreman of the jury.

In discussing the case following the recording of the verdicts, Foreman Henderson disclosed that the jury from the first had stood 10 to 2 for finding Mrs. Ballard guilty. He also disclosed that the jury stood 9 to 3 for convicting Donald Ballard, 8 to 4 for convicting both Cassiere and Stickell, 7 to 5 for convicting Miss Majerus and were evenly divided as to Mrs. Mundy.

TELLS OF ACQUITTALS

Foreman Henderson also stated that Von Derhoya was acquitted on the first ballot and that the Sindelars were acquitterd toward the end of the deliberations when, after discussion, the opinions of the jurors coincided in favor of their innocence.

Although the jury was out approximately 90 hours, Henderson revealed that only six ballots were taken, the rest of the time being consumed in discussing the facts as developed by the evidence in the case.

Attorneys participating in the trial appeared both happy and crestfallen as to its result. Chief Defense Attorney Charles H. Carr stated that in view of the highly controversial nature of the case, involving as it did the religious issues, he felt that while all defendants should have been acquitted it was perhaps the only ending that could obtain.

On the other side of the counsel table, the government lawyers felt that in view of the way the jury stood on the question of guilt or innocence, they could claim at least a moral victory.

Judge Yankwich specifically thanked all those participating in the case, jury and attorneys alike, for their strict attention and fairness throughout the trial. The judge stated that the philosophy of life or faith is an imponderable thing which could not be measured by an ordinary scale.

CONGRATULATE LEADER

Upon the rendering of the verdict, Judge Yankwich ordered the Sindelars and Von Derhoya discharged and instructed the clerk to return the case of Mrs. Ballard and the others to the senior judge for resetting, probably next Feb. 3.

As the judge left the bench, a number of close friends and followers of Mrs. Ballard closed about her offering congratulations as they did to the other defendants. Members of the jury mingled in the throng, shaking hands with defendants and attorneys and it was agreed by all that they were "glad it was over."

There was no demonstration by the 200 in the audience, most of whom are followers of Mrs. Ballard and most of whom have been in constant attendance throughout the trial, including the numerous night sessions.

Upon returning to her hotel, Mrs. Ballard issued the following statement:

"We thank the Mighty I Am Presence, the Ascended Masters and beloved student body and our attorneys for their true, loyal defense of this Light in this I Am activity.

"We thank Judge Yankwich, the jury and those who did the best they knew how considering that they did not have all the information concerning what our beloved St. Germain did for Mr. Ballard and through him.

TRIBUTE TO MATE

"The Ascended Masters have almighty divine power and Mr. Ballard was pure enough and had earned the right to experience many of the things done by the Ascended Masters which seem so impossible to the average human being. The Ascended Masters are real and true and perfect and our beloved Mr. Ballard is now one of them.

"Almost without exception those who have brought greater good to mankind have been first crucified and then sainted. That is due to mankind's lack of understanding of the great law of life and their fear of what they do not understand.

"All of this trial who have tried to serve divine justice have done the best they could with the information they have. We have not destroyed either the law of God or man in putting forth these books to the public because they are all true and always will be.

DENIES ANY FRAUDS

"Because unfortunate human beings do not know all the facts does not change their truth.

"We have not defrauded anybody of anything at any time and never shall. We still call for every power of Light and Perfection from the Mighty 'I Am' Presence and the Ascended Masters to illumine and bless all who have heard of this activity and to show them its truth so unmistakably that it will enable them to be free from all the cause of their distress."

The defendants, who would have faced a maximum prison sentence of 87 years and a fine of $27,000 each, had they been convicted, were left out of a total of 24 originally indicted.

The government on its own motion dismissed 14 of those accused and one, Grant Lewis, handyman for Mrs. Ballard, was eliminated from the case by Judge Yankwich.

GOVERNMENT'S CASE

The trial started last Dec. 3 and the government attorneys in their opening statements to the jury, asserted that the following were among the things the government would seek to prove were misrepresented:

That the late Guy W. Ballard, founder of the "I Am" activity, had falsely represented that he had attained a supernatural state of self-immortality through which he was enabled to conquer disease, death, old age and poverty.

That Ballard had been selected by St. Germain, the ascended master, as a divine messenger and that later Mrs. Ballard and Donald were also similarly designated.

That by reason of the "I Am" teachings the United States was saved from destruction, and that the world was approaching a cataclysm and that the public should therefore turn their funds over to the defendants as "love gifts."

During the trial the government produced witnesses from many parts of the country, some of whom had formerly been closely connected with the movement and all of whom testified that they had subsequently become disillusioned.

TOLD OF BENEFITS

The defense likewise produced many witnesses from the East, Middle West and the South who declared that to them the activity had become the greatest thing in their lives and that they had received untold benefits, spiritually, physically and mentally.

The judge at the outset of the trial declared that the jury was not impaneled to try the verity of anyone's religion and cited the Bill of Rights which guarantees the right of all to worship God in their own way. Despite this effort on the part of the judge to keep the religious angle in the background, by the very nature of the case this proved unavailing.

Time and again both sides were told by the court that the jury was "here to determine whether or not the defendants had devised a scheme to defraud and use the mails in furtherance thereof."

During the trial the court struck from the record all testimony and reference pertaining to sex continency, supernatural happenings, all reference to the efficacy of color and its relation toward healing and other matters which the judge decided were erroneously in the record

STATES BELIEFS

From the witness stand Mrs. Ballard testified that she had always been a close student of theosophy and had a sincere belief in the teachings in her mighty "I Am" presence and its power to aid mankind.

She declared that she had never asked a penny from anyone and that most of the money derived from the sale of the "I Am" books and that received as love gifts was used in carrying on the work.

Her will, disposing of her entire estate to the St. Germain Foundation, a nonprofit corporation organized so that the activity might be perpetuated, was introduced in evidence.

In this last testament, Donald, however, was given a life interest in the estate, but not to exceed $500 a month.

The rest of the defendants also testified in their own behalf, all avowing their good faith and sincerity and belief in the activity.

Jury Acquits Three Leaders of 'I Am' Cult

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 20 (U.P.). A Federal Court jury today acquitted three "I Am" leaders of using the mails to defraud their followers of an estimated $3,000,000 but were unable to agree on a verdict in the case of Mrs. Edna Ballard, leader of the sect, and five other defendants.

Deadlock Seen in 'I Am' Trial

Both Sides Confident as Jury Studies Mail Fraud Case Evidence

To all outward appearances, the jury deliberating the case of Mrs. Edna Ballard, her son Donald and seven others charged with using the mails to defraud the public through the operation of the "I Am" movement, is hopelessly deadlocked.

The jury retired at 6:30 p.m. Thursday and debated the questions until 11:30 Thursday night, when it was locked up.

JURY SILENT

The jury was taken from a downtown hotel to the Federal Building yesterday morning and from that time on gave no word of progress. Not once during the day did the jury ask for any of the 200 exhibits nor for advice from Federal Judge Leon R. Yankwich.

At 11 p.m. the jurors were locked up for the night. Deliberations will be resumed at 10 a.m. today.

Defense Attorneys Charles Carr, W. I. Gilbert and Ames Peterson said that they were confident that as soon as the jury is able to eliminate the various injected religious issues from the case a verdict of acquittal would be returned.

COURTROOM FILLED

Equally confident were the government lawyers, Asst. U.S. Attys. Norman Neukom and Ralph Lazarus.

Meanwhile Mrs. Ballard and the other defendants sat smiling in the courtroom, which was filled with 200 of their more intense followers.

Judge Yankwich indicated that the jury will be given every opportunity, including "plenty of time," to reach a verdict in the case, which was one of the most highly controversial cases ever tried in this district.

Acquittal Refused, 'I Am' Case Goes to Jury Today

Fate of Nine in Balance

Judge Says Question of Defendants' Good Faith Must Be Determined

A jury of 12 men late today is expected to begin deliberations on the guilt or innocence of Mrs. Edna Ballard, her son Donald and seven others of the Inner Circle of the "I Am" activity, charged with mail fraud.

Final arguments to the jury began yesterday afternoon and Federal Judge Leon R. Yankwich stated he will charge the jury in sufficient time today to permit it to begin deliberations at a reasonable hour.

THOSE ACCUSED

Accused with the Ballards of 17 counts of mail fraud and one count of conspiracy to misuse the mails, are Betty Mundy, Charles Sindelar and his wife, Pearl Sindelar, Frank Von Derhoya, Paul Stickell, Louise Majusas and William J. Cassiere.

In denying motions of Defense Attorney Charles H. Carr for an instructed verdict of acquittal on behalf of each defendant, Judge Yankwich stated that the question of good faith was the main issue and that was for the jury to decide.

Before Asst. U.S. Atty. Ralph Lazarus opened the argument for the government, Judge Yankwich granted several of Carr's motions to strike certain testimony from the record.

HEALING BY COLORS

The judge ordered that all testimony concerning the healing quality of color be stricken on the ground that the government had presented no substantial evidence in disproof of the fact that color has healing qualities.

The court also instructed the jury to disregard testimony concerning visions of Jesus Christ; the rays of light by which the late Guy W. Ballard received many of his dictations from the ascended masters, and supernatural events occurring at Mt. Shasta, such as the experience with the panther, on the ground that there was no evidence introduced by the government disproving their occurrences.

The court also eliminated several other matters and instructed the jury to view the case as if they had never heard any reference to them.

PROSECUTORS' REMARKS

In his opening remarks to the jury, Prosecutor Lazarus stated it is up to the jury to determine whether they believe the defendants are sincere or whether they place credence in the government's position that this is a fraudulent business enterprise conceived for the purpose of defrauding the public and obtaining their property and money.

Lazarus stated the government has no quarrel with the students of the activity concerning their belief and the benefits they receive.

"The issue here is whether this is a fraudulent business enterprise, as we contend it is, or whether it is a legitimate religious movement."

DIGEST OF CASE

He said the government has no desire to persecute anyone for his or her belief but that when religion is used to cloak a wrongful commercial enterprise then it is a duty to prosecute the offenders.

Lazarus then gave a digest of the government's case and pointed out where through testimony and documents he believes a case has been established against the defendants.

Defense Attorneys W. I. Gilbert Jr. and Carr today will argue in that order and Asst. U.S. Atty. Norman Newkom will make the final summation for the government.

I Am artist tells of a vision

Artist Charles Sindelar thought religious painters were "nuts" until Christ posed for him in a vision for 21 consecutive nights, he testified yesterday in the mail fraud trial of nine I Am leaders.

The artist, one of those accused, related before Judge Leon R. Yankwich and a federal court jury how his famous "Cheerful Christ" came into existence, to be sold throughout the world at 35 cents to $6 a copy.

During a crisis in his life, Sindelar said, the Saviour appeared at the foot of his bed one night—a vision which the artist's wife, Mrs. Pearl Sindelar, was unable to see.

The witness said he thought "my time had come" and started putting his affairs in order until the inspiration to paint Christ's portrait struck him.

The subject, Sindelar testified, appeared every night for three weeks. After the portrait was finished the artist said he frequently hid it when friends came to call because he still retained some of his opinion that religious painters were "nuts."

Sindelar declared he has sold copies of the painting to every religious denomination in the world.

However, getting St. Germain, I Am's patron saint, down on canvas was not so easy.

Sindelar said Guy W. Ballard, founder of I Am, tried to "contact a projection" of St. Germain for him, even called on the Mighty I Am Presence for help.

After numerous periods of sitting in silence the artist finally received a mental picture of St. Germain and copied it, he said.

Sindelar, publisher of I Am's magazine, The Voice, put in a plug for the healing qualities of the movement with his story of how his wife, bedridden with a shattered knee, was able to walk again by "making the call," despite assertions of doctors that she could not walk again.

Appearance of Mrs. Edna W. Ballard, high priestess of I Am, on the witness stand caused an awed gasp among her followers in the courtroom.

She was clothed all in white—turban, dress, stockings, shoes.

Mrs. Ballard smiled ~~wistfully~~, testified she had told her students to take their minds off the much discussed cataclysm which has been described as meaning the end of Los Angeles.

"It was predicted by pyramid prophecy to occur September 16, 1936, but it didn't happen then," she said.

"Was the date wrong?" asked defense attorney Charles Carr.

"Not at all. I told my students to take their minds off the cataclysm and call on the mighty host of ascended masters to prevent it."

Mrs. Ballard said I Am wished to protect America from subversive forces of all kinds. She denied she ever preached she could ascend to heaven whenever she wished, or that she had personal healing powers.

As for precipitation, she explained that any acquisition of material comforts through prayer would come through natural channels—not "through the air" as some prosecution witnesses understood it.

Mrs. Ballard said the St. Germain foundation was a nonprofit organization, the St. Germain press a commercial outfit which never paid a dividend.

"Love gifts," she explained, were just that.

"I want you to understand I have never asked a human being for a dime," Mrs. Ballard said.

She admitted controlling the St. Germain checking account, but said the money was used only to defray legitimate expenses.

Mrs. Ballard explained her movement's title in this fashion:

"I Am is the name of God in action. What we ask God for in a constructive manner will be decreed to us if we live properly and purify ourselves."

Another witness was Mrs. Donna Lucas, supervisor of the I Am school at 6367 Wilshire boulevard —an institution of 65 rooms and only 35 students.

She testified no salaries were paid to the 11 teachers and that the school was maintained by love gifts and tuition fees from about eight students.

Paul Stickwell, Chicago attorney, told of a conversation with I Am follower Virginia Ferrera in which she allegedly said:

"Never go back to San Fran-

cisco. The love gifts, they only amounted to $175."

The defense again paraded numerous testimonial witnesses before the jury, asking each what physical or spiritual benefits he obtained through association with the I Am movement.

Dr. Walter A. Haldy of Cleveland, who said he was still practicing in "desultory fashion," testified I Am had specifically answered the question of the hereafter for him.

Steve Miller, gray haired and solemn faced Chicago real estate broker, got the court a little confused.

"What benefits did you get from I Am?" he was asked.

"Four hundred ninety-eight per cent," he replied seriously.

"What else?"

"Well, I've gained 10 pounds in three years and I feel like a 16-year-old."

Judge Yankwich interposed, "How old are you, Mr. Miller?"

"Twenty-seven. I was born in 1884," Miller came back solemnly. The court let it go at that.

The defense expects to rest its case when the trial is resumed this morning.

Senator's Widow Tells Court of 'I Am' Secrets

DISILLUSIONED—Mrs. Margaret Schall, widow of blind Senator, who testified she poured money into I Am movement in hopes of restoring her husband's sight.
Times photo

"He said I must visualize a ray of light from the Mighty I Am Presence passing through his head and moving out at right angles and passing through his eyes."

In a small yet firm voice Margaret Huntly Schall, widow of the late Thomas D. Schall, the blind Senator from Minnesota, told a jury in Federal Judge Leon R. Yankwich's court of her vain attempt to restore the Senator's sight through following the advice of Mrs. Edna Ballard.

"I tried that without success," the little gray-haired woman testified, and then [illegible] "two months after the Senator was killed in an automobile accident."

The story of her complete absorption in the I Am movement in a desperate effort to win back the sight of the Senator lost 25 years previously was given by the witness at the trial of Mrs. Ballard, her son Donald, and eight others for asserted misuse of the mails.

From the witness stand Mrs. Schall told as fantastic a story as yet heard in local court annals, yet it rang with complete sincerity as she related her lengthy course of instruction in the I Am faith.

Questioned by Asst. U. S. Atty. Ralph Lazarus, Mrs. Schall told of her first interest in the movement, which took in 1935 while acting as her husband's secretary she received a leaflet through the mails stating that the Ballards were in Washington. After several preliminary contacts she said she was told by Mrs. Ballard that to restore the sight of the Senator's

She told about a "gas belt" which encircled the earth and which had its vortex over Europe showing the gathering of sinister forces, and testified the Ballards told her that only the I Am presence kept such forces from the United States.

Part of the instruction, Mrs. Schall continued, consisted of the observance of [illegible] ed down from St. Germain through the Ballards.

These decrees required her and the other students to visualize America completely encircled in steel walls and a violet flame which would conquer the sinister forces and would protect the youth, the health of mankind and our Congress.

She told of giving $100 at the Pan-Pacific class, of another $100 at the Shrine Auditorium class, of $200 at the San Francisco classes; of sending $250 to a class at Kansas City; of four times sending $40 to Minneapolis, Minn. for radio time; of buying many sets of expensive books and of making love gifts at all classes in amounts ranging up to $1.00.

EXPECTED DIVIDENDS

"Mrs. Ballard said many times 'give and it shall be returned to you' and I believed them."

"Did you think you would receive money?" inquired Judge Yankwich.

"Yes, I certainly did," replied the witness.

"Did you ever hear of a church that did return money?" inquired the judge.

"Well I believed that in this case," said Mrs. Schall.

Prosecutor Lazarus then led the witness to a discussion of "precipitation."

DIAMONDS IN SKY

Mrs. Schall replied that she was instructed that if she would look in the atmosphere any sunny day she would see particles of light which were the same as the ascended masters used in the books to deliver diamond necklaces and money, even food and clothing and automobiles.

The picture of automobiles falling on particles of light from the sky was a bit too much for the packed courtroom and a ripple of laughter resulted.

"Did you ever try?" jocularly inquired Charles H. Carr, chief defense counsel.

COULDN'T SEE THEM

"I did, but I couldn't see the sparkles," Mrs. Schall answered.

"Maybe you didn't have enough faith," observed Judge Yankwich.

About this time Attorney Carr arose to his feet and waving his arms declared:

"Your Honor, I'm lost in a blaze of [illegible]."

"I can think of no better time to take a recess," said the judge wearily.

During the morning session, Norman Neukom, Assistant United States Attorney, struck the keynote for the government in an address which officially opened the trial. The vigorous young prosecutor, however, ran into no end of trouble when his discussion of what the government expects to prove got into the religious phases of the case.

REVIEWS CHARGES

After reviewing, generally, the charges made in the indictment, Prosecutor Neukom said that the government would seek to prove as false the representation of the late Guy W. Ballard that he was the second embodiment of George Washington.

"How are you going to disprove that?" Judge Yankwich observed from the bench. "After all there are millions of people who believe in reincarnation. Just remember this is a mail-fraud case and we're not going to go into those subjects."

PSEUDONYMS LEGAL

Spurred by Defense Attorney Carr, although he needed no spurring, Judge Yankwich continued by saying that a person can call himself anything he wants to, citing the case of Mark Twain and various French authors who used various pseudonyms.

"You can call yourself Hiram Johnson if you want to," Judge Yankwich remarked, getting himself in stride.

"Look at poor Gladys Smith. She had no glamour. So what did she do? She called herself Mary Pickford. As far as that goes there are lots of people on Central Ave. who call themselves George Washington."

Mrs. Ballard told him her husband had healed 20,000 incurables and that they had 3,000,000 students throughout the United States.

On cross-examination Attorney Carr caused the inspector to admit that during his investigation he was only looking for folks who had a "beef" against the Ballards.

THE LIGHT THAT FAILED

Continuing her story, following the recess, Mrs. Schall told of encircling herself with an electronic light—to protect her before she left her home on one occasion.

She said she uttered the Mighty I Am decree of protection and then went down to the corner.

"That was supposed to protect one," she went on. "But when I got to the corner I fell off the curb, sprained my ankle, broke my glasses and bruised myself."

"You blame that on the I Am presence?" inquired Judge Yankwich.

'DIDN'T MAKE GOOD'

"I do, because they didn't make good. I asked them to protect me and they didn't do it," said the witness spunkily.

She told of disassociating herself from the I Am movement in June, 1938, and related an occurrence at a meeting presided over by Charles Sindelar, widely known artist, and his wife Pearl.

"Mrs. Sindelar said that Charles couldn't sleep the night before and just then he came in and said that a cat had kept him awake."

MOVES TO STRIKE CAT

At this juncture Attorney Carr rose wearily to his feet and waving his arm in a motion of resignation, said:

"Your honor, I think I must be failing. I move to strike the cat out of the record."

Judge Yankwich rose to the occasion and agreed:

"Let's kill the cat and let Charlie sleep."

Mrs. Schall painted a vivid picture of a kidnaping scare involving Donald Ballard and his erstwhile blond wife Marjorie.

DEC 5 1940

LOS ANGELES TIMES

INSPECTOR CALLED

After this somewhat pungent observation from the bench, Prosecutor Neukom brought his opening statement to a close and called as his first witness W. F. Callahan, postoffice inspector working out of Washington, D.C.

Callahan testified, in brief, that he had made a year's investigation of the case and had interviewed 300 persons. He said

'KILL THE KIDNAPERS'

She said that at one of the classes Mrs. Ballard dramatically announced:

"What do you think has happened? Donald and Marjorie have been kidnaped. I want you to all join me in a decree."

The witness said Mrs. Ballard then raised her arm—"and you know what a dynamic person she is"—and exclaimed "kill the kidnapers."

"I stood there paralyzed," Mrs. Schall testified. "But by and by Donald and Marjorie came in, and the next day it was explained that St. Germain did something to their car which protected them."

SERVICES DESCRIBED

On cross-examination by Attorney Carr, Mrs. Schall admitted that at the various classes and meetings of the I Am services were conducted much the same as "in the good old Methodist Church."

The witness also admitted that one of the I Am instructions to "give and you shall receive" was similar to the admonition contained in the Christian Bible.

"And you believe in the Bible?" asked Attorney Carr.

"I do now," replied the witness, "but I was confused then, my faith was shaken."

The trial continues Tuesday.

'I AM' THEORY FAILED TO AID BLIND SENATOR

Schall's Widow Testifies in Coast Mail Fraud Case

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 4 (AP)—Efforts to restore the sight of the late Thomas D. Schall, blind Senator from Minnesota, through application of teachings of the "I Am" movement were related in Federal court today by his widow, Mrs. Margaret Huntley Schall.

She was one of the first of the government's witnesses in the mail-fraud trial of Mrs. Edna Ballard, widow of Guy W. Ballard, founder of the movement; their son, Donald Ballard, and eight others.

Mrs. Schall said that she and the Senator first came in touch with the Ballards in 1935 when some publications of the movement were received at his office. Later, she testified, the Schalls attended meetings conducted by the Ballards.

"Mrs. Ballard told me that if I could visualize a ray of light coming down to his head and leaving it at right angles through his eyes, he would be cured," she asserted.

She said she had spent "many hundreds of dollars" in various cities in connection with the movement, but was unable to cure the Senator's blindness of twenty-five years' duration.

"Mrs. Ballard told me that if I looked into the atmosphere I could see particles of light sparkling, which was the exact substance used by the ascended masters in precipitating all material needs," Mrs. Schall testified. "She said the masters could precipitate clothes, money, automobiles—anything."

"She said she could even keep spots off her clothing by calling in the ascended masters."

Judge Leon R. Yankwich, presiding at the trial, cautioned Attorney Norman Neukom against making statements in his opening address to the jury which the government would not be able to prove.

"You might as well delve into other religious beliefs, such as Mormonism," the judge said at one point. "They believe that Joseph Smith found certain tablets of gold and that an angel gave him glasses to read and interpret inscriptions thereon. How can you disprove things like that?"

"Well, if Joseph Smith had used that for fraudulent purposes, we would have indicted him, too," Mr. Neukom replied.

Jury selected to try 10 officials of 'I Am' cult

Jury selection was completed yesterday for the trial of 10 leaders of the "I Am" cult, charged with fraudulently using the mails as a collection plate for their religious movement.

The court session ran overtime—until 6 p. m.—before prosecution and defense agreed upon 12 jurors and two alternates to hear the case.

Members of the jury are Laurence W. Hood, LeRoy Henderson, Henry B. Day, Ralph E. Howe, L. J. Dempsey, Charles Conti, James Haugh, Owen S. Adams, Raymond Brownhill, Omar J. Hill, Alfred E. Sears, George W. Carter and alternates A. E. Rippy and Kenneth C. Wallace.

Opening statement of the government's case alleging 18 counts of mail fraud and one of conspiracy will be made today by Asst. United States Atty. Norman Neukom.

Charles Carr, chief of the defense counsel, said he would make no opening statement.

Federal Judge Leon R. Yankwich, who is trying the case, early in the day clamped down on attempts of Carr to inject religious controversy into the case by questioning jurors on their religious beliefs.

"The question of the jurors' religious beliefs is not relevant and this court will not permit questioning along that line," the judge snapped.

"I wish to make it clear that we are not here to investigate the religious beliefs of either the jury or the defendants. The right of every person to follow his religious beliefs is one of the great fundamentals on which this government is founded.

"Still another point to be made clear, however, is the fact that the law will not permit religion to be used as a cloak to cover violations of the law."

On trial are Mrs. Edna Ballard, widow of the founder of the movement, her son Donald and eight other officers of the cult.

The governemnt charges funds were obtained on the false statethat the founder, his wife and son had attained a state of supernatural immortality.

Other defendants are Betty Mundy, confidential secretary to Mrs. Ballard; Charles Sindelar, noted artist; Mrs. Peary Sindelar; Frank von Derhoye, Paul Stickel, Chicago attorney; Grant D. Lewis, Louis Majerus and William J. Carsiere.

'I Am' Head, Aides Are Reindicted

LOS ANGELES, April 12—Mrs. Edna W. Ballard and her son, Donald, leaders of the "I Am" movement, and four of their associates have been reindicted by a Federal grand jury on charges of mail fraud and conspiracy. Specifically, the Ballards, Betty Mundy, Paul Sickell, Louise Majerus and William Cassiere, were accused of using the mails to bilk their followers of $3,000,000. The followers allegedly were promised bodily ascensions to heaven for their "love gifts." They were tried previously on the charges, but the jury could not agree.

REFERENCE: Bureau letter dated June 15, 1943

DETAILS: At Portland, Oregon:

Confidential Informant T-1 advised that she was a member of the Portland branch of the "I AM" cult from the latter part of 1940 through 1942 and has attended since the last date only spasmodically. Official headquarters of the cult moved from Los Angeles to Santa Fe, New Mexico, the early part of 1942. The "I AM" organization has branches, called groups, in most principal cities of the United States. The national organization is headed by Mrs. EDNA BALLARD, known as "The Divine Messenger." One PAUL H. STICKEL is known as "The Messenger," replacing DONALD BALLARD, who is in the armed forces and the son of Mrs. EDNA BALLARD. PAUL H. STICKEL came to Portland the early part of 1940, at which time Mrs. CLARE M. JOHNS was made group leader. The members are divided into sections, "The Beginners" who have to attend eight classes in order to become members of the other section, "The 100 Per Centers." All members must refrain from eating meat, drinking liquor or coffee or other stimulants, as well as refrain from wearing black or red or having sexual relations. The source of income is from donations made to "Love Gift Boxes" and the selling of literature, books, and phonograph records, namely "Unveiled Mysteries," "The Magic Presence," "The Voice of 'I AM'," and others. Other sources of income are from the sale of pictures of Jesus, "The Ballards," and gods and godesses of the "I AM" cult. Income is also received from selling lapel pins, such as "American flags" and a pin of a gold harp with the words "I AM" inscribed thereon. All members are called students and are required to have a membership card which they must present upon entering the "sanctuary," which is also known as the "reading room."

ACTIVITIES IN PORTLAND

Confidential Informant T-1 further advised that the sanctuary and reading room in Portland was located at 714 S. W. Madison during 1940 and moved to its present location, 1208 S. W. Fourth Avenue, in the Italian Federation Hall, Inc., building. This move was made in 1941.

ANDREW S. BOITANO, 513 Weatherby Building, manager of the Italian Federation Hall, Inc., advised that Mrs. C. M. JOHNS signed a lease February 1, 1941, which expires January 31, 1944, for the rent of the balcony and the entire second floor, for which she pays $70 per month, the lease setting forth that this part of the building is to be used for conducting activities of the "I AM" sanctuary. Mr. BOITANO further stated that the rent is paid by the personal check of CLARE M. JOHNS on the First National Bank of Portland.

The sanctuary is all decorated lavishly in purple and white and continually filled with fresh flowers. It consists of an altar and a piano nearby, with a seating capacity of approximately 300. The walls are decorated with religious pictures, similar to other churches. Mr. BOITANO added that during the time the "I AM" group has rented from him he has never been contacted by anyone other than Mrs. CLARE M. JOHNS, and he has observed no subversive activities reflected in any of Mrs. JOHNS' activities around the building, adding that she has a son, ALFRED JOHNS, in the United States Air Corps, of whom she appears to be extremely proud.

Confidential Informant T-1 further advised that Mrs. CLARE M. JOHNS, the group leader, had told her there were approximately 200 members in the Portland group and approximately 80 per cent of these were "100 Per Centers," who had signed the "I AM" pledge. Donations are never directly asked for, and in her talks the group leader continually refers to "Love Gift Boxes" on the table at the rear of the sanctuary. The members appear to be liberal in their donations. However, Confidential Informant T-1 advises she cannot estimate the average amount taken in and has no knowledge of what portion, if any, is sent to "I AM" headquarters, as the group leader never discusses those things with the students. In the rear of the sanctuary is a table where pamphlets selling for thirty-five cents, books selling for $3.00, phonograph records also selling for $3.00, pictures selling for various prices, and lapel pins also selling at various prices are located.

The group leader's mother, a widow named Mrs. MARY GIBONEY, attends all meetings, assists the group leader, and cleans up the sanctuary.

Meetings are held every night and usually follow this schedule: Monday night, "100 Per Centers"; Tuesday night, "Beginners"; Wednesday night, a regular meeting is held at which time the book, "Unveiled Mysteries," is passed out to prospective members; Thursday and Friday nights, same as Wednesday night; Saturday night, a meeting for young students under thirty years of age; Sunday night, another regular meeting.

Each student is required to have a membership card which must be shown to the doorman, WARREN SINEX. WARREN SINEX and his brother, DONALD SINEX, are now in the United States Army. Mr. and Mrs. [redacted] SINEX, their parents and "100 Per Centers," have moved to Los Angeles. Each membership card has the student's name, setting forth the bearer as a student of "I AM", the date, and is signed by Mrs. CLARE M. JOHNS, group leader. No charge is made for these membership cards.

Only white people ever attend these meetings, and Confidential Informant T-1 has never observed any Negroes, Orientals, or any foreigners in attendance.

Dear Sir,

While our men are winning the war abroad,we are losing it at home,as is evidenced by the reversal of the decision of the Appelate Court in the "I Am" case,the Government versus Edna Ballard and others.

You will recall from my correspondence with you,that I hoped to persuade you to investigate the mental and emotional facts of this case,as well as the material ones. I realized fully at the time how this would appear to you,knowing that in all our past history material facts were all that were essential to any case. Since that time nation after nation has fallen,through well educated talented people in high positions,being taken over mentally and emotionally by organizations such as the "I AM."

The first step of the Nazi and Fascist,has always been mental aggression ,followed by emotional aggression,then the material fact presented itself- the aggression upon the country.

RECORDED & INDEXED 62-56242-99

The material fact is always the outcome of the mental and emotional fact.Today we cannot wait for the material fact(the aggression upon our Country). We have to strike at the mental and emotional conditions before they become material facts.

AUG 12 1943

What has this organization done to the people who follow it,are they good citizens,. do theprecepts of the order build up the country or tear it down etc.?

lt is organizations such as the "l AM" with its hypnotic operations that changed men like Petain and Laval and others into traitors, well educated talented men and women of the United States are members of this organization,and many are in high positions and places of trust, check my message to you in care of Mr Hodd while you were here on the coast, then read back in my letters to where Mrs Ballard said she would be freed if convicted and how,it turned out just that way. Her followers beleived it was the "Mighty l AM Presence" that did it ,and now there are three million people ready to do her bidding when she is ready to strike, which will be immediately after the next trial if she is freed.

There is no use in going into the past only insofar as it protects us from making mistakes in the future.

Your agent Mr Reed called on me about three weeks ago,with a request for what information l could obtain on the "l AM " movement.l am very glad to be of assistance. l made contacts and secured information as to who the leaders were,and what was going on.

Through factual findings 1 learned the same leaders are in operation today as were when the Ballards were openly active, unshaken because the Mighty "1 AM" presence freed them.

Mr and Mrs Ensor he a formen Christian Science Reader ,she a teacher of Art in our Public Schools are the heads of the order today,as they were when Mrs Ballard was permitted to operate openly.They have just returned to this city after spending two years in Colorado with Mrs Ballard,1 learn from the head of the order in Coranado that they are all going north to Laguana Beach for a Conclave soon.

The following is some information just brought to me.

Hazel Davis and Jessie Weiseman,telephone operators in the San Diego Gas and Light Co,are very active,and have always aspired to be leaders particularly Jessie Weiseman,she gave up all she had and followed Mrs Ballard to Colarado,my information is that she is back in her old position in the Gas Co,this was given to me from one of the sub-station operators.These two women know where everywhere part of the Gas Company's equipment is located,have contact with the leading men & women in the entire organization. -Where do these "William Dudley Pelley" trained operators strike when they strike to cripple a nation?.

1 would suggest that agents be sent all around Boulder Dam to find out how many workers Mrs Ballard knew there to asertain how great a danger the Dam is in, her actions in gathering her forces now, shows how secure she feels, she will make every attempt to gain an early trial- she must be forestalled as long as possible in order to gain the information throughtout the country, as to who is in this organization and what positions they are holding, there must be time to gather the necessary mental and emotional facts of this case ,so when it goes to trial they can be incorporated in the prosecution , that should be easy , for the foundation of the case is fraud.

Sincerely yours,

E. Leta Hoskins.

E. LETA HOSKINS

The group leader never performs marriages and preaches sex restraint. The group leader often spoke on the horrors of war and, prior to the United States entering into the conflict, was opposed to the Government's policy of assisting other nations involved in the war. The group leader also often spoke against Communism and in her sermons or in private conversations never objected to conscription and, on the other hand, openly appeared proud of her son, ALFRED JOHNS, serving in the United States Air Corps and who was inducted from Los Angeles where he had been attending the "I AM" school for two or three years. The group leader often spoke of her father, now deceased, who was formerly a Presbyterian minister at Spokane, Washington.

Confidential Informant T-1 further relates that the group leader, Mrs. JOHNS, was in attendance at the trial of Mrs. EDNA BALLARD and her son, DONALD BALLARD, held in Los Angeles and remarked upon her return that the BALLARDS were being persecuted and the whole thing was a miscarriage of justice. Every year the group leader made several trips to Los Angeles and a man named CARL JOHNS, who is the "I AM" violinist, and his wife, ZOE JOHNS, pianist and singer, conducted the meetings, assisted by Mrs. MARY GIBONEY, in the absence of the group leader. CARL and ZOE JOHNS are not relatives of the group leader, having a similar name only.

A Mrs. LAURA D. STONE, who is official court reporter for Multnomah County District Court #5, Judge LOUIS P. HEWETT presiding, is a driving force in the "I AM" group of Portland, being active in obtaining members, making transcripts of meetings, and such. A registered nurse by the name of SYBIL WALKUP, who lived in the same apartment house as the group leader at the Rose-Friend Apartments, 1307 S. W. Broadway, was also formerly a driving force in the "I AM" group. Approximately one year ago she became violently insane and is now in the Oregon State Insane Asylum at Salem, Oregon.

Confidential Informant T-1 concluded by stating she cannot identify the general run of students except by sight, as she has not been in constant attendance and is looked down upon by members that have adhered to the principles and the pledge of the "I AM" cult. Confidential Informant T-1 is of the opinion that if any of the active members are approached they would immediately contact the group leader, as this topic has often been discussed by the group leader, who has instructed them to report to her anyone trying to obtain information relative to any activities that take place in their sanctuary without becoming members.

NEIGHBORHOOD INVESTIGATION OF GROUP LEADER

(a) Sanctuary

The sign appearing over the door at 1208 S. W. Fourth Avenue is as follows: "I AM Reading Room and Sanctuary."

E. O. RYERSON at 718 S. W. Madison, whose store is next door to the former location of the "I AM" sanctuary at 714 S. W. Madison, advised that the sanctuary moved away over two years ago, and he never became acquainted with the Mrs. JOHNS who operated the establishment because he figured it was some kind of racket and they never traded with him. He could offer no information relative to the activities that took place while they were next door.

Mrs. E. R. NEWLIN, manager of the building located at 714 S. W. Madison, stated that the "I AM" sanctuary moved from her building the latter part of 1941 and was operated by Mrs. CLARE M. JOHNS, who is still the leader, and has moved the location to the Italian Federation Building at Fourth and Madison. Mrs. NEWLIN could not provide any information as to the activities of Mrs. JOHNS or the "I AM" group, stating that she never attended any meetings or had she ever been approached to attend, and as Mrs. JOHNS always paid her rent promptly she had taken no other interest in her activities.

FRANK DEMARINAS, who operates the Rome Cafe, 1200 S. W. Fourth Avenue and directly underneath the present location of the "I AM" sanctuary, advised the "I AM" group had been located upstairs for approximately two years and never frequented his cafe, apparently because he sells beer. He states that he has observed many people attend these meetings, which are conducted every night. Most of the patrons are women, who are always dressed up in light colored evening gowns. Approximately a year and a half ago the woman who runs the "I AM" group hung a flag up in the window upside down, apparently by mistake. Due to the fact that Mr. DEMARINAS is an Italian, several of his customers jumped him about this, and he explained to them that it was not his flag and remarked to the woman that headed the "I AM" group of this mistake and she immediately hung it correctly. Mr. DEMARINAS added that he has never observed any Italians attending any of these meetings and it is his opinion that things are much better for everyone in the building since the "I AM" group has taken over the hall because prior to that it was rented for dances which were sometimes attended by persons who would get in fights and get drunk and cause trouble in the vicinity. Mr. DEMARINAS has no knowledge of any of the activities that take place in the "I AM" sanctuary and states that the leader is the only one that has a key, the cleaning being done by the leader's elderly mother.

Mr. A. W. NEW, 1214 S. W. Fourth Avenue, who operates New Brothers' Portland Marble Works, advised that he had no information as to what actually took place in the "I AM" sanctuary as he has never been inside and knows of no one in the neighborhood that has ever been inside the sanctuary. He said that there is a continuous flow of women going in and out during the day bringing flowers, most of these women being dressed in gay colors and being of all ages. He could not identify any of them. Like the neighbor, Mr. DEMARINAS, he expressed appreciation of the fact that the sanctuary was located there instead of public dances, which formerly cluttered up the front of his business establishment with liquor bottles.

(b) Residences of Group Leader

Prior to Mrs. CLARE M. JOHNS present residence at the Rose-Friend Apartments, 1307 S. W. Broadway, she resided at 4615 N. E. Sandy Boulevard.

Mr. E. L. EHLEN, 2126 N. E. 46th, who was in the rear of 4615 N. E. Sandy Boulevard, advised that Mrs. CLARE M. JOHNS and her mother, Mrs. GIBONEY, sold their house on Sandy Boulevard and moved away two years ago and a local gas station is there now in its place. At the time Mrs. JOHNS and her mother resided there she worked for Mr. ROSS McINTYRE. She spoke of being from Spokane, Washington, and was the daughter of a Presbyterian minister, now deceased. She also spoke of having a son, ALFRED, going to school in California, and he recalls some mention of the son's being interested in aviation. Mr. EHLEN further advised that during their residence there of approximately eight years he had always considered them loyal, hard-working American citizens and never observed any subversive tendencies on the part of Mrs. JOHNS or her mother, Mrs. GIBONEY, nor did he ever hear them speak of being associated with the "I AM" religious cult.

Mr. L. C. KEATING, 2215 N. E. 47th Avenue, whose place is also in the rear of where Mrs. JOHNS' home was formerly located, reiterated the information obtained from his neighbor, Mr. E. L. EHLEN and could give no additional information.

Mrs. A. SCHROEDER, manager of the Rose-Friend Apartments, advised the reporting agent that Mrs. CLARE M. JOHNS had resided in Apartment 19 for over eighteen months and claims to be a school teacher and is in charge of the "I AM" church. She added that Mrs. JOHNS informed her she is a widow and lives with her mother, Mrs. MARY GIBONEY. When they are not conducting church they stay quietly to themselves in their apartment and do not visit with other tenants. Mrs. SCHROEDER advised that she knows nothing of Mrs. JOHNS' private life and they do not supply Mrs. JOHNS with maid service. The son, ALFRED JOHNS, to her knowledge has never made an appearance since they have been residing there.

Mrs. FRED HESSE, Jr., in Apartment 14, states that she only has a speaking acquaintance with Mrs. CLARE JOHNS and her mother, Mrs. GIBONEY. She has observed that they dress beautifully and has always observed them taking lots of flowers to the "I AM" sanctuary, which they apparently receive from other followers of the church. During the trial of the BALLARDS in Los Angeles, Mrs. HESSE observed that Mrs. JOHNS was away, and she tied this fact up with newspaper articles appearing of the BALLARD trial, knowing that Mrs. JOHNS was leader of the "I AM" church in Portland. She added she has observed that Mrs. JOHNS appears to have lots of young girls hanging around, seems to have plenty of money, and she has occasionally observed some man all dressed in white carrying a violin case come to the apartment. On occasions Mrs. HESSE has heard typing being done in Mrs. JOHNS' apartment, usually in the daytime. She added that she has never observed any indication of subversive activities on the part of Mrs. JOHNS or her mother, and it has always been her opinion that the "I AM" religious movement was just another money grabbing racket.

Mrs. AXEL BARRY, Apartment 12, who is a sister-in-law of Mrs. FRED HESSE, Jr., reiterated approximately the same story as Mrs. HESSE, adding that there was a girl who formerly resided in the same apartment house, other than Mrs. LAURA STONE, who was a member of the "I AM" cult, but whose activities of consorting with men and drinking did not tie in with her understanding of the "I AM" teachings of not drinking and eating meat and of sexual restraint. She furnished the name of this individual, who has previously been referred to in this report as Confidential Informant T-1.

FINANCIAL STATUS

Confidential Informant T-2 advised [redacted] b7D

[redacted]

[redacted]

Reverend CLAUDE P. SABIN, minister of the Mallory Avenue Christian Church, 126 N. E. Alberta Street, advised that his church was in need of an organ, and the Sherman Clay Music Company advised him that the "I AM" church had one for sale for $700. On approximately March 1, 1943, he contacted Mrs. CLARE M. JOHNS and made arrangements to purchase an electric Everett Orgatron for $700. The church originally gave her $60 cash as a down-payment, then subsequently two other payments, one for $90 and one for $100, less $8.50 for repairs necessary on the organ. Subsequently, Mrs. JOHNS contacted him demanding the balance of $441.50, even though the 90 days allowed to pay for the organ was not up, claiming that she had to be out of town for a week and needed the money. A conference was held with the trustees of the church, and a check was given Mrs. JOHNS for the above-mentioned amount. Reverend SABIN states this is the only connection he has ever had with the "I AM" group and from his observation and dealings with Mrs. CLARE M. JOHNS she appears to be very shrewd and leads a very free life and appears to be financially well off. Reverend SABIN added that during his eight years in Portland he never heard of the "I AM" group until approximately three years ago and, as he has always more or less kept these types of churches and their activities under observation, he has never noticed any subversive activities connected with the "I AM" group in Portland, Oregon. From articles he has read in newspapers about the cult, Reverend SABIN states he has reached the conclusion that this organization is just another one of those church rackets.

CRIMINAL RECORDS

A search of the indices of the Portland Police Department and the Multnomah County Sheriff's Office reflect no criminal records for Mrs. CLARE M. JOHNS, Mrs. MARY GIL[illegible], CARL P. JOHNS, ZOE JOHNS, LAURA STONE, SYBIL WALKUP, Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] SINEX, DONALD or WARREN SINEX.

The indices of the Portland Police Department, however, do reflect that Mrs. CLARE G. JOHNS of 1307 S. W. Broadway reported on January 11, 1941, that a prowler had attempted to steal her purse by use of a stick being poked through the window. The indices of the Traffic Division of the Portland Police Department reflect that on March 13, 1941, CLARE G. JOHNS, 1307 S. W. Broadway, giving her occupation as a housewife having operator's license 4-R-174260, had been given a ticket for failure to make a boulevard stop at Fourth and Madison Streets, to which she plead guilty and paid a fine of $2.00.

CREDIT RECORD

The indices of the Reporting Company, Panama Building, reflect that Mrs. CLARE M. JOHNS resided since November, 1930, at 4615 N. E. Sandy Boulevard and is presently residing at 1307 S. W. Broadway. Her occupation in October, 1940, was office manager for the Columbia Foods Company, 133 S. W. Madison, receiving a salary of $150 per month. On February 7, 1941, the indices reflect that Mrs. CLARE M. JOHNS was starting a study group at the Italian Federation Building located at 1203 S. W. Fourth. Mrs. JOHNS claims to be a widow of HARRY G. JOHNS. However, information received by the Credit Bureau reflects that she was divorced from HARRY G. JOHNS in May, 1938. However, no record could be found by the Credit Bureau in the Multnomah County Clerk's Office of any divorce proceedings. It further set forth that Mrs. JOHNS taught bookkeeping and accounting in public schools during the night session. The credit rating of MARY M. GIBONEY and Mrs. CLARE M. JOHNS was noted to be satisfactory with credit experience limited.

PAST EMPLOYMENT

Mr. and Mrs. ROSS McINTYRE, 2739 N. E. Alameda, former owners of the McMarr Stores and Columbia Food Company, advised that Mrs. CLARE JOHNS worked for them as a bookkeeper from 1929 up to 1940 and was an exceptionally good accountant and at the time she left their employ was receiving $250 per month. Besides working for them, she was engaged teaching night school in the public schools and along somewhere between 1938 and 1940 she first started talking about this "I AM" business, which seemed to grow on her like a cancer. She finally became so enthralled with this "I AM" business that the McINTYRES had to let her go, as she was continually taking leave of absence and going to Los Angeles and even had her son ALFRED attending the "I AM" school in Los Angeles. At first Mrs. JOHNS gave the excuse for going to Los Angeles as seeing her son, but it would later come out that she was studying the "I AM" teachings. The McINTYRES added that Mrs. JOHNS made extensive studies at home in psychology and psychoanalysis and told them that she divorced her husband HARRY when the boy ALFRED was just a baby. ALFRED is now approximately 21 years of age. Just before Mrs. JOHNS left their employ, she began wearing white, blue, and even gold dresses, didn't eat meat, and told the McINTYRES that only heathens eat meat. The McINTYRES added that Mrs. JOHNS formerly owned her own home on Sandy Boulevard at 46th Street and never at any time expressed any opposition to the stand the United States was taking in the war during 1940. In fact, they had always assumed that she was patriotic because she wore an American flag pin on her dress. They have not had any contact with Mrs. JOHNS since 1940 and they never have observed any un-American activities on her part. However, the McINTYRES expressed the opinion that Mrs. JOHNS and her mother, Mrs. GIBONEY, would place the "I AM" principles ahead of those of her country if called upon to do so. The McINTYRES said that to their knowledge Mrs. JOHNS nor her mother had never made any trips to Europe nor outside of the United States. At the time she was in their employ, she was affiliated with the Democratic Party and often spoke of her father's being a Presbyterian minister in Spokane, Washington. The McINTYRES ended up by saying that in their opinion Mrs. JOHNS is a very shrewd, clever woman, but has been taken financially by the "I AM" cult.

HAZEL WASS, secretary of the Portland school board, advised that CLARE M. JOHNS taught evening classes in bookkeeping and accounting from September, 1932, to May, 1939, receiving $3.00 per day compensation. She was born, according to their records, at Oregon City, Oregon, February 28, 1891, was graduated from the Spokane, Washington, High School in 1909, and received her B. S. degree in 1921 from the Oregon Institute of Accountancy. She gave as a reference a Mr. A. M. GRAY, who was supervisor of the public schools evening school and who rated her on her efficiency report as very good. Mr. GRAY died in 1941.

E. E. TURLEY, president of the Pacific Business College, Inc., 1017 S. W. Washington, advised that CLARE JOHNS taught bookkeeping in his establishment from February, 1942, to July, 1942, receiving $3.00 per day, and gave her reason for resigning as going in business for herself operating a reading room. Mr. TURLEY added she appeared to be a very capable business-like woman and a good instructor and never while in his employ ever indicated any tendencies which might reflect un-American or pro-Axis activities.

The indices of the Oregon Shipbuilding Corporation reflect that CARL PHILLIP JOHNS, previously mentioned in this report as being the violinist for the "I AM" cult, resides at 1603 S. E. Ladd Avenue, has badge #35991, social security #541-20-9841, wife, ZOE M. JOHNS, born Sunbury, Pennsylvania, November 21, 1891. His usual occupation is given as a violin teacher and formerly employed by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company as an agent in Portland. He was hired April 4, 1942, as a burner, received $1.20 per hour, and resigned October 1, 1942.

MISCELLANEOUS

H. A. COPPLE, chief clerk of Ration Board #2, advised that CLARE M. JOHNS, 1307 S. W. Broadway, drives a 1939 Hudson sedan, motor number 9145983, with California license plates for 1942, 3-5-5629 and has Oregon sticker number 306-410. She has not made application for supplemental gas.

JOE HUTCHINSON of the City License Bureau, Portland, advises there is no record of the "I AM" religious organization or of CLARE M. JOHNS obtaining a license, as this type of business is not required to have a license in the city of Portland.

MARGARET KLEES, deputy county clerk, Multnomah County, informed the reporting agent that there is no record of CLARE M. JOHNS or of any person connected with the "I AM" church registered. She added that only ministers and those who perform marriages are required to register.

A review of the Portland Field Division file 100-3952 entitled Communist Party USA, Twelfth District, Portland Field Division, was made relative to the "I AM" cult and all known members mentioned in instant report with negative results.

MAIL COVER

On July 23, 1943, the thirty day mail cover was placed on the business establishment at 1208 S. W. Fourth, the "I AM" sanctuary, and the residence of Mrs. CLARE M. JOHNS and MARY GIBONEY located at 1307 S. W. Broadway. Up to the date of the writing of instant report, two letters have been received addressed to Mrs. CLARE M. JOHNS, 1307 S. W. The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent HUGH M. BYRD:

AT PUEBLO, COLORADO:

From observation it was noted by the Agent that the Reading Hall and the Sanctuary of the "I AM" is located at 603½ North Main Street.

Mr. W. H. HAINES, Haines Book Store, 603 North Main Street, informed that subject organization has rented the floor above his store for some two years time. He stated that the person in charge of the building was one CHARLIE GALLAGER and that GALLAGER should be in a position to know the leader of the organization in Pueblo. HAINES stated that he had observed a few elderly ladies go in and out of the hall on occasions; that there is no regular meeting held in the hall to the best of his knowledge, and that he did not know the names of the people who did go in and out of the hall, however, the woman he described as the leader it was later learned is Mrs. EVERETT BOERRIGTER. HAINES further informed that he heard these few elderly ladies singing old songs occasionally in the hall in the past, but they did not even gather to sing at the present time. He said that he did not have any information as to the membership of the organization in Pueblo.

Mr. CHARLIE GALLAGER, 1230 Berkely Avenue, informed the Agent that he did have charge of renting the building where subject organization has their reading room and sanctuary. He stated that a Mrs. EVERETT BOERRIGTER of Pueblo was the local leader. He said that the organization has rented this space in the building for some three and one-half years time; that he has received his money promptly for the rent; that Mrs. BOERRIGTER is usually the person to pay him and that he is paid in cash or by some personal check. Mr. GALLAGER said that Mrs. BOERRIGTER's husband was also active in the organization in the past. He advised that Mrs. BOERRIGTER is not employed; that she apparently has devoted her entire time to the organization; that her husband has been employed in the past by the Government. He informed further that Mr. and Mrs. BOERRIGTER had been out of Pueblo for a number of months; that he understood they had been in Chicago. He also stated that the organization had at one time planned to cease renting the hall after July 31 of 1943, however, Mrs. BOERRIGTER has recently returned to Pueblo and she informed him that they desired to continue the use of the hall.

Mr. GALLAGER stated that he did not know how many members there were in the local organization. He added that some two years ago he did observe some fifty people at one meeting. He advised that he did not know whether the organization held meetings at the present time or not. He stated that one Mrs. WILLIAM LAMB, 1937 Lake Avenue, had also been active in the organization. He said that Mrs. LAMB's husband was employed by the local steel mill. Mr. GALLAGER informed that Mrs. BOERRIGTER told him the organization was not a religious organization, but that they did "do good". He added that he had never heard Mrs. BOERRIGTER make any remarks which indicated she was not in sympathy with the United States Government or which indicated she favored any other form of Government.

Mrs. NORMA MOCK, 713 Elmhurst Place, advised the Agent that she has lived in the same neighborhood with Mrs. BOERRIGTER for some twenty years time. She said that Mrs. BOERRIGTER was formerly Mrs. FOSTER; that she later married Mr. BOERRIGTER after she "put him through school"; that he was much younger than she. She said that Mrs. BOERRIGTER was not commercially employed; that her husband had been employed by the Government in the past, and that she thought he held some job with the State Government. She further stated that prior to the time the organization "I AM" obtained a meeting place up town, meetings were held in the home of Mrs. BOERRIGTER which is located at 713 Elmhurst Place. She informed that these meetings would take place about once each week and that apparently a good number of people attended the meetings judging from the cars that were parked around the street. Mrs. MOCK said that she did not know anything else in regard to the organization or its members. She stated that she had never heard Mrs. BOERRIGTER make any remarks which indicated she was not loyal to the United States Government.

Mrs. W. H. VICE, 711 Elmhurst Place, informed Agent BYRD that Mrs. BOERRIGTER was born in Missouri; that she was married in the past to a Mr. FOSTER who was in the lumber business; that Mrs. BOERRIGTER has lived next door to her for some twenty years; that she was divorced from Mr. FOSTER and is now married to Mr. BOERRIGTER who was much younger than she. Mrs. VICE said that Mrs. BOERRIGTER formerly was a member of the Christian Church in Pueblo; that some four or five years ago she quit this church and then became a leader in the organization "I AM". She said that in the past the organization held meetings at the home of Mrs. BOERRIGTER; that they would have a meeting about once each week. She added that she did not know how many would attend these meetings but there were a number of cars to arrive at the time of the meetings. She also stated that she had observed the express trucks bring up literature and books to the home of Mrs. BOERRIGTER in the past; that these books would be sold to those who were members of the organization. She informed that the organization later secured a meeting place in downtown Pueblo. Mrs. VICE advised that Mrs. BOERRIGTER had been very active in the affairs of the organization; that she had made a trip to California to testify in court in connection with the organization. She said that she regarded Mrs. BOERRIGTER as being mentally unbalanced; that she had made the remark that she, Mrs. BOERRIGTER, would never die since she was too Holy. Mrs. VICE advised that she had never heard Mrs. BOERRIGTER make any remarks which were against our Government, that she had heard her discuss the present administration of our Government in such a manner that she did in her own mind question the patriotism of Mrs. BOERRIGTER.

Mrs. VICE stated that Mrs. BOERRIGTER had recently returned to Pueblo from Chicago; that she had spent several months in Chicago. She added that she understood Mr. BOERRIGTER was now employed by Libby Packing Company; that he formerly was employed by the WPA in an administrative position.

The records of the Pueblo Mercantile and Credit Association revealed that Mr. EVERETT BOERRIGTER formerly worked as a plasterer; that he was later employed as the district supervisor of the Commodity Room of the PWA. This record also stated that in 1934 Mr. BOERRIGTER was employed as Relief Director for Kiowa County; this being in Colorado. In 1942 Mr. BOERRIGTER was employed at the Public Welfare Department in Pueblo. The record indicated that he and Mrs. BOERRIGTER were married at Raton, New Mexico in 1939; that she was then 45 years of age and he 38 years of age. This record indicated that in July of 1940 Mr. BOERRIGTER was the local leader of "I AM". The paying record of Mr. BOERRIGTER and Mrs. BOERRIGTER indicated that they had been slow and also satisfactory in paying their bills.

R. E. PRATT, Captain, Pueblo Police Department, and W. L. McDONALD, Detective, Pueblo Police Department, advised the Agent that they were not acquainted with the leaders of the organization nor did they have any information concerning the organization. It is to be noted that there is no police record on either Mr. or Mrs. BOERRIGTER.

"I AM" CULT, A Religious Organization	INTERNAL SECURITY - C SEDITION

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

The Los Angeles headquarters of the "I AM" CULT is located at 3173 West Wilshire Boulevard in the studio of CHARLES SINDLAR who formerly handled all of the printing work for the organization. There are approximately 150 members of the cult in Los Angeles at the present time, and classes are held each morning at this address for new members. Approximately six or seven aged women attend these meetings. SINDLAR advised that he is dropping practically all active work with the group and intends to devote his time to painting and to his mining interest at Twenty-nine Palms, California. SINDLAR denied that the group was un-American in any respect.

DETAILS:

CHARLES SINDLAR was interviewed by subterfuge in his studio at 3173 West Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, California. SINDLAR advised that the headquarters of the "I AM" CULT were moved to Santa Fe, New Mexico, more than a year ago. At that time, the Army took over his former studio at 2600 South Hoover Street, and all of the presses used by the cult, which were formerly under his supervision, were moved to Santa Fe. Since that time, SINDLAR has taken no active part in any of the publishing work of the cult and has steadily decreased his other activities, although he still makes drawings of Saint Germaine and Christ which are sold through the cult.

SINDLAR stated that there are about 150 members in Los Angeles at the present time, that they meet in his studio, and that classes are held for the benefit of new members. SINDLAR talked at some length explaining that "I AM" was strictly a religious organization founded on the teachings of the Bible and of Saint Germaine. He declared that the cult is un-American in no way and that every effort is being made to assist in the war effort. He stated that he, personally, has been assisting in locating members of the cult who were delinquent with their draft boards and that the BALLARDS are doing the same thing, as evidenced by DONALD BALLARD's enlistment. He stated that if the government would only realize that there is nothing wrong with the "I AM" CULT they would save themselves thousands of dollars. He stated that Mrs. BALLARD has spent at least $80,000 defending herself in the suits instituted by the government.

Concerning his own activity, SINDLAR stated that he is giving up practically all of his work in the cult, in order to devote his time to his former vocation of painting. He stated that he is leaving immediately for Twenty-nine Palms, California, for the purpose of handling his mining interest and painting.

Through physical surveillance, it was determined that classes are held each week day at 3173 West Wilshire Boulevard from approximately 10:30 A.M. to 12:30 P.M. About six or seven aged women attend these classes. The building at this address, which was obviously constructed as a home, is well maintained. The yards are cared for each morning by a yard man, and the American flag is flown from a fifty-foot flag pole which is in the center of the front yard. One or two persons were observed entering this address from time to time during the day, although no group gatherings, other than the ones mentioned, were noticed.

The following persons were interviewed in an attempt to obtain additional information concerning the present activities of this cult, with negative results:

W. HERBERT GROVT,
Minister of Education,
First Baptist Church,
Corner of West Eighth Street and West Moreland,
Los Angeles, California.

BURTIN B. WILCOX,
Personal Guidance Service,
First Baptist Church,
Los Angeles, California.

"I AM" CULT, a Religious Organization	INTERNAL SECURITY - C (ESPIONAGE)

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS: The Los Angeles headquarters of the "I AM" CULT is located at 3173 West Wilshire Boulevard in the studio of CHARLES DIELAN who formerly handled all of the printing work for the organization. There are approximately 150 members of the cult in Los Angeles at the present time, and classes are held each morning at this address for new members. Approximately six or seven aged women attend these meetings. DIELAN advised that he is dropping practically all active work with the group and intends to devote his time to painting and to his mining interest at Twenty-nine Palms, California. DIELAN denied that the group was un-American in any respect.

DETAILS:

CHARLES DIELAN was interviewed by subterfuge in his studio at 3173 West Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, California. DIELAN advised that the headquarters of the "I AM" CULT were moved to Santa Fe, New Mexico, more than a year ago. At that time, the Army took over his former studio at 2630 South Hoover Street, and all of the presses used by the cult, which were formerly under his supervision, were moved to Santa Fe. Since that time, DIELAN has taken no active part in any of the publishing work of the cult

A nearly illegible letter regarding the "I AM" CULT dated February 3, 1942 was received by this office. It is being set forth as follows for record purposes:

"FBI Men
Watch the "I Am" centre 1325 Sutter St. middle of block.

Full of Germans who fully supported "Hitler" all along.

Now they hide out via religion - fakirs.

Lots went to Phoenix Arizona. A hot spot.
Bless my new country America!

Fred & Wife & soldier son".

No further information confirming this semi-anonymous letter has been received by this office to date.

Confidential Informant [redacted] advised on May 13, 1943 that an unidentified Australian seaman had discussed with him his experiences in trying to establish contact with the local "I AM" congregation. He said that he finally located a "nameless building" (he would not identify the building) in the city where the door "was guarded against the entry of the general public", and upon inquiry he was told when and where beginner classes were held. He enrolled in the beginners' classes, but did not like the general setup. He said that one must attend seven such classes before being selected as a recruit. He said that the class is led by a woman, the door attendants are women, the "judge" for the acceptance of recruits is a woman, the members are mostly women, and most of the officers look "peculiar". He concluded by stating that the indoctrination of beginners consisted primarily of listening to the teacher read from any of the Cult's books or magazines; and a great deal of time spent in repeating orally certain decrees and oaths of the "I AM".

b7D

It is possible that the "nameless building" referred to above was the "I AM" TEMPLE, 1337 Sutter Street, San Francisco. The telephone directory lists the "I AM" TEMPLE at this address, phone TUxedo 0668.

EAST BAY "I AM" CONGREGATION

Headquarters for the "I AM" CULT in the East Bay district is an old Masonic meeting hall at 3255 Grand Street, Oakland, California. The telephone directory lists an "I AM" Reading Room at this address, and gives the telephone number as HIgate 1008.

Up until the end of August 1943 the Cult was located in a club house at 124 Montecito Street in Oakland. On September 4, 1943 Mrs. OTIS BOSWORTH, 300 E. 19th Street, Oakland, house manager of this club house at 124 Montecito Street, was interviewed and advised that Mr. and Mrs. VIRGIL L. BROWN, organizers of the "I AM", resided for some time in the rear of the clubhouse at this address and she had frequent contact with them regarding business matters. Mrs. BOSWORTH stated that these individuals always appeared considerate, were prompt in their financial obligations, but were a "little peculiar". She advised that their peculiarity did not seem to be of a suspicious nature, but rather that it seemed to be a manifestation of a minor psychological quirk.

Mrs. BOSWORTH continued by stating that the only trouble she had had with them was on account of the raucous fervor with which their meetings were conducted. It was a frequent occurence, according to informant, to have the neighbors phone the police regarding disturbance of the peace due to their shoutings and noisy incantations. She pointed out that some teaching of the faith placed moral significances on certain colors, which resulted in having the Cult paint all red fixtures with green paint, and all the black fixtures in the kitchen were painted with aluminum paint.

Mrs. BOSWORTH further stated that the janitor of the building was a fervant member of the Cult, and she understands that he now resides in a room at the new headquarters at 3255 Grand Street. Regarding meetings of the Cult, she advised that there appears to be some sort of meeting nearly every afternoon and evening, and that most of them are closed affairs where one has to show some kind of credential to enter.

She concluded by stating that she does not know where Mr. and Mrs. VIRGIL BROWN now reside, but said that they formerly resided at 353 Grand Street, Oakland. It is her understanding that VIRGIL L. BROWN is chief organizer of the Cult in the East Bay.

By means of a pretext telephone call it was ascertained from a woman with a foreign accent at the "I AM" Reading Room in Oakland that the uninitiated could make use of both the Oakland and the San Francisco Reading Rooms on particular afternoons and evenings. It was intimated that someone is in attendance at these rooms until 10:00 PM each day, and that they will be pleased to indoctrinate any one who so desires.

returned by registrants of that board to the effect that they were members of the I AM organization and consequently she could not advise whether this organization was opposed to the Selective Service Act or not. She advised, however, that she did know Mrs. HERMAN GERBER of Lolo Hot Springs, Montana, who was a member of the organization and who was in California during the Winter of 1942 and also in New Mexico in connection with the I AM organization.

Mrs. BRAYMAN advised that the organization was not identical with the Jehovahs Witnesses, however, she had friends who had relations that were members of the organization and she would advise the writer to contact Mrs. MARY S. BARTLETT who resides at Fort Missoula, Montana, and she was quite certain that Mrs. BARTLETT would advise of the present activities of the organization.

Mrs. BRAYMAN also advised that a member of Subject organization, to the best of her knowledge, was Mrs. OLE (VICTORIA) ANDERSON, who lives on the Target Range Road. She advised that Mrs. ANDERSON had just recently returned from a tour during which time she had visited California and New Mexico.

Mrs. BRAYMAN advised also that Mrs. ROSE KING, 501 Wilma Building, who runs a beauty parlor and Mrs. JAMES M. JENSEN, 224 South 5th Street, were also members of Subject organization.

In conclusion Mrs. BRAYMAN advised that she knew all of the above mentioned people and knew that they were absolutely 100% American and connected in no way with subversive activities. She advised, however, that in her opinion they had a very warped idea of religion.

Mrs. MARY S. BARTLETT advised that she had talked a great deal with Mrs. VICTORIA ANDERSON, who is leader of the group and who resided in the Orchard Homes District on Target Range Road. She advised that what she understood of the organization all the members were of the opinion that if a person wished for something long enough it will eventually be given him. She advised that the meetings are all very spiritual and the organization is very similar to that of the Unity Church and the organization known as "Truth," which is also a religious organization.

Mrs. BARTLETT advised that members of this organization seem to uphold the government very strongly and she is certain that they have the flag kept staning in their reading room at all times. She advised that all the members are vegetarians and they are not allowed to wear any color of red inasmuch as this denotes danger and excitement and they are not allowed to wear black inasmuch as it represents depression. She stated that on most occasions the members wore white and purple or colors which were soft.

Mrs. BARTLETT advised that this organization had regular meetings and the membership was approximately seven or eight members. She advised that the reading room was in room #20 of the Masonic Temple and that some of the meetings were open for the public and some classes were closed.

Mrs. BARTLETT advised further that in her opinion every six months members of this organization had to attend classes for what they called "retraining" in this organization at which time they were required to learn a great number of verses and read continually.

Mrs. BARTLETT also advised that members of this organization were not suppose to ask for money and in her understanding no money was solicited at any time and in her estimation this organization consisted of members with excessive imaginations.

A list of members as obtained from MARY S. BARTLETT are as follows:

Mrs. NORMA CROONENBERGHS
Mrs. GENE BABBET
Mrs. OLE ANDERSON
Mrs. ROSE KING
Mrs. HERMAN GERBER
Mrs. BROWN
Mrs. JAMES JENSEN
Mrs. VAN ETTEN
Mrs. NEUREMBERG

Mrs. BARTLETT stated that she knew the names of these people inasmuch as she had attended a few of the meetings, however, she was not a member of the organization although she did not believe there was anything of a subversive nature connected with Subject organization.

HARRY M. RAWN, who is chairman of the building committee of the Masonic Building, advised that for the past for or five years the I AM organization had rented a room for the purpose of reading and holding their meetings. He advised that on all occasions they were very prompt in paying their rent sometimes by bills, however, for the past few times the rent was paid in small change indicating a possible collection of donations at the meetings.

Mr. RAWN advised that Mrs. OLE ANDERSON usually paid for the rent, however, during the past few months the rent was paid by another lady whose name he did not know.

Mr. RAWN added, however, that for the past four years they had given no trouble whatsoever and a portion of the time while they were in their room everything was very quite, however, at times they sang song and read in unison in a sort of monotone.

Mr. RAWN stated that there were people in the reading room of evenings quite often, however, all of them seemed to be elderly ladies; few men and young people were ever noticed attending the meeting, however, on occasions one or two men had been seen going into the reading room.

In conclusion Mr. RAWN advised that there was a nice alter fixed up in the room and everything was painted white and all writing appeared to be in purple color. He advised that he had been inside the room on a few occasions at which time there very books in the room and what they contained he did not know.

W. B. TRENERRY, elevator operator for the past year in the Masonic Building, advised that in his estimation there was not a great deal of activity on the part of Subject organization and there seven or eight members, ranging in age from thirty-five to seventy years most of whom were women. He advised that on one or two occasions during the evening meetings he had seen two men attend the meetings.

TRENERRY advised that this organization usually has its services during Sunday morning and possibly one or two nights a week. He advised that the members sing and pray and have readings which are read in a sort of monotone.

From a very reliable and confidential source of information a schedule of the group activities of the I AM organization and a donation envelope were obtained and are being retained in the files of the Butte Field Division for any further use deemed necessary. From this source it was also learned that the reading room was painted white with pictures hanging on the walls. There were twelve white chairs in the room and containing an alter and a white piano. There is only one large song book in the reading room which is approximately one foot wide and sixteen inches long and all of the songs are written with purple printing on white background. It is also reported that all of the pictures which are hanging on the walls are printed in purple on a white or creme background.

Mrs. EUNICE BROWN, Grand Secretary of the Order of Eastern Stars whose office is right next to the reading room of the I AM organization, stated that members of the organization gave no trouble whatsoever other than making considerable noise at times when she wanted to work. She advised that they sing songs and appeared to be memorizing verses which they repeat in a monotone. She advised that she had heard nothing of a derogatory nature concerning the organization or indicting that they were connected in any way with subversive activities. She advised that once she overheard plainly that an applicant or person who was present would not salute or pledge allegiance to the flag. She stated that they were trying to decide what was to be done about it and the leader or one of the people present finally said they would do nothing.

Mrs. BROWN advised that her room had been next to the reading room for some time during the past and she was certain that if any statements had made indicating subversive activities on the part of the organization she would have heard it and would have reported the organization long ago.

The following individuals were contacted with negative results for any information regarding the I AM organization:

CLARK DAVIS, Deputy Sheriff of Missoula County
HARRY M. SMITH, Chief of Police, Missoula, Montana
ROBERT MacLEAN, Sheriff
Reverence L. M. POWELL, 2004 South 10th West.

A review of the Butte files reflects that on November 7, 1939, STEPHEN NEUREMBERG, Postmaster, called to the attention of Special Agent JOHN F. TROST an article which appeared in the October 25, 1939, issue of the "Sacramento Union." This article was in regard to the organization known as the "GREAT I AM" which is apparently a religious organization of questionable character. Mr. NEUREMBERG advised that a local chapter of this organization existed at Missoula, Montana, and held meetings in the Masonic Temple.

The files also reflect that on August 27, 1940, Patrolman JAMES HIRST, of the Billings, Montana, Police Department, advised Special Agent W. T. GRAY that information had reached him to the effect that the house situated at 3312 Fourth Avenue North in Billings was usedmysteriously as a meeting place for a group of women. Mr. HIRST stated that his informant could not advise him of the nature of the meeting.

Mr. BEN HAGERMAN, who operates a grocery store across the street from 3312 Fourth Avenue North, advised that this house was owned by Mrs. B. F. MARTIN who resided at 43 Clark Avenue, Billings, Montana. He stated that the house is used only as a meeting place and not as a dwelling. He stated that insofar as he could determine the place was used by a group of women who to the best of his knowledge are known as the "I. M. A. M." group. He advised that his store is a sub-agency for the Post Office and that he sells money orders and that Mrs. ROY PATTERSON of 133 Broadwater Avenue, Billings, Montana, is apparently the secretary of the groups and that she comes to the store and purchases money orders, apparently the money being used for the purchase of literature for the group. He advised that these money orders were usually made out to the Saint Germain Press, Box 1133, Chicago, Illinois. Mr. HAGERMAN stated that the group caught his attention particularly because they always used the back door of the house and never made use of the front door.

Inasmuch as it is apparent that there is a group of members of Subject organization in the vicinity of Billings, Montana, a lead is being set forth to determine the membership and activities of that group.

DETAILS:

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent CHARLES J. MAULE:

AT GUNNISON, COLORADO:

Mr. G. LOUIS MILLER, former President of the Rotary Club, advised that an individual by the name of MILTON EDGAR was the leader of the "I Am" Cult that came from California approximately two years ago. MILLER stated at that time there were some forty to fifty members of the Cult that came to town and stayed at the Allen Hotel and other places in Gunnison. He advised that most all of them dressed in plain blue and appeared well-to-do and spent their cash lavishly in town. He stated that their cars had California license plates and that all of the members appeared to have plenty of money.

MILLER further advised that ROY SHEEK, Manager of the J. C. Penny Company, told him that he made a big bonus during the year 1942 as the result of the members of the Cult spending so much money with his company. Mr. MILLER, who is in the furniture business, stated that Mrs. EDGAR bought the best furniture he had and furnished a large home in Gunnison owned by CHARLES ALLBRIGHT. MILLER stated that it was his opinion that the Cult was holding their meetings in this house but that he had heard no specific information to bear this out. He stated that the members of the Cult caused no trouble and were not objectionable. He stated that most people were suspicious of them at Gunnison but without cause. He advised that they had no apparent means of income yet all of them spend lavishly. MILLER stated that Doctor WILLIAM H. MAST of Gunnison, Colorado had treated one unmarried member of the Cult who was a dentist from California. According to MILLER, Doctor MAST had told him that the dentist had said he joined the Cult for the purpose of avoiding the draft and that though he had a good dental practice in California he desired to come out in the vicinity of Gunnison, Colorado in order to work in the mines and obtain a draft deferment.

MILLER further informed that the members of the Cult had all left Gunnison and had gone to Lake City, Colorado where they ostensibly were interested in mining and had bought up some of the old mines there which were closed down. MILLER stated that Mrs. BALLARD and her son were in Gunnison for awhile but that they had left there, going to Lake City where the whole organization was reported to be going into the mining business. It was his opinion that they had entered this industry because it was adeferable one. MILLER advised that no one in the city of Gunnison had stated to him that the members of the Cult were unpatriotic or disloyal to this country. He stated, however, that he had received information from A. W. HOGAN of the Express Company in Gunnison that truck loads of literature had come in there by express and that it had been directed to the organization at Lake City. It was MILLER's opinion that all of the literature was used for their own organization since none of it had been disseminated at Gunnison, Colorado.

HARRY C. GRUBB, Undersheriff at Gunnison, Colorado, stated that he recalled that the "I Am" Cult came to Gunnison about two years ago. He advised that there was nothing in their behavior at that time to indicate that they were concerned with un-American activities. He advised that people in general were suspicious of them, although no one seemed to have fault with them. He stated most people regarded them as "queer" inasmuch as they were always very pleasant and seemed to have no bad habits whatever such as drinking and smoking. He advised further that they were conservative in their conversation and manner but spent lavishly at all of the firms in town. He stated that they would go into a place and instead of buying one suit they would buy three or four and that money appeared to be no problem to them.

According to GRUBB, there was no derogatory information to be had concerning the Cult at Gunnison, Colorado.

AT MONTROSE, COLORADO:

Sheriff FRANK L. HOVEY advised that the "I Am" Cult was known to most everyone in the city but that they had never held meetings or been active there. HOVEY recalled specifically that a woman, one Mrs. LOUIS CISCO, age 67, Ute, Colorado, had joined the Cult. He stated that prior to the time the organization came into the vicinity of Montrose, this individual had not been very religious but had merely resided on a ranch near Ute, Colorado. He stated that she had died about a year ago. At that time he recalled there was some litigation in the courts over the estate which she had left, since part of it was designated for the "I Am" Cult. Sheriff HOVEY advised that he had gone up to her ranch house at the time Mrs. CISCO died and he had learned later that members of the "I Am" Cult had insisted that her body be frozen and sent to Denver to be cremated. HOVEY advised that some of the local people were under the impression that the Cult was trying to obtain members mostly of whom were well-to-do old women. He could furnish no specific information to support this report.

Sheriff HOVEY further advised that there were anonymous reports going around town to the effect that the Cult was supposed to be an organization against the Government with intent to overthrow the Government, but he had been unable to find any basis for these rumors. Sheriff HOVEY advised that he understood the members of the Cult were building a road from Red Mountain over to Lake City, Colorado, a distance of some ten miles, that would enable the members to go to and from Lake City to their lodge on top of Red Mountain which they have leased for a meeting place.

Mr. CHARLES E. ADAMS, JR., editor of the Montrose Daily Press, advised that numerous rumors had been going around the city regarding the Cult, one being that the members did not believe in living with their own wives but thought it was all right to run around with each other's wives. He stated that another rumor was that the malemembers of the Cult were trying to obtain draft deferments because of being employed in the mines at Ouray and Lake City, Colorado. ADAMS stated that after members were actually so employed there would be little basis for claiming draft deferment because these old mines were no longer active and had little or no value. Mr. ADAMS advised that most of the members were now beginning to locate at Ouray, Colorado and he understood they were having meetings there about every night. He stated that most of the members, particularly MILTON EDGAR, the leader, had a tremendous amount of wealth and yet no visible source of income. It was ADAMS' opinion that they were trying to contact wealthy people and sell them on the belief of their Cult and get them into the organization in order to secure additional funds. He advised that this was merely hearsay information and could furnish no specific basis for the rumors.

ADAMS also advised that he never heard of any of the members having made un-American or disloyal utterances. He advised, however, that most everyone was aware of the fact that they had made requests from the ration boards for supplemental gasoline and tires so that they could drive their big cars around.

Mr. CLYDE M. GARFIELD of the Bolen Motors Company was out of town, but his secretary, Miss BETTY OKEY, was interviewed at which time she stated that she was aware of the Cult's activities at Montrose and also at Ouray, Colorado. She stated that all of the members appeared well mannered and it was stated that there was no derogatory information to be had concerning them. She stated there was nothing in their speech or manner to indicate that they were concerned with subversive activities. She stated they were regarded as suspicious individuals, however, because they appeared to be well-to-do and spend their money lavishly without any visible source of income. She stated that she understood Mrs. BALLARD had leased the Ironton Ski Lodge at Red Mountain, Colorado and she believed that was to be the center of their activities. She advised that Mr. GARFIELD had told her that the Cult had a great deal of literature published and received it for their members, but that they were not spreading any of the pamphlets or books in the vicinity. She advised that, rather in contrast, they were more or less secretive in their activities and preferred to not have people "nosing around in their religious work". She stated that she had never heard of any of the members trying to recruit followers from the city of Montrose or Ouray, Colorado and she did not believe that they were making any effort to increase their membership.

Miss OKEY further stated that she knew no members of the Cult except those who had originally come to Montrose and that vicinity from California.

California. She stated that it was her understanding they were holding meetings every night at a hall next to the Beaumont Hotel at Ouray, Colorado.

AT OURAY, COLORADO:

Mr. BEVERLY SPENCER, editor of the local newspaper at Ouray, Colorado, stated that MILTON EDGAR was the leader of the "I Am" Cult which had evidently taken up its permanent location in that city. He stated also that an individual by the name of E. STICKELL, former attorney from Chicago, was the Traveling Agent for the Cult. According to SPENCER, the Cult carries on a school of instruction, mostly for women of their own organization, and meetings are held almost every night in a room adjacent to the Beaumont Hotel in Ouray. He stated that he believed Mrs. BALLARD, the leader of the Cult, had leased the Ironton Ski Lodge on Red Mountain above Ouray, Colorado as a secret meeting place of the organization. SPENCER stated that the Cult considers this lodge strictly private and they have numerous signs posted indicating that no trespassing on the property is allowed.

SPENCER stated that from information he had obtained in town it was his impression that the Cult disapproved of war or in the helping out with the war effort in any way. Without being specific, SPENCER stated that it was the general impression in town that none of the members were buying War Bonds. SPENCER stated that he heard that the ration board was having trouble over supplementary gas and tires which the members of the Cult had evidently requested. He also stated that some of the male members had evidently obtained deferment from the draft on the basis of being employed in the mines around Ouray.

Mrs. EVELYN SCALA, Clerk of Local Board #68, stated that she was formerly employed in the local ration board at Ouray and at that time she remembered MILTON EDGAR and his sister, JEAN, both leaders in the "I Am" Cult, had made request for supplemental gas and tires. Without being specific, Mrs. SCALA advised that all of the members had fine, big cars and appeared to have B and C ration coupons. In spite of this, they were always wanting more gasoline to make trips to Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Mrs. SCALA further recalled that some months ago she had been employed as an operator for the telephone company at Ouray, Colorado, and at that time Mrs. BALLARD had made a long distance call to a man at Santa Fe, New Mexico. She stated their conversation was about literature which he was printing for her and the "I Am" Cult. She stated that the man had told Mrs. BALLARD that he was slowed up considerably on printing the literature, and he stated in effect that "things got hot" and he moved his printing equipment out of the old garage. Mrs. SCALA advised that most of the members of the Cult in Ouray appeared friendly and there was no cause to be suspicious of them. She stated they held their meetings regularly every night at an old hall in Ouray, and though none of the local town people came to the meetings or were invited, everyone was aware of the fact that they had group singing and group playing there. She stated that there is no indication whatever that they were concerned with un-American activities, but at the same time it was the general impression that the "I Am" Cult was against war and did not desire to do anything to further the war effort of this country.

Mrs. MARJORIE ISRAEL, Clerk of ration board #86, Ouray, Colorado, stated that PAUL H. STICKELL, Ironton Lodge, Post Office Box 349, Ouray, Colorado, had called at the ration board and stated that his home address was 1620 East 84th Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. He stated to the board that he was a Traveling Preacher for the "I Am" Cult and that he drove approximately three thousand miles monthly in conducting his religious duties. He made application on July 16, 1943 for supplemental gas rationing, but the application was refused.

Mrs. ISRAEL remembered specifically that Miss JEAN EDGAR had made application and had received supplemental gasoline for the Ironton Lodge Power Plant. She stated this individual specifically told her that the members of the Cult would not buy Bonds or assist in the war effort. Mrs. ISRAEL, however, stated that practically every member wears an American flag button in their lapel. She stated that several of the members mentioned to her that they were opposed to war.

Concerning their dress, she stated that none of the members would wear red or black inasmuch as they believed these two colors to be evil colors, however, they all believed in wearing pastel shades, and it was not unusual to see them dressed in bright blues, and further, some of their cars were painted bright yellow colors.

According to Mrs. ISRAEL, several of the "I Am" Cult members had stated to her they were going to make Ouray their headquarters "if they were treated all right". She stated that there was nothing suspicious about their activities at Ouray and that their meetings were held apparently for the purpose of playing, reading and talking in unison. She advised that all of the members stay to themselves and do not enter into any local activities.

Sheriff JESS WOOD advised that he had been keeping a close check on the "I Am" Cult and its members. He stated that one member, FRED BENSON, age 20, seemed to be getting other young fellows to come into Ouray to work in the mines and upon the basis of this these individuals were requesting draft deferments from their Local Boards. He stated he had questioned some of the young men and all of them had II-B deferments. JESS WOOD also recalled that another member, THOMAS CHASE, had told a local miner at Ouray, that he would not take any "trail work" because this type of employment would not enable him to receive a draft deferment.

Sheriff WOOD also mentioned an incident which had happened about the first of Septembdr to the effect that a sheep herder in the vicinity of Ironton Lodge had been approached by a man who was a member of the Cult and a self-designated watchman, and this individual, at the point of a gun, had forced the sheep herder off the property and accused him of trespassing on the Ironton Lodge grounds.

Sheriff WOOD stated that there was nothing in the activities of the members at Ouray which could be considered subversive or unpatriotic except for the fact that they had refused to enter into the local Bond Drive.

The following investigation was conducted by the writer:

AT DENVER, COLORADO:

The series of lectures held in the Phipps Auditorium from September 4 to September 26, 1943, as originally reported in reference report, was conducted under the leadership of Mrs. FRANCES EATON from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, together with Mrs. MINNIE PATTEE of Denver, Colorado. The principle speaker at the lectures was Mrs. GUY BALLARD, wife of the founder of the "I Am" Cult. Approximately six hundred people attended this series of lectures daily. It was noted that numerous cars from various counties in Colorado, several cars bearing California license plates, and also ones bearing New Mexico license plates, were present. As of possible interest to the Office of Origin, the following license numbers of the New Mexico cars are being set out: 29; 31; 1382; 2475 and 3837.

All lectures of the series dealt mainly with the "Consuming White Flame that Envelopes all Discord". It was noted that numerous servicemen attended the meetings and all were dressed in white clothes; the men all wearing lapel buttons consisting of one or two miniature American flags. It was a closed meeting and only those holding invitations were admitted. The audience included several colored people.

It was ascertained that the "I Am" group has made arrangements to hold a similar conference at Wild Basin Lodge for a period of several days beginning September 27, 1943. This lodge is near Allenspark, Colorado and will accommodate approximately three hundred people.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent ROBERT D. DELLWO. The information set forth was obtained from Mr. B. D. CHENOWITH who advised that he was a group leader of the "I Am" Cult from Jackson, Florida. Mr. CHENOWITH made the following statements concerning the policies of faith as held by members of the "I Am" Cult:

The rationale of the sect is somewhat as follows: It will be remembered that at the time the Holy Ghost appeared to Moses on Mt. Sanai and, as recorded in other places in the bible especially in the Gospel of St. John, the statement was made by the Supreme being, "I Am," meaning I am the amplitude of being and "I am The Light", meaning that from me the light of all truth, knowledge, good, etc. flows. From this and from the inspiration of their own leaders the doctrines of the "I Am" movement were formulated. In effect they postulate that the "godhead", existing somewhere in the outer reaches of the universe and that he emits vibrations or "cosmic light" which has the brilliancy of a "thousand suns" and which permeates all being and is the principle of all existence. If this light is removed from a being it passes immediately out of existence.

In the process of creation of man "in the image and likeness of God" there is condensed from this cosmic light miniature fountains of light which are the spiritual being of various men, women, etc. This light is focused on our Pineal gland and is manifasted in a silver nerve which runs to our hearts. But this "fountain of light" is really us and exists over us and around us and is capable of "lighting the world", cleansing it of evil and discord with its "living flame" and radiate energy to all creation in the same manner that the god head of light does but in a lesser quantity. In proportion that we are evil or bound to the material things of this world we are pure matter and our "light of life" dims or even trends to go out. Only by throwing off our bodily desires, cleansing our minds, and becoming gloriously aware of the existence of our real being "this light or this I AM" can we perfect ourselves and finally ascend into the perfect universe called heaven. Also, only by doing this, does our cosmic energy become strong enough to aid in the purification of the whole world. Once this light springs to its full effulgence in a great number of people it may, by mental concentration and physical activity, be sent all over the world, furnishing light to it and burning away imperfection. However, until we personally attain that perfection, we keep being reproduced in material form through the years or even centuries until we do.

Christ was the first "ascendent being" who developed the "light of his life" to such brilliancy that not only was he purified so that he could ascend into heaven but so that he could actually wield a purifying influence over the whole world. FRANCES BACON, the real founder of the "I Am", and the real author of Shakespearian plays, was reincarnated at the time of Napoleon in the body of St. Germain. He is the real founder but the thousands of others who have become ascendent beings exist on the higher plane ready to help us as soon as we have purified ourselves enough for us to be helped.

The golden age is about to come to the world. The United States is the focal point of its coming introduction. Consequently, the chief political activity of the "I Am" is subordinated to the one aim of making the United States as perfect as possible. To that end they were first isolationists and wanted to keep the United States out of war so as to preserve its present perfection for further perfection. When we were forced to enter the world its chief aim was to keep the war out of the United States. To this end they not only sought to make the United States economically strong enough to keep the enemy at a distance but, by their meetings where they as a group collected all their flames of life together into one living flame and added to it the flames of some of the ascendent beings, they sent their vibrations through all the world which tend to perfect the United States, then the whole western hemisphere and finally even send "tongues of living flame" to clean imperfection, discord, etc. etc., out of the other hemisphere. Presently the other hemisphere is so evil that the flames or spiritual beings of the people are so dim as to be snowed under and foundered in the preponderance of evil.

Mr. CHENOWITH claimed that the "I Am" movement consists of about 5,000,000 people in the United States and received its first real impetus in 1932 and progressed from that date with the miraculousness born of truth and of having the real light. It is still a United States activity and has very little representation, if any, in foreign countries. It is presently dominated by Mr. and Mrs. BALLARD who make their living from the "love gifts" of the congregations and from the circulation of its magazines and books. Mrs. MINNIE PATTEE is the leader in Denver and has at least 1,000 followers who are active and others who are comparatively inactive.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent DONALD W. GERE:

Undersheriff THOMAS MAINLAND, Denver County, Colorado, advised that in November of 1942 a Mr. O. T. GIFFEN started up the Consumer's Service, Incorporated, designating himself as President and consisting of the following officers: L. L. WILDER, Secretary and Treasurer; Doctor W. M. SHEATS; F. S. SNYDER; LEWIS CHATHAM; T. A. WRAY, as Directors. He advised that this company purchased numerous expensive articles from the Kistler's Stationary Company of Denver with which they completely outfitted their suite of offices. He advised that he later learned this Consumer's Service, Incorporated was made up entirely of members of the "I Am" group; that no money was ever paid on the office furniture, and that as the result, on November 30, 1942 the office furniture was returned to the Kistler Company for non-payment. Mr. MAINLAND stated that as far as he knew this company was no longer in existence.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent ROY C. DAHL.

A search of the telephone directory reflected that a telephone was listed for the "I AM" organization reading room located at 1216 East Sixth Street, Tucson. In checking the city directory it was ascertained that this address is the residence of INGA O. BELL, the operator of a physical therapy and massage parlor at the address. Records maintained by the Tucson Credit Association reveal that Mrs. BELL is forty years of age, a widow who derives her income from her business and from her realty.

Captain ROY ROBINSON and Sergeant YEAZELL of the Tucson Police Department, both of whom reside in the vicinity of 1216 East Sixth Street, stated that they had no knowledge concerning the activities of the Cult at that address. They had no information that the Cult was engaging in practices inimical to the best interests of this country; furthermore, they supposed that the membership was very small or their attention might otherwise have been attracted to the Organization.

Mrs. INGA O. BELL was interviewed by Agent DAHL under pretext at her home. She informed him that the Cult did not counsel conscientious objection to military service and pointed out that the son of Mrs. EDWARD BALLARD was now in military service. She named the son of Mrs. CONNIE DICK, a member of the Tucson Branch, as another who was presently serving in the armed forces. Mrs. BELL extolled the virtues of the Organization, reiterating in substance the views of other members as set out in referenced report. She reviewed the program of instruction adhered to at Tucson, which is substantially the same as that followed in Phoenix and reported upon heretofore. Mrs. BELL stated that she is the leader of the Cult which is composed of some ten other members; they make up the Tucson membership. She added that the membership from time to time has been more substantial in numbers but explained that persons have joined the Group, found the tenets of "I AM" Cult to be incompatible with their religious convictions and have thereafter left the Activity.

AT PHOENIX, ARIZONA:

A. L. GAGNIER, again contacted under pretext, again made claim to leadership of the Cult in the City of Phoenix. He insisted that if there was anything expounded by the Cult which was inconsistent with the welfare of this country he would not continue to interest himself in it. While reiterating remarks contained in referenced report relative to conflict between Cult and State, he urged that such differences were not basic; he conceded that the Organization was opposed to certain attitudes of the Roosevelt Administration, not opposed to the ends sought to be accomplished but to the means employed to accomplish those ends. He again informed that the strength of the Cult was located in Phoenix and in Tucson, that there are no units of the Group elsewhere in the State of Arizona.

LANE SICKLES, Assistant Postal Superintendent, advised that the cover placed August 16, 1943 by this office on mail destined to this Organization was productive of negative results.

With the prosecution of investigation of instant case completed and duly reported, it is being referred upon completion to the office of origin on the authority of the Special Agent in Charge.

DETAILS: Informant A stated, "While our men are winning the war abroad, we are losing it at home, as is evidenced by the reversal of the decision of the Appelate Court in the 'I Am' case, the Government versus EDNA BALLARD and others". Further, that nation after nation has fallen through well educated talented people in high positions, having been taken over mentally and emotionally by organizations such as the "I Am". Informant further stated that the first step of Nazism and Fascism has always been mental aggression, followed by emotional aggression and then aggression upon the country. Informant pointed that Mrs. BALLARD had stated before her trial that she would be freed if convicted and pointed out how she would be freed, and it had turned out just that way. Her followers believed that it was the mighty "I Am" presence that did it, and that now there are three million people ready to do her bidding when she is ready to strike, which will be immediately after the next trial if she is freed.

Informant stated that she was continuing to make contacts and secure information as to who the leaders were, and what was going on. Informant stated that through factual findings it has been ascertained that the same leaders are in operation today as when the BALLARDS were openly active.

Informant stated that Mr. and Mrs. ENSOR, he a former Christian Science Reader and she a teacher of Artin the public schools, are the heads of the order today, as they were when Mrs. BALLARD was permitted to operate openly, and that they have just returned to San Diego after spending two years in Colorado with Mrs. BALLARD. Informant further stated that Mr. and Mrs. ENSOR were slated to go to Laguna Beach for a Conclave in the near future.

Informant also advised that HAZEL DAVIS and JESSIE WEISEMAN, telephone operators in the San Diego Gas and Light Company, are very active and have always aspired to be leaders, particularly JESSIE WEISEMAN, as she gave up all she had and followed Mrs. BALLARD to Colorado, but is now back in her old position in the San Diego Gas and Light Company. Informant's information came from one of the sub-station operators, and informant states that these two women know where every part of the Gas Company's equipment is located and have contacts with the leading men and women in the entire organization, pointing out that when these "WILLIAM DUDLEY PELLEY" trained operators strike, they strike where it will be most apt to cripple a nation, indicating that utilities are vulnerable points for such action.

AT LAGUNA BEACH, CALIFORNIA

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent GERARD A. POTE:

Chief PAUL JOHNSON, Laguna Police Department, advised that the "I Am" Sanctuary in Laguna Beach was located at 812 South Coast Boulevard. He advised that his Department has always kept the activities of this organization under observation, since the arrest of the leaders in Los Angeles. This source stated, that in the past year he has never seen anyone enter or leave the sanctuary, with the exception of Mrs. BERTHA McELWAIN, the local leader. He continued that inasmuch as he hadn't observed or heard of any group frequenting the sanctuary, or of any large meetings being held, he had concluded it was being kept open through the financial support and personal persistency of Mrs. McELWAIN. Chief JOHNSON added that his Department had never received any complaint which would indicate it was dangerous to the internal security of this country and that he himself has always considered it "just a religious racket".

Mrs. FRANK STOW, Temple Hills Real Estate Company, 888 South Coast Boulevard, advised she is personally acquainted with Mrs. BERTHA EDNA McELWAIN, who has been, for the past seven or eight years, the local leader of the "I Am" sect in Laguna Beach. This informant advised that when this movement first originated, Mrs. McELWAIN held the meetings in her home at 700 Thalia Street, Laguna Beach, then about five or six years ago rented the store which is presently called the "I Am Sanctuary". Mrs. STOW advised to her personal knowledge, Mrs. McELWAIN pays all the expenses of the organization and also the rent on the building which is twenty-five dollars per month. This informant pointed out that she resided at 252 Uturpie Street, which is located across the street from the sanctuary and as a result due to the location of her business and residence is in a position to continually observe the activities at the Sanctuary. She stated that in the past year she has never observed more than one or two people about the sanctuary, and to her knowledge there has never been a meeting which had more than five people in it. Mrs. STOW suggested that this Agent contact Mrs. RUTH HOLMES, who resides about the "I Am" sanctuary for further information. She advised that Mrs. HOLMES could identify the other woman she has seen about the sanctuary on occasions.

Mrs. RUTH HOLMES, 812½ South Coast Boulevard, upon being contacted gave substantially the same information as Mrs. STOW. She added that Miss ETHEL NEALEY, who resides in back of the "I Am" sanctuary, was the only other member of this sect besudes Mrs. McELWAIN, that she knew. This informant advised that although she has resided above the sanctuary for the past seven months she has never heard or observed a meeting being conducted in the sanctuary. Mrs. HOLMES stated that a Mrs. ONA SORTWEEL had formerly resided with her and had gone into the sanctuary expecting to attend a meeting as she had heard voices, evidently raised in prayer, but after entering found that it all originated in a phonograph machine. This source was requested by the reporting Agent to attempt to ascertain from Mrs. McELWAIN, or Miss NEALEY, whether they expected to hold a meeting in the near future, the extent of the sects membership, and any other information of possible value.

Mrs. ONA SORTWEEL, 444 Upper Third Street, upon being contacted reiterated the facts surrounding her visit to the "I Am" sanctuary, as obtained from Mrs. HOLMES. She stated that Mrs. McELWAIN was present in the sanctuary at the time, along with Miss NEALEY, and that they had explained to her that the phonograph records she was listening to were prayers and speeches made by Saint BALLARD, who had died about two years ago. Mrs. SORTWEEL stated that another woman was also in the sanctuary at the time, but did not believe she was a member as she acted like a visitor and Mrs. McELWAIN also explained to her the nature of the services. In this line, this informant stated the evident basis of the "I Am" sect was the teaching that each person had within him, or herself, the eternal being, called by the sect the "I Am". Mrs. SORTWEEL stated that for years she has been curious to find out just what this sect stood for, however, when she attempted to have Mrs. McELWAIN explain what it was, Mrs. McELWAIN stated that it would first be necessary for her to read the life and teachings of Saint GERMAINE, the founder of the "I Am", before she could commence to instruct her in the full teachings of the sect. When questioned, this informant stated she had lived with Mrs. HOLMES, above the sanctuary, for a period of four months and during that time had never observed any meetings being held.

Mrs. RUTH HOLMES was recontacted at a later date, and advised that she had observed no meetings being held in the sanctuary. She stated Mrs. McELWAIN had advised her she was leaving for Denver to take further study in the teachings of the "I Am" sect and had stated she expected to be gone for some time, possibly over a month. Mrs. HOLMES also advised she had spoken to Miss NEALEY and had questioned her concerning the membership of the cult. Miss NEALEY had merely stated that the membership in Laguna Beach was very poor and had not indicated how many members they actually had.

No further investigation was conducted in Laguna Beach as the information to date indicates that this organization as far as activity is concerned is practically defunct. Further, there is no evidence that any meetings have been held or are intended to be held in Laguna Beach.

DETAILS: Informant A stated, "While our men are winning the war abroad, we are losing it at home, as is evidenced by the reversal of the decision of the Appelate Court in the 'I Am' case, the Government versus EDNA BALLARD and others." Further, that nation after nation has fallen through well educated talented people in high positions, having been taken over mentally and emotionally by organizations such as the "I Am". Informant further stated that the first step of Nazism and Fascism has always been mental aggression, followed by emotional aggresion and then aggression upon the country. Informant pointed that Mrs. BALLARD had stated before her trial that she would be freed if convicted and pointed out how she would be freed, and it had turned out just that way. Her followers believed that it was the mighty "I Am" presence that did it, and that now there are three million people ready to do her bidding when she is ready to strike, which will be immediately after the next trial if she is freed.

ORA D. ORLE, a spinster and religious eccentric, was a member of the Organization.

From A Confidential Source was obtained a copy of "Purpose of the Ascended Masters of 'I AM' Activity". This copy set forth as a member of Sect the name "OTTO HAMMEL". A check of the Phoenix indices reflects that this same individual, A German by birth, was the subject of Phoenix files 100-230 and 65-190, both of which were closed after investigation developed that HAMMEL was a fanatic and a religious eccentric, a staunch member of the Activity.

ARTHUR LOUIS GAGNIER was interviewed by the writer under the guise of obtaining further information concerning the activities of OTTO HAMMEL, the alleged author of un-American statements and reportedly a member of the "I AM" Activity. GAGNIER admitted knowing HAMMEL well and informed that the latter died in Santa Fe, New Mexico about six months ago. GAGNIER siezed upon the opportunity to make disclosures concerning the local activity of the Organization when asked to explain how Nazi-sympathizer HAMMEL became associated with the "I AM" Activity. His remarks in substance are cataloged below.

MEMBERSHIP

The Activity in Phoenix is composed of approximately one hundred men, women and young people. Another Reading Room is located at Tucson, Arizona, the number of its membership GAGNIER stated he did not know. GAGNIER acknowledged being a Group Leader of the Phoenix branch.

SCHEDULE OF MEETINGS

Several meetings of the Activity are held weekly, scheduled as follows:

Sunday	10:30 A.M.	All-Mens' Group
"	7:30 P.M.	Student Group
Monday	1:30 P.M.	Fundamental Group (Open)
"	7:30 P.M.	Fundamental Group (Open)
Tuesday	7:30 P.M.	Student 100% Group
Wednesday	1:30 P.M.	Ladies Group
Thursday	7:30 P.M.	Student Group
Friday	1:30 P.M.	Student Group

RELIGIOUS VIEWS

Indications are that this Activity is a religious group which subscribes to certain theosophical principles based on an ideology allegedly derived from a series of principles ascribed to Saint Germain, acknowledged by members of the Cult to be an "Ascended Master". As such Saint Germain is considered to occupy a like position with the Founder of Christianity and because of the excellence of his life on earth Edward BALLARD is now likewise one of the "Ascended Masters". BALLARD is considered to have been the reincarnation of GEORGE WASHINGTON, who is considered an "Ascended Master" and is revered by the Activity on a religious conviction. The Activity reportedly is jealous of the Constitution of the United States for the reason that, they maintain, the patriots who figured in shaping this document were throughout their deliberations under the influence of Saint Germain; leaders of "I AM" attach to themselves the responsibility of giving interpretation to Constitutional Provisions and to the Constitutionality of legislation. It is their belief that this country will eventually be controlled by the "I AM" Activity because in due course the attractiveness of the Cult's principles will prove irresistible to all Americans. Prior to the institution of prosecution in Los Angeles in 1940 the Activity claimed some 6,000,000 members throughout the world and, according to the interviewee, great strides were being made by the Activity in Eastern United States; because of the stigma of the criminal suit on the Pacific Coast interest in the East waned. Mrs. BALLARD is regarded by Sect members as the Founder of Christianity. She is well regarded by Christians and members of the sect would do her bidding. The various literary works of BALLARD are to be found in public libraries generally and these works in ineffable language purpostedly set out the doctrines of the Activity. The Cult's interpretation of the doctrine of the Trinity is that the Father is the "Mighty I AM"; the Son is the "Ascended Master Group" and the Holy Spirit is the "Spirit within each member. The Activity seems to be based on a strange altruism.

POLITICAL VIEWS

The Organization is reportedly opposed to Communism and to foreign ideologies. It looks upon the current World Conflict as one in which this country should not be a participant but it does countenance Selective Service. It is opposed to the inoculation of soldiers because it is opposed to inoculation because the serums are obtained from animals. It is opposed to eating flesh foods because it is not certain that animals too have souls. As stated above, the Cult maintains that it is the divinely appointed safeguard of the Constitution, that interpretation of it, etc. properly the province of Cult officials, opinion to the contrary notwithstanding. At each meeting those attending recite passages from historic American documents and engage in the singing of American patriotic songs; the rest of the meeting time is devoted to the interpretation by leaders of tenets and religious convictions of the Sect as set down by EDWARD BALLARD and his wife.

GAGNIER stated that after a period of indoctrination members are then given a membership card bearing a number and the date on which the member became such. Each member is required to show his card before gaining entrance to meetings irrespective of his position in Activity affairs. GAGNIER showed [illegible] the writer his card which bears Identification Number 7850, awarded to him on May 24, 1942. For violation of regulations members forfeit their cards, which are summarily taken up when a delinquent member presents himself at a subsequent meeting. GAGNIER stated that after the United States entered the war he sought to enter military service as a chiropractor but was turned down for the reason that his service was not needed in that capacity. GAGNIER is a member in good standing of the Civil Air Patrol, Office of Defense Transportation. He indicated that he would be glad to serve his country in the event he is called for service.

A check of the charge-out cards of the several books on the shelves of the Phoenix Public Library reflect that these volumes have been charged out very infrequently since 1939.

record of the "I Am" Cult, but stated that he had a vague recollection of having seen an advertisement in one of the local papers of recent date in regard to a meeting of subject organization.

CARL DALQUIST, City Editor of the New Haven Journal Courier, as well as E. B. HARVEY, Publisher of that paper, advised that they had no recollection of having received any information concerning the "I Am" Cult, and WILLIAM H. CULLUM, Business Manager of the New Haven Register likewise advised that he was unfamiliar with the "I Am" Cult.

The editions of both of these papers which constitute the only daily newspapers published in New Haven, Connecticut, were examined for a period from May 1 to June 30, 1943, however, no indication could be found in either paper of an advertisement for instant organization.

At the Price and Lee Company, 246 Meadow Street, which company publishes City Directories, an examination was made of various directories published for the State of Connecticut for a listing in regard to the "I Am" Cult. However, the results of this examination were negative. Inquiry was likewise made of Miss ANNE SCHANE, who is in charge of compiling the association sections of the various directories, and she advised that she was not familiar with the "I Am" organization, nor had a listing for such organization ever been contained in any of her files or in any of the directories published by Price and Lee.

H. L. SEAMANS, of the National Conference for Christians and Jews, 185 Church Street, stated that he covers the entire New England district for his organization, and that his work brings him in contact with all kinds of religious organizations operating in that area. He advised, however, that he has never discovered any unit of the "I Am" organization in the course of his work.

Mr. H. B. FISHER, Liaison Officer, Yale University, furnished the writer with various publications contained in the Yale University Libraries in regard to the subject organization, which publications will be discussed inasmuch as it is not known whether the Bureau or the Office of Origin is in possession of prior information in this regard.

"Unveiled Mysteries" by GODFRE RAY KING presented to Yale University by G. W. BALLARD, copyright 1934 and 1935 by St. Germain Press, Post Office Box 113, Chicago, Illinois, contains an editor's note by LOTUS RAY KING, as well as a tribute and forward by GODFRE RAY KING. It is the recordings of experiences by the author through his contacts with the ascended Master on Mt. Shasta in California in August, September, and October of 1930.

"The Magic Presence" by GODFRE RAY KING presented to Yale University by G. W. BALLARD, copyright 1935 by the St. Germain Press, Post Office Box 113, Chicago, Illinois, contains a tribute and forward by the author and relates a second group of experiences which the author states he was privileged to have "through the love and assistance of the beloved ascended Master, St. Germain".

"The Voice of The I Am", Edition No. 5, for the month of July, 1936, published at the Sindlar Studios, 2600 South Street, Los Angeles, California, copyright 1936 by the St. Germain Press, contains general "I Am" propaganda, and it reflects therein that the "I Am" Reading Rooms are located as follows:

Los Angeles, 7th and Olive Streets
Philadelphia, 1325 Spruce Street
San Diego, Calif., 6th & Broadway, Bank of America Building, Room 341

It is further stated that further appearances of the messengers would be made at San Francisco, California, at the Scottish Rite Auditorium, Sutter and VanNess Street.

This pamphlet had attached to it a letter dated August 11, 1940, written by E. J. WALL, 242 South Harvard Blvd., Los Angeles, California, to Hon. J. JOSEPH SMITH, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., which letter is as follows:

"Ascended Master Light" by LOTUS RAY KING presented to the Yale University by G. W. BALLARD, copyright 1938 by St. Germain Press, Post Office Box 113, Chicago, Illinois, contains a tribute and forward by GODFRE RAY KING and LOTUS RAY KING, and is a series of sermons and lectures by the "great cosmic being".

"The I Am Discourses" by GODFRE RAY KING presented to Yale University by G. W. BALLARD, copyright in 1940 by St. Germain Press, Post Office Box 113, Chicago, Illinois, contains author's appreciation by GODFRE RAY KING in which he expresses gratitude for the help of LOTUS RAY KING for editing the book, and to BETTY LUNDY for preparing the manuscript, and to ARTHUR BROOKS and MAE DA CAMARA for their painting of the "Magic Presence". There is also contained in this book an editor's note by LOTUS RAY KING and a tribute and forward by GODFRE RAY KING. The book contains 33 discourses said to have been "dictated over a visible light and sound ray".

"Psychic Dictatorship in America" by GERALD B. BRYANT, published by True Research Publications, 456 South Weston Avenue, Los Angeles, California, copyright 1940. The nature of this publication is indicated by the following phrase appearing in the preface; "This is a history and psychological study of one of America's most outstanding cults, and incredible story of the strangest dictatorship now current in our land".

It is reflected in the publication that GUY W. BALLARD is known as GUY GEORGE GODFRE RAY KING BALLARD; and EDNA W. BALLARD is known as EDNA ANNA WHEELER LOTUS RAY KING, as well as "Little Dynamite" and "CHANARA".

"The American Mercury", Volume L10, number 206, for February, 1941, contains an article appearing on page 167 entitled "The Lunitic Fringe of Religion. On pages 171 and 172 the writer deals with the "I Am" cult. "The American Mercury" is published by the American Mercury, Inc., Concord, New Hampshire, and this magazine has its editorial and general offices at 570 Lexington Avenue, New York City.

The Publishers Weekly of January 4, 1941, No. 1, published by the R. R. BAKER Company, 19th and Federal Streets, Camden, New Jersey, with editorial offices at 62 West 45th Street, New York City, has an article appearing on page 42 entitled, "Borden Sues I Am Cult Leaders". This article states that the Borden Publishing Company of Los Angeles, California sued the "I Am" Cult charging that the Cult's publication, "Unveiled Mysteries", was copied from a book entitled, "A Dweller on Two Planets", written under the pen name of PHYLOS by the late FREDERICK S. OLIVER and copyrighted 1894. It is further reflected that LESLIE ROBERT OLIVER, the son of FREDERICK S. OLIVER, together with the Borden Publishing Company were the plantiffs in the suit and claimed that their copyright had been violated.

The New York Times of January 21, 1941, on page 7 column 8, contains an article in which it is reflected that the leaders of the "I Am" Cult were acquitted of charges brought against them as a result of alleged mail fraud.

In addition to the above publications furnished by Mr. FISHER, he advised under date of July 3, 1943, that he and his wife had reviewed material in their personal library which failed to reflect any literature on the "I Am" Cult. However, he stated that both he and Mrs. FISHER recalled very definitely having received literature in recent years.

Mr. FISHER further stated that he had a vague recollection that a meeting of the "I Am" Cult had been held in the Hotel Taft in New Haven, Connecticut, and as a result of such indication, MILTON T. CLARK, Assistant Manager of the Hotel Taft was contacted and advised that he had no recollection, nor did he have any record, that subject organization had ever conducted a meeting at the hotel.

In the New Haven Free Public Library, Miss EVELYN GERALDS searched the records of that library and produced all the records in the library's possession on the subject organization, a review of which, however, failed to reflect any material other than that contained in the material secured from the Yale University Library.

In an attempt to locate units of the "I Am" Cult operating in Connecticut, inquiry was made at Waterbury, Connecticut, by Special Agent CLARENCE H. GLOVER with negative results; by Special Agent LESLIE GRADY in Bridgeport, Connecticut, with negative results; by Special Agent THOMAS J. MC ANDREWS at New London, Connecticut, with negative results; and by Special Agent ROSWELL T. SPENCER at Greenwich and Stamford, Connecticut, with negative results.

The writer conducted inquiry at Hartford, Connecticut. On June 30, 1943, WILLIAM A. DOWER, Hartford Chamber of Commerce, 50 Lewis Street, advised that his office had no record of the subject organization. HARRY E. MUIR, of the Connecticut Council of Churches and Religious Education, 18 Asylum Street also advised that organization had no record of the "I Am" Cult. However, REV. JAMES E. ENGLISH of the Congregational House, 37 Gordon Street, stated that he recalled having heard that a unit of the "I Am" Cult at one time conducted meetings in the Brown-Thomson Building at 942 Main Street,

W. E. SHAW, Building Manager of the Brown-Thomson Building, advised that the "I Am" Cult maintains a meeting place in that building, which has been occupied by them for approximately three years. He stated that this room is not held under any lease, but merely on a month to month basis, and further advised that no records of rentals are kept and, therefore, he stated he was unable to indicate the exact period of time that the subject organization has operated a unit in the building. He stated that the rental is paid by check. However, he advised that he has never had occasion to note the name of the maker of the check, nor has he any record as to the bank upon which the checks are drawn.

He advised that a man by the name of CHAMPION and his wife were the leaders of the unit at Hartford, Connecticut, and he stated that meetings are held by this unit on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday evenings, and also on certain Sundays during the year. SHAW advised that ERNST SULL, who is a painter by occupation and who maintains his residence in room 86 of the Brown-Thomson Building, was a member of the "I Am" Cult at Hartford, Connecticut. However, he stated that he knew of no other individuals who belonged to the organization.

A. D. HOOVER, elevator operator in the Brown-Thomson Building, advised that the "I Am" Cult, has its meeting place in that building, and is composed of very high type individuals for whom he has the utmost respect. He stated that there are approximately twenty-five members of this unit, of which E. W. CHAMPION and his wife are the leaders.

According to HOOVER, the Hartford Unit meets on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday evenings and also on seven specifically designated Sundays throughout the year. He advised that the meetings are apparently of a religious nature, and stated that the organization maintains some kind of a phonograph reproducing machine on which organ music is played during the meetings. According to HOOVER, E. W. CHAMPION is in the insurance business at Hartford, Connecticut, and it is indicated in the city directory for Hartford, Connecticut, that his full name is EDGAR W. CHAMPION, and his wife's name is NETTA CHAMPION, employed as an examiner by the Aetna Insurance Co., and resides at 9 Wardwell Road in West Hartford, Connecticut.

Both SHAW and HOOVER speak very highly of CHAMPION and his wife and further indicated that the members of the "I Am" unit of Hartford, Connecticut, were all individuals of good repute in regard to whom no derogatory information had ever come to their attention.

It was indicated by HOOVER that the unit in Hartford, Connecticut had originally been started by the mother-in-law of E. W. CHAMPION, whose name HOOVER did not know. He stated that CHAMPION's mother-in-law had resided on the West Coast at one time, where it was believed she was introduced to the "I Am" Cult, and upon moving to Hartford, Connecticut, instituted a unit.

Further investigation in regard to the unit of the subject organization operating in Hartford, Connecticut, was made by Special Agent EDGAR C. PARKHURST, and reflects that NETTA CHAMPION, the wife of EDGAR W. CHAMPION, is the leader of the Hartford unit which is said to comprise approximately thirty-five members and to be financed by contributions from such members.

It is stated that the Hartford unit does not make any donations to the headquarters of the "I Am" Cult, and receives no financial aid from the headquarters. It is claimed that the Hartford unit is a national organization of a religious, patriotic character.

Information obtained from the Better Business Bureau by Special Agent PARKHURST reflected that the contributions of the members of the Hartford unit of the "I Am" Cult take care of the expenses of that unit, and the members of the unit are drawn from all forms of religious organizations without discrimination.

It was determined by Special Agent EDGAR C. PARKHURST that EDGAR W. CHAMPION carries his bank account at the Phoenix State Bank and The Society For Savings in Hartford, Connecticut. He is said to have an annual income of approximately $3,000, and is presently about fifty years of age. He has been employed by the Aetna Fire Insurance Company for twenty-five years, and prior to residing at 9 Wardwell Road in West Hartford, Connecticut, he lived at 29 Penn Drive, West Hartford, and also at Farmington, Connecticut. His credit record is reported to be good.

Special Agent EDGAR C. PARKHURST contacted W. E. SHAW, Superintendent of the Brown-Thomson Building, who indicated to Special Agent PARKHURST that he had received instructions to keep out of the room occupied by subject organization in the Brown-Thomson Building, and he further advised that the organization does its own janitor work, and that he has been instructed to keep out of the room except in cases of emergency.

The reference report of Special Agent JOHN J. BRACKEN set forth a lead for the New Haven Field Office to make inquiry at Local Board 2-B, Hartford, Connecticut, relative to the Selective Service registration of an individual by the name of PAUL H. STICKELL. It is indicated in such reference report that he had registered for the draft at Local Board 2-B, Hartford, Connecticut, according to information furnished by Local Board 91 located at 1547 East 79th Street, Chicago, Illinois. KENNETH L. HENDERSON of Local Board 2-B, 249 High Street, advised that the Board had no record of the registration of an individual by the name of PAUL H. STICKELL, or any similar name.

In connection with the reference report of Special Agent JOHN J. BRACKEN, it is noted undeveloped leads are set out for the Chicago Field Division to conduct investigation as to the identity and background and activities of GODFRE RAY KING, LOTUS RAY KING, and DONALD RAY KING, and as indicated herein, such names are the aliases of GUY W. BALLARD, EDNA W. BALLARD, AND DONALD BALLARD.

A check of the indices of the New Haven Field Office fails to reflect any previous information received in connection with the subject organization.

are staged always in orderly fashion; he related that the membership apparently was small but made up of respectable people of the community. McCURRY advised further that there appears to be no disposition on the part of any of these people to proselytize, no random distribution of literature expounding Cult views and no solicitation of funds. He could not furnish information concerning what transpires at the meetings but related that the meetings are punctuated by the singing of patriotic hymns. McCURRY related that he has come to the acquaintance of certain of the Activity members, who have made incidental purchases for the Cult at his place of business. On occasions parcel post packages addressed from some city on the Pacific Coast have been left with McCURRY in the absence of members from the Reading Room. He named the following prominent members of the local chapter of the Activity:

Mrs. F. J. FOLTZ, 341 East Culver Street
Mrs. E. K. PHILLIPS, 719 East Moreland Street
Miss ORA D. ORME, Orme Avenue

Mrs. E. K. PHILLIPS, 719 East Moreland, was interviewed by the writer under pretext for the purpose of determining the identity of the most prominent male leader of the Cult in Phoenix. Mrs. PHILLIPS did not show a disposition to talk about the Activity but did state that she had abandoned interest in the Cult, in favor of still another novel Sect. She stated that Doctor A. L. GAGNIER a chiropractor practicing in Phoenix, was a Group Leader and an active member.

On July 16, 1943 a cover of all First and Fourth Class mail was placed with LANE E. SICKLES, Assistant Superintendent of the Phoenix Post Office. SICKLES advised that the Organization does not rent a mail box, that all mail is directed to 919 North First Street.

Investigation of A. L. GAGNIER developed the following information concerning him. He is a practicing chiropractor who resides at 4109 North Longview and retains an office at 17 South First Street. He was born at Bay City, Michigan in 1902, is married and the father of four children. He registered duly for military service with Local Board #3, Phoenix and was classified 3A on August 24, 1942, which classification he continues to enjoy. GAGNIER is a member of the Civil Air Patrol #8-5-215, his license #S 227970. He has been practicing chiropody in Phoenix since 1932, during which time he has managed to develop a poor credit record and to eke out a livelihood. He does not have a local criminal record and the Phoenix Office indices are negative as to him.

LIN B. ORME, President of the Salt River Valley Water Users Association, stated that he knew nothing of the "I AM" Cult except that his cousin,

Gentlemen:

I read recently that different organizations should be watched and investigated for un-American activities and I sincerely believe that the "I Am" movement should be thoroughly investigated. Mrs. G.W. Ballard and her son Donald are at the head of this movement and they have already been in some trouble in Los Angeles, California.

They profess to stand for the Constitution of the United States but they are against the present set-up. They make no secret for their utter dislike of President Roosevelt and Mrs. Perkins, Secretary of Labor. They teach they are for constructive measure and never for destructive, war being destructive of course. Social Security is not right according to their belief because it is wrong to tax a pay check in a free country.

They teach that there is an abundance of everything, therefore no need to conserve paper, sugar, etc., nor to be prohibited from doing anything that they might want to do because this is a free country and if we have these restrictions we are being dictated to.

They might not do any great harm with these teachings but they certainly are not united solidly with the majority of good Americans in trying to end this war as soon as possible; which I hope we may do with the help of God, in the near future.

I feel that it is my duty to report this as it has been on my mind for some time.

Very truly yours,

Eunice Martin

RE: ONI

Dear Sir:

The Bureau is advised that information has come to my attention to the effect that Ensign EDWARD ANNIS, a representative of the above captioned organization out of the Seattle Office, was in Missoula, Montana, during the week of January 25, 1943, making an investigation into the purposes and activities of the organization known as "The Great I Am".

Ensign ANNIS contacted Agents GEORGE P. RHOADES and EDWARD M. CALLINAN of this office, who were in Missoula at that time, and made inquiry of them as to any information which we might have in our files concerning said organization. The Agents advised him that all such information would be in the files of the Butte Office and would have to be secured through regular channels. The Agents questioned him as to his knowledge of the organization and the reasons behind the investigation, and ANNIS stated that he knew nothing about it as the investigation had been referred to him without any background information. He did advise that the Navy likes to keep abreast of these organizations and know their purposes; however, he did not elaborate any further.

The Bureau is advised that some discreet inquiries were made by Agent CALLINAN, and it was learned that ANNIS contacted one JAMES M. JENSEN, 224 South Fifth Street East, Missoula, Montana, and LUCIEN J. CROONENBERGHS, 320 Stevens Avenue, Missoula, Montana.

For the Bureau's information, the records of the Butte Office, so far as the organization, "The Great I Am", is concerned, reflect a newspaper clipping which appeared in the Sacramento Union, under a Cleveland, Ohio, date line of October 24, 1939. This item was captioned "Columnist Discovers Cult That Insults Intelligence". The newspaper item was submitted to the Butte Office under date of December 9, 1939, by Special Agent JOHN F. TROST by a memorandum wherein he advised that the mentioned news item was referred to him by the Postmaster at Missoula, Montana, STEPHEN NEUREMBERG, and that the Postmaster had advised that a local chapter of the organization existed in Missoula and held their meetings at the Masonic Temple.

INDEXED RECORDED 62-5-6722-88X
JUN 16 1943

No investigation of the above mentioned organization was made at that time and no complaints have ever been received in the Butte Field division since that date.

DETAILS:

Inasmuch as it is known that this organization has been particularly active in Los Angeles, that office is being designated as the office of origin unless instructions to the contrary are received.

This investigation is predicated upon a complaint from a Mrs. GUS P. BACKMAN of 629 East South Temple, Salt Lake City, Utah, who advised that she believed Nazi meetings were being held each Sunday morning at 617 East South Temple, Salt Lake City. The complaint stated that she was quite certain that it was not a religious group that used this house; instead, she felt certain that it was a Nazi organization. The Informant advised that Dr. M. G. KUHRE of 1425 Circleway, Salt Lake City, Utah, could give more information about this house. Special Agent JOHN TAYLOR WILLIAMS (A)who received this information stated that the City Directorylists a RAY KING HUGHES at 617 East South Temple, and a telephone call to the HUGHES residence established that meetings are held each Sunday morning and each evening during the week by a religious organization known as the I Am Group of Salt Lake City.

Mrs. GUS P. BACKMAN was contacted by the writer for any additional information that she might have. She could give little information except that these meetings started sometime last summer and there are large meetings held every Sunday. Beyond this, she could not give additional information.

Mrs. M. G. KUHRE of 1425 Circleway, Salt Lake City, Utah, stated that the people that attended these meetings seemed to be a hard-working middle class type of person. She was of the opinion that these meetings had been going on regularly for three or four months.

At the Police Department, State Bureau of Identification, and Sheriff's Office, all of Salt Lake City, there was no record as to RAY KING HUGHES.

Records of the Credit Bureau, Salt Lake City, reflected that HUGHES had been employed as a purchasing agent by the United States Forestry Service at Provo, Utah, at 18 West First North.

Mr. H. A. CHEASEMAN, Manager of the United States Forestry Service at Provo, Utah, stated that the Subject had worked under him for a number of years, and that his employment record was good. Mr. CHEASEMAN stated that HUGHES resigned in October, 1940.

HUGHES is presently employed at the Professional Pharmacy, Salt Lake City, Utah. Mr. MELVIN MEMMOTT, Pharmacist, stated that he could give no information as to HUGHES' background as HUGHES had only been employed there for a short time.

At FELTMAN and CURME, Mr. ED F. SCHAUER, Manager, stated that RAY KING HUGHES had worked for him from April, 1942, to the end of December of the same year. He stated that Mr. HUGHES was a loyal American as far as he knew. He did state that Mr. HUGHES had been in Los Angeles about two or three years ago and presently was interested in some mining company.

Mrs. G. PAUL SMITH of 27 H Street, which is near the location where these meetings are held, could give no information as to the type of meeting, except that they were of a religious nature and held at Mr. HUGHES' home.

This investigation is predicated upon a complaint from a Mrs. [redacted] P. [redacted] of 020 East South Temple, Salt Lake City, Utah, who advised that she believed Nazi meetings were being held each Sunday evening at 017 East South Temple, Salt Lake City. The complaint stated that she was quite certain that it was not a religious group that used this house; instead, she felt certain that it was a Nazi organization. The informant advised that Dr. W. C. [redacted] of 1425 Fireclay, Salt Lake City, Utah, could give more information about this house. Special Agent [redacted] WILLIAMS (A) has received this information stated that the city directory lists a [redacted] at 017 East South Temple, and a telephone call to the [redacted] residence

RE: "I AM" CULT,
A Religious Organization;
INTERNAL SECURITY - C;
SEDITION

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to the closing report of Special Agent Edward P. Ferris, dated June 25, 1942, at El Paso, Texas, containing information relative to the captioned organization.

In recent weeks the Bureau has received a limited amount of information relative to the activities of this religious Cult indicating that it may possibly be engaging in subversive activities. Since very little is known of the current policies and activities of this group, it is desired that your Office as well as the Offices receiving copies of this letter check its indices and contact sources of information and informants in order to determine the extent of its activities in each Field Office district.

It is desired that the El Paso Office be considered origin, inasmuch as the headquarters are located at Santa Fe, New Mexico. Copies of all reports submitted by auxiliary Offices should be designated for the El Paso Office.

For the assistance of your Office as well as those involved in the investigation of the instant matter there are being enclosed with each Office's copy of the instant letter copies of a summary of the information available on the "I Am" Movement.

It is desired that the Bureau's request in this matter be handled without unnecessary delay.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover

RE: "I AM" MOVEMENT

CONFIDENTIAL

The "I Am" Movement was conducted as a partnership by Guy W. Ballard and Edna W. Ballard, under the name of the St. Germain Press, from its organization some time in 1934 or 1935 until March 2, 1938, when the St. Germain Foundation was formed by Guy W. Ballard, Edna W. Ballard and Harry N. Rogers, who became charter members. The St. Germain Foundation was to be a nonprofit corporation. Briefly the purposes of this corporation were to teach by word of mouth directly, through the radio and phonograph records, by the printed word and by other available means the doctrines of the "I Am" Movement. On March 24, 1938, the articles of incorporation for the St. Germain Foundation were filed with the Secretary of the State of Illinois. The first officers were Guy W. Ballard, President; Harry N. Rogers, Vice President and Mrs. Edna W. Ballard, Secretary-Treasurer. These individuals were also the first Directors of this organization. On July 18, 1939, Harry N. Rogers resigned as Vice President and member of the Board of Directors of this organization and on October 4, 1939, his resignation was accepted and Paul A. Potter was elected to succeed Rogers. On January 19, 1940, Donald Ballard was elected to succeed his father, Guy W. Ballard, who died on December 29, 1939.

On December 11, 1939, a subscription agreement was entered into, proposing to organize the St. Germain Press, Inc., under the laws of the State of Illinois, for the purpose of printing, publishing, buying and selling books, pamphlets, letters, cards, literature, periodicals, publications, printed matter and music and art work. The subscribers were Louise Majerus; Cecile J. Majerus and Paul A. Potter. On December 12, 1939, a certificate of incorporation was issued by the Secretary of the State of Illinois, authorizing the St. Germain Press, Inc., to commence business. The incorporators were the first Directors and assigned their stock in this corporation to Edna W. Ballard and Guy W. Ballard. On January 19, 1940, the officers of this corporation were elected and Donald Ballard was elected President; Paul A. Potter, Vice President and Edna Tamm Ballard, Secretary-Treasurer.

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

The Bureau began receiving various complaints in January, 1940, to the effect that the "I Am" Movement was engaged in activities inimical to the interests of this country. Also numerous letters were received supporting this organization and claiming it to be an organization thoroughly loyal to this country. There were complaints that this group was Communistic and on the other hand allegations that the Communists were attempting to down the organization. Members of this Movement were accused of being pro-Nazi and it was stated that the Ballards were continually seeing Nazi, Russian and Fascist spies. It was also alleged that this organization objected to conscription and that it had created the impression that it was working closely with the Federal Bureau of Investigation in connection with un-American activities.

This organization was investigated by the Post Office Department in connection with a possible violation of the Mail Fraud Statutes. The accounting work in the investigation was performed by Agents of this Bureau. As a result of the investigation by the Post Office Department an indictment was returned by a Federal Grand Jury at Los Angeles, California, on August 28, 1940, against twenty-four individuals. This indictment alleged that a large number of people were defrauded through false representations, pretenses and promises. It is stated that the victims purchased books, magazines, pictures, articles and other paraphernalia offered for sale by the subjects of this indictment and were induced to become followers and accept the teachings and movement sponsored by the defendants, commonly known as the "I Am" Movement, and were induced to give, send and pay money and give other things of value to the defendants because of these false representations.

This indictment alleged that Guy W. Ballard, who died at Los Angeles, California, on December 29, 1939, was represented by the individuals indicted to have been selected by the alleged "ascended master," St. Germain, as a divine messenger and it was stated that the words of the alleged divine entity, St. Germain, would be transmitted to mankind through the medium of the said Guy W. Ballard. The indictment further alleged that Edna W. Ballard (wife of Guy W. Ballard) and Donald Ballard (son of Guy W. Ballard) were stated to have been selected as divine messengers through whom the words of the alleged "ascended masters," including St. Germain, would be communicated to mankind under the teachings commonly known as the "I Am" Movement. It was stated that these individuals represented that the various books which were written by Guy W. Ballard were dictated by St. Germain, and sold under such representations. It was further stated that Guy W. Ballard, during his lifetime, Edna W. Ballard and Donald Ballard had claimed to have attained a supernatural state of immortality, which condition enabled them and each of them to be entirely free from ailments common to man and to conquer disease, death, old age, poverty and misery, which power or condition and supernatural state the defendants and each of them represented they could and would transmit to others willing to pay therefor or willing to part with other things of value therefor to the defendants. It was alleged that all these representations were made for the false and fraudulent purpose of securing money or other things of value from the persons intended to be defrauded and that the individuals indicted knew the representations to be false. (62-56722-59)

According to the Encyclopedia Britannica, nothing is definitely known concerning St. Germain's parents and birthplace. However, the common version is that he was a Portuguese Jew. He was a musical composer and a capable violinist. He pretended to have the secret for removing flaws from diamonds and to be able to transmute metals. The most remarkable of his professional discoveries was a liquid which would prolong life and by which he asserted he lived 2,000 years. he claimed (62-56722-71)

Although twenty-four individuals were indicted, on November 4, 1940, the indictments against fourteen of them were nolle prossed. The indictment against one of the individuals was dismissed, three of the remaining individuals were acquitted and the jury, having disagreed as to the others, was dismissed on January 20, 1941. On April 12, 1941, new indictments were returned as to the remaining six defendants and in a trial, extending from December 2, 1941, through January 31, 1942, Mrs. Edna W. Ballard and her son, Donald Ballard, were found guilty, while the other defendants were acquitted. On February 17, 1942, Mrs. Ballard was given a suspended sentence of one year, fined $3,000.00 and placed on probation for one year, while her son on the same date was given a one year suspended sentence, fined $400.00 and placed on probation for one year.

(62-56722-59 and 76)

In the early part of February, 1942, Mrs. Dick Abbie, 59 Scott Street, San Francisco, California, advised the Bureau's Office in that city that she had received a letter from the headquarters of the "I Am" organization, informing her that the entire Pacific Coast was to be bombed on February 12, 1942. Inquiries in Los Angeles at the time revealed that Edna W. Ballard, her son, Donald, and approximately three hundred disciples had left Los Angeles shortly after the conclusion of the mail fraud case and were alleged to have gone to Santa Fe, New Mexico, to start a new "I Am" school. Charles Sindlar, owner and operator of the Sindlar Studios, 2600 Hoover Street, Los Angeles, California, and publisher of the monthly magazine known as the "Voice of the I Am," when interviewed concerning the rumor that the West Coast would be bombed on February 12, 1942, advised that none of the leaders of the "I Am" Movement were responsible for its circulation and said that if such a rumor were circulated, it had probably emanated from enemies of the "I Am" Movement. Sindlar did state, however, that he had heard a rumor to the effect that California was to be placed under martial law and that "I Am" members were to be placed in concentration camps. This latter rumor was said to have been circulated as a result of certain statements made by the Government's counsel during the above mentioned mail fraud case. It was further stated by Sindlar that he had called a meeting of over one hundred "I Am" students, who were still in Los Angeles, on February 10, 1942, and they all stated they had not heard the bombing rumor.

(62-56722-62 and 77)

During the course of this investigation in Los Angeles in the early part of February, 1942, it was determined that many of the published statements of the "I Am" Movement and the oral statements made by Mrs. Ballard had condemned President Roosevelt for permitting an investigation to be made of the "I Am" organization by the Post Office Department and for permitting the prosecution of the leaders. All members of the Movement were stated to wear an American flag in their buttonholes or affixed to their dresses. (62-56722-77)

Investigation by the Bureau's El Paso Office at Santa Fe, New Mexico, revealed that an informant advised the "I Am" Movement was a Communist group moving to the interior of the country after being advised to do so by the Communists on the West Coast, inasmuch as they, the Communists, were organized for the express purpose of taking command of railroads and blocking highways in order to stop travel and transportation of troops. Exhaustive investigation at the time in Santa Fe, New Mexico, failed to reveal the source of this rumor as well as the rumor that the West Coast would be bombed on February 12, 1942. However, it was ascertained from a confidential source that Mrs. Ballard had made the statement after Pearl Harbor, "Now my work in Los Angeles is done." The informant was unable to explain whether Mrs. Ballard was making this statement in connection with subversive activities or whether she was referring to her conviction in a Los Angeles court. (62-56722-65, 69 and 71)

Mrs. Edna M. Ballard was interviewed at the Brown Palace Hotel, Denver, Colorado, concerning the rumors mentioned above and she advised that the decrees of the "I Am" Cult had always condemned Communism; that they had always fought to make the American people conscious of the evils of Communism. Mrs. Ballard claimed her organization was a patriotic group and that in all their meetings Americanism was taught. She emphatically denied creating the rumors mentioned and stated that she was unable to even give an indication of who was responsible for starting them. (62-56722-66)

Under date of February 12, 1942, the Bureau's Denver Office received information to the effect that a group of approximately fifteen members of the "I Am" Movement had arrived at Boulder, Colorado, with considerable equipment, apparently for the purpose of mining in that vicinity. It was also alleged that they were in possession of numerous firearms and considerable ammunition. Inquiry at the time by the Bureau's Denver Office reflected no activities on the part of this group that warranted further investigation. (62-56722-70)

From a confidential source it was ascertained in March, 1942, that Joseph Hofstetter, a well-known inventor, had perfected a small turbine which would enable a submarine to operate on a very small amount of fuel, using electrical energy in its stead. It was said that the plans of this invention were placed in the possession of Mrs. Ballard because of the fact that Hofstetter and his wife were under the influence of the leaders of the "I Am" Movement. Inquiry at Los Angeles, California, revealed that Hofstetter formerly resided at 7021 Franklin Avenue and that he had moved to Santa Fe, New Mexico, with the "I Am" Cult. Robert E. Gross also of Los Angeles, California, was interviewed by Bureau Agents because of suspicious correspondence he had carried on with Donald Ballard. Gross explained he had frequently written Ballard concerning guns and ammunition, inasmuch as he wanted to remain in contact with Ballard in order to sell him an airplane. No evidence of subversive connections was developed on Gross. (62-56722-82)

A confidential informant advised in June of 1942 that the subject organization is sometimes known as the "Purple Cult" and was stated to be a religious movement which has four subversive aspects. First, members are urged to will that St. Germain will blast the President from the earth. Second, members are told that no oath is binding. Third, leaders urge members not to buy defense bonds. Fourth, members are urged not to register for the draft. It was further stated that this Movement also teaches the doctrine of reincarnation and that members can get any material object, such as money et cetera, by wilful thinking. It was further said that meetings achieve a frenzied mass hypnotism. (62-56722-84)

A confidential informant [redacted] "I Am" Calif residing [redacted] advised that the principal topic of discussion at meetings was the obtaining of money by means of love gift boxes. This informant also furnished the pledge used by "I Am" members who joined what is known as the 100% "I Am" Class. This pledge is as follows: b7D

"I desire to so LIVE that the Ascended Masters CAN work through me at any moment! To be worthy of this Great Privilege I MUST put into practice and LIVE the suggestions which They Make. I know that by so doing I too will gain My Eternal Freedom and Ascension. I am thoroughly aware that these are, in brief:

"THOU SHALT HAVE NO OTHER GODS BEFORE ME". Bible. Ist Commandment. 1936 Sep. Voice P4.

"Every individual's first duty is Adoration and Love to the 'One Mighty I AM Presence, to gain his Mastery, Eternal Freedom and make his Ascension as soon as possible'. Saint Germain and Jesus. The Magic Presence, and Discourses.

"Whatever your attention is upon is your God, for there your energy is flowing and your energy is your life. 'Saint Germain'. 1936 Sep. Voice P 4. Read P 302-3 Discourses.

"I BID the students everywhere, with all of the Love at My Command, to FORGET EVERYTHING ELSE YOU HAVE EVER STUDIED. STAND ONE HUNDRED PER CENT IN YOUR 'MIGHTY I AM PRESENCE,' AND USE 'I AM DISCOURSES' by SAINT GERMAIN, and you will have such Freedom, such Joy, such Accomplishment, that will forever dissolve all doubt and fear from your consciousness. When such Great Freedom is at your door, just for your acceptance and application, can you understand how great is Our Love and Desire to fully enable you to grasp these simple majestic Laws, that you may have the same Freedom which we experience? However, YOU CAN ONLY GAIN THROUGH YOUR JOYFUL WILLING ACCEPTANCE AND APPLICATION OF THESE TRUTHS WHICH I AM GIVING." Jesus. 1936 Feb. Voice, P 5.

"Consequently I have absolutely severed ALL connections with ALL Occult Orders, Spiritualism, and organizations that might divert my attention and possibly prevent me from STANDING ONE HUNDRED PER CENT WITH MY OWN 'MIGHTY I AM PRESENCE'.

"I shall Never Again have any thing to do with astrology, numerology, crystal-gazing, ouija board, automatic writing, Tarot cards, mediums, and all such things.

"I shall Never Again use 'serums' - 'narcotics, alcohol, meat - all flesh foods - tobacco, excess sugar, excess salt, and strong coffee.' Magic Presence P 147-8. I shall not use garlic or onions,

"Knowing the Ascended Masters will not come near if I do. I will use diligently the Remedy, the Violet Consuming Flame of Divine Love, for these things, to cleanse and purify my Temple. Magic Presence P 149.

"I will refuse in the future to listen to any silly human gossip, criticism, condemnation and judgement of anything or about anybody. Instead I will call the Mighty I AM Presence into action to produce Its Perfection everywhere I move and in everything I do, so that Great Marvels and Mighty Miracles will take place. I absolutely 'refuse acceptance' of all human creation and limitation.

"I shall stand as if there were nothing else in the World and Universe but the 'I AM Presence'. Great Divine Director, 1936 Voice, P II-18.

"I shall keep my FEELINGS harmonized, 'no matter what the provocation!' Saint Germain. 1936 Sep. Voice P 15.

"I am aware that the Divine Creative sex force is to be used solely for providing a physical vehicle for a Brother seeking physical re-embodiment.

"I give ALL POWER to the I AM PRESENCE, which I AM, and I refuse with determination acceptance to anything else, ever again." Saint Germain. Discourses P 303. "I forever withdraw all power I have ever given to outer things, and stand serene in Thy Majestic Presence - Love, Wisdom and Power."

"There is only ONE DO IT that acts, Give It Full Freedom, Stand with IT and let IT act. There is No Other Power to act." P 180.

"I must call the Law of Forgiveness into action daily. 'I AM the Law of Forgiveness and Forgetfulness of All human creation, and the Consuming Flame of All inharmonious action and human consciousness.'

"I have read Unveiled Mysteries, the Magic Presence and 'I AM' Discourses by Godfre Ray King, and will endeavor to apply diligently the Truths therein given.

"I know that in the outer it is possible to deceive other Brothers but NOT God, the 'Mighty I Am Presence' or the Ascended Masters, whom I earnestly and sincerely desire to serve. I know that the Mighty Master Within is 'my Certain Victory'. My signature is my decree that I SHALL abide by and LIVE Their suggestions, and on this basis I desire to be a member of your 100% 'I AM' Class."

An informant in [redacted] advised the Bureau that in soliciting pledges for war bonds and stamps he had contacted approximately four b7D

Information was received by the Bureau's Seattle Office to the effect that the "I Am" Cult started in Seattle, Washington, as a patriotic activity. However, after the Government started investigating them the members were stated to have been encouraged to express great hatred for the Government and for President Roosevelt because of this investigation. It was stated that the group began to profess that the "Antecedent Masters," of which Mrs. Ballard was the only living representative, were destined to rule the world and that the "Antecedent Masters" would eventually take over the Government of the United States. Subsequent to the initiation of the investigation of the "I Am" Movement the organization became, according to the informant, more violent in its denunciation of the Government and called down in its decrees the wrath of the "I Am" presence upon those persons who persecuted the organization. It was stated that the various groups would gather in a room and under the leadership of the group leader repeat over and over the leader's decrees, which were sold to each member of the organization, until they worked themselves into a frenzy through the influence of mass psychology.

Advice was further received to the effect that the organization's leaders insisted that the Cult's activities become secret because they feared investigation by the Government. All persons entering meetings were forced to show their membership cards before they were admitted and Mrs. Ballard was stated to have told the members in the latter part of 1940 that if the Government succeeded, she would be put in jail and all the members would be put in concentration camps. This informant furnished a copy of a decree issued in September, 1942, and read by Mrs. Ballard at a meeting of the "I Am" Cult at Seattle, Washington. This decree read as follows:

> "Mighty 'I am' presence. Great hosts of 'Antecedent Masters' and all great cosmic beings; I refuse those indictments, that tax investigation, that citation all the plagiarism suit any longer, or, that draft for our American boys.
> "I am the presence which by the power of this light is your master! Be thou dissolved and confirmed by the power of light forever."

Information was furnished the Bureau's Salt Lake City, Utah, Office in January, 1943, to the effect that meetings were being held at 617 East South Temple Street, Salt Lake City. It was believed by the informant that the group using the name "I Am" was a Nazi organization. However, inquiry by the Bureau's Salt Lake City Office revealed no specific indication of subversive activities on the part of this organization in that city.

Investigation in Chicago, Illinois, in the Spring of 1943 revealed that Edna Wheeler Ballard is also known as Joan of Arc and that she was married to one George Washington, who died in 1939. It was stated that the correct name of George Washington was Guy W. Ballard and that he was a former paper hanger of Newton, Kansas. Ballard was said to have given up this employment approximately twenty-five years ago and formed the religion known as "I Am." Ballard and his wife were said to have claimed to be the reincarnation of Joan of Arc and George Washington and by thus representing themselves had secured large sums of money through the teaching of a doctrine that gifts of money and jewelry had mysterious healing effects. It was further ascertained that the Ballards were said to have promised to send the spirits of all the cattle killed in the Chicago Union Stockyards to the home of prospective litigants in order to forestall legal proceedings against them.

In April, 1943, it was reported that Mrs. Ballard was residing at 1620 or 1622 East 64th Place, Chicago, Illinois, and that her son Donald was in the Military Service, his exact location being unknown. The "I Am" Cult was at that time maintaining a reading room at 111 West Jackson Street, Chicago, Illinois, with Mrs. Paul Potter as the "messenger in charge." The Chicago mailing address was determined to be Post Office Box 113, while the address in Los Angeles was listed as Post Office Box 423. However, it was said that the headquarters of the organization are at the present time in Santa Fe, New Mexico.

An informant advised the Bureau's Chicago Office in November, 1942, that she had been connected with the "I Am" Movement for a number of years but had terminated her membership in April, 1939, because she decided the organization was not on the level. This informant stated that the organization paraded under a patriotic and religious front but that she was convinced from information she had obtained both through her activities as a worker and also through friends that the organization was subversive in its work. She advised that at its secret meetings a religious process known as a "blasting decree" had been directed at the war effort generally, the Selective Service Act and the war bond campaign in particular. It was related in addition that a school for beginners in the Movement was conducted at 3952 Ellis Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, and that the organization has branches in numerous large cities, some of which were Seattle, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Denver, San Diego, Santa Fe, Chicago, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Philadelphia, New York and Washington.

RE: OFFICE OF NAVAL INTELLIGENCE
"I AM" CULT - SEDITION

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to Bureau letter dated March 8, 1943.

Discreet inquiry at the Office of the District Intelligence Officer, Seattle, Washington reveals that Ensign H. B. ANNIS conducted two interviews at Missoula, Montana which are reflected in a memorandum for the file dated January 28, 1943. Interviews were conducted with Mr. JAMES M. JENSEN, Palace Hotel, Missoula, Montana and LUCIEN JOSEPH CROONENBURGH, 320 Stevens Street, Missoula, Montana. The interviews were conducted in the course of an investigation of an applicant for the Navy Department at Washington, D. C. whose name is not given in the memorandum.

The information furnished by Mr. JENSEN was to the effect that his wife was a member of the "I AM" Cult and that he was having domestic difficulties because of her connection with this organization. Mr. JENSEN stated that the organization was fanatical in character and could easily be used for subversive activities. However, he was not aware of any subversive activity carried on by the group according to Ensign ANNIS. When Mr. JENSEN was questioned about the subversive character of the organization, he stated that he believed it was subversive because it tended to break up families in that the members believed co-habitation was not necessary for the purpose of having children and that concentration in groups would produce this desired result. There is no other indication in the memorandum concerning this interview reflecting subversive tendencies on the part of the organization.

Mrs. CROONENBURGH advised that she was a member of the "I AM" Cult at Missoula, Montana. She stated that the organization was not political in character but was a kind of religion and was not subversive in any respect. She advised that the following persons in Missoula, Montana are members of this organization:

Mrs. GENE BABBET, now in California. Exact address not given.
Mrs. OLE ANDERSON, Target Range Road.
Mrs. ROSE KING, 501 Wilma Building.
Mrs. J. M. JENSEN, 224 South Fifth Street
Mrs. GERBER, Mrs. BROWN, Mrs. VAN ETTEN, Unity Leader and

There is no address given for any of the last named individuals.

A review of the files of the District Intelligence Officer reflects that on April 11, 1941 a letter was addressed to Admiral FREEMAN, Commandant, Bremerton Navy Yard, Bremerton, Washington by an individual who signed his name C. M. FALLON. This letter stated that an individual named JAMES CAHILL and one by the name of SAM McLAREN were members of the mystic Fifth Column known as the Purple Cult. It was reported in this letter that these individuals were employed by the Bremerton Navy Yard. A letter to the same effect which was addressed to the reporter of the Navy Board dated April 5, 1941 at Bremerton, Washington and signed C. M. CALLON (sic) was also in the Navy files. These letters were apparently typed on the same typewriter and the handwriting of the signature is very similar on both letters.

At this time the Navy requested information concerning the Purple Cult from the 11th Naval District because of information in these letters to the effect that the organization was located at Los Angeles. The 11th Naval District advised the Navy to contact Mr. D. D. FOWLER, 1808 24th Avenue North, Seattle, Washington concerning this organization and indicated that it was identical with the "I AM" Cult.

Mrs. D. D. FOWLER was interviewed by an Ensign in the District Intelligence Office at Seattle, Washington and she advised that she was one of the original members and was the original organizer of the "I AM" Cult in Seattle. She stated she became aware of the subversive character of the organization and got out of it prior to the time of interview in April, 1941. She advised both CAHILL and McLAREN were members and that CAHILL was the leader of the men's group of the organization. She furnished a list of 225 members of the organization as of January, 1941 when she left the organization and she stated that many Silvershirts were members of the "I AM" Cult.

When she was questioned regarding the subversive character of the organization, she stated that the movement was dangerous and that the members advocate an overthrow of the government by force and violence so that they may take over the country themselves. She advised that a book written by GERALD B. BRYAN entitled "PSYCHIC DICTATORSHIP IN AMERICA" or, The Story of the Purple Cult and sub-titled "ST. GERMAIN'S MIGHTY I AM EXPOSED" and published by the Truth Research Publications, 456 Southwestern Avenue, Los Angeles, California was a true picture of the organization as far as her knowledge was concerned.

The files of the District Intelligence Office did not reflect the action taken by CAHILL and McLAREN who were employed by the Puget Sound Navy Yard, Bremerton, Washington.

CONFIDENTIAL

Mrs. D. D. FOWLER, who refused to give her first and middle name, 1808 24th Avenue North, Seattle, Washington; Telephone East 0042, was interviewed by Special Agent FRANCIS E. BRIGHT of the Seattle Field Division and she advised that the organization of the "I AM" Cult in Seattle started out as a patriotic activity. However, after the government began investigating them, the members were encouraged to express great hatred for the government and for President ROOSEVELT because of this investigation. She advised the group began to profess that the "Antecedent Masters" of which Mrs. BALLARD was the only living representative were destined to rule in the world and that the "Antecedent Masters would eventually take over the government of the people of the United States. However, she had no indication that the change of the present form of government was to take place by force and violence in 1940 prior to the Presidential Election of that year. The group sent out a telegram to all its members through the various group leaders urging them to vote for WILLKIE.

Subsequent to this time the organization became more violent in denouncing the government for its investigation of them and called down in its decrees the wrath of the "I AM" presence upon those persons who persecuted the organization.

In describing the methods in which these decrees were handled, Mrs. BALLARD advised that the various groups would gather in the room and under the leadership of a group leader repeat over and over the leader's decree which were sold to each member by the organization until they worked themselves into a frenzy and through the influence of mass psychology "got on a sort of emotional drunk".

The organization leaders insisted that the organization become a secret organization because they feared the investigation by the government that they made all persons entering meetings show their membership cards before they were permitted to go into the meeting and Mrs. BALLARD in the latter part of 1940 told the members that if the government succeeded she would be put in jail and all the members would be put in concentration camps. This was done Mrs. FOWLER stated in order that the members would keep quiet in the event they were investigated by the government investigators.

Mrs. FOWLER stated that since the time she had left the organization she had been cursed by the group and that in the last trial of Mrs. BALLARD she had testified at Los Angeles although she was reluctant to do so because some of the members were so fanatical. She stated that she had learned through persons in contact with the organization from time to time that the organization was very much opposed to the draft and had issued decrees against it. She had a copy of a decree which was put out in September, 1942 and read by Mrs. BALLARD at a meeting of the "I AM" Cult at Seattle, Washington which reads as follows:

"Mighty 'I am' presence. Great hosts of 'Antecedent Masters' and all great cosmic beings; I refuse those indictments, that tax investigation, that citation all the plagiarism suit any longer, or, that draft for our American boys.

"I am the presence which by the power of this light is your master! Be thou dissolved and confirmed by the power of light forever."

Mrs. FOWLER recalled that in December of 1940 BILL CASSIER who was a messenger or national officer of the Cult had come to Seattle and had told the group that they might be sent to concentration camps if the government succeeded in their investigation. She said this person was located in Los Angeles. She advised that another messenger, PAUL STICKELL, had told her at one time just before she got out of the organization that she should get groups of members she could trust and name the persons who were investigating them and President ROOSEVELT, in their decrees urging their consumption by fire through the Mighty "I am" Cult. STICKELL, she said, came from Los Angeles to Seattle.

She advised that she believed CAHILL and McLAREN had been fired because of their activities of the "I am" Cult and were no longer employed at the Puget Sound Navy Yard. However, she stated they were presently employed at the Todd Seattle Dry Dock and that CAHILL was presently active in the organization as was McLAREN. She stated that CAHILL was the leader of the minute men which was the men's organization of the "I am" Cult.

She advised various members of this organization had influential positions and she recalled that a Mrs. SMITH had told her that a Miss SPEAR who worked for the United States Attorney at Seattle, Washington had told Mrs. SMITH that if the organization was being investigated at Seattle, Washington, she would learn of this fact through the position she held in that office and would keep the organization advised of the progress of the investigation. Mrs. FOWLER stated that she did not know Mrs. SMITH'S first name and that she did not know her former address at Seattle, Washington. She stated that Mrs. SMITH was presently somewhere in California but had been a member of the organization.

An examination of the list of members previously furnished by Mrs. FOWLER to the office of Naval Intelligence at Seattle, Washington reflects that the following persons named "SMITH" are members:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

ELIZABETH SMITH, 1205 Stewart Street, Seneca 9812.
ELVA SMITH, c/o JOHN J. SULLIVAN, Smith Tower, Seattle, Wash.
FRANK A. SMITH, 1912 Franklin, Capital 2353.

This list also reflects that the organization has a member by the name of ANNA M. SPEARS, 516 East Union Street. The City Directory at Seattle, Washington indicates that Mr. FRANK A. SMITH is employed in the Purchasing Department of the Albers Milling Company and that his wife's name is BESSIE F. SMITH and that they reside at 1912 Franklin Avenue.

The 1942 Directory reflects an ELVA E. SMITH who is a clerk for the Nakat Packing Company and is residing at 2415 39th N. E.

The City Directory reflects a number of ELIZABETH SMITHS but none located at 1205 Stewart Street. This directory also reflects that ANNA M. SPEARS is employed as a clerk at the United States Attorney's office and is residing at 516 East Union Street, Apartment #310.

There is no other information in the files of the 13th Naval District reflecting information concerning local activities of this group. However, there are numerous communications indicating summaries of investigations conducted of the "I Am" Cult in other Naval Districts which communications were furnished to the Local FBI Office and are generally based on Bureau Reports concerning the instant organization.

No investigation of this group will be conducted at Seattle because it is not known what previous investigation was conducted as a basis for the decision of the Department not to prosecute this group for sedition. It is suggested that if further investigation is desired in view of the information furnished by Mrs. FOWLER that this office be furnished with sufficient information to avoid duplication of investigation by other field offices.

Very truly yours,

A check of the records division of the Chicago Police Department failed to disclose the name of PAUL H. STICKELL. Investigation in the neighborhood of 1620 East 84th Place failed to reveal any person familiar with STICKELL.

A check of the records of Hill's Reports, Inc., a credit agency with offices at 209 West Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, disclosed newspaper clippings reflected the following information:

PAUL H. STICKELL was indicted in Los Angeles, California, for using the mails to defraud early in 1942. His former occupation was that of a lawyer; and his present occupations include traveling preacher, educator, and patriotic lecturer. He spends most of his time in travel. PAUL H. STICKELL was born in Williamson, Pennsylvania, on December 20, 1889. His education consisted of eight years of grammar school and three years of college. He is described as being five feet, nine inches in height, two hundred five pounds in weight, having blue eyes, gray hair, and a ruddy complexion.

EDNA WHEELER BALLARD

A check of the records of Hill's Reports, Inc., a credit agency with offices at 209 West Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, disclosed newspaper clippings which reflected the following information:

EDNA WHEELER BALLARD, also known as "JOAN OF ARC," was married to one GEORGE WASHINGTON, who died in 1940. The correct name of GEORGE WASHINGTON is GUY BALLARD, a former paper hanger of Newton, Kansas. He gave up this employment more than twenty-five years ago and founded a religion known as the "I AM" Cult. EDNA WHEELER BALLARD and GUY BALLARD obtained large sums of money from their followers through the teaching of a doctrine that gifts of money and jewelry and clothes had a mysterious healing effect. They also claimed to be the reincarnation of JOAN OF ARC and GEORGE WASHINGTON, respectively. The income from this religious teaching is reported to have been in the neighborhood of two million dollars. On the occasions when the BALLARDS were threatened with litigation they promised to send the spirits of all the cattle killed in the Chicago Union Stock Yards to the home of the prospective litigants, stating that the latter would be haunted by the spirits of those cattle. It was reported that those threats were sufficient to stay any litigation against the BALLARDS.

EDNA WHEELER BALLARD and her son, DONALD BALLARD, were indicted for fraudulent use of the mails and upon conviction MRS. BALLARD was sentenced to one year in jail and received a fine of $8,000. DONALD BALLARD was sentenced to thirty days in jail and was fined $500. It is reported that MRS. BALLARD spends the major portion of her time in Los Angeles, California. In April, 1943, she was residing in Chicago at 1620 or 1622 E. 84th Place. DONALD BALLARD is presently in military service, his exact location being unknown. The "I AM" Cult maintains a reading room at 111 West Jackson, Chicago. MRS. PAUL POTTER is the "Messenger in Charge" and her associates are LOUISE MAJERUS and CECELIA MAJERUS, both of whom reside at 1620 East 84th Place, Chicago.

MRS. ANNA O'DONNELL, 1619 East 84th Street, stated that MRS. BALLARD is very seldom in Chicago. Her son DONALD formerly attended the Morgan Park Military Academy, but he has not been seen by MRS. O'DONNELL for quite some time. MRS. O'DONNEL has never heard of PAUL H. STICKELL. Present occupants of 1620 East 84th Place are two women named MAJERUS. MRS. O'DONNELL further stated that she had never heard or seen anything which would create the impression with her that either the BALLARDS or the MAJERUS' were Communists.

MRS. CATHERINE SMITH, 1642 East 84th Place, stated that she know very little about the occupants of 1620 East 84th Place, as they kept very much to themselves.

MRS. NILS HOLM, 1619 East 84th Place, stated that she had attended one of the meetings of the "I AM" Cult. She related that the meeting is all about God and the Bible and that every so often the expression "I am" was used. MRS. HOLM was under the impression that MRS. BALLARD now resides in California, but stated that whenever she visits at 1620 East 84th Place she drives up in a very expensive car. MRS. HOLM had never seen or heard anything to indicate Communistic activity on the part of MRS. BALLARD or the MAJERUS' and stated that literature was printed in one of the bungalows at 1620 East 84th Place.

MRS. SADIE GEARY, 1619 East 84th Place, stated that the MAJERUS' presently reside at 1620 East 84th Place and that the building at 1622 East 84th Place is vacant at the present time. She related that the residents of 1620 East 84th Place are good neighbors, mind their own business and, in her opinion, are good Americans. She was of the impression that they are not linked up with the Communist Party and advised that no meetings are held at either 1620 or 1622 East 84th Place.

MRS. GRACE TURBYFILL, 1632 East 84th Place, stated that MRS. BALLARD was residing at 1620 East 84th Place in April of 1943 and that she comes there every year during Easter time. MRS. TURBYFILL advised that her husband was the Block Captain in the pertinent area, and that she had never noticed or heard of any un-American activity at either 1620 or 1622 East 84th Place. She further stated that the "I Am" Cult prints their literature in one of the bungalows at that residence, the presses being in the basement. An American Express Company truck visits the place every day and carries away the printed material.

Chicago File No. 100-6973

MRS. MARGARET FUERST, 1626 East 84th Place, stated that she had been residing at her present address for the past ten years and that her husband was a member of the American Legion. She advised that MRS. BALLARD spends very little of her time at the bungalows at 1620-22 East 84th Place. Her son, DONALD BALLARD, is in military service and is at the present time ill. MRS. FUERST did not know PAUL H. STICKELL. She further advised that it was her information that the residents of 1620-22 East 84th Place had subscribed for war bonds, were attending Block meetings, have a war garden, are good Americans, and are not engaged in Communistic work.

A check of the records of Hill's Reports, a credit agency with offices at 209 West Jackson Boulevard, Chicago disclosed that the "I AM" movement is incorporated as the Saint Germaine Press, 105 West Adams Street, Chicago. The incorporators are L. MAJERUS, C. J. MAJERUS, and P. A. POTTER. The correspondents are Nash-Donnelly, 105 West Adams Street, Chicago. The Saint Germaine Press is engaged in the printing and selling of books, pamphlets, letters, and cards for the "ascended masters introduction to the mighty presence." Their Chicago address is listed as Post Office Box 1133, and their Los Angeles address is listed as Post Office Box 428.

A check of the following records was made, with negative results:

Bureau of Records, Chicago Police Department
Industrial Detail, Chicago Police Department

The New York Field Division by letter informed the Chicago Field Division as follows:

"On September 7, 1942, Informant T-1 stated that he was suspicious of the aims and objectives of a religious organization known as 'I Am Come!' which had been discussed with him very secretly by an optician who called at his store named DR. HARLAN P. BLAINE, residing at 5224 I or First Street, Little Rock, Arkansas. He stated that one day while BLAINE was in the store on one of his calls, he suddenly stated as they were talking together that 'England is going to sink in the ocean and the United States will be conquered but that later will come out of it.' He has also stated that there will be a revolution. He further stated BLAINE was against ROOSEVELT, CHURCHILL and Russia. He is also against HITLER but not against the German people. He also made the remark that the red color was not known until a few thousand years ago and will disappear from the earth. T-1 believed this referred to the fate of Russia. Subject was also said to be anti-Semitic.

"The subject used these remarks as a build up for his subsequent production of literature on the religion referred to above, being very mysterious as to what it was and after having delayed sending the material until he had several more talks with T-1. In fact, informant stated that it had taken six to eight months to get the literature which subject for some reason stated he was not willing to send through the mails but which had to be delivered personally.

"Among the leaders of the religion were GODFRE RAY KING, LOTUS RAY KING, and DONALD RAY KING, all of Chicago where the literature was published by the Saint Germain Press, Post Office Box 1133, Chicago, Illinois. The headquarters of the organization were said to be at Santa Fe, New Mexico.

"According to BLAINE, meetings were said to be held all over the United States, including Denver, Memphis, Little Rock, and in the State of Oklahoma, and cards had to be presented for admittance. T-1 also called attention to the picture of 'The Christ' used by the organization which was represented by a woman with golden hair, (Teutonic) and magnetic eyes as HITLER is said to have.

"DR. BLAINE is described as fifty years old, 5' 10" tall, 150 pounds, gray hair and suave manner.

"The informant did not state that this was necessarily a case of subversive activity or more than a form of religion, but he did feel that the oddity of the approach used, the slowness and secrecy of explanation of the aims and objectives of the organization warranted investigation.

Chicago File No. 100-6973

"The publication containing the theme song of the organization is enclosed for the benefit of the Chicago Field Office."

On November 3, 1942, Mr. and Mrs. ARTHUR BLISS, 5337 North Kenmore, Chicago, personally appeared at the office of the Chicago Field Division and gave the following information:

MR. BLISS stated that he had been connected with the Chicago Board of Trade for the past twenty-five years. MRS. BLISS stated that she had been actively connected with the "I AM" movement for a number of years, but her membership had terminated in April of 1939, at which time she decided that the organization was not on the level. She advised that the organization paraded under a patriotic and religious front but that she is convinced from information which she has obtained both through her activities as a worker and also through friends that the organization is subversive in its work. In secret meetings of the organization a religious process known as a "blasting decree" has been directed at the war effort generally and the Selective Service Act and the war bonds campaign in particular. MRS. BLISS left some literature of the "I AM" Cult, which is being retained in the file of the Chicago Field Division. She related that she had been a government witness in a case under the mail fraud statute, which was prosecuted in the United States District Court in Los Angeles in December of 1941, in which case EDNA WHEELER BALLARD had been a defendant.

This case, MRS. BLISS informed, had been investigated by the Post Office inspectors and she had not at that time realized the subversive nature of the organization. MRS. BLISS went on to say that the Saint Germaine Press located at 1620 East 84th Place is the organization engaged in the distribution of the literature of the "I AM" movement. LOUISE MAJERUS of that address is one of the leaders in the movement and is in close contact with MRS. BALLARD. The organization has a meeting room open only to a selected few at 111 West Jackson (Austin Building), Chicago. MRS. BLISS was of the impression that MRS. D. FOWLER, residing at 1808 24th North, Seattle, Washington, had some personal knowledge of the subversive nature of the organization, and a lead is accordingly being set out for the Seattle Field Division to interview MRS. FOWLER. MRS. BLISS went on to say that a school for beginners in the movement is conducted at 3952 Ellis Avenue, Chicago, and that a MISS WALL is the leader of this school. The organization has headquarters in numerous large cities, some of which are Seattle, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Denver, Long Beach, San Diego, Santa Fe, Minneapolis, Chicago, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Philadelphia, New York, and Washington.

INTERNAL SECURITY (G)

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to the report of Special Agent A. CECIL DRURY, Salt Lake City, Utah, dated April 15, 1943, setting forth Los Angeles as office of origin, stating that it is known that this organization has been particularly active in Los Angeles. The Los Angeles indices reflect no record concerning the organization, "I Am Group of Salt Lake City." The indices do reflect a record on the organization "I Am" cult, a religious organization in which the El Paso Field Division is office of origin.

In view of the above, no investigation is being conducted regarding the captioned matter and a copy of reference report is being forwarded to the El Paso Field Division for its information.

DETAILS: AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS:

Reference report of Special Agent JOHN J. BRACKEN reflected that on November 3, 1942, MRS. ARTHUR BLISS, 5337 North Kenmore, Chicago, had appeared personally at the Office of the Chicago Field Division at which time she had advised that a school for beginners in the "I Am" cult organization was conducted at 3952 Ellis Avenue in Chicago.

On June 28, 1943, MR. WILL MARQUIS, 3960 Ellis Avenue, advised that a home for aged persons was located at 3952 Ellis Avenue next door to his home, which old-age home was run by a MR. and MRS. MC KAY.

He stated that it was his understanding that these people were members of the "I Am" cult and that he had noticed that meetings were being held at this place on each Tuesday night, lasting from one and a half hours to two hours. He stated that usually about fifteen or twenty people attended and that he had heard them singing religious songs and talking in unison. He stated that as far as he had ever known, the MC KAYs were very reliable people, were conscientious in their religious work, and he had never heard of any type of disturbance originating at that address.

MR. MARQUIS continued that he did not know the purpose of the religious cult known as "I Am" nor did he know what it advocated. When questioned as to the identity of a MISS WALL who according to MRS. ARTHUR BLISS conducted the meetings at 3952 Ellis Avenue, MR. MARQUIS stated that he had never heard of this person.

MRS. D. N. MACALUSE, 3950 Ellis Avenue, Chicago, advised that a MR. and MRS. MC KAY had been operating a home for aged people at 3952 Ellis Avenue for a period of two years. MRS. MACALUSE stated that meetings were held at the home every Tuesday night by the "I Am" cult and to her knowledge very few people attend. She stated that the program as far as she has been able to ascertain without attending the meetings consists of singing and perhaps some lectures.

MRS. MACALUSE stated that MISS WALL who was supposed to have conducted the meetings is unknown to her. She added that a MRS. COX, first name unknown, who resides at 8715 South Stony Island, a personal friend of hers who had worked at the home as a nurse for a short period of time, could possibly furnish some information concerning the "I Am" cult.

She further stated that she did not believe any of the patients at the home for the aged attended any of the "I Am" meetings. She stated that she had always found MR. and MRS. MC KAY to be very good neighbors and that she had never noted anything about their activities or the activities of other persons visiting the home which would cause her to suspect that they were engaged in any activities which might be considered un-American or not to the best interests of the United States.

MR. J. E. WIDMAN, 3949 Ellis Avenue, and MR. WILLIAM MC NABB, 3958 Ellis Avenue, were also interviewed concerning the activities of the residents at 3952 Ellis Avenue at which time they furnished information that they had seen persons attending some sort of meetings at the latter address on Tuesday nights.

They stated that all persons attending such meetings usually drive up in new appearing automobiles and that they appear to be of at least moderate financial means. They further stated that they had heard familiar religious songs being sung and that in addition their programs appeared to consist of the repetition of certain verses in unison. MR. MC NABB added that MR. and MRS. MC KAY as well as the other participants in the "I Am" cult meetings are quiet and that they have never caused any disturbance whatsoever.

He stated that to his knowledge not over twenty people ever attend any of these meetings. He stated that he was further of the opinion that these meetings were strictly of a religious character and doubted that there was anything subversive going on at that address. MR. WIDMAN also advised that he was of the opinion that the activities of the "I Am" cult at that address were strictly of a religious nature.

MRS. E. COX, 8715 South Stony Island, telephone Bayport 4563, advised on June 29, 1943, that she had worked for MR. and MRS. MC KAY, 3952 Ellis Avenue, for about three weeks in the spring of 1943. She stated that MR. MC KAY is completely wrapped up in the "I Am" movement and that meetings of the organization are held regularly at his home. She stated that she was of the opinion that the meetings there were an offshoot or branch of the downtown church operated by the "I Am" organization.

MRS. COX advised that it is her belief that while most of the persons attending the "I Am" meetings are well-educated and cultured people, they are at the same time eccentric in that they will take up with any and every new religious idea that comes along. She added that she feels that the organization is a harmless religious movement at this time and does not believe there is anything subversive about it.

She stated that she had attended two or three of their meetings and believes that they are extremely patriotic and that to her knowledge nothing has ever come to her attention which would cause her to suspect that the organization is engaged in any activities not to the best interests of this country. MRS. COX stated that while she was employed at MR. MC KAY's home she had never known a MISS WALL who is alleged to have conducted the meetings at 3952 Ellis.

CLAUDE MC KINNEY, a mail carrier operating out of the Hyde Park Postoffice, 46th Street and Cottage Grove Avenue, badge number 1502, advised that the MC KAYs, residing at 3952 Ellis Avenue, receive very little mail and he has never noted anything out of the ordinary about any mail received by them. He added that he did not recall that they received any type of religious publications or pamphlets.

Chicago file 100-6973

MRS. ESTHER ORMEN, chief clerk, local Selective Service board 91, 1547 East 79th Street, was re-contacted by the reporting Agent on June 28, 1943, for any further information which the board might have received concerning PAUL HARTMAN STICKELL, 1620 East 84th Place.

MRS. ORMEN advised that STICKELL's occupational questionnaire had been returned November 3, 1942; that he had stated he was born December 20, 1889, Williamson, Pennsylvania, and at the present time his job was that of traveling preacher, educator, and patriotic lecturer; that he was self-employed, traveling from place to place, and that he had begun such work in January, 1936. MRS. ORMEN further advised that STICKELL had reported that he had practiced law from 1922 until 1935-6, and that the person always knowing his address was LOUISE MAJERUS, 1620 East 84th Place. His serial number is U3373. He has not been classified due to his age.

MRS. MARGUERITE FUERST, 1626 East 84th Place, a neighbor of CECILIA and LOUISE MAJERUS who reside at 1620 East 84th Place, advised that at one time there had been a printing press located in the basement of one of the bungalows located at the latter address.

She added that this printing press had apparently been removed many months ago inasmuch as she has not heard it operating for some length of time. MRS. FUERST stated that she had been living at the above address for ten years and that she had always known the MAJERUS sisters to be good neighbors and that they were quiet and had never caused any disturbances.

She stated that it is her belief that MRS. G. W. BALLARD owned the two bungalows located at 1620 and 1624 East 84th Place; that the MAJERUS sisters reside at 1620 East 84th Place and take care of the property at 1624 East 84th Place, the latter bungalow being the residence of MRS. BALLARD when she visits Chicago.

MRS. FUERST continued that she believes the MAJERUS sisters to be very patriotic in that they have a victory garden and have bought bonds from her husband, MR. FUERST, who is minute-man for that block during the bond drives.

MRS. FUERST stated that the MAJERUS sisters have been living as her next-door neighbors for nearly ten years and that MRS. BALLARD had lived there constantly until about seven years ago.

She stated that she did not know whether MRS. BALLARD was practicing her religious beliefs at the time she resided there but she did recall having seen MRS. BALLARD leave her home with a group of people on several occasions at which time she carried a harp. She stated that MRS. BALLARD was an accomplished harpist.

MRS. FUERST continued that she had never had cause to suspect that the MAJERUS sisters or the BALLARDs were ever engaged in any un-American or subversive activities and that it was her personal belief that although their religion might not meet with the approval of many people they were sincere and conscientious.

MRS. SADIE GEARY, 1616 East 84th Place, advised that she had been living as the next-door neighbor of the MAJERUS sisters for six years; that they were fine neighbors, had always been quiet, and had never caused any disturbance. MRS. GEARY stated that she had attended two or three of the meetings sponsored by the "I Am" organization about three years ago and that she had found these meetings to be of a religious nature in their entirety and that during her attendance she had never heard anything which would cause her to believe that the organization was anything but a religious cult.

MRS. GEARY continued that MRS. BALLARD often visited Chicago at which time she resided at 1624 East 84th Place; that she had visited Chicago during April, 1943, for a period of about three weeks and had resided at that address.

She stated that in her opinion MRS. BALLARD was a fine woman and is of the opinion that MRS. BALLARD is a patriotic American citizen. She further stated that she had heard MRS. BALLARD say in effect that she is all for the American way of life and everything for which it stands.

MRS. GEARY stated that in her opinion complaints concerning the organization had probably come from jealous women who were jealous of her because people of wealth had given MRS. BALLARD quite an amount of money and jewelry.

MRS. GEARY added that at the present time the son of MRS. BALLARD, DONALD BALLARD, is in the Army, and to her knowledge DONALD BALLARD has always been a patriotic American citizen.

She stated that she did not know PAUL STICKELL nor had she ever heard of him.

She stated that there were no printing presses in the buildings that adjoined her home and which are occupied at the present time by the MAJERUS sisters.

She stated that she has never heard any noises which would indicate that printing machines or presses were being operated next door nor did she recall ever seeing any American Express Company trucks receiving any goods from that address.

ROBERT BOOTH, building manager, 111 West Jackson Boulevard, advised on June 28, 1943, that the "I Am" organization rented space at that address. He stated that the lease for the space was signed by PAUL POTTER as president and MABEL POTTER as secretary and treasurer of the "I Am" Reading Room of Chicago, Illinois, Corporation. MR. BOOTH stated that PAUL POTTER is secretary and treasurer of the Associated Milk Dealers, Incorporated, 309 West Jackson Boulevard; that MR. POTTER bears a very good reputation and to his knowledge is a fine business man.

MR. BOOTH stated that the "I Am" organization rents the entire west half of the second floor of the building consisting of about 3,500 square feet. He stated that the floor space has been arranged like a church and that the organization has an organ and church pews in the auditorium where church services are held every Sunday and some times during the week.

MR. BOOTH continued that they also have rented 1,600 square feet of space on the third floor of the building where they conduct a school for children 7, 8, and 9 years of age. He stated that there was a statement in the lease of this space to the effect that the organization was a local unit of the ST. GERMAINE Foundation and that their bank was the Mercantile National Bank, Chicago, Illinois.

MR. BOOTH advised that he had noted that people of fine appearance and apparent culture were attending the meetings of the "I Am" organization and that they had also appeared to be people of average and better financial means.

A MRS. A. TONNORS, in charge of the reading room of the "I Am" organization located at 111 West Jackson Boulevard, was contacted by the reporting Agent under the pretext that he was a possible convert for the cult and that he was interested in knowing the background history and teachings and beliefs of the organizations

MRS. TONNORS advised that the organization had been founded by a MR. GUY W. BALLARD who died in 1939. She stated that MR. BALLARD had been so purified that on his death he had ascended to Heaven where he had joined ST. GERMAINE and JESUS CHRIST. She stated that MR. BALLARD had founded the movement in 1934 after receiving a message from ST. GERMAINE on Mount Shasta in the western part of the United States.

She stated that at the present time MRS. BALLARD is head of the organization throughout thewhole world and that the movement has several hundred thousand members in the United States at the present time as well as members in foreign countries.

She stated that MRS. BALLARD receives messages from MR. BALLARD and ST. GERMAINE as well as JESUS CHRIST and that when a person who is a member of the organization dies they do not know whether he actually ascends to Heaven until ST. GERMAINE, MR. BALLARD, or JESUS CHRIST has communicated with MRS. BALLARD who in turn communicates with her followers to advise them of the ascension of the deceased member.

In regard to the political philosophy of the movement, MRS. TONNORS stated that the cult had none. She stated that she believed that the organization was possibly the most patriotic movement in the United States in that they believed that the Constitution of the United States was a sacred instrument; that the Ascended Masters, - JESUS CHRIST, ST. GERMAINE, and MR. GUY W. BALLARD - have issued decrees that each member of the cult should do everything he can to support the Government of the United States in the present war by purchasing bonds and stamps and by the eligible members enlisting in the armed services.

MRS. TONNORS further stated that the organization did not believe in Nazism or Fascism or Communism or any other of the foreign isms because they were all destructive forces in the world and that the "I Am" organization was a constructive force.

She also stated that the organization did not engage in any political activity whatsoever, that they did not pass resolutions or decrees favoring or disproving of certain legislation or anything of that kind and that they had never taken sides with the beliefs of any political party because they felt that the party which happens to be in power at the time is the correct party because it had been willed so by the Ascended Masters.

In connection with the organization of the unit in Chicago, MRS. TONNORS stated that it was composed of a class for fundamentals which is made up of the new members just recently joining the organization. She continued that there is a second group which is known as the "Decree" group or the more experienced of the members.

She stated that the fundamental class meets on Monday and Thursday nights for one and a half hours at which time they read books and pamphlets together in unison having to do with instructions received from ST. GERMAINE or MR. BALLARD.

Chicago file 100-6973

The "Decree" group according to MRS. TONNORS reads the decrees or prayers as dictated by the Ascended Masters and written out by MRS. BALLARD as they are pronounced by ST. GERMAINE, MR. GUY W. BALLARD, and JESUS CHRIST.

She stated that the "Decree" groups meet in two-hour classes throughout each day. When questioned concerning MR. BALLARD's death, MRS. TONNORS stated that just prior to the time he passed away JESUS had appeared in the BALLARD home, at which time he had talked to MR. and MRS. BALLARD and had also dictated to MR. BALLARD's stenographer the "I Am" song which is presently sung in all "I Am" branches.

MRS. TONNORS stated that DONALD BALLARD had been in the United States Army for some time and that he had been inducted she believed in California. MRS. TONNORS added that she had been a member of the organization since 1938 and to her knowledge the organization did not employ any evangelists or traveling preachers. She said, however, that MRS. BALLARD travels around the country to some extent to visit the local chapters of the organization at which time she usually gives lectures.

She stated that they did not have preaching services and that their church services were made up entirely of reading together the "Decrees" and articles as written by the Ascended Masters and also the singing of songs.

In connection with the songs used by the organization, she stated that the words had been written by their own leaders but had been set to the music of familiar religious songs sung in Protestant and Catholic churches. She also stated that the organization at the present time received members from all churches and all denominations.

MRS. TONNORS continued that the organization did not publicize their meetings either by newspapers, radio, hand-bills, circulars, or any other manner; that people came to their meetings through requests from friends who were members of the organization or they came being drawn to the meetings through "the light."

MRS. TONNORS advised that she did not know how many members they had in the Chicago area but that new ones were coming in all the time. She stated that in her opinion the "I Am" organization is a movement which seeks to combine religion and intelligent study.

Reference report of Special Agent JOHN J. BRACKEN reflected that one "EVELYN K", 513 Walnut Street, Maywood, Illinois, in a letter addressed to

Chicago file 100-6973

FRAN BARBER, 1699 Graham Boulevard, Montreal, Canada, had written to the effect that there was much secrecy about her work because of spies both here and abroad and that their classes were closed because ST. GERMAINE had ordered that only the intensely interested students should attend the classes. This letter had enclosed a schedule of the weekly meetings held by the "I Am" Sanctuary at 111 West Jackson Boulevard, Chicago.

Sergeant HARRY KLUG, Maywood, Illinois, Police Department, advised on June 29, 1943, that they had no record of an EVELYN K at 513 Walnut Street and a check of the telephone directory and city directory revealed no such person.

Sergeant KLUG advised that they had never had any trouble with the "I Am" cult at Maywood and said that he was of the opinion that they did not have a congregation in that city.

DORUS STAFFORD, 513 Walnut Street, Maywood, Illinois, advised that a MR. and MRS. KLEINSCHMIDTS resided at that address and that he believed that MRS. KLEINSCHMIDTS' first name was EVELYN. He stated that although he did not know the KLEINSCHMIDTS very well he believed them to be very fine American citizens in that they lived quietly and had never caused any sort of disturbance.

He stated that MR. KLEINSCHMIDTS operates a confectionery at Maywood, Illinois, where he is assisted by his wife.

D. GEURINE, son of the building manager, advised that he knew very little about the KLEINSCHMIDTS family inasmuch as he had been residing at that address for only a short time. He stated, however, that on one occasion when he had gone to KLEINSCHMIDTS' apartment to measure a room for rugs he had noticed a lot of religious pictures and writings on the walls of the rooms. He stated that he had received the distinct impression that they were a very religious family.

LAWRENCE KESSEL, 610 Fifth Avenue, Maywood, Illinois, who operates the KESSEL Radio Company at that address, advised that he had been in business next door to the KLEINSCHMIDTS for sixteen years. He stated that MR. KLEINSCHMIDTS is honest, up-right, and a fine American businessman. He stated, however, that MRS. EVELYN KLEINSCHMIDTS in his opinion is "balmy."

He stated that MRS. KLEINSCHMIDTS had been taking an active part in the

"I Am" movement and is supposed to be some type of an official or leader in the organization and travels quite a lot. MR. KESSEL stated that about 1938 or 1939 MRS. KLEINSCHMIDTS had gone to England and had been gone so long it was necessary for MR. KLEINSCHMIDTS to make a trip to England to bring her back home.

MR. KESSEL further stated that he believes MRS. KLEINSCHMIDTS to be harmless because in his opinion she is slightly insane. He stated that MR. KLEINSCHMIDTS as well as their son - the son now being in the Army - have remarked on different occasions that "it was too bad but MRS. KLEINSCHMIDTS is nuts."

MR. KESSEL further stated that MRS. KLEINSCHMIDTS will go so far as to come to people while they are sitting in a movie theater and try to convert them to the "I Am" religion. He stated that MRS. KLEINSCHMIDTS came up to his wife while he was sitting beside her in a local theater and tried to convert her to the "I Am" religion.

On June 30, 1943, confidential informant [redacted] whose identity is known to the Bureau, was contacted, at which time he stated that he had numerous newspaper clippings concerning the "I Am" organization dating as far back as 1938. A review of these newspaper clippings reflected that most of them dealt with the trial of the "I Am" organization leaders on charges of mail fraud at Los Angeles, California. b7D

A clipping from the "Chicago Daily News" for December 3, 1940, concerning this trial revealed that among the other defendants in the case, other than MRS. GUY W. BALLARD and her son, DONALD BALLARD, were CHARLES SINDELAR, an artist, his wife - PEARL SINDELAR, FRANK VON DERHOYS, BETTY MUNDY, confidential aid to MRS. BALLARD, GRANT L. LEWIS, all of Los Angeles; and LOUISE MAJERUS, WILLIAM J. CASSIERE, and PAUL STICKELL, all of Chicago.

They were originally accused on nineteen counts of mail fraud. This clipping further reflected that MRS. BALLARD was also known as "JOAN of Arc" and that DONALD BALLARD was also known as "LAFAYETTE."

A newspaper clipping from the "Chicago Tribune" of July 26, 1940, revealed that MISS CECILIA MAJERUS and her sister, MISS LOUISE MAJERUS, 1620 East 84th Place, had been arrested by Deputy United States Marshal and a postoffice inspector early that morning pursuant to a warrant obtained for their arrest at Los Angeles, California in connection with the above-mentioned indictment returned against the leaders of the "I Am" organization.

Chicago file 100-6973

The MAJERUS sisters were later released by United States Commissioner EDWIN K. WALKER.

The newspaper clipping from the "Chicago Tribune" for July 26, 1940, also revealed that one THOMAS GILMORE, the attorney for the "I Am" group in Chicago, had said that there were slightly more than six hundred "I Am" members in Chicago.

The "Tribune" article for December 18, 1940, was concerned with the testimony of a MRS. MURIEL L. BLISS of Chicago during the mail fraud trial. She claimed to have been a former "messenger" and conductor of classes for the "I Am" movement. She had testified that the cult had required that all members abstain from all sex activity in order to achieve a complete physical ascension.

Newpaper clipping from the "Chicago Tribune" for May 28, 1939, stated that GUY W. BALLARD had been twice indicted in Chicago on complaints of women who had charged that they had lost many thousands of dollars in BALLARD's "Lake of Gold," a mining stock confidence game.

An article in the "Newsweek" magazine for December 16, 1940, concerning the trial of the Subject at Los Angeles reflected that the BALLARD's had stated that GUY BALLARD had appeared on earth at least twice before, first as a French soprano, thenas GEORGE WASHINGTON; that DONALD BALLARD was also known as ADONA EROS, that MRS. BALLARD was also known as "JESUS" and "JOAN of Arc."

Newspaper clipping from the "Chicago Tribune" for December 29, 1940, reflected that MRS. MAUDE HILL of Chicago had testified that she had given the BALLARDs $1,000.00 and hoped that she would receive an ascension. She stated that she did not receive her ascension and had later severed her connection with the organization.

The "Detroit News" for January 11, 1941, in an article concerning the mail fraud trial, stated that a WILLIAM REISS, a Long Beach, California, contractor, had testified in the trial that he was an active Communist and an advocate of the overthrow of all organized Government before he embraced the "I Am" doctrine. He had gone on to testify that the teachings of the BALLARDs had caused him to change and that at the present time he was a good American.

A newspaper clipping from the "Chicago Daily News" for June 22, 1943, reflected that MRS. BALLARD and DONALD BALLARD had won a new trial in their case. The United States Circuit Court of Appeals had reversed the conviction of the BALLARDs on June 21, 1943, on the grounds of error in the judge's instructions to the jury.

Chicago file 100-6973

A check of the records of the American Bar Association, 1140 North Dearborn, concerning any information pertaining to PAUL H. STICKELL was made with negative results. The records of the DIES Committee and of Lieutenant MAKE MILLS, Industrial Squad, Chicago Police Department, were also checked for any record of PAUL H. STICKELL with negative results.

The records of the Chicago Bar Association reflected that PAUL H. STICKELL had filed an application for membership in that organization in 1921 and had been dropped from its rolls in 1933 for non-payment of dues. No complaints or grievances had ever been recorded against him. This application for membership filed by PAUL H. STICKELL reflects that he was born at Williamson, Pennsylvania, December 20, 1889; that he graduated from Webster College of Law, Chicago, and had received an LLB degree.

In connection with the leads set out in reference report of Special Agent JOHN J. BRACKEN to conduct an investigation to ascertain the identity, background, and activities of GODFREY RAY KIND, LOTUS RAY KING and DONALD RAY KING, all of Chicago, MRS. TONNORS of the "I Am" reading room, 111 West Jackson Boulevard, advised that these were pen names of GUY W. BALLARD, MRS. GUY W. BALLARD, and DONALD BALLARD.

Inasmuch as this investigation in addition to contacts with confidential informants and checks of the records of sources of information has failed to reveal that this organization is engaged in any subversive or un-American activities at the present time, no further investigation is contemplated by the Chicago Field Division and this case is being referred upon completion to the Office of origin.

Other than the groups themselves, the membership is divided into Beginners, the 100% members, and the Million Percent members. In order to become a 100% member, it is necessary to attend eight beginners' classes and to abide by the "I AM" laws, which briefly are the abstinence from meat, tobacco, liquors and all stimulants, from sexual relation and to make regular attendance of the "I AM" classes. The Million Percent members are the Group Leaders themselves.

The Supreme Authority of the "I AM" cult is vested in Mrs. EDNA BALLARD, who is termed "The Divine Messenger." Next in authority is PAUL H. STICKELL, termed "The Accredited Messenger." STICKEL supplanted DONALD BALLARD, the son of EDNA BALLARD, who is now within the armed forces. JOHN KOSTER is the head of the St. Germaine Press, the official corporation which carries on the activity's publications, and is vested with the authority of whom shall become members of the I AM, and who shall attend its classes.

The source of money which sponsors the movement is principally from donations given at the meetings, which are called "Love Gifts" and from the monies derived from the sale of the activity's magazine "The Voice of the I AM." It is reported that from this source Mrs. EDNA BALLARD derives $5,000 per month.

PAST ACTIVITIES

Confidential Informant A advised that during the trial of Mrs. BALLARD, during January 1942, in Los Angeles, California, Mrs. BALLARD had told the members from the platform at nearly every meeting held before her conviction that the "Ascended Masters", meaning St. Germaine and GUY W. BALLARD, had been protecting the West Coast area due to the I AM radiation of power, but that since the Government had began to persecute her, Mrs. BALLARD, they, the Ascended Masters, had now taken away their protective power; that due to the taking of oil from the ground in California there had been created a great cavity, and that California was going to sink, and that all of the members should go to Santa Fe, New Mexico, where they would be saved by the great altitude. She requested them to leave immediately, as since the Government's persecution, all transportation was to be stopped so that the I AM members could not escape, and further that California was going to be put under Martial Law.

Informant A stated that CHARLES SINDELAR, the Group Leader in Los Angeles, had advised her mother to leave Los Angeles immediately because of the aforesaid reasons. Informant A advised that she had heard the report during one of the meetings she attended that the west coast was to be bombed by the Japs in retaliation for the Government's prosecution of Mrs. BALLARD.

Informant A stated that due to these statements, all of the members became very panicky, and had nearly all left en masse for Santa Fe.

Informant A continued that from the platform Mrs. BALLARD had told various stories about the rationing program, the vitamin program being dope to make people subservient to ROOSEVELT, how the people were to be starved due to rationing; that she further led in chanting decrees (prayers) to have the drafting of boys stopped, and actually intimated to the young men to evade service under the Selective Service Act. As to the latter, Informant A stated that Mrs. BALLARD guarded her language very closely so as not to make a seditious utterance, but that from her statements the evasion of service was certainly hinted.

Informant A stated that Mrs. BALLARD had informed the members not to buy War Bonds or Stamps, nor to purchase insurance, as the Government had a secret agreement with Russia and that the Government was becoming more Communistic thereby; that soon the "Asconded Masters" would come down to earth and take over the Government, and that then the Golden Age would appear and everything would be all right.

Informant stated that Mrs. BALLARD claims there are five million members, and that it appears to be an assumption that someday the "I AMs" expect to control the United States.

Informant stated that after the I AMs had arrived in Santa Fe, that at one of their meetings, probably in March, 1942, Mrs. BALLARD had stated substantially that the Government had made arrangements to allow the interned, dangerous Japanese to escape and that they, the Japanese, were to kill all of the I AMs, who would be pointed out by the FBI, and therefore they, the members, were to arm themselves. Informant stated that as a result both [redacted] and that nearly all of the members purchased some type of ammunition for whatever type of guns they had, or some kind of weapon to defend themselves with. b7D

PRESENT ACTIVITIES

Informant A stated that during the month of June, 1943, the cult had its annual twenty-two day meeting, but that no new activities were inaugurated, and that the only subversive tendencies she could discover was the fact that the I AMs will only give support to programs which are beneficial to the I AM; that it will therefore not support the war effort, as the I AMs are opposed to all war. Informant stated that she would term the I AM activity a religious racket, analagous to the movement by AIMEE SEMPLE MacPHERSON in Los Angeles, but that its most dangerous aspect was that Mrs. BALLARD had such control and domination over its members that if she told the members to commit an act of sabotage they would follow her instructions without hesitation.

Informant A concluded that the I AMs had a small group in Albuquerque, New Mexico, but that she knew of no other group which was within this Field Division. Informant stated she would willingly testify as to the statements made by Mrs. BALLARD as set out herein.

It was ascertained through Confidential Source of Information T-1 that the local chapter is headed by Mrs. MINNIE PATTEE who resides at Lakewood, Colorado, and who is the wife of ARTHUR C. PATTEE, now deceased, who was during his life a Denver Deputy District Attorney and also a County Clerk and Recorder of Jefferson County. In 1923 PATTEE was a Republican nominee for the governorship. At the time of his death he was the of the Pattee Realty Company, which company is now run by Mrs. PATTEE. This informant stated that she had first come in contact with this group inasmuch as [redacted] b7D and that she later learned that these persons were members of the "I Am" Cult. [redacted] She stated that to her knowledge meetings are held frequently during the week and that they are termed "classes." She said that Thursday evening seems to be the main class schedule for the group. This source of information stated that she has known of Mrs. PATTEE for some years and that to her knowledge she was quite prominent in Colorado and did not see how it was possible for such a long-time resident to be engaged in any subversive activity or be the leader of any group that would condone such activity. This source of information will report further information that she may receive to the Denver Office.

Source of Information T-2 advised that [redacted] described above and [redacted] that the group had very mysterious meetings frequently. She said that in addition the basement of the house was filled with canned goods and peculiar boxes, the contents of which she did not know. She stated that numerous electrical appliances were installed and pointed out one appliance which apparently housed a loud speaker. She stated that she found electric warning signals in two rooms of the house; further, that in her flour barrel, which is a built in compartment in the kitchen, she found a green powdery substance that the maid had informed her had been used in some sort of ritual of the Cult. She pointed out that the bathroom and one bedroom of the house had been repainted an extraordinarily loud lavendar and yellow. This informant stated that [redacted] had been involved in [redacted] and had been arrested by the Denver Police Department. She knew no other activity on the part of [redacted] that would indicate he was engaged in any subversive activity other than the mysterious meetings and boxes that they had in the house. She added that [redacted] This source of information referred agent to Mr. CHARLES H. HANINGTON who is in charge of the Colorado Museum located at the Denver City Park.

Mr. CHARLES H. HANINGTON advised that this Cult, through Mrs. MINNIE PATTEE, had leased the auditorium at that museum from September 4, 1943, to the end of October, 1943, for a series of musical programs and lectures to be open to the public as well as members of the Cult. He advised that the group that approached him to rent the hall seemed to be well educated and well fixed financially. He stated that he had a discussion with Mrs. PATTEE about the nature of this group and she advised there would be nothing objectionable about the meetings; that they were absolutely and purely of a religious nature. It was agreed that should anything of an objectionable nature arise during the lectures, the contract for the hall would be immediately canceled. Mrs. PATTEE stated that anyone who cared to attend could do so. Along this line Mr. HANINGTON pointed out that previously lectures were held at the Shirley Savoy Hotel and that Mrs. PATTEE had explained the group had become so large that the auditorium of this hotel would no longer house them. He stated that on one occasion he had attended a meeting of the group and that this meeting was of a religious nature and was attended by approximately 150 people. He advised, however, that during the meeting one of the leaders asked actual members to please stand and that only fifteen people out of the whole group acknowledged themselves as members.

At the Denver Police Department it was ascertained that Dr. SHEETS had been arrested as a member of the Consumers Service Company for a confidence game and conspiracy. This case, however, was dismissed September 10, 1942, for lack of evidence. Dr. SHEETS is described as follows:

Age	45
Height	5'7"
Weight	189 lbs.
Build	Heavy
Complexion	Florid
Hair	Chestnut
Moustache	Light
Teeth	Good
Occupation	Dentist

A review of the credit records on Mrs. MINNIE PATTEE and Dr. W. M. SHEETS at the Retail Credit Men's Association showed that both had excellent credit standings. The record on Mrs. PATTEE verified the information set forth by informant T-1 in this report. The record on Dr. SHEETS showed that he was from Abilene, Kansas, and that his yearly income had been reported to be in the neighborhood of $12,000. This report listed his occupation as dentist and research engineer.

On July 19, 1943, informant T-1 recontacted the writer and reported [redacted] had made the remark that members of the "I Am" Cult were anxious to leave the West Coast and come to midwestern states because of the fact of possible invasion of the West Coast on the part of the enemy. b7D

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent JOHN DENNIS O'CONNELL.

By letter of March 25, 1943, the Los Angeles Field Division advised the Denver Office that a Mr. CHARLES HARRAH was a former follower of the "I Am" Cult but at the present time was not associated with the group and could furnish information regarding same. It was suggested that he be interviewed concerning information which allegedly was in possession of DONALD BALLARD, who is presently in the United States Army and who was reported to be corresponding with many individuals and inducing them to desert from the Army.

Mr. CHARLES HARRAH was interviewed at 1585 West Dakota Avenue and advised that he was still a member of the "I Am" Cult and had never made any statements concerning BALLARD with respect to the latter's allegedly enticing soldiers to desert. Mr. HARRAH advised that the "I Am" Cult has many enemies who spread malicious rumors and, further, that the Cult's tenets include extreme Americanism. He stated that in his opinion any members who were called on to serve in the armed forces would be excellent soldiers. Mr. HARRAH advised that the Cult is not an organized system but a form of belief and has among its many believers some who may be radical and some who wish to commercialize it and it is these members within the Cult who spread malicious rumors about it upon their failure to commercialize on its beliefs.

AT BOULDER, COLORADO

It was ascertained through confidential source of information that the Cult has its headquarters and reading room in Room 6, Boulder National Bank Building, and that the group is under the leadership of Mrs. J. A. DEAVENPORT, 1900 Bluebell Street. It was ascertained further that Mrs. DEAVENPORT has been in Boulder since 1916; is from a very prominent family, has one boy who has been in the Navy for fourteen years, and is considered one of the patriotic citizens of that community. Information received from various sources indicates that the Cult in Boulder is now considered to be a harmless religious organization.

Confidential Informant T-3, [redacted] advised that the group in Boulder consists of approximately [redacted] persons; that they hold their meetings in the same [redacted] He said that the people he has seen go to the meetings are known Boulder people, not one of whom he would suspect as engaged in any subversive activity. He said that the ritual there consists first of a pledge of allegiance to the flag of the United States, then the group engages in the singing of numerous patriotic songs prior to their religious sermon and ceremony. He said that they did not actively engage in distributing literature but that the literature he has seen consisted solely of religious pamphlets. He said that the meetings were attended by approximately twenty-five people, although he did not feel that more than one-half dozen were actual members.

Confidential Informant T-4 advised that [redacted] b7D [redacted] to be a patriotic and substantial citizen of Boulder. [redacted] He advised that to his knowledge this is not taking place and that he is positive the group in Boulder is made up of "rather eccentric individuals." This informant will advise the Denver Office immediately upon receipt of information to the contrary.

AT GREELEY, COLORADO

Confidential Informant T-5 advised that the Greeley Chapter of the "I Am" Cult has its headquarters and reading room at 920 Thirteenth Street, which is the home of Mrs. MARY V. FRENCH. He said that the leader of the Greeley group was Mrs. IRA L. SIDES, who is a well known Greeley woman engaged in running a typewriter exchange at Greeley. He advised that Dr. C. R. BENZEL, a Greeley chiropractor, was also very active in this group and that the meetings consisted of religious discussions and "love gifts." This informant felt that this group was merely a "racket," explaining that new members are asked to buy $23.00 worth of religious books and that if they attend each meeting they can purchase the entire group for $23.00. However, for each meeting that they miss, they have to begin payments again, which in some cases amount to an unusually high price for a set of religious books. He stated that there are approximately [redacted] members in Greeley and that they seem to have a persecution complex because of the recent possibility of invasion on the West Coast. He said that he does not believe that they are engaged in subversive activity with the exception of their various campaigns against the Jews and of their prejudice against the government for the trial and investigation of the BALLARD family. He stated that he feels that the group is dangerous to the extent that they accuse the government of perjury and instruct their followers in the light of this, but that such discussions are usually made by members who are not the leaders of the group; adding that he is sure the leaders of the Greeley group are patriotic citizens. This informant will report any other information that comes into his possession. He stated that he is sure cults are rapidly gaining a foothold both in Wyoming and in Colorado and that he has heard that the Cult is extremely active in western Colorado.

Inasmuch as this investigation has not covered Wyoming or western Colorado, leads are being set out to determine the extent of activities of this group in the larger towns in the Denver Field Division territory.

Further investigation reveals that Subject organization, sometimes known as the PURPLE CULT, is definitely non-cooperative with reference to the present war, and is instructing its membership to refrain from buying Defense Bonds. It is possible that a membership list might be obtained from Mrs. D.D. Fowler, 1808 24th Ave., Seattle, Washington, who is reported to be reliable.

Mrs. MAURINE WEAVER, Merchant's Central Credit Association, advised that THEODORE RUSSELL SMITH had been known to their files since 1929. SMITH has resided at 1437 Torrence since 1931, and is engaged in a locksmith business at 3925 Fifth Avenue. In 1929 SMITH married Mrs. NELLIE G. EDGAR, widow of MILTON A. EDGAR, who died in 1925. In 1938 SMITH was thirty-eight years of age, and his wife is believed to be considerably older.

SMITH advised the Credit Association in 1939 that he had been separated from his wife for a period of two years, but Mrs. SMITH subsequent to that date advised that there had been no separation between herself and her husband. Mrs. SMITH, as Mrs. EDGAR, has been known to their files since 1923, and is known to be a wealthy woman. Mrs. WEAVER further advised that SMITH had been chauffeur for Mrs. SMITH at the time that her husband, Mr. EDGAR, was living.

Mr. G. R. SPRINGS, Mail Carrier, Hillcrest Sub-Station, San Diego Post Office, advised that THEODORE SMITH had resided at 1437 Torrence for many years and that he had married his present wife, who is wealthy, for whom he at one time was a chauffeur.

According to Mr. SPRINGS, he recalled delivering mail to 1437 Torrence Street addressed to a PAUL STICKELL for a period of approximately two years ending about one and one-half years ago. He did not recall seeing STICKELL at any time. As recently as twomonths ago, Mr. SPRINGS has delivered mail addressed to PAUL STICKELL at that address, but this has been redirected by Mrs. SMITH to an address in Los Angeles.

Mr. SPRINGS advised that Mrs. SMITH had been connected with the "I AM" movement for a long time, and that within the last year she had purchased the residence at 1360 Torrence as an "I AM" Sanctuary. The following people were known to reside there:

Miss HORTENSIA ROCK - sister to Mrs. SMITH
Left recently, forwarding address, Box 355, Gunnison, Colorado.

Miss MILDRED ROCK - sister to Mrs. SMITH
Left recently, forwarding address, Box 355, Gunnison, Colorado.

Mr. GEORGE KERR and wife, CAROLINA
Left February 6, 1942, forwarding address,
General Delivery, Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Mrs. LOUISE LANE
Left February 6, 1942, forwarding address,
Box 355, Gunnison, Colorado.

Mr. SPRINGS added that the Filipino who cared for the residence had told him that mettings were held and that on occasions seven or eight hundred dollars were taken in.

According to Mr. SPRINGS, Mr. and Mrs. SMITH have not lived together as man and wife for several years, inasmuch as Mr. SMITH lives mostly in a trailer in the yard. He added that Mr. SMITH apparently was dissatisfied immediately after his marriage inasmuch as he was practically a "kept man". It was at this time of dissatisfaction that Mr. SMITH had entered into the Locksmith business, referred to in the Credit Report hereinbefore set out. It was Mr. SPRINGS belief that Mr. SMITH had recently been employed by some aircraft company.

Mrs. SMITH presently is having her mail forwarded to the Allen Hotel, Gunnison, Colorado, and according to Mr. SPRINGS, stated that she would be at that address for an indefinite period.

Mr. SPRINGS recalled that the Filipino caretaker a few days ago had referred to a _____ FERGUSON as being connected with the "I AM" movement.

Mrs. E. LETA HOSKINS, 4111 Stephens Street, having previously furnished information to this office concering the "I AM" movement was contacted, and she advised that she had never heard the name PAUL STICKELL. However, she was familiar with the name Mrs. THEODORE SMITH, and advised that this person had about two years ago inherited a home on Torrence Street, which she had turned into an "I AM" sanctuary.

Mrs. HOSKINS could furnish no further information pertinent to this report, but she advised that she was leader of the "Ancient Active Masonry", an organization which consisted of thirty-three members; also that she was familiar with hypnotism, and astrology, and other sciences and cults. Her friends were acquainted with the principles of the "I AM" movement, and she suggested that the writer contact Mrs. DELTA HEWETT, Winters Apartments, 12th and B Streets, whose sister VELMA attended an "I AM" meeting about three weeks ago. She added that Mrs. HEWETT was completely reliable.

Mrs. HOSKINS further advised that up until about two years ago the headquarters of the "I AM" movement had been at the corner of Grape and Fourth Streets, which is now the Fourth Avenue Hospital.

No further investigation is to be conducted by this office unless deemed necessary by the office of origin, and this case is being referred upon completion to the office of origin.

Special Agent Myers telephonically reported the following developments in the captioned matter. He stated that Agent Ferris has been spending all of his time on this case in the vicinity of Santa Fe and has advised that Santa Fe is now completely filled with "I Am" people; that they have rented every possible vacancy in the way of furnished apartments and homes; that they have just leased an entire hotel at Gunnerson, Colorado; that one Paul Steckell has gone from Santa Fe to Gunnerson to perfect arrangements of the organization's occupancy of the hotel. Mr. Myers stated that the remaining and higher representatives of the organization at Santa Fe are negotiating with Ferris' informant [redacted] b7D

[redacted]

Mr. Myers advised that everyone in Santa Fe and a number of people in Los Angeles are quite excited over the matter specifically in connection with the bombing on February 12th. Mr. Myers had instructed Agent Ferris to attempt to determine the nature of the information forwarded to the woman in Los Angeles to the effect that the bombing was scheduled for February 12th. Mr. Ferris has stated that he has received information to the effect that immediately after the bombing of Pearl Harbor, Mrs. Ballard is alleged to have remarked, "Now my work in Los Angeles is done." Mr. Myers stated that the present situation is that the members of the outfit are being kept under surveillance and that Ferris desired him to contact the Bureau regarding the installation of a technical surveillance. Mr. Myers was of the opinion, however, that a technical surveillance would be of no particular value at this time.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. E. A. TAMM

RE: "I AM CULT"

SAC Nicholson of the Denver Office telephonically contacted me, referring to his conversation with Supervisor Kramer of this division last night regarding the "I Am Cult". Mr. Nicholson mentioned the fact that it was thought advisable, when he talked to Mr. Kramer, to forget about the matter regarding Mrs. Ballard so far as the Denver Office is concerned inasmuch as she had told them everything and it was thought the rumor was without foundation as far as the officers of the cult are concerned.

Mr. Nicholson advised that he had just received a call from the sheriff's office at Boulder, Colorado, at which time it was stated that there are at least fifteen members of this cult at Boulder. Among them are Don Ballard, Mrs. Ballard's son; David Bayre, and Fred Liebhardt. At least two of these fifteen individuals have strong German accents. These individuals came to Boulder with four trucks, all kinds of equipment such as tools, lumber, jacks, tires, quite a storage of oil and gasoline, a radio receiving set and other similar materials. It is not known why these people are at Boulder although they are going to a point about fifteen miles up the canyon from Boulder. Mr. Nicholson stated everything indicates that these people have property to go into mining operations; however, they have about 1,000 rounds of 30-30 caliber ammunition and some 45 caliber ammunition. It is not known at the present time how many rifles and pistols they have. These people put about twelve or fourteen tires and some other material in a warehouse at Boulder. The warehouseman remarked to one of them, "Under the present system, I don't know whether you can get these tires back when you want them or not". One of the individuals then threatened the warehouseman, saying, "We'll get the tires back if we have to use a gun to get them".

Mr. Nicholson stated that the townspeople are quite upset about the members of this cult being in Boulder and the postmaster has also called the Denver Office asking that the FBI do something about the matter. The people are upset over the fact that the members of this cult have moved in with all of this equipment and the further fact that a resident of Boulder had been threatened. I pointed out to Mr. Nicholson that with reference to the tires there is no violation over which the FBI has jurisdiction and the fact that the warehouseman was threatened would be a matter for the local police to handle.

Mr. Nicholson inquired as to whether the Bureau wanted the Denver office to act on the basis of the possibility that these individuals are aliens in the possession of contraband, whether the cult members should be interviewed or what action should be taken. I pointed out to Mr. Nicholson that the Bureau can not act on any possibility of that kind, that if we are going to act we must know that they are aliens. Mr. Nicholson remarked that they only know the identity of three of these individuals, that it would be necessary to interview the cult members to ascertain their identity. I pointed out to Mr. Nicholson that if these individuals are citizens that even though they do have ammunition in their possession there is nothing we can do about it. Mr. Nicholson inquired as to whether there was something which could be used as a basis for making some inquiry. In response to my inquiry, he stated that most of these people came out of the Los Angeles area. I told him that checks should be made in Los Angeles to find out if these people are aliens and if they are aliens the matter should be discussed with the U. S. Attorney. He then pointed out that they only have the names of three of these persons and it is believed that the son of Mrs. Ballard is a citizen. I pointed out to Mr. Nicholson that he has no basis to make inquiries inasmuch as he has no indication that these people are aliens. I suggested to him that under the circumstances he discuss with the U. S. Attorney what information he has to see if the U. S. Attorney wants to authorize executive search warrants as outlined in the Bureau bulletin, that if executive search warrants can be obtained then it will be all right for him, Nicholson, to check on these people while serving the warrants, that if he finds some of them are aliens in possession of contraband he can take them into custody under the C.D. program.

Mr. Nicholson inquired as to whether there was any substantiation to the rumor about the so-called sabotage, that is the rumor that these people were supposed to be controlled by the Communist Party and that they were going to sabotage the transportation systems east and west. I told him that I had seen no confirmation although we had received rumors to that effect. Mr. Nicholson stated that he was just interested in this rumor in so far as handling it as an ordinary case or whether they should even touch it inasmuch as the cult is involved. I told Mr. Nicholson that when there is nothing to back up a rumor that the people there have started to circulate concerning sabotage, there are no grounds on which we can act, and it is not known whether these people are aliens. I pointed out to Mr. Nicholson he should not interest himself in the cult, that the only information he should try to obtain is whether these individuals are aliens and if so whether they have contraband in their possession.

Mr. Nicholson stated that he will contact the U. S. Attorney and if the U. S. Attorney authorizes executive search warrants, the warrants will be served and it will be determined if these individuals are aliens; and if they are aliens, whether they have contraband in their possession. I told Mr. Nicholson that this should be handled most discreetly and the Bureau should be advised of all developments.

Respectfully,

D. M. Ladd

[redacted] had stated that the Communist Party had requested the Cult to move from the West Coast inasmuch as, within the next two weeks, the Communists have organized for the purpose of taking command of all railroads and blocking all highways with their personally owned automobiles in order to stop all travel communications along the West Coast and prevent the transportation of troops. Confidential Informant "A" further advised that one of the Cult's teachings was to allow the Japanese to take the Philippines as these Islands and Japan itself would sink from a hurricaneand that it was therefore useless for America to fight the Japs as it would just be a waste of our manpower. The Bureau was telephonically advised of these facts. b7D

On February 8, 1942, Confidential Informant "B" advised that in October or November, 1941, one PAUL H. STICKELL had come to Closson's Garage in Santa Fe, New Mexico, that he had been previously visiting the garage, and that, upon being asked if he worked for the government, as he would always have a new battery installed rather than have one recharged, STICKELL stated "I do not work for this government." Informant "B" further advised that STICKELL was driving a 1940 Buick Coupe, 1942 California license 73T324, that he had been seen frequently contacting the members of the "I AM" Cult and that he had advised that on February 9 he was leaving for the North.

On February 10, 1942, the San Francisco Office was advised concerning the above activities of STICKELL and was requested to ascertain his reputation and activities in that district.

On February 10, 1942, a teletype was received from the San Francisco Office advising that STICKELL's California license plates were issued to him at 1437 Torrance Street, San Diego, and that his operator license number was H807901, issued to one PAUL HARTMAN STICKELL, and that STICKELL is described as follows:

Height	5'6"
Weight	206
Eyes	Blue
Hair	Brown
Marital status	Married

The teletype also advised that the San Francisco files reflected that one PAUL STICKELL was a member of the Executive Committee of "Friends of New Germany" in Milwaukee in 1934.

On February 9, 1942, a teletype was received from the Los Angeles Field Division advising that the wife of DICK ABDIE, 59 Scott

Street, San Francisco, had received a letter from the "I AM" headquarters informing her that the entire Pacific Coast was to be bombed on February 12, 1942; that San Francisco Office was unable to obtain information from ABDIE and suggested that officers of the Cult be investigated for possible violation of the Sedition Act and to ascertain who was responsible for the bombing report.

With further reference to STICKELL, it is to be observed from the teletype of the San Francisco Office dated February 10, 1942, that STICKELL was a member of the Executive Committee of the "Friends of New Germany" in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, in 1934, and that he had in his possession a Wisconsin operator's license in 1936; also, that this information was available in the report of Special Agent C. B. HOWARD, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, dated January 4, 1941, entitled "EUGENE JOHANNES BUERK, ESPIONAGE - G." A description set out in reference teletype was obtained by the San Francisco Field Division presumably from the State Motor Vehicle Bureau listing the color of hair of STICKELL as brown. However, Informant "B" advised that STICKELL's hair was white and wavy, and, therefore, these two do not appear to be identical.

On February 11, 1942, it was ascertained from Confidential Informant "C" that Mrs. EDNA BALLARD, the head of the Cult, and probably her son, DONALD BALLARD, had left Santa Fe and had proceeded to the Brown Palace Hotel, Denver, Colorado, and that they were probably registered at that hotel under the name of "MUNDY." Informant "C" further stated that Mrs. BALLARD and PAUL H. STICKELL were receiving mail from one F. LIEBHARDT, who, it was believed, is a mail drop for said persons.

The Denver Field Division was advised of the whereabouts of Mrs. BALLARD and was requested upon Bureau instructions to interview her for what information she would give regarding the reported bombings of the Pacific Coast on February 12, 1942.

On February 16, 1942, a letter was received from the Denver Field Division dated February 13, 1942, advising that investigation at Denver revealed that DON BALLARD had registered at the Brown Palace Hotel in Denver under that name on February 6, 1942, and had checked out on February 8, 1942, and that a Mrs. G. W. BALLARD, together with a Mrs. B. O. MUNDY, had also registered at the hotel on February 6, 1942.

Mrs. BALLARD was interviewed, and she stated that she is the Secretary of the organization and that Mrs. MUNDY is her personal secretary and is also a member of the organization. In the initial stages of the interview she was reluctant to answer questions, advising that she had been subjected to so much criticism and persecution by the enemies of the "I AM" Cult that she did not care to answer any questions. According to this letter, Mrs. BALLARD advised that the decrees of the "I AM" Cult have always condemned Communism and that they have always fought Communism and have endeavored over a period of some nine years to make the American public conscious of the evils of Communism in this country.

Mrs. BALLARD stated that there was no organization and that persons who participate in it are merely students who come freely and voluntarily to meetings which are held and which are open to any persons who care to come, regardless of race, creed or color. At the meetings the students are instructed in the proper manner of living so that they will be rewarded in the life to come.

Mrs. BALLARD further advised that the rumor that the "I AM" Cult was planning or contemplating sabotage is the creation of some enemy of the Cult and has absolutely no foundation in fact. She stated that she was unable to give even an indication of who might be responsible for starting such a rumor as the reported bombing of the Pacific Coast. She denied ever having written a letter to one Mrs. DICK ABDIE, stating that the only person authorized to correspond in behalf of the Cult was Mrs. MUNDY, that the "I AM" Cult has no stationery with printed letterhead and that the only stationery which has been used in the past several months was that of the Biltmore Hotel, Los Angeles, where she and Mrs. MUNDY resided and which they considered as headquarters.

The Denver letter further advised that Mrs. B. O. MUNDY was also interviewed and that she related substantially the same as Mrs. BALLARD.

Mrs. DONNA LUCAS, 315 Grant Avenue, Santa Fe, New Mexico, upon interview, advised that she had never heard of any such bombing rumor and gave the following signed statement, which is being retained in the file of the El Paso Field Division:

> "I have absolutely no knowledge of reports of bombings on the West Coast nor do I know where such reports originated. I did not hear any such report. The reason I came to Santa Fe is because I love the city and its people. Santa Fe is a cultural center and a wonderful place for our children and young people to continue their education and home activities. Los Angeles is known to be a combat zone therefore the parents of our resident children were concerned about their children being so far from home under such uncertain conditions - the simple thing to take the children to a greater place of safety.
> Feb 11 - 1942 "

Mrs. GENEVIEVE CHAVEZ, wife of Judge DAVID CHAVEZ and reported head of the organization at Santa Fe, was interviewed, and she likewise denied any knowledge of the bombing rumor nor could she give any indication as to who might have circulated the rumor. Mrs. CHAVEZ further advised that she doubted that the Cult would stay in Santa Fe and that it would probably make its headquarters at Denver, where Mrs. BALLARD is presently residing.

Mr. DATUS MYERS was contacted, and he advised that he knew nothing concerning the reported bombings of the Pacific Coast and had no idea who might have circulated such a rumor. MYERS stated that he did hear, however, from some of the members as they arrived in Santa Fe that Communists had advised them to leave California as the railroads and all the highways were to be blocked to frustrate any movement of troops.

MYERS further stated that the organization now numbers approximately 3,000,000 members and that there is in the process of organization 3,000,000 more members. MYERS stated that anyone who was opposed to the "I AM" movement or who did anything against them would be dealt with by the "Masters," explaining that the Masters meant the ascended persons of St. GERMAIN and Mr. BALLARD. He stated that we need not worry about the Japanese for all the Japanese Islands are going to sink into the ocean and that will be the end of the war, inferring that such information had come to him from the head of the organization; that we had nothing more to fear from the Communists since they (the "I AM's) have them under control and the Communists could no longer do anything in the way of revolutionizing.

When questioned concerning Mr. STICKELL, MYERS advised that STICKELL is next in line to Mrs. BALLARD; that he was an attorney in Chicago before he joined the "I AM's" and had an honorable discharge from the Army; that if anything ever happened to Mrs. BALLARD, STICKELL would be the head of the organization.

MYERS further advised that all of the activities of the "I AM" Cult are directed by Mrs. BALLARD, who is in turn directed by the Ascended Masters: St. GERMAIN and Mr. BALLARD.

According to the "Encyclopaedia Britannica," nothing is definitely known concerning St. GERMAIN's parentage and birthplace. However, the common version is that he was a Portuguese Jew. He was a musical composer and a capable violinist. He pretended to have the secret for removing flaws from diamonds and to be able to transmute metals. The most remarkable of his professed discoveries was a liquid which would prolong life and by which he asserted he had himself lived 2,000 years. St. GERMAIN was mentioned in a letter of HORACE WALPOLE's as being in London about 1743 and being arrested there as a Jacobite spy, and released. He appears to have resided in London for one or two years. He was as St. Petersburg, Russia, in 1762 and is asserted to have played an important part in connection with a conspiracy against Emperor PETER III and a plot which placed CATHERINE the Second upon the Russian throne.

From the "Encyclopedia Americana" the following information concerning St. GERMAIN is summarized: Substantially the same background as set out above from the "Encyclopaedia Britannica" is given. It is further stated that FREDERICK the Great, having asked VOLTAIRE for some particulars respecting him, was told that he was a man who never dies and who knows everything. He passed the last years of his life at the court of Prince HESSE-CASSEL and is supposed to have been employed during the greater part of his life as a spy at the courts at which he resided.

Confidential Informant "A" advised that the "I AM's" were openly seen with KATHERINE GAY and ANN WEBSTER, known Communists; that [redacted] had told her that immediately after Pearl Harbor had been bombed, Mrs. BALLARD had stated: "My work in California is done." b7D Informant "A" continued that she is certain that this organization is a Communist front since one of the reasons why she [redacted] "I AM's." Informant "A" continued that [redacted] had stated that it was useless for America to fight the Japs as it would be a waste of our blood and manpower since the Philippine Islands and Japan would sink from a hurricane.

Informant "A" advised that [redacted]

Confidential Informant [redacted] was contacted, and he advised that he had been solicited for membership in the organization by several members and that he was in an ideal position to obtain inside information as to the purposes behind the movement; that from what he had heard concerning the Cult, only the very top few of its members know the real background of it and that the so-called students are purely religious followers.

[redacted] further advised that in his opinion the Cult was another Communist front, as they seemed to be very familiar with Communist activities.

[redacted] advised that a new leader named IRENE HUDSON was to arrive in the community from somewhere in the Middle West and that upon her arrival he would be admitted to membership in the organization. One of the things the organizers had told him was that the Bible had made a lot of promises which had not been fulfilled but which would be in the very near future; they intimated that one of these promises was that the yellow race will rule the world. b7D

On February 15, 1942, CHARLES F. HOFSTETTER, whose home address is 7021 Franklin Avenue, Los Angeles, California, advised that his mother, OLGA HOFSTETTER, who had been referred to by Mrs. BALLARD as the "Santa Claus" of the "I AM" movement, had left California on two days' notice, selling her home and furniture, to come to Santa Fe, New Mexico, and that his mother has been a member of the organization for approximately two years, during which time she has contributed approximately $35,000.

When questioned concerning the alleged bombing rumor, HOFSTETTER advised that no such rumor had circulated so far as his knowledge was concerned, but that his mother was so engrossed with the movement that she had told him that, a few days after conviction of Mrs. BALLARD in California for mail fraud, Mrs. BALLARD had called a meeting of a very small group of the members and had advised them to leave California, as the Pacific Coast was going to sink because God was mad because of her persecution by the government. HOFSTETTER referred to the prosecution of Mrs. BALLARD for mail fraud.

HOFSTETTER advised that he and his father had come to Santa Fe, New Mexico, in an effort to get his mother to return to Los Angeles but thus far had been unable to so persuade her.

HOFSTETTER advised that he would inform the Los Angeles Field Division upon his return to Los Angeles of any further information which came to his attention.

From a confidential source literature of the organization was obtained and is being retained in the file of the El Paso Field Division.

DETAILS:

This investigation is predicated upon a telephone call received February 12, 1942, from Sheriff GEORGE A. RICHART, Boulder, Colorado, by Special Agent J. S. JOHNSON, advising that FRED LIEBHARDT, DONALD BALLARD and DAVID SAYRE, and about twelve other persons who were members of the "I Am" Cult, had come into the town of Boulder with four trucks, all kinds of tools, lumber, bricks, tires, oil, gasoline, grease, radio receiving set, about 1000 rounds of 30-30 ammunition and some .45 ammunition. Sheriff RICHART stated that they were very secretive and that some of these persons had German names and therefore, he was of the opinion they might be enemy aliens in possession of contraband property. operating under the name of the NEVADA ENGINEERING COMPANY.

On the same date Mr. PERCY B. PADDOCK, Postmaster, Boulder, Colorado, telephonically contacted this office and advised that a number of California trucks had come into town and taken a warehouse, put in gasoline, supplies, etc. Mr. PADDOCK also reported that there were some Germans in the crowd and that the residents of Boulder were becoming very suspicious about their plans inasmuch as no one could seem to find out anything about them.

On February 12, 1942, Mr. FRED C. LIEBHARDT, office, 611 - 16th St., Denver, Colorado; temporary residence, LaFonda Hotel, Santa Fe, New Mexico, and the Cosmopolitan Hotel, Denver, Colorado, called at this office and spoke to Special Agent J. S. JOHNSON. Mr. LIEBHARDT informed Mr. JOHNSON that the "I Am" Cult is presently locating on gold-mining property above Boulder, Colorado, about two miles below Jimtown, Colorado, which property is owned by Mrs. CHAVEZ of New Mexico. Mr. LIEBHARDT further stated that they are operating under the name of THE NEVADA ENGINEERING COMPANY, which is a company organized by Mr. RICHARD KING, Hollywood, California, telephone, Hollywood 5040. He also stated that the attorney for the "I Am" Cult is Mr. WOOLEY, Los Angeles, California, telephone, Tr. 5421, and that the head of the group at Boulder is Mr. DAVID SAYRE, who is from Seattle, Washington.

AT BOULDER, COLORADO

Sheriff GEORGE A. RICHART, advised that he had received a report from Mr. W. S. CRAIGHEAD of the CRAIGHEAD MOVING AND STORAGE COMPANY, 1911- 11th Avenue, that FRED LIEBHARDT, DON BALLARD, DAVID SAYRE, and about twelve other perons had come into Boulder with four trucks from California, and had rented storage space from him. These persons were members of the "I Am" Cult, a religious organization. In this storage space they had placed all kinds of tools, lumber, bricks, tires, oil, gasoline, grease, radio receiving set, amplifying unit, rope and about 600 rounds of 30-30 ammunition and about 200 rounds of .45 ammunition. This material was stored in the name of FRED LIEBHARDT, but Sheriff RICHART stated that the insurance on same is in the name of SAYRE.

Postmaster PERCY B. PADDOCK advised that it had been reported to him by Mr. JACK ADLER that a group of people calling themselves the

"I Am" Cult had rented a storage room from him on his property and he was very suspicious of them because they had about 2100 gallons of gasoline, several rifles and were very secretive about their business. Mr. PADDOCK stated that ADLER was also suspicious of them because several of the persons had German names.

Officer ROBERT S. SMITH, Boulder Police Department, advised that he had received an identical report from ADLER, and that he, in company with Deputy Sheriff ARTHUR EVERSON, had gone through the material stored in CRAIGHEAD's MOVING AND STORAGE COMPANY, and had found all kinds of lumber, tools, bricks, tires, amplifying unit, rope and some 30-30 ammunition and .45 ammunition.

Officer SMITH also stated that DAVID SAYRE was now living at 2135 - 4th Street, Boulder, Colorado, and DONALD BALLARD was living at 735 Spruce Street, Boulder, Colorado.

Mr. A. J. ADLER, 214 Pearl Street, advised that on about January 15, 1942, he had rented a barn located on his property at 214 Pearl Street, to DAVID SAYRE, and that in this building, in the latter part of January, SAYRE and several others had moved various items of machinery and supplies into it, consisting of lathes, drill presses, power hacksaws, and other items that he could not recall. Mr. ADLER stated that he had seen three rifle-carrying cases being moved into the building, but that he had not seen any rifles; however, it appeared to him that there were rifles in the carrying cases.

ADLER also stated that he had been informed by one GEORGE HAGERMAN that they were going to mine, but Mr. ADLER noted that to date no mining operations have taken place. ADLER advised that he had talked to HAGERMAN in German and that HAGERMAN had informed him that he, HAGERMAN, had been born in Hamburg, Germany, and had formerly served in the German Army; however, he had deserted to Sweden and later came to this country.

AT DENVER, COLORADO

The facts of this case were discussed with United States Attorney, T. J. MORRISSEY, and he advised that inasmuch as no information had been developed to show that any contraband property was in the possession of enemy aliens, he would not authorize the issuance of a search warrant.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. LADD

Re: I AM;
Mrs. Bullard et al
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

SAC Nicholson called from Denver with respect to this matter and stated that he had personally interviewed Mrs. Bullard and her secretary, Mrs. B. O. Mundy, in Denver and had questioned them concerning allegations that reports had emanated from the headquarters of the I AM group that the Pacific Coast was to be bombed on February 12, 1942.

He stated that both Mrs. Bullard and Mrs. Mundy emphatically denied that any such report had emanated from their headquarters. They stated that they had no information of any sort concerning a bombing and that as a matter of fact no letters had been issued and approved by them with regard to any matter of a similar nature; that the only correspondence which they had was written on stationery of the Biltmore Hotel, Los Angeles, and that the extent of their correspondence was so limited that they did not have any letterhead stationery of their own.

Nicholson stated that Mrs. Bullard informed him that there were no Communists in her organization and that as a matter of fact the principles of the I AM group were directly opposed to Communism in any form. She also stated that the group had no ideas of sabotage and that the reports with respect to the proposed blocking of highways by members of the I AM group were entirely ridiculous. Nicholson said that he was impressed with the sincerity of Mrs. Bullard and felt that while she might be a religious fanatic, she was definitely not subversively disposed. He said that he would keep alert as to the activities of the group while they were in his district and if there was any information of interest developed he would immediately contact the Bureau.

Respectfully,

On February 17, 1942, Federal Judge J. F. T. O'CONNOR sentenced EDNA W. BALLARD to one year's imprisonment on each of the seven counts, sentences to be concurrent, and imposed fines totaling $8,000. Judge O'CONNOR suspended the prison sentence and placed Mrs. BALLARD on probation for a period of one year. Also, on February 17, 1942, Judge O'CONNOR sentenced DONALD BALLARD to a thirty day jail sentence on each of the three counts on which he was convicted, sentences to be served concurrently, and imposed fines totaling $400. Judge O'CONNOR suspended the jail sentence imposed on DONALD BALLARD and placed him on probation for a period of one year.

Probationary conditions were not outlined in the sentences imposed by Judge O'CONNOR. The sentences imposed were confirmed by an examination of file No. 14,858 in the office of the U. S. Clerk of Court, Los Angeles. At the latter office it was determined that indictments Nos. 14,496 and 14,471 were dismissed against all defendants on September 8, 1941.

Disposition sheets as to BETTY MUNDY; PAUL STICKELL; LOUISE MAJERUS; and WILLIAM J. CASSIERE are forwarded to the Bureau with copies of this report. Probationary letters as to EDNA W. BALLARD and DONALD BALLARD are being forwarded to the Bureau.

PAUL STICKELL is itinerant preacher who makes his living through preachings of "I AM MOVEMENT". Post Office Inspectors and attorneys who tried leaders of MOVEMENT in Los Angeles on mail fraud charge state that leaders, while swindlers and anti-administration, appear to have no connection whatsoever with Communistic Party. report from San Diego indicates that that Office conducted an investigation of PAUL STICKELL possibly in connection with the same matter.

During the latter part of the year 1940 the writer and Special Agent J. C. SLOANE conducted an accounting investigation of the records of the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS and the SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION in connection with mail fraud indictments which had already been brought against the following listed individuals as a result of investigation by the Post Office Department:

EDNA W. BALLARD, alias Saint Germain, Jesus, Joan of Arc, Lotus Ray King, Chanera
DONALD BALLARD, alias Edona Eros Ballard, Lafayette
BETTY MUNDY
CHARLES SINDELAR
PAUL POTTER
FRANK VON DERHOYA

The files of the Post Office Inspectors, the books of SAINT GERMAIN PRESS and SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION and information developed during the trial of the case showed that the "I AM MOVEMENT" had been started by GUY W. BALLARD and his wife, EDNA W. BALLARD to disseminate information of alleged appearances made to GUY W. BALLARD by SAINT GERMAIN, JESUS, and other "ascended masters". These visions or appearances or experiences of BALLARD were published in a series of books, the first of which was known as "Unveiled Mysteries".

The indictment in the case and evidence introduced at the trial indicated that BALLARD was living in the state of Oregon under a fictitious name (in order to avoid prosecution at Chicago, Illinois, for selling stock in a non-existent gold mine) at the time he wrote the book "Unveiled Mysteries", the material for which had allegedly been plagerized from other esoteric books.

GUY W. BALLARD died in December, 1939, and his wife assumed charge of the work. The books of the BALLARDS were published through the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, which had its offices at 1620 East 84th Place, Chicago, Illinois. The SAINT GERMAIN PRESS was a partnership composed of GUY W. BALLARD and EDNA W. BALLARD. On March 24, 1938, the SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION was incorporated as a non-profit corporation in the state of Illinois. The officers and directors of this corporation were GUY W. BALLARD, EDNA W. BALLARD and HARRY N. ROGERS. The books which the SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION sold were obtained from the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS. The SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, INC. was incorporated on December 19, 1939, to succeed to the business of the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS. GUY W. BALLARD and EDNA W. BALLARD held the entire authorized capital stock of the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, INC., and after his death EDNA W. BALLARD acquired his stock so that she is now the sole stockholder of SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, INC. Also, following the death of GUY W. BALLARD, his son, DONALD BALLARD became an officer and director of the SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION, prior thereto PAUL A. POTTER had succeeded HARRY N. ROGERS as an officer and director of SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION.

The profits of the SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION are governed by the price at which the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, INC. agrees to sell books to it and this price has apparently been manipulated by Mrs. BALLARD with an utter disregard of the economic factors involved. The investigation conducted by the Post Office Inspectors indicates that she rules the Movement in an arbitrary fashion and will permit no one to continue in the Movement who opposes her.

CHARLES SINDELAR, who owns and operates the SINDELAR STUDIOS at 2600 Hoover St., Los Angeles, California, publishes a monthly magazine known as the "Voice of the I AM" in which is published the alleged continuous revelations which are made to Mrs. BALLARD by SAINT GERMAIN and the "other masters". SINDELAR makes his living from the sale of the magazine, various religious articles approved by Mrs. BALLARD and from the advertising matter published in the magazine. In return he makes so-called "Love Gifts" to Mrs. BALLARD.

Two trials of this case were had. The first was in the latter part of 1940 and early 1941. In this first trial FRANK VON DERHOYA, CHARLES SINDELAR and PEARL SINDELAR were acquitted. On April 12, 1941, a new indictment was returned against only six of the previously named defendants, namely EDNA W. BALLARD; DONALD W. BALLARD; BETTY MUNDY; PAUL STICKELL; LOUISE MAJERUS and WILLIAM J. CASSIERE. BETTY MUNDY is the Secretary of Mrs. BALLARD, who travels with her; LOUISE MAJERUS is a Secretary to Mrs. BALLARD who operates the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, INC. offices at Chicago, Illinois, while Mrs. BALLARD is on tour; and PAUL STICKELL and WILLIAM J. CASSIERE are itinerant preachers who make their living by spreading the teachings of the "I AM" and selling the books of the "I AM". STICKELL and CASSIERE are permitted to retain "Love Gifts" received from the audiences to which they preach. They are obliged to buy the books which they sell from the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, INC.

The second trial of the case resulted in the conviction on January 31, 1942, of EDNA W. BALLARD and DONALD BALLARD and of the acquittal of the other four defendants. On February 17, 1942, Federal Judge J. F. T. O'CONNOR sentenced Mrs. BALLARD to one year suspended and placed her on probation for one year, and at the same time he sentenced DONALD BALLARD to thirty days suspended sentence and placed him on probation for one year. A fine of $8,000 was assessed against Mrs. BALLARD, and a fine of $400 was assessed against DONALD BALLARD.

It was learned from DAVE CANNON, principal attorney for the BALLARDS and from newsclippings in the local papers that EDNA W. BALLARD, DONALD BALLARD, and about three hundred disciples had gone to Santa Fe, New Mexico, for the purpose of starting a new "I AM" School following her conviction on January 31, 1942, and prior to the receipt of the teletype from San Francisco on February 7, 1942. In view of this a teletype was sent to the El Paso Bureau Office asking that investigation be conducted at Santa Fe in order to determine those responsible for the bombing rumor. CHARLES SINDELAR was questioned by the writer as to his knowledge of the rumor. He said that none of the leaders of the "I AM" were responsible for the rumor and said that if such a rumor were circulated it had probably been emanated from enemies of the "I AM" in the hope of discrediting the organization when the predicted bombing did not occur. SINDELAR did, however, state that there was a rumor prevalent in "I AM" circles that California was to be placed in martial law and that "I AM" members were to be placed in concentration camps. SINDELAR said that these latter rumors were circulated as a result of statements made by Government counsel during the recent trial. SINDELAR said that he had called a meeting of over one hundred "I AM" students who were still in Los Angeles on February 10, 1942, and they all stated that they had not heard the bombing rumor. The Los Angeles offices of ONI and G-2 were advised of this rumor on February 9, 1942.

Many of the published statements of the "I AM" and the oral statements made by Mrs. BALLARD have condemned President ROOSEVELT for permitting an investigation to be made of the "I AM" by the Post Office Department and permitting the prosecution of the leaders. Also, prior to the war practically all policies of the Administration had been criticized by the leaders of "I AM". During the last election Mrs. BALLARD advocated the election of WENDELL WILLKIE for President. All members wear an American flag in their buttonholes or affixed to their dresses.

Assistant U. S. Attorneys NORMAN NEUKOM and RALPH LAZARUS who tried this case for the Government, and Post Office Inspectors WILLIAM CALLAHAN and VAN METER who investigated this case during the course of this investigation and trials have stated that the leaders are swindlers who have used the religious beliefs of their followers to build up their personal fortunes. However, they stated that they believed that the leaders had no connection with the Communistic Party or any other organization. In this respect it is pointed out that many of the "I AM" publications which have been perused by the writer are vitriolic in their attacks on Communism or any other ism disavowing the supernatural.

Please answer the guestion ablout the mails. Mrs Fred Stoker,
I32 State St. Bkyn. N.Y.

Dear Mr Hoover: 15 yrs residence

I have always wished to help your work. And I hope you get unlimited money for it.

You, and Mr. Martin Dies, are great friends for America, and Americans.

And if you wish me to ever help you,- by those things a quiet lady can do, please let me know.

NOW, for ME: I ask you about the "I AM" Activity. Why were the mails denied Mrs. Ballard? And , just what can we do to return them to her? You know the legal case.

I have been in this Activity for IO years, before that I was in Theosophy, and Anthroposity,- I am a gruduate of high scool and college,- and then studied in Paris. Where I went I had a book and a professor,- in London, in Paris, in Rome, in Egypt, in Palestine.

Alexandria, Egypt was the great center of learning two thousand years ago,- (I regret I did not enter the collge there,) and, Egypt two thousand years ago, was called the land of CHEMISTRY. (Who, to-day, understands the process of the mummy?)

Books were my fetish, my hobby, my very life,- TRUTH, THAT IS WHY, JUST TRUTH.

You, who go so deep. are better informed,- see, and feel differently about a subject. Your education and your training comes to bear upon a subject,-

Just, so, does our education, and our training go into a subject. We are not nuts,- any more than chemists are nuts,- we only study. We are not spiritualists,- analysts,- we are not magic workers, thieves, or tricksters,- we are group students, who have clean teachers, and who do clean things. No person smoking, drinking, sexing , swearing, red faced with anger,- trembling with hate,- COULD ENTER A GROUP OF "I AM," students. Can you inderstand this," WE BLESS THE WORLD." Difficult as it is to do. no dark hate

Mrs. Ballard made plenty of money. Her 6 million followers bought her books because they wanted them. (I've worn her books ragged,) Her magazines are perfect and cost but 35¢ Her songs are perfect music and cost but 50¢ Her pictures, art drawings by her artists, are inspired by beauty, rest, help,(no hellish conceptions,) Everything about this teaching is sane,- educational, clean, inspired with goodness and true honesty, and Cheap.

Mrs Ballard, her husband, her son,- took no money from people. Her work was free.

She carried the LIGHT. (you have a light in your office, in your home, in your BODY.) That LIGHT can be IO watt,- or it can be IOO watt. (A gangster has a ½ watt,- You have a very powerful LIGHT, in your heart.) So shining no one can see it.

And this is about the only thing about you that comes from your DIVINE, Like lantern and Love.

In IO years I never heard Mrs Ballard, or her groups, ASK FOR MONEY. Or ask you to buy of her wares.

Her followers are not as a rule YOUNG People like me, American stock, wealthy parents, successful husbands, good children/ Such as your family life. These people wishto keep on with teachers,- for " "

Mrs Ballard did not pay her bills as her groups did. When she was in Wash. D. C. her groups paid for her work, her hotels, flowers, food. She carried about 20 people with her, and while these people, musicians, secretaries, maids to dress her did NOT live on whiskey, or cigarettes, or beer,- or dead carrion, (which poisons the body,- dead carcass,) Still, these people did eat and do eat greens, fruit, --- and her pupils paid the expense.

I should know. Rents, hotels, orchids cost plenty in mid-winter. Radio was 5.000.00 in IO days. Rent to lecture hall, IOO a day, 10 days. flowers 50.00 a day. hotels, etc.
Mrs Ballard never asked for this money,- her customers on her books got it together. Mrs Ballard waved the flag, always, and all those SONGS, "GOD BLESS AMERICA," come from her.

Now I can not give you a resume of her work in one letter. You have her books. And her magazines. Everything is there. People wish this education, and they WILL have it.

This is NOT spiritualism, it is not psychic or ghosts, or ignorance,-

RE: "I AM" CULT, a religious organization:
INTERNAL SECURITY - C: SEDITION

Mr. WALLIS advised that this letter was delivered to him

[redacted] b7D

In addition, Mr. WALLIS stated that the party delivering this letter to him has seen fifteen to twenty new .45 calibre revolvers in the drawer of the Subject's desk in his office at the Metropolitan Airport. It appears that the above communication may refer to them or to rifles. GROSS, according to WALLIS, is in the business of buying and selling airplanes and parts and is continually making trips of a few days to a week in duration and does not know anything in addition concerning him at the present time. However, it appears from this communication that BALLARD, who is the son of the founder of the "I AM" CULT, is apparently interested in obtaining rifles for some reason or other, and it is felt that investigation should be directed towards ascertaining the true reason for this interest in guns.

The Los Angeles Field Division will conduct background investigation concerning GROSS, and the original of the above letter is attached to the Bureau copies of this letter, and it is requested that the Bureau make three photographic copies of same for the Los Angeles Field Division and two photographic copies of same for the El Paso Field Division, and the original be returned to this Office.

Re: EDNA W. BALLARD, et al
"I AM" Movement
Mail Fraud.

Dear Sir:

Attached hereto are copies of papers received from censors indicating that members of the "I AM" are causing their publications and literature to be mailed by parcel post from Mexico to addressees within the jurisdiction of the United States. An existing fruad order prohibits the entry of this matter in the United States mails.

This matter was discussed with the local post office inspectors by Special Agent THOMAS M. MULHERIN and they stated that the Mexican mailing constitutes a violation of the fraud order. It was suggested that this matter be forwarded to the Postmaster General, for the attention of Post Office Inspector W. F. CALLAHAN, who is handling the matter for the Post Office Department.

In view of the request for transmission to the Postmaster General the papers in question are being forwarded to you.

Very truly yours,

R. B. Hood

"I AM" CULT, a religious organization	INTERNAL SECURITY (C) SEDITION

Synopsis: CHARLES HOFSTETTER advises father has returned to Santa Fe and has turned over his invention to Mrs. BALLARD, but retains formula in memory. ROBERT E. GROSS, an allegedly suspicious individual, has apparently been attempting to obtain weapons for DONALD BALLARD. GROSS interviewed after preliminary investigation, and advises has been friendly with DONALD BALLARD for the purpose of selling him airplane, thus realizing the profit involved, and also because suspicious of DONALD BALLARD and desired to keep aware of his activities. Upon discreet questioning, GROSS admitted sending letter to DONALD BALLARD to the effect that he had obtained the firearms for him, but states this untrue and only for purpose of keeping in contact with BALLARD and gaining additional information concerning his activities. GROSS fancies self as amateur detective attempting to obtain evidence against BALLARD prior to turning such evidence over to the FBI.

U. S. DEPT. OF JUSTICE

Details: A letter dated March 4, 1942, was received from the El Paso Field Division advising that an informant of that office had stated that JOSEPH HOFSTETTER, a well known inventor, had been working on an invention for mission to the War Department, which invention was a small turbine which would able a submarine to operate upon a very small amount of fuel, using electrical energy in its stead, and that due to the lack of funds by HOFSTETTER, and becau his wife, OLGA, is a member of the "I AM" cult, the plans of this invention wer placed in the possession of Mrs. EDWARD BALLARD, the head of the cult. Instant letter requested that Mr. HOFSTETTER be interviewed at his home, 7021 Franklin Avenue, Los Angeles, California.

RECEIVED
MAY 23 1942
F. B. I.
DEPT. OF JUSTICE

Inquiry at 7021 Franklin Avenue, revealed that JOSEPH HOFSTETTER was longer residing there; however, his son, CHARLES HOFSTETTER, was there. CHARLES HOFSTETTER was interviewed at this address, which is his home, and advised that his father, JOSEPH HOFSTETTER, had returned to Santa Fe, New Mexico, and was re ing at 745 Cerillos Road, Santa Fe, New Mexico. HOFSTETTER advised that it woul be preferable to reach his father through Miss EVALINE MYERS, Post Office Box # Santa Fe, New Mexico, rather than contact him directly. He stated that he fear that if his father were contacted directly, he would be under the influence of HOFSTETTER and would likely be uncooperative, but that if separated from his wi it is believed that he would furnish all available information requested.

HOFSTETTER advised that Special Agent E. P. FERRIS of the El Paso Of was a friend of his, and he had previously furnished information to Agent FERRIS CHARLES HOFSTETTER advised that he has been attempting to secure a position in t Bureau as a Special Agent, but was retarded because of his lack of a college de He stated in this connection that he had the equivalent to a college degree in Europe, but that he understood it was not acceptable. HOFSTETTER stated that h father had actually given his invention over to Mrs. BALLARD because of the infl of Mrs. HOFSTETTER, CHARLES' mother, and JOSEPH's wife, and that as far as he kn Mrs. BALLARD had the invention now. CHARLES stated that the invention itself is difficult to explain, but that it was actually a marvelous invention which the A should have. He stated that from his acquaintance with it, it could enable sub- marines to go an extraordinary distance on a very small amount of fuel, and he further stated that this did not refer merely to submarines, but to any type of machine using fuel.

HOFSTETTER advised that he was seriously considering going to Santa F and pretending to join up with the Cult, to obtain information for the purpose o handing it over to this Bureau. He advised that he was presently hoping, howeve to hear shortly concerning his application with the Bureau. He stated that he h been offered a chance to put in an application as a translator, but that he was venturesome type and did not desire to spend his time sitting behind a desk doin translation, but rather to get out and investigate.

Referenced letter to the Bureau from the Los Angeles Office dated Mar 31, 1942, advised that a letter addressed to DONALD BALLARD from ROBERT E. GROSS had been turned over to this office by a highly confidential source. The substance of this letter was that GROSS had claimed to have recently been down in Mexico and to have located fifty guns, all of which were new, and had not been fired since testing range, which BALLARD was desirous of having. It was deemed advisable to immediately place a mail cover on all mail addressed to ROBERT E. GROSS at Box #289 Van Nuys, California; however, the results of this mail cover have been unproductive to date.

On March 30, 1942, DON WALLIS, Plant Protection Official at Timm Aircraft Corporation, Van Nuys, California, telephonically advised that ROBERT GROSS was born in either Austria or Germany, and had told people that he has the ability to place flyers with the German Air Force, and that LAURA ENGELS used to frequent his place.

A Memorandum for the File dated April 12, 1942, reflected that one BILL KERSCH, 1220 South Grand Avenue, Los Angeles, California, had advised this office that DONALD BALLARD had recently purchased a number of German Lugers at Frank A. Pachmayr's Gun Works at 1220 South Grand Avenue. Inquiry at instant store revealed that BALLARD has been purchasing several guns and in addition, shells for these guns. The files also revealed that R. L. STOKES, Post Office Box #1538, Santa Fe, New Mexico, has purchased two guns for BALLARD. The records of instant gun store revealed the following purchases along with the dates of purchase:

January 3, 1942: .30-calibre Luger Automatic, Serial #1196
January 3, 1942: .30-calibre Luger Automatic, Serial #10266

These two weapons are the weapons which were mentioned above to have been purchased by STOKES. The following were purchased on January 3, 1942, by BALLARD:

500 .30-.30 cartridges
500 .30-.06 cartridges
500 .30 Luger Automatic cartridges
250 .38 Imperial cartridges
1 4-Power Zeiss Telescopic Sight
1 2½-Power Zeiss Telescopic Sight
3 Magazines for .38 Super-Automatics

January 4, 1942:

1 .30-.06 Springfield Left-hand Rifle
120 .30-.06 cartridges
150 .45 Automatic cartridges
150 .38 Super-automatic cartridges
100 .38-Long Colt cartridges

On December 11, 1941: 150 .38 Special cartridges

On December 29, 1941:

1 .22 Benjamin Pistol
1 b.b. Benjamin Pistol
500 .22 pellets

Inquiry among the Robbery Detail at the Los Angeles Police Department which has a list of all firearms purchased in Los Angeles, revealed that on July 21, 1941, BALLARD had purchased a Colt .22 Woodsman #123411, and on July 11, 194 had purchased a .38 Colt, Serial #34510, from Bullock's Department Store.

BALLARD's address was listed as the Biltmore Hotel during the purchas of the above articles, with a forwarding address upon his departure of 1735 Sher Street, Denver, Colorado. According to FRANK A. PACHMAYR, owner of instant stor BALLARD has paid $450.00 over a three-month period for the above articles.

On April 11, 1942, it was ascertained from a highly confidential sour that ROBERT GROSS had sent an Air Mail letter to DON BALLARD at Denver, Colorado to the address 707 Powerhouse Apartments, Denver, Colorado. A telephone call wa made to the Denver Office to ascertain if that office could discreetly obtain, through confidential sources, the substance of the letter sent to BALLARD by GRO however, an answering teletype from the Denver Office revealed that efforts to locate instant letter produced negative results.

Confidential National Defense Informant T-1 advised that ROBERT GROSS was a hangar-boy who took care of planes at the Metropolitan Airport, that he di not have a license himself, probably due to his poor eyesight. Informant vise that GROSS lived at Hangar Number 4, which houses the Aero Brokerage Company whe GROSS works, and that GROSS lives on the second floor in one corner of the hanga According to Informant, GROSS earns $14.00 per week at his present employment. Informant advised that it was his belief that GROSS was of Russian descent, and his parents were supposedly killed during the Russian revolution. GROSS's famil name was supposedly long, and upon the death of his family he supposedly came to United States when very young and was adopted by a family named GROSS, which nam he has since used.

Informant stated that he was quite sure that he had seen six guns whi He thought were automatics, all holstered, in a drawer of a desk belonging to GR He stated, however, that he could not tell if the automatics were new or not. H advised that he was suspicious of GROSS because he seemed to be too well educate for the salary which he presently receives. He advised that GROSS's foster pare reside at Logansport, Indiana, and that GROSS himself is now a naturalized citiz He stated that GROSS has also used the name MICHAEL LINIKOFF (phonetic), and tha he had never been regularly adopted by the GROSS family. It was Informant's im- pression that GROSS had come to the United States in 1928 and had been naturaliz in 1933. Informant stated that Mr. ERICKSON, owner of the Brokerage Service, ha also seen guns in GROSS's possession, and Informant believed that ERICKSON also suspicious of him.

According to Informant, GROSS used to own a Dusenberg, sold it and bought a Lincoln, but inasmuch as he couldn't pay for that, had to get rid of that car also. Informant advised that GROSS was very anti-Jewish and was very outspoken in his hatred of the Jews.

Mr. ED L. ERICKSON was interviewed at the Aero Brokerage Service, Hangar Number 4, Metropolitan Airport, Van Nuys, California, and he advised that GROSS had been employed there approximately two years, that he was an excellent worker, and seemed to be a boy who liked to make others believe he was much more important than he actually was.

Asked as to whether GROSS knew LAURA ENGELS, Informant stated that he was positive that he did not know her. He stated that whereas LAURA ENGELS had landed at the airport quite frequently upon different flights, and that no doubt GROSS had seen her and possibly talked to her, he did not know anything more about her than just that. Asked as to any weapons that GROSS might have, ERICKSON advised that he had one that he knew of inasmuch as GROSS had been sworn in as a watchman on the field, and he believed that he had one other gun also.

Mr. R. E. BRENNAN, 8021 Sepulveda Boulevard, Van Nuys, California, had stated that he had overheard GROSS say that he possessed the right connections and had already managed to place someone in the German Air Force. He advised that GROSS at that time was talking to a man by the name of TWICHELL, also anti-Jewish, who was an actor in Hollywood. He stated that he had overheard this conversation in approximately August, 1941, in the airport cafe in Hangar Number 1 of the Metropolitan Airport. He stated that on one occasion he had seen LAURA ENGELS talking to GROSS, but did not know whether he actually knew her.

On April 17, 1942, it was ascertained that GROSS was contemplating leaving this vicinity, and heading East for the purpose of obtaining a position. In view of this fact, constant efforts weremade to ascertain his itinerary and any information which would indicate his destination. Various inquiries at the airport revealed that he was apparently attempting to cover up his tracks inasmuch as he was telling different people all different stories as to his itinerary. It was believed that he was planning to leave town on the night of April 17, and GROSS did leave the airport on the afternoon of April 17, 1942, and headed for Los Angeles, where he was supposed to meet another car to be taken back East. GROSS was overheard making a telephone call, and the number which he called was jotted down and turned over to Reporting Agent. Confidential National Defense Informant T-2 ished the name and address of the person to whom the number which GROSS call issued, and on the following day, a call was made at the home of this indivi DONALD SCHLAIFER, 803 North Kingsley Drive, Los Angeles, California. A brief liminary investigation revealed Mr. SCHLAIFER was Jewish and would apparent reliable contact.

Mrs SCHLAIFER was interviewed at her home at the time, ina SCHLAIFER was in bed, having worked all night. She advised that GROSS the previous day and that she herself worked that night, and upon her depart[ure] GROSS was still in the home. She stated that she did not know whether he had stayed all night or not, but when questioned further and requested to ascertain [if] any beds had been slept in, she did this, and returned saying that evidently GROSS had spent the night there.

Mrs. SCHLAIFER stated that GROSS had advised that he intended to go ba[ck] East to attempt to get a position and as far as she knew, he might have already gone, although a great number of his clothes were left behind; however, she believed that he might have left and intended sending for these clothes at a later date. When questioned concerning GROSS and his background, she stated that the o[nly] thing she knew about him was what she had been told by GROSS himself, and that apparently he was Russian and had come to this country when he was very young. She stated that he was a likable boy, and she did not have any knowledge that he was pro-German in any way outside of the fact that he was apparently quite anti-Jewish. Mrs. SCHLAIFER was requested to advise this office at the first moment she heard from GROSS, and she promised that she would do so.

As Agent was leaving the home of Mrs. SCHLAIFER, GROSS himself walked up to the door, and Agent recognized him immediately from the description which had been given throughout the investigation. This description is as follows:

Age	28
Height	5' 8"
Weight	140 lbs.
Hair	Brown
Eyes	Blue; wears glasses with very thick lenses and rims
Mustache	Reddish
Build	Slender
Complexion	Reddish
Teeth	Bad; two uppers on left front missing

A brief discreet surveillance was conducted upon the house, after leaving, and it was believed that GROSS was prepared to stay for quite some time.

It was deemed advisable to interview GROSS inasmuch as his activities according to persons interviewed seemed to indicate that he might possibly be planning to leave the country; and Agent accompanied by Special Agent WILLIAM McCARTH[Y] called upon GROSS and requested that he accompany agents to the office for questioning. GROSS freely consented to do this, and was questioned at the Los Angeles office.

He advised that he had been born ROBERTO ANGENIO LONG, and that he was more frequently known as ROBERT EUGENE GROSS, but that he was also known as MICHA[EL] DE LINYAKOFF. He advised that he had been born August 1, 1915, and had been put an orphanage prior to 1918, from where he was taken by WILLIAM E. GROSS, 525 Fifteenth Street, Logansport, Indiana, in 1918. GROSS stated that he was never legally adopted, but that he lived with the GROSS family from 1918 to 1935, and he had never known or seen his true parents. He advised that he had attended Logansport Grade School and Lincoln High School in Logansport, having graduated in 1933. He stated that this was the extent of his schooling. He advised that he had coached Dramatics immediately on leaving Logansport in the surrounding territory. He stated that he had put on marionette shows for six or seven months in Indiana in 1935, that he had come to California in December, 1935, that he had been a house man in an Apartment, 900 South Orange Grove Avenue, Los Angeles, for about six months, that he had then worked in a drug store at 2110 Laurel Canyon Boulevard, Los Angeles, for about a year; that he had subsequently been employed by the Catalogue Filing Company, 8750 El Tower Place, West Hollywood, California, about one year, and next at Coby King's Restaurant, in the eighty-seven hundred block, Santa Monica Boulevard, Los Angeles, California. He advised that after this he had been employed on the Judge OLAND's Estate for two months doing landscaping work and that he had returned to Logansport for about six months during which time he had worked at the Kinner Stores in Logansport. Following this he had again returned to Los Angeles and worked for DON FELDMAN on Wilshire Boulevard at an antique store.

Following this he had been employed at the Los Angeles Metropolitan Airport by the Aero Brokerage Service, Incorporated, and had been so employed for the past two years. He stated that in this connection he had done all types of jobs, from office work to hangar boy, including sales work and all types of work connected with airplanes. He stated that he has been a C.A.A. Airport Officer since December 7, 1941, the outbreak of the war.

GROSS advised that as far as his family was concerned, he had no brothers or sisters, either whole, half or otherwise. He considers the GROSSES as his parents inasmuch as they are the only ones whom he could so consider. He advised that WILLIAM E. GROSS, his father, is a naturalized citizen, and has been since 1938, the exact date of which he did not know. According to GROSS, his foster father was born in Germany but came to the United States when he was nine years old. Mrs. GROSS's name is MAUDE MAY (ADAM) GROSS. She is an American-born woman of Irish descent. GROSS advised that his real mother was Italian and his father American-born. He claimed that he was not a member of any national organization nor was he connected with any local organization, that he had no sympathy whatsoever for either the Communist or Nazi parties, and on the contrary was strictly opposed to either and both. He advised, regarding his religion, that he is a member of the Christian Science Church.

His closest friends, he claimed, were FREDERICK WHEELER and HUGH FERGUSON, who owned a restaurant in Laurel Canyon where GROSS formerly was employed. He stated that they still live in Laurel Canyon, about the twenty-three hundred block, Marywood Trail. He stated that WHEELER presently runs the Little Red Front Book Store at Van Nuys Boulevard and Sylvan Street in Van Nuys, California. He state that his other closest friends were EDWARD ERICKSON, owner of the Aero Broke Service, Incorporated, Van Nuys, California, and a group of girls at the home Mrs. FREY, 1627 North Ogden, Los Angeles, California. He advised regarding hi marital status that he is neither married nor engaged.

As regards his Selective Service data, he stated that he was regi in Van Nuys, California, and had been classified 2A, Order Number 3162, Local Draft Board #177. At the time of his registration, GROSS gave his address as th airport in Van Nuys. GROSS claimed that he had never been out of the United Stat and that the only times he had left the State of California since his arrival her were in 1938 when he went to Logansport for six months, in 1937 when he went to Tucson for two months, and in early April, 1942, when he went to Tucson for four days with ED ERICKSON when ERICKSON was looking for a new location to which he could take his company inasmuch as no flying was permitted on the West Coast.

The above questioning was conducted by Special Agent McCARTHY in the absence of Reporting Agent, and Reporting Agent took up the questioning at that point.

GROSS advised that he had first met the SCHLAIFER family when the Aero Brokerage Service had sold a plane to SCHLAIFER. He advised that he had met both SCHLAIFER and his wife at the airport and that they had become quite friendly and had permitted GROSS to keep his clothes at their home. GROSS advised that he believed that the SCHLAIFERS had been married for approximately three years.

Questioned as to whether he had been born in Indiana as previously stated, or in Russia, as was brought out in the investigation, GROSS admitted tha he had claimed to many persons that he had been born in Russia because he had fou Russians very interesting and wanted to appear to be an unusual person. GROSS pr duced his Birth Certificate, which gave proof of his birth in Indiana as outlined GROSS gave the following story of his life, which indicated a great in feriority complex which had been overcome by his false pretenses; the statements made by GROSS were apparently true, as brought out by the investigation.

He stated that when he had been in school he had never been able to participate in activities along with the other students because of his very bad e sight, which necessitated the wearing of exceptionally thick-lensed glasses. He advised that he could never compete in sports nor do the other things that the ot fellows did, and consequently he became something of a bookworm and took to the cultural side of life. He stated that this was not as he preferred it, but was m or less forced upon him. In connection with his cultural life, he advised that h had read an exceptional number of books and had studied foreigners and their man isms quite diligently. He advised that he enjoyed foreigners from his study of them, and because of his knowledge through study, he attempted to associate among them. He stated that he has done this quite frequently and has tried to give the impression that he is a White Russian. He stated this was not for the purpose of just misrepresenting himself as a White Russian, but mainly to disassociate himself from the Red Russians, or the Communists. He advised that he abhors Communism and all that it stands for as far as the United States is concerned. He stated that it might be all right for the Russians themselves, but it certainly is no form of government for this country.

He advised that due to his association with foreigners he became slightly acquainted with various languages, and presently speaks a smattering of German, Russian, Polish, French, and Spanish. He stated he has been living in Hangar #4 at the Metropolitan Airport since his employment there.

As regards his contemplated trip back East, he stated that first of all he plans to get his teeth fixed before he attempts to obtain a position inasmuch as they have been bothering him a great deal. He stated he was planning to go to Logansport and have a dentist give him attention, and that he was supposed to have left the day of the interview for the East with an uncle and aunt of one of his friends, JOHNNY MULVANEY, but that he had not heard from them or JOHNNY in the last day or so. He advised that MULVANEY lived on Nordhof Street, three houses East of Sepulveda Boulevard, on the outskirts of San Fernando, California.

Previous investigation had revealed that GROSS had been driven to town by a Negro, one PERRY FULLER, who resides at approximately 7900 Woodley, opposite the airport in Van Nuys. The investigation had further revealed that this FULLER had apparently been dealing in some "hot" automobile tires, for which he had paid MULVANEY sixty dollars. When questioned as to his means of transportation from Van Nuys to Los Angeles, GROSS advised that one J. D. GRAY had driven him into town from the airport. He stated that as he drove out, FULLER drove into the airport; however, he completed the drive with GRAY.

Questioned as to the alleged tire deal between FULLER and MULVANEY, GROSS advised that he had heard that FULLER was supposed to have paid MULVANEY sixty dollars to get some tires for FULLER, but he did not have information which would indicate that these tires were "hot" nor were they forbidden to be sold under the rationing order according to his knowledge. GROSS advised that FULLER was an artist who acts very effeminite and who supposedly does a lot of art work for Douglas and North American Aviation companies.

Previous investigation had revealed that GROSS had stated that he was going to pick up a girl in Tucson before proceeding farther East. When questioned concerning the identity of this girl, he advised that there was no such girl, that he had merely stated this because one of his friends, VIC STEELE, also desired to make the trip, and inasmuch as GROSS did not know the uncle and aunt of MULVANEY with whom he was supposed to drive, he did not feel that he could impose upon them by asking them to take someone else along. It was for this reason he had mentioned the fact that they had to pick up a girl in Tucson, because th would indicate that the car was full and would leave no more room for an He advised that he had told various persons that he was going to various the country not with any intent to intentionally throw them off the track or up his own tracks, but merely because he felt that his future actions were non their business.

As mentioned above in the opening portion of this report, the letter which was mentioned revealed that GROSS had recently been to Mexico; however, as mentioned above, GROSS had claimed that he had never left the United States. Sternly questioned concerning any departure he might have made from the United States, GROSS was adamant in his statement that he had never been out of this country. He advised that Vallicita, California, was the nearest that he had beer to Mexico. Questioned concerning his association with DONALD BALLARD and other members of the "I AM" group, he advised that he had met BALLARD and his friends a the airport when BALLARD contemplated buying a Beechcraft Airplane, which is sold by the Aero Brokerage Company.

GROSS stated that BALLARD had seemed quite interested in purchasing a airplane but that he had never done more than make numerous inquiries concerning the prices and operations, etc. GROSS advised that he had last seen BALLARD abou February 9, 1942, and he personally considered him something of a "screwball", a that he had been friendly with him because he wanted to make a sale of the airpl in which BALLARD had indicated his interest.

He advised that the following were individuals whom he had met with BALLARD and who seemed to be BALLARD's closest cronies:

[redacted] approximately age [redacted] b6 b7C
[redacted]OSTER, approximately age twenty-seven;
DICK PRATT, approximately age twenty-four;
[redacted] KOTSMEYER, who has an apartment at the Town House, Denver, Colorado; [redacted], aged [redacted] and a man by the name of KING, who supposedly owns some kind of a mine in Santa Fe.

GROSS claimed that he did not know where BALLARD was presently located that is, whether it was in Denver or in Santa Fe, but that his forwarding addres at the Biltmore Hotel had been the Cosmopolitan Hotel in Denver, Colorado. He stated he had written to BALLARD once at the hotel, but he had not received an answer to this letter. When questioned concerning this latest letter, he freely admitted that he had claimed that he had recently been to Mexico and purchased numerous firearms, which he knew BALLARD was desirous of having. He stated that he had told BALLARD this because of his desire to keep BALLARD interested in purchasing his airplane, and he thought this was an excellent means of keeping up a contact with him. He further advised that he himself was suspicious of BALLARD inasmuch as he has indicated on many occasions his desire to obtain weapons, and he believes that BALLARD is just crazy enough to start some kind of trouble if he gets enough guns and ammunition. He advised that BALLARD was very anti-Jewish, although he would not consider him to be pro-Nazi.

GROSS stated that BALLARD had never given him any exact indication as to why he wanted the guns which he was attempting to possess for any other reason than merely to have them. It was GROSS's opinion that BALLARD might want them for the purpose of arming his followers, and he considered BALLARD to be so bitterly anti-Jewish and a little bit crazy that he would not be surprised if BALLARD should attempt to sabotage some Jewish institution.

Asked concerning any guns which he himself possessed, GROSS advised that he had never had more than two in his possession at any one time.

Returning to discussion of BALLARD, GROSS advised that he believes him to be slightly mentally deficient, and that because of this he needs watching. He stated that he and his followers might be crazy enough to stage some kind of an uprising which, although of no consequence as regards any military loss inasmuch as the Army could immediately put down any revolt by so small a group, he nevertheless could cause "an awful lot of trouble and inconvenience."

When questioned as to how he would have explained to BALLARD the reason he did not possess the guns if BALLARD made an attempt to purchase the guns supposedly bought in Mexico, GROSS advised that he would have invented some story probably that they had been confiscated upon being discovered.

GROSS advised that he himself hates the Nazis and although he is not anti-Jewish himself, he nevertheless claims to be for his purpose of getting to know people who are themselves anti-Jewish and possibly pro-Nazi. He stated in support of this claim that Mr. SCHLAIFER, with whom he had been residing and whom he considered one of his good friends, was Jewish, as well as were others whom he knew and liked very well. He advised that he hates the Nazis themselves, hating particularly their dominating attitude. In this connection, he mentioned his boyhood with the GROSS family when Mr. GROSS, whom he nevertheless liked very much, formerly was very domineering and strict with him as regarded any privileges or pleasures which he might desire.

Dear Mr. Strauch:

The enclosed paragraphs will be self-explanatory and we are sending the February issues to you to be distributed through your group and whenever the opportunity presents itself.

We are sending these Tailway Express.

By the way, we will not be handling the Saint Germain Series books at 20% discount at present and are uncertain about receiving our order of supplies just now from Chicago because of the recent mail "activity". You will understand. We will send the 1941 bound volume upon its release from the bindery.

All blessings always and know we are thinking of you and the students there very very often.

We are calling for Ascended Master Friends to be raised up everywhere among our subscribers to accept and distribute this issue to the other subscribers in their vicinity. May we count on your co-operation in this respect?

The copies of the voice will be sent in your care and must not be re-mailed, of course. A postcard to the various addresses however could notify subscribers to call for their magazines at your home, or some half-way point, if you wish to play "Santa Claus." Your help will thus make the impossible possible!

We will be eternally grateful to each of you precious students for your grand assistance to the Voice of the "I AM" and the Studios.

"I AM" CULT

CONFIDENTIAL

ONI

Subject organization, sometimes known as the "PURPLE CULT," is a religious movement which has four subversive aspects: (1) members are urged to will that St. Germaine will blast the President from the earth; (2) members are told that no oath is binding; (3) leaders urge members not to buy Defense bonds; (4) members are urged not to register for the draft. Thismovement also teaches the doctrine of reincarnation and that members can get any material object such as money, etc., by willfull thinking. It is stated that meetings achieve a frenzied mass hypnotism. Mrs. Edna BALLARD and her husband GUY are leaders of the movement. Mrs. BALLARD is reputed to be a hard, dangerous fanatic whose followers would do anything for her. She and her son DONALD were convicted on Jan. 31, 1942 on a mail fraud in Los Angeles. It is reported that they used the movement as a fraudulent money-raising scheme, which produced nearly $3,000,000. Reliable informants stated that anyone who believes in "I AM" and who obeys all the orders of the leaders is potentially dangerous to the U.S. Government.

AT SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO

Confidential Informant A, who is now a member of the "I AM" Cult furnished partial minutes of meetings held by "I AM" Cult in Santa Fe. These minutes reveal that in nearly every meeting held by the "I AM" Cult their principal topic of discussion is the obtaining of money, and that this is accomplished by means of love gift boxes. At the meeting held March 3, 1942, Mrs. O'BALLARD advised the congregation that if any FBI man questioned any of them for them to tell the FBI that she was responsible. "Tell them "I AM" is everything in the books. Let them come to me, I will take care of them, I will settle them."

Confidential Informant A advised that the meeting on March 24, 1942 began with the group leader, MAE BAKER, asking the audience to join her in a special decree which she read sentence by sentence, the audience repeating each sentence after her. This special decree was for Mrs. BALLARD and was to be printed in the near future. Then after the salute to the "I AM" flag, the leader MAE BAKER reading from the August, 1937 issue of the magazine "Voice of the I Am" and pointing to the flag which stood on the front left hand side of the stage, read, "Many ask about the red in our flag, that symbolizes the blood shed by the early patriots for freedom of America and when the discord within our land has ceased, it will be replaced by gold as the Guardian Agent comes into full domination". Confidential Informant A advised that it seemed apparent to her that the "I AMS" were endeavoring to obtain such a position in the political field that after the war they would be the major political party.

Confidential Informant A further advised that on March 25, 1942, [redacted] b7D [redacted] that Mrs. BALLARD would stand three trials if necessary but will take nothing more after that from the Government. She also said that the war is going to stop very soon before we know it; that the Ascended Masters are beginning to control now. Informant A's [redacted] also stated that all men who were members of the "I AM" belong to the Minute Men, which is an "I AM" organization for men only, and that they have been told they will live again.

Confidential Informant A furnished the pledge used when a member of the "I AM" joins what is known as the 100% "I AM" Class. This pledge is as follows:

"I desire to so LIVE that the Ascended Masters CAN work through me at any moment! To be worthy of this Great Priviledge I MUST put into practice and LIVE the suggestions which They Make. I know that by so doing I too will gain My Eternal Freedom and Ascension. I am thoroughly aware that these are, in brief:

"THOU SHALT HAVE NO OTHER GODS BEFORE ME". Bible. Ist Commandment. 1936 Sep. Voice P4.

"Every individuals first duty is Adoration and Love to the "One Mighty I AM Presence, to gain his Mastery, Eternal Freedom and make his Ascension as soon as possible". Saint Germain and Jesus. The Magic Presence, and Discourses.

"Whatever your attention is upon is your God, for there your energy is flowing and your energy is your life. "Saint Germain. 1936 Sep. Voice P 4. Read P 302-3 Discourses.

"I URGE the students everywhere, with all of the Love at My command, to FORGET EVERYTHING ELSE YOU HAVE EVER STUDIED. STAND ONE HUNDRED PER CENT IN AND WITH YOUR"MIGHTY I AM PRESENCE," and the "I AM DISCOURSES" by SAINT GERMAIN, and you will have such Freedom, such Joy, such Accomplishment, that will forever dissolve all doubt and fear from your consciousness. When such Great Freedom is at your door, just for your acceptance and application, can you understand how great is Our Love and Desire to fully enable you to grasp those simple majestic Laws, that you may have the same Freedom which we experience? However, THIS CAN ONLY COME THROUGH YOUR JOYFUL WILLING ACCEPTANCE AND APPLICATION OF THIS TRUTH WHICH WE GIVE." Jesus. 1936 Feb. Voice, P 5.

Consequently I have absolutely severed ALL connections with ALL Occult Orders, Spiritualism, and organizations that might divert my attention and possibly prevent me from STANDING ONE HUNDRED PER CENT WITH MY OWN "MIGHT I AM PRESENCE".

I shall Never Again have any thing to do with astrology, numerology, crystal -gazing, ouiji board, automatic writing, Tarot cards, mediums, and all such things.

I shall Never Again use "serums" - "narcotics, alcohol, meat - all flesh foods-, tobacco, excess sugar, excess salt, and strong coffee." Magic Presence P 147-8. I shall not use garlic or onions, knowing the Ascended Masters will not come near if I do. I will use diligently the Remedy, the Violet Consuming Flame of Divine Love, for these things, to cleanse and purify my Temple. Magic Presence P 149.

I "will refuse in the future to listen to any silly human gossip, criticism, condemnation and judgement of anything or about anybody. Instead I will call the Mighty I AM Presence into action to produce Its Perfection everywhere I move and in everything I do, so that Great Marvels and Mighty Miracles will take place. "I absolutely "refuse acceptance" of all human creation and limitation.

I SHALL "stand as if there were nothing else in the World and Universe but the "I AM Presence". Great Divine Director, 1936 Voice, P II-18.

I shall keep my FEELINGS harmonized, "no matter what the provocation! " Saint Germain. 1936 Sep. Voice P 15.

I am aware that the Divine Creative sex force is to be used solely for providing a physical vehicle for a Brother seeking physical re-embodiment.

"I give ALL POWER to the I AM PRESENCE, which I AM, and I refuse with determination acceptance to anything else, ever again." Saint Germain. Discourses P 303. "I forever withdraw all power I have ever given to outer things, and stand serene in Thy Majestic Presence - Love, Wisdom and Power."

"There is only ONE POWER that acts, Give It Full Freedom, Stand with IT and let IT act. There is No Other Power to act." P 180.

I must call the Law of Forgiveness into action daily. "I AM the Law of Forgiveness and Forgetfulness of All human creation, and the Consuming Flame of All inharmonious action and human consciousness."

I have read Unveiled Mysteries, The Magic Presence and "I AM" Discourses by Godfre Ray King, and will endeavor to apply diligently the Truths therein given.

I know that in the outer it is possible to deceive other Brothers but NOT God, the "Mighty I Am Presence" or the Ascended Masters, whom I earnestly and sincerely desire to serve. I know that the Mighty Master Within is "my Certain Victory". My signature is my decree that I SHALL abide by and LIVE Their suggestions, and on this basis I desire to be a member of your 100% "I AM" Class." //

Mr. GEORGE BLOOM, Vice President, First National Bank of Santa Fe, contacted the reporting Agent and advised that he was chairman of the committee for pledging war bonds and stamps. That the solicitors in Santa Fe had contacted approximately four hundred of the "I AM" Cult and in no instance had any of the "I AM" members pledged themselves for even a ten cent defense stamp. BLOOM stated that many of the "I AM" members had used the excuse that it was not their war and for that reason they were not pledging bonds. Investigation reflected that no such statements had been made.

Confidential Informant A furnished the following paragraph from an announcement in the "Voice of the I Am", February issue, 1942, Page 20:

"Because of the recent vicious attempt to interfere with Saint Germain's "I AM" Activity in our beloved United States of America, by denying us the use of the mails, in bringing This Ascended Master Light and Freedom to Mankind, we are standing a million times more firm and unyielding than ever before, because this "I AM" Activity goes on regardless of any human being or all on earth."

Confidential Informant A stated that at all the meetings she has attended, the members of the Cult are urged to buy the "I AM" magazines and the "I AM" pamphlets and that on June 4, 1942 she gave [redacted] b7D

[redacted]

Confidential Informant A furnished writer with a leaflet from one of these pamphlets from which the following paragraph was taken, and this leaflet is being forwarded the Bureau as an enclosure with this report:

(Re-'The Great 'I AM' Movement'

My Dear Sir:

It is with considerable hesitancy that I take up this matter with your Department, but my hands as well as the hands of hundreds of others are tied and helpless and rendered powerless by the ties of Love and affection for those near to us and around and about us who have been swept into this more or less NEW Religious Cult.

To resist them is to increase their religious fervor, but when this fervor overbalances sane religious thinking, makes them put up strange fanatical religous pictures, makes them ridicule the Bible itself and carries out Hoaxes on their Believers, then I'm American enough, and think enough of my home to act regardless of consequences. My own Home is among those in danger and my little seven year old Daughter's thinking was becoming distorted, and the Housekeeper I have is positively insane at times with this hysteria.

Right now (and I only found this out by accident) their Big Leader, 'BALLARD' made an Ascension during the Holidays into the Spiritual World with a promised Divine Return around or about the 15th or 13th of February. Understand an Undertaker and Doctor were in on this Ascension to make it realistic, and with the use of Trick ~~xxgt~~ Lights was made to disappear before the very gaze of his Followers. Of course this Class of Followers had to be 100% Believers.

If this particular Religious HOAX could be exposed, these ~~xxxx~~ Followers undoubtedly would be open to some sane and sensible thinking and their contributions out of their meager earnings would not be concentrated for any subversive activities. A Russian Born local Shoeman by the name of Zinke seems to be one of the big motivating forces behind this movement for some reason, and with his trips back to the Old County and his return the last time shortly after War was declared, it makes me mighty suspicious of the Big Ballyhoo on their being organized to Save America from War.

This Movement is more or less National in its scope and has a few Million Followers evidently who can be handled and herded around like so many sheep under this Ascended Masters Leadership Principle and whoever or whatever is behind it all.

Perhaps this is just another 'Front' Organization the like of which your Department is so familiar with. Perhaps a certain large Hotel where these Ballards used to throw some large parties with all the trimmings, could throw a bit of light on certain activities.

I'm no Sleuth by a long ways but will be glad to be of every possible assistance, however it is difficult to put onto paper what I have in my mind. I do not intend to have my Home broken up, but if this HOAX is successful these Followers will be waiting on the Water next with their pocketbooks on the Shore.

Am suggesting a bit of Haste if this Divine Return from his Spiritual visit with the Ascended Masters is to be exposed. Had a talk with your local Department here and was advised to write you this letter. Wouldn't be surprised if you already had this organization under surveillance as certainly I am not the first suspicious Person.

Most sincerely,

T. Ray Holsinger

To Whom it may concern:

I wish to call your attention to the "I Am" Broadcasts over radio station WHN. Do you realize what these people represent? On general principles people are not permitted to speak over radio networks who advocate killing people and that are a force working against Democracy.

I enclose the following affidavit for your convenience.

Something was done about Father Coughlan and something needs to be done about the "I Am" Broadcasts by Mrs. Ballard all over the U.S.

I recommend this matter to your serious attention, and if you are not responsible in such cases, please send this to the proper authorities.

Sincerely

/s/ Kathryn Messemer

AFFADAVIT OF VIRGINIA LA FERRERA.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA)
CITY AND COUNTY OF SAN FRANCISCO) ss

Virginia LaFerrera being duly sworn, deposes and says: That she went to her first "I AM CLASS" in May, 1936, which was held at the Scottish Rite Auditorium, in the City and County of San Francisco, State of California. From that time on she has been continously associated with I AM Classes, first as a student, later as group leader, and two years ago, 1937, she went on a tour with the Ballards, who claim to represent the Ascended Masters, namely: St Germain and others.

When she went onto the staff in Seattle, Washington, in 1937, we used to have nightly meetings and one thing which shocked her terrificall at the time, although she did not understand it, was an activity in which she could not and would not participate in spirit, which was as follows: A little table was set in the middle of the room in which the staff, consisting of about fourteen people, were assembled, and on the table was placed a dirigold goblet in which were some gold coins, which were contributions of different members of the staff. Those meetings were held in the rooms occupied by the Ballards. On the top of the gold coins was laid a list of names of people starting with the names of the President of the United States, his wife, various members of the Presidential cabinet the name of Dr. Gerald Bryan and other people who had incurred the displeasu of the Ballards, and whom they did not like. The staff was then told in a circle about the dirigold goblet, with a man and a woman alternating, and then they were led in a decree by Mr. Ballard alternating with Mrs. Ballard, pronounced and worded in words similar to the following:

Mighty I AM Presence, Blessed St. Germain, Jesus, Nada, Great Divine Director and Mighty Legions of Light; Roosevelt, Morgenthau, etc., Blast, blast, blast their carcasses from the face of the earth forever. Stiffen on the cross of Blue Flame all those who oppose this Light." This practice occurred every night when the staff returned from Class, or when the Staff forgatherd after the day's work.

On these occasions Mr. Ballard would bring forth a dictation from the Ascended Master St. Germain. Mr. Ballard, at these times, would stiffen up and say, "Ithnk you." All would become quiet and the dictation would come thru purporting to come from the Ascended Masters. There were many contradictions in those so-called dictations. Sometime, Mr. Ballard would forget that St. Germain was talking, and would suddenly say "This is me talking now", and then switch to St. Germain.

I had my greatest awakening in Los Angeles in January 1939. I begged the Ballards, to let us, my husband and me, remain in Los Angeles, instead of making a trip to Yosemite, when Mr. LaFerrera was quite ill. Mr. Ballard insisted that we accompany the staff regardless of his condition. When we arrived at Yosemite, Mrs. Ballard lost her voice and could not speak out loud for eight days - having ulcers all over her throat - and that conflicted with everything they taught us, as they were supposed to be immune to human creation of every description, having told us many times that they had their freedom.

I have made transcriptions of organ [illegible] had a streptococci infection and a temperature of over [illegible] lards refused to call a doctor. This left me with a throat condition which I still have. Mr. Ballard, in one of the messages from St. Germain, stated, "Dear Lotus is suffering from this throat ailment because she has so generoulsy taken it into her body from Vincent and me."

I become more and more disillusioned - when we arrived in Chicago, many more things took place there and brought me to my senses, revealing to me all I needed to know regarding the ~~ex~~ falseness of the activities of the Ballards in claiming to represent St. Germain and the Ascended Masters, for instance: We arrived by plane in Chicago on Wednesday - Mrs. Ballard, Mr. Kundy, Mr. and Mrs. Rogers, Mr. LaFerrera and me. The rest of the staff didnot come until Saturday by auto. Sunday morning we had a staff meeting in Mrs. Ballard's apartment in the Congress Hotel. During the dictation given by St. Germain, Mrs Ballard asked St. Germain if Mr. Engen had made his Ascension. St. Germain (Mr. Ballard) looked very bewildered and uninformed and showd very definitely that he did not know what she was talking about. Mrs. Ballard proceeded to explain who Mr. Engen was - he was a New York student, a member of Mrs. Fischer's 100% group, who had passed on five days before, and he was the father of the three little girls who go to the New York "I AM SCHOOL". So St. Germain said: "Oh yes, I will look into the matter and let you know at some future time whether he made his Ascension or not." (One of St. Germain's statements through Mr. Ballard as dictated was "Let no one think that any of the students at the time of so-called death, have made their Ascension, unless He "St. Germain" had informed the messengers (Ballards) which he would do immediately. There would be no delay.

(Mr. Engen had passed away five days prior to the time Mrs. Ballard had spoken ot it in class meeting referred to above.)

So hat Mrs. Ballard not being satisfied, continued his case, insisting that he had made his Ascension, stating that he had given fifteen cents to the Minute men - one dollar to the activity, etc.,etc. and further stated that he was a 100% student and in spite of his financial condition had been very loyal, and that she was sure he had made his Ascension. So without further delay, or looking into it further, St. Germain said: "Oh yes, he has made his Ascension."

The report of the above made a definite impression on the New York students- thinking one of their member had really made the Ascension.

Following this was the very abusive treatment of Mrs. Muriel Bliss, who was one of the appointed Messengers who had charge of the Chicago Reading Room Sanctuary. She was one of the first seven students. She was attacked and insulted by sayements of unkind and untrue things said about her, and later in California, she was insulted by being named from the platform publicly, the culminations of her decision was brought about through the Ballard's complaints of empty seats in the class, and lack of co-operation of the Chicago students in not showing their appreciation of the Messenger's presence in Chicago. She was finally forced to withdraw by lack of co-operaton in the unkindness and abuse of the Ballards. One afternoon during the Chicago class, Mrs. Ballard finished up by saying that what they needed in Chicago was some one like Frances Ekay in Philadelphia. This was the last straw for Mrs. Bliss - she got up and walkied out of the class.

When Mrs. Bliss turned over the Sanctuary, the Ballards said from the platform "The Messenger who has just withdrawn was an INSANEFIEND.

AN UNGRATEFUL WRETCH, A SNAKE, etc." Mrs Ballard stating that she had crossed Chicago at night and healed the Messenger and her family of diseases of their social ~~xxx~~ living and life in the early days of their association.

In regard to the financial angle, and how the work was financed: Mr. Harry Rogers was the spokesman for the Ballards, and coming out on the platform a few minutes ahead of the Ballards and giving such announcements as were necessary, then holding up one of the small LOVE GIFT envelopes, he would explain "Beloved students, this little envelope is for your convenience, this is your opportunity to obtain your freedom - you only get frr by giving - the Ascended Masters gave all, so they have all." The large charts give much more radiation then the small ones, and all the staff have one in their hotel-rooms and all the students who can afford it should have one. Mr. Ballard, on special occasions and afternoons during the class will autograph books which are purchased at the class. St. Germain has only given His permission for those books which have been bought during the present class, and no books bought bought at book stores or reading rooms could be autographed. Mr. Ballard said that St. Germain always charged a radiation through him while he autographed the books. ~~xxxx~~ The rays were from St. Germain, the Ascended Lady Master Nada, Goddess of Light and the Great Divine Director and were sent forth for the special benefit of the students who had their books autographed.

Students were urged to have their private set of books and a special set for lending, because another person handling their books would disturb their radiation - the radiation charged into the books during autographing for the student's individual blessing who purchased the books and this was interfered with when their books were lent to strangers. (Price of books $2.75 up.)

Records and transcriptions of music were leased at the rate of $20.00 per quarter hour for radio work, music written by the staff was and is sold by the Ballards at a high rate.

Lithographed charts were sold small $1.00 large $15.00/ Animated chart, small $50. large $200. Violet flame in motion, small $50.00, large $200.00.

Students are urged to gift love ~~xxx~~ gifts and many people have beggared themselves giving to the Ballards as representatives of the Ascended Masters, only to be avoided and dropped when drained dry.

Blasting the people and the instilling of fear into the staff of which your affiant was one, was practiced by the Ballars, who stated that the members of the staff could not go out into the world because their bodies were so refined that the world would shatter them, that the members of the staff could not live as other people live because of their extreme refinement. (The staff lived at the best hotels, ate the best foods, travelled by air as much as possible, and dressed in evening clothes for their classes). Letters would call for the student bodies in Chicago, Denver, Seattle, Chicago, Boston, Washington, Los Angeles, Philadelphia, Cleveland, San Francisco and Kansas City to blast those who have been recently dismissed from their workm in other words, demanding their death.

Those dismissed were and are bemoaned from the platform or pulpit in decrees, and called insane fiends, snakes, heartless wretches, running the whole gamit of foul and slimy implications, even the accusation of unclean blood-stream is hurled at them.

The Ballards are continuously seeing spies and looking for them, Nazi, Russian, Fascist, etc and finding them in hotels, restaurants on trains and in airplanes. Many times, in Yosemite, when in the dining room a foreign tongue was heard, the Ballards would immediately cause the staff to return to their rooms - usually a wing of the hotel would be engaged and often an entire floor - and where the spies would be blasted, as herein set forth.

In Washington, D. C. Class, I prayed, "Dear God, get me out of this before I go insane, I will go insane if you do not get me out of this thing."

One cannot leave the staff voluntary, but has to be kicked out or incur the displeasure of the Ballards. Your affiant is thankful that she is no longer one of the Ballard staff.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION
JUN 4 1940
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Dear Mr. Hoover:

As comments and investigations are now being conducted in regard to "fifth column" activities in the United States, I feel that as an American citizen, I should submit information of such nature for your investigation.

This is in regard to an organization that seems to be gaining momentum in several large cities. I have no definite or conclusive evidence that they are fifth columnists however judging from what I have seen and heard they bear ear marks of suspicion and an under cover investigation might reveal their true purpose and identity.

This is a crack pot religous organization who brand themselves as the "I Am's", their movement being initiated by a Mr. and Mrs. Ballard and their son. They claim a membership of about 6,000 in Chicago, Pittsburgh, Los Angeles and Washington and probably some other cities.

The information I am submitting was gained from a couple who are members of this organization. They were remote acquaintances of ours from out of town. Last June they held a ten day convention at the Shrine Temple in Washington, D. C., the purpose of which was to gain new members. This couple visited us a couple of times during the convention and they being of a rather lower class of people and of foriegn extraction, they probably revealed more information than they should have. At that time fifth column activities were not in the public eye and we dismissed the organization as a group of crack pots.

However, as I think back their organization appears suspicious. At the convention secret meetings were held to which only selct members were admitted. Select members were those who had passed a series of tests and were proprly disciplined. They are taught to tjink of only themselves and not to be affected by the misfortunes of others, probably to harden them for their future duties and things to come. They pred icted at that time a catastrophe for September or October and from the results of this chaos they were the only ones to be saved. Their prediction was probably the start of World War No. II. This catastrophe according to them was to lead to the destruction of this country but that the "I Am's" had nothing to fear as they would be saved. During the convention the sinking of the submarine "Squalus" occurred. While every body seemed sympathetic toward the misfortune they seemed to feel that some man had received his orders to carry out the plan and in so doing he had sacrificed himself for the cause. They were very unconcerned about the matter and certainly most emphatically examplified their teachings to think of only themselves.

It is characteristic of fifth column organizations to masquerade their true identity. The "I Am's" always wear a small American Flag on their lapel and very fervently swear allegiance to the American Flag at all their meetings, all of which arouses my suspicions. A passing remark was made by one member of this couple and shushed by the other that Hitler was a member of their organization. I am inclined to believe this as Hitler is a vegetarian and so are the "I Am's". At least there are some possibilities of connections. This couple also took particular pride in their three year old son being able to do the Nazi salute.

Their religious theories are based on the teachings of St. Germain mixed and confused with some modern ideas such as receiving powers from the cosmic rays. At their meetings usually held on Sunday nights men must wear white linen or very light colored suits and on special occasions pink neckties and likewise the women must dress in white. The colors, red and black, are prohibited as they do not permit the penetration of cosmic rays. Their prayers are called decrees. They forever hammer on the idea of "I Am",- I am the Almighty presence, etc. They are the firm believers in the reincarnation of souls and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ballard is supposed to have the s oul of George Washington reincarnated in him which appears like another patriotic gesture. The members are called upon to contribute heavily financially the contributions being called "love gifts" for Mr. and Mrs. Ballard who are tobe made millionaires. They are not allowed to smoke, drink or dance or carry on sexual relations except for the purpose of reproduction.

This may all appear insane, but if you delegate one of your men to investigate this group as a fervent member he would be taught these things and probably learn much more than this letter portrays. I am not positive of the address of their meeting place but I recall something like 1135 M Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. It is a revamped residence and can be readily recognized by the bright lighting during their meetings. Their headquarters are supposed to be in California.

Unless this couple sadly misintrepeted their teachings you will find the above information true and which in my opinion should be investigated. Parading behind a front of religion and patriotism they could go far before being discovered.

Accept my apology for a long letter but this appeared the only manner in which I could make my point clear. This is all the information I have and for certain reasons I do not wish to d isclose my identity. I hope I am not accusing this organization unjustly whic h would cause you unnecessary investigation, but if they are not a fifth column organization it certainly is a good racket. The pleasure of investigation is yours. Good luck.

Very truly yours,

An American Citizen

In view of the request of the Department of Justice as per above clipping, I wish to state the following. About two weeks ago I sat with a friend (Mrs Delta Hewett) in the private office of De Vorss & Co. publishers in Los Angeles, talking to Douglas K. De Vorss. He handed me a book and said, " That is a pretty job don't you think and just off the press."

The title of the book was " I am the Destiny of the United States." My mind went back over the past two years and my suspicions in regard to the " I AM Movement " in the United States. Some of their students have drifted to me for help and they have revealed things such as : All one hundred per cent members if married are not to occupy the same room or co-habit with their mates. This strikes at our birth rate. All one hundred per cent students receive a food list from which is stricken all foods they are not to eat. The body building and strength giving foods are stricken from the list. This strikes at the health of our people also gets all their so called students ready to accept privation, that they may use them as tools in case of an over throw. To lessen their physical strength means to lessen their will power therefore more easily handled.

Their salute is similar if not identical with the Nazi salute. They worship St. Germain and that could easily be St. Germany. I firmly believe these people are being blindly led through mass hypnotism toward an un-revealed goal. To cap the climax within the past few days they have closed their meetings to the publi-

House Votes To Bar Nazis, Reds From WPA

Relief Plan Gets O.K.; Tips Sought On Fifth Column

WASHINGTON, May 22 (A.P.)—With a rolling volley of "ayes" the house today voted to bar Communists and "Nazi bund" members from WPA rolls, while the justice department suggested that the nation's citizens send in any tips they may have about fifth columns.

The $1,111,754,916 relief bill revised to meet President Roosevelt's requests and to prevent employment of aliens, Communists and Nazi bund members was passed by a 354-to-21 vote and sent to the senate.

WPA FUND WINS

With the Democratic majority in full command, the members approved the President's recommendation for a $975,650,000 WPA fund with permission for him to use it in eight months beginning July 1, rather than to stretch it over the full 12-month period.

The house also indorsed his request for elimination of restrictions against use of WPA funds on big construction projects.

Mindful of reports of the effectiveness of fifth columns abroad, the members accepted without debate an amendment by Rep. Walter (D-Pa) to broaden the prohibition against employment of aliens to include Communists and members of Nazi bund groups.

OTHERS INCLUDED

A little later, Rep. Rich (R-Pa) successfully sponsored an amendment to include in the restrictions any person who advocated the overthrow of the government.

At the last minute, the house brushed aside on a voice vote a demand by Rep. Taber (R-N.Y.) that the administration of relief be turned over to states, counties and municipalities and that the government make grants-in-aid to them.

Also buried by the Democratic majority were proposals by Rep. Collins (D-Miss.) to authorize a new $60,000,000 public building program, and by Rep. Voorhis (D-Calif.) to revive public works administration construction with a $[illegible],000,000 appropriation.

IMMIGRATION SHIFT

Meanwhile a special house committee cleared the way for congressional approval of President Roosevelt's plan to shift the immigration service from the labor department to the justice department, so that authorities may "deal

Hexing Is Charged In $1,000,000 Suit

CHICAGO, April 8 (I.N.S.)—Black magic of the cult of the "Great I Am" was described today in a $1,000,000 estate suit on file in superior court.

The suit charged that 86-year-old Mrs. Jennie Van Fleet Cowdery, widow of Edward Gilmore Cowdery, utility magnate, has been "hexed" in a realistic way by her daughter and the cult.

Mrs. Corene Cowdery Davison, youngest daughter of the elderly widow, filed the suit against her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baird Willard.

The suit charged Mrs. Cowdery was influenced unduly by claims of cult magic, that she paid upwards of $500 a month on cult demands, and that she was taught to consider her youngest daughter her enemy.

Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to Bureau letter (Bureau file No. 47-17400) dated March 23, 1940, wherein this office was advised that Major MAXWELL KIRBY, United States Army, Retired, The Elk's Club, Sacramento, California, had made inquiries of the Bureau regarding an important operative in the FBI known as K-17.

Major KIRBY was interviewed by Special Agent D. A. FLINN at the above address with respect to the purpose of his inquiry. At the outset it was determined that the inquiry made by Major KIRBY in no way pertained to GEORGE F. ZILLMER, who in the past has publicized certain closed cases of the Bureau over the radio using the symbol "X-7".

Major KIRBY has been retired from the Army for the past five years and is presently interested in mining in California. Among his many friends here there are some that have become quite interested and active in a fanatical religious and patriotic cult known as "The Great I Am Presences". This cult was originally founded by GUY W. BALLARD, now deceased who wrote under the pen name of GODFREY RAY KING. Since the leaders demise the organization has gone forward under the auspices of his wife, known th the followers as LOTUS RAY KING alias EDNA ANN, and BALLARD'S son. Mrs. BALLARD was formerly affiliated with WILLIAM DUDLEY PELLY before her marriage.

This cult, described as a racket by Major KIRBY, besides having their complicated religious beliefs centering around SAINT GERMAIN and the deceased BALLARD also is strongly patriotic. Although Major KIRBY doubts that there has been any actual representation by the leaders that there is a member of their group known to the FBI as "K-17" who is working in close cooperation with the FBI on un-American activities, he does feel that this idea has been put over to the followers by innuendo or suggestion. Major KIRBY bases his belief on the fact that persons affiliated with this group are under the general opinion that the above circumstances are true. At least one person interested in this organization has specifically mentioned this matter to KIRBY. The impression has also been left with this group of people by the leaders that there are members of their group that are working secretly and under cover with the FBI Committee.

RECORDED
INDEXED

The headquarters of "The Great I Am Presences" is located in Los Angeles, California, and there is an annual meeting held at that point that nets several thousand dollars in contributions for the BALLARDS. In addition to this source of revenue the BALLARDS sell a large number of religious paintings and writings to their followers. The group has continually shunned publicity and has in the past few months made their meetings more or less secret. Major KIRBY feels that this latter factor is due to the fear of the leaders that with publicity they will be exposed as "religious racketeers". In fact, the members are required by oath not to reveal or discuss matters discussed at the meetings.

Major KIRBY appeared to be a very reliable individual and sincere in his inquiry, the purpose of which was to actually determine whether in fact there was an operative in this group known as "X-17" cooperating with the FBI, and was advised in the negative. It was obvious that Major KIRBY considered the leaders of this group as highly unscrupulous in their operations but harmless as a police problem. Finally, Major KIRBY stated that he did not desire to disclose his source of information because of friendship.

On the basis of the above information no further inquiries are being conducted by this office. However, a copy of this communication is being furnished the Los Angeles Field Division for their use and information in the taking of any action authorized by the Bureau.

Very truly yours,

H. J. L. PIEPER,

Mr. J.E.Hoover,

Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter of the 13th. I will be only too glad to do anything I can to aid you. I have spent my life in trying to be a builder and help others to be the same. Further I have four sons , one who is leaving for camp training on August 4th.,he had a good position but felt it was his duty to go, and joined under age for which Iam willing and this is confidential between you and I.

Iam giving you a general line up as I see it , a carbon copy of this will be mailed to R.B.Hood , Federal B ureau of Investigation , U.S. Dept., of Justice, 728 San Deigo Trust & Savings Bldg. The carbon paper used in this will be destroyed and I want you to know I keep no copies of my letters to you.

In my opinion emotionalism is the seat of all present wars, people who cannot satisfy their material wants develop deep emotional wants, such is the material in which the seed of revolution is sowed by some emotional speaker. Religion, that which deals with man's heart is far more explosive than the latest or greatest material invention of man. H atred instilled in the hearts of a people has a nation licked before the agressor appears. Inner armament is most essential and should be carried on a par with outer armament. The building of the explosive of hatred within man is through influence - influence of his experience in life - influence of his environment and last but not least his reaction to the influence of others upon him.

idual because he watched this emotional happening within himself - therefore he knows how to cripple another nation through fear. He breaks the inward moral of a nation and then strikes the material , the outward. He is as sure of success as the snake that hypnotizes his victim and then strikes.

Hitler , outwardly scorns all religion that he may inwardly use it to further his own purpose of self aggrandizment . His country is not permitted religion because he knows he must keep control of the inner emotions of his people but he has his henchmen operating through the new movements of other countries and the people are trapped before they know it. I earnestly believe the majority of these people are blindly led, that only the heads are fully aware of the purpose of the organization . I wish I could honestly say these people were all of the lower class but I cannot there are all classes and they don't know where they are going. Only a matter of two weeks ago I talked to a prominent business man of Los Angeles who lives in Beverly Hills, he spoke of his wife's friends inducing him to attend a meeting or two of the I AM movement , he thought from what he had seen it was a wonderful order. I talked to him a few moments of the facts of the order , he changed his mind , this man like most successful business men possesses a deep religious sense , therefore suceptable. (name furnished on request)

I reminded him the audience is obliged to recite a number of mantrams or verses such as , Iam this , Iam that , and etc. then obliged to sing a number of songs of a certain type. This brings through self hypnotism - mass hypnotism of the whole group into one mind from then on they are very easily handled by the speaker. Logic and reason are lost and facts are not accepted , for instance a man who used to work for us, came to my door about three years ago told me he felt terrible and wanted me to help him. I ask what he had been doing the day before - what he had eaten etc., nothing unusual until he came to the evening before. H e said he had conducted an group , that they were "willing " the animals off the earth plane and they must be off by April. Why I asked ? They were lower - they were elemental detrimental to the progress of man. "I would'nt say that I replied.

Few men can equal the devotion of a dog for its master, how about your dog you have one hav'ent you ? He looked startled- he had'nt thought the thing through . Look George your organization did not place the animals here and therefore they cannot remove them . I told him man had listed himself as an animal and so he would have to go also; he was still convinced it could be done . I told him to write the date down and keep it in mind and th then when that date passed and it did not happen he would know by experience that facts were facts and would have to be dealt with. I told him his illness was due to his mental confusion , to stay away from such meetings which he did for his own comfort, but still believed until the date passed. This man is American born of Italian parents (name furnished on request) but there are plenty of full blooded Americans in it.

Most of the things promised by this movement are nothing short of ridiculous but the followers are so hypnotized they can't see it . For instance, in a cave in the heart of Mt. Shasta lie untold amounts of gold and jewels to be used by this movement for all who will follow it. Government rangers have combed the mountains and found no such caves or entrances thereto and they are following it to the tune of a million or two followers.

A woman came to me (I tried counter emotionalism on this case and it worked) she said her husband was treating her mean. I asked what she had done she replied nothing. I inquired into her interests and found she belonged to the I AM . She waxed eloquent on all it was doing for her and how truly she was following every instruction . She had lived in name only for about a year with her husband . I said, thats fine your getting along grand, your husband is the one that needs help and Iam going to see he gets it , she was quite pleased wanted to know how I would proceed. I told her I would help him get a divorce and the law would stand back of him . She was speechless , she right about faced. This was a year ago, a matter of a month back she told me with shining eyes that she was sure she and her husband were soul mates. Breaking the attraction between mates makes them more easily handled individuals. These are only two cases out of dozens , finally in self-defence I had to look into the matter, friends joined and wanted me to, to be able to put up a proper argument I had to study the matter. All this time I had not looked upon it as anything dangerous to the nation , I just thought it one of those things that spring up after a depression and as quickly die, but it has'nt turned out that way. Their books are stolen works composed of t the best work of Mary Baker Eddy - of Yogi Ramacharaka and others but mainly they have used a book "The Brother of the Third Degree" by Will Carver. Iam not sure but I believe this book is unavailable from a purchase standpoint, I have one however if one is needed for study. It is a Masonic work printed before the first world warthat proved itself prophetic ; for this reason there was considerable comment on it - how could the author write sonething before it happened, I did not look into it from that standpoint. The main moving character in this book is St. Germain - the main and leading Master of this I AM ORDER is St.Germain. Chris is number two master of the order , that in itself is appalling for it is the breaking up of the foundation of all of our own religious organizations, of the catholic or the christian area. Other leading characters in the book are masters of this I AM order . All have ascended according to them , they assume St. Germain has for there is no historical record that he ever died and none of his burial. The heads of this IAM order are in close communication with these masters at all times and take their directions which they give to their groups from these masters.

They give dates and places of where these masters have appeared on the platform before an audience. These dates , places and happenir have all been traced and found erroneous. They tell of trips and name ships and who were in the parties etc., a tracing of these show no such passenger list. This counter material has been available to these followers and yet they go blindly on. This material and the first set of books are in the library of a friend of mine and can through her be made available to you if you wish. Iam presuming this because the set of books (IAM) were given to her at my suggestic by the first mentioned case . While talking to a hundred percent student two years ago I brought out the fact that they had stolen their material over existing copyrights . I had expected a denial but did not get it, the reply was , It all comes from the one great mind therefore we have a right to use it. That in itself is revolutionary. This girl, Grace Spencer by name, was a close friend had a brilliant mind, and a daughter of a college professor. We had no unhappy experiences and as far as I know she is still my friend. This will give you some idea of how hypnotized these followers are and when it comes time to strike they will more or less blindly do as they are ordered, as they are in all walks of life it may prove necessary for you to find out the religious interests of men and women holding important positions , having to do with communications and the main ariteries of business.

This movement has regular and frequent broadcasts the source of which could be traced I suppose. In the poorer business districts of Los Angeles these broadcasts can be heard from doorways of shops going full blast. The late Mr. Ballard , the original head of this order, assured his people that when he died he would ascend as these aforementioned masters , that they likewise could do the same. Mr Ballard died a few months back and had to be buried the same as the rest of us, and I have yet to hear of a follower who has done better regardless, his movement continues to grow through the efforts of his wife and son.

In one talk useing logic and reason you can change a communist into a good citizen but this fast rolling snowball needs something else to stop it, . Will be glad to co-operate with your agent in what ever way you see fit, for the protection of my sons and all other mothers sons.

Sincerely Yours,

Mrs E. Leta Hoskins.

At 10.15 p.m., July 27, 1940, [redacted] telephoned the Washington Field Division and gave the following information:

A woman, name unknown, gave her some literature to read five or six months ago; that this literature was supposedly a patriotic magazine, although many of the articles mentioned changes in government which would be desirable to the people of the United States. [redacted] advised that this magazine had been published by the I. M. Society in California. She further advised that she had read recently that a MR. and MRS. JAMES W. BALLARD had been indicted and successfully prosecuted in California for Mail Fraud, and that this couple were allegedly connected with this society. Thus, she felt that this magazine should be brought to the attention of the Bureau.

[redacted] stated that she had called this Office on numerous occasions concerning "fifth column matters". However, a search of the index failed to reveal this woman's name as well as the name of the I. M. Society.

Dear Mr. Hoover:-

I am writing to you to register my protest against the indictment of Mrs. G. W. Ballard and Son Donald Ballard in the LosAngeles Federal Court and ask you as a Servant of the people, to make every effort you can to see that Justice is given in the trial of this case.

This case involves not only un-warranted charges against the Ballards but threatens our rights under the Constitution that of religious freedom.

Any honest investigation into the activity of the " I AM " brought forth through the Ballards, will prove that the instructions are not only constructive but thoroughly AMERICAN.

As to the charge against them for wrongfully obtaining money I want to say that, as a student of the " I AM " I have attended many of the Ballard classes and regularly the groups in Denver and NEVER have I heard the Ballards, any of their staff, or any group leader of this activity anywhere, ask for money: neither have I ever received any request for money from anyone connected with this activity either through the mail or otherwise.

America needs more loyal Americans, and any activity that brings this about should be encouraged and not persecuted. It seems incredible to me that an action should be brought against this activity while such activities as Communism are permitted to spread their propaganda thru the mails, radio, news-papers, and other channels. No honest American can say that the teachings of Communism are either constructive or American. Then in the interest of America, would it not be far better to devote the time, money, and energy now used in persecuting those who stand one hundred percent for America towards cleaning our America of all that is Un-American.

In selection of a jury for the trial of this case it iis important that it be devoid of Communists or members of other Un-American activities, and in this I ask your assistance. Thank you and may God Bless you.

Very Respectfully Yours.,

Dear Sir,

I emphatically protest against the injustice of the indictment against Mr. G.W. Ballard & her son Donald Ballard in the Federal courts in Los Angeles.

Our constitution & the bill of rights give the citizens of the U.S. America, the right to worship God as their hearts dictate, and also seek any form of Education he or she desires.

I therefore request that you, as a Servant of the people use your influence to protect that freedom and liberty which is ours "for which our forefathers gave their lives and fortune".

Dear Mr Hoover:

I believe the indictment against Mrs G. W. Ballard and her son Donald Ballard is unjust and unfair, according to the Constitunional Rights of every American Citizen, which gives us free religious rights and the privelege of choosing our education where we please.

Harry Bridges, Jerry Bryan and others send their communistic literature thru the mail to tear down and disrupt our Governmentand they have not been interfered with, so surely anyone who has the courage to stand in, with and for OUR BLESSED UNITED STATES OF AMERICA should be given every assistance by our Government which is a Government of the people, by the people and FOR the People.

There is never a charge made for this instruction as all is a glad free gift of love. All have free will and it is not dominated or interfered with by this activity or those who carry this "LIGHT"

We bless and ask for your eternal protection and as a servant of the people I KNOW you wish to see Divine Justice given to every American Citizen.

The Honorable J. Edgar Hoover
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, District of Columbia

Dear Sir:

As an American citizen and voter, I am writing you in the interest of many thousands of Americans, who have for the past five years endeavored to serve America in a non-heralded way, but sincerely expressing a loyalty to our flag and its ideals.

It is pertaining to one of the particular rights of an American regarding which I wish to write. It is that of mine and other Americans' constitutional rights to worship as their heart dictates, and also to derive their education from that source which they feel is right.

May I quote from a recent issue of a Denver paper, an Associated Press article written from Estes Park, Colorado, August 8:

"William Allen White, widely known Kansas editor, considers the Constitution of the United States a 'great religious document in the highest sense.'

"White declared the first 'evidence of the tyrant in this country will be the striking at religious freedom.'"

I refer to the matter of the indictment against Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ballard and son, Donald, Messengers of the Ascended Masters, who have carried to the American people the Law of Life, based on the creative word "I am." I declare as a student of this activity, that it is entirely free from political, commercial, or self-gain; and is a selfless movement in the interest of all mankind as well as the student body itself.

I appeal to you as an American representative of the American people and one pledged to see by the power invested in your office to see that the American people are fairly represented and given the guarantees of our constitution and the Declaration of Independence; and I do feel that calling this to your attention is well-sufficient information to prompt you to use your influence to see that justice for all concerned is given.

I wish my words could express my appreciation for what you will do in this matter.

I am sincerely,

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover,

Honorable Sir:

I am sending my plea to you against the indictment against Mrs. G. W. Ballard and son, Donald, in the Federal Courts of Los Angeles, who as citizens of the United States of America,- and real Americans they are too, maintain the right to worship God as their hearts dictate, and maintain the right to conduct the form of education they are rendering in the Divine way of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. They give out nothing that is against the Constitution of our Government.

Therefore, I request of you, as a servant of the people, you see that justice and the power of right selection is given them in the courts. That the jury be an all-American jury.

If the material of the Communists, Nazis, Atheists and others go through the mails, which is to tear down and destroy our America and our people, how can they indict Mrs. Ballard and son, who give out only constructive teaching for our America.

Thank you,

Mrs Ann Belihan.

Mail for 9/7/40

Denver, Colorado,
August, 26, 1940

J. Edgar Hoover,
Bureau of Investigation,
Justice Department,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:-

I am here-by voicing my protest concerning a recent indictment returned by the Federal Grand Jury at Los Angeles, against Mrs. G.W. Ballard and Son Donald, which charges them with fraud in the use of the mails. I appeal to you as a Servant of the people to give your assistance in any way you can for I feel that it means the future restrictions to freedom of speech which is guaranteed to us by the Constitution of the United States with respect to religious education, which the Ballards have brought forth.

I have attended many Ballard classes of the " I AM " activities and also the classes in Denver and have NEVER been solicited for money by mail or otherwise.

A careful and vigorious investigation into the " I AM " activity will determine the fact that it is constructive and thoroughly American and has done much for the up-building and protection of America and her people. It seems appalling that such an activity that stands one hundred percent for America should be persecuted when such activities as Communism use the mails to spread their propaganda which every true American knows is not constructive and is not in accord with our Constitution.

I sincerely request your assistance in the selection of a jury in this case; that it be composed of true Americans and purged from Communists or other Un-American activities. Thank you and may God Bless you.

Dear President Roosevelt:

When you were sworn into the office of President of these United States, you took an oath before your own God to uphold the Constitution to the best of your ability.

Therefore, when injustice is being perpetrated through our Federal Courts, I write you as one loyal and patriotic citizen to another to ask you to investigate the accusations made against the "I AM" leaders here in Los Angeles.

I am an "I AM" student and I know these leaders have never asked anyone for money or defrauded anyone of anything. They have taught our people more love for our United States of America than any other activity in our land. They have and are standing for her protection with all they are and have and so are we.

When such individuals as Earl Browder and Harry Bridges and the Communist party can send subversive material through the United States mails, then certainly I am sure you will want to investigate for yourself a charge such as this one.

With blessings to you, I am,

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I emphatically protest against the injustice of the indictment against Mrs. G. W. Ballard and son Donald in the Federal Courts in Los Angeles.

Our Constitution and the Bill of Rights gave the citizens of the U. S. of America the right to Worship God as their hearts dictate and also seek any form of Education he or she desires.

I therefore request that you, as a servant of the people use your influence to protect that freedom and liberty which is ours. (For which our forefathers gave their lives and fortunes.)

In my judgement, who so ever condems the Ballards helps to rob us of our liberty, justice, and freedom. America must remain the land of the free and the home of the brave.

I trust you are one of our true loyal Americans and May God bless you as such, and our beloved America too.

Sincerely,

Sen. Sheridan Downey
United States Senator
Washington, D. C.

My dear Senator:

I feel confident that you, as one pledged by oath to support the Constitution, will want to investigate the charges made by Federal authorities against the religious organization, the "I AM" Activity, of using the mails to defraud. To my knowledge and that of all with whom I have talked, who have been in the organization since its very inception, the leaders of this thoroughly patriotic and educational (rather than religious) movement, have never asked for a nickel from any of their followers, which is quite contrary to the practices of most organizations of any kind whatsoever!

But be that as it may, I presume the case hinges altogether upon the proof that the teachings of the "I AM" Activity are fraudulent, and I wish to ask you whether any religious teaching can be proved, except in the living of it. Furthermore, is it not unconstitutional to require any religious body to prove the validity of their tenets? Could you prove in a court of law that is, give legal evidence - that your religious beliefs, whatever they may be, are true? And by the same token, could those very gentlemen who have made the charge and indictment and presume to try this case, prove that their religious beliefs are not fraudulent?

Does not our Constitution guarantee the right of religious belief to every individual, the right to peaceable assembly to promulgate those beliefs, the freedom of the press to print and disseminate by printed word those teachings, and the right of free enterprise, whereby they may present such printed matter for sale? Do not other religious exercise these same rights without question by the government, using the mails likewise to distribute their books, magazines and other paraphernalia, without having to prove the validity of their tenets to the representatives of the government?

Have not officials in our government so rigidly adhered to these principles as to permit even enemies of our government to exercise these rights, even to the avowed purpose of overthrowing the very government that gives them those rights and protects them in the exercise of them? And has not their literature enjoyed the freedom of the United States mails, permitting them to disseminate freely their teachings and even solicit funds for their "cause"?

No one is forced to buy the books of the "I AM" Activity--the people who claim to be defrauded by the teachings bought them of their own free will. And many of them have doubtless likewise been disappointed in purchases they have made as a result of advertising claims, but unless they can prove that they followed directions accurately, they could not sue for fraud. Can they prove in this case that they followed the instructions, and even if they could prove it, would a few years' test, without once slipping, be sufficient to overcome many years and many previous lifetimes' of wrong living! The same people might claim the Bible to be a fraud too, because they themselves had not lived up to it, or because it makes claims they cannot prove, or that it contradicts itself! They must have found the Bible unsatisfactory, or whatever religion they followed heretofore, or if none, then their own way of life! else they would not have been seeking another way of life. Yet the Bible is sold thru the mails, and none can prove that it is true.

In fact, no religion can be proved except in the living of it, and then only to the person who lives it - the proof cannot be transmitted to another, by legal nor any other process. How then can a case like this be put on trial? By what constitutional right can any religious order to required to submit evidence of the validity of its tenets? Faith is the evidence of things not seen, to use a Bible statement. And how can the testimony of witnesses be acceptable, when they cannot prove that they lived up to the teachings? And most of all, how can those Federal authorities who presume to try the case pass judgment on a religion which they themselves have never practiced, therefore they would know the least about it, and when they could not even prove that their own beliefs are not fraudulent, if required to submit legal or any other evidence!

There are thousands of books in the public libraries, and for sale in bookstores and direct from publishers, that are mailed on request and on receipt of the stated price, which teach many of the same great universal laws as those on which the teachings of the "I AM" Activity are based, yet they are not required to produce evidence that their teachings are valid. As a student myself of the inner, esoteric doctrines of all the great religions of the past, including the Christian and the Masonic, I am convinced by very reason alone, aside from all emotional feeling, that the "I AM" teachings are not only within the realm of possibility but fulfill the very claims of other esoteric teachings, as a study of those doctrines points to the fact that a new advanced teaching must be given at this time under the cyclic laws. Reason alone convinces one that even Jesus, Great and Perfect and All-Wise as He was, was limited in what He could reveal because of the ignorance of the people at that time - they were ignorant of the very geography of the world, to say nothing of all the discoveries relating to the vast universe with which our spinning globe is surrounded, and our otherwise greatly widened knowledge since Jesus walked that tiny sector of our single globe, and taught as much - and more than his hearers could understand and follow!

Moreover, the "I AM" Activity, well knowing the purpose for which our Constitution was founded (there was none other on earth like it at the time, instead it has served as a model for others since), and the destiny for which our country was founded, are perhaps the most loyal of all organizations in the support of that Constitution and the most active in definitely working to bring that destiny to its fulfillment. They stand by all who stand by the Constitution and the true ideals of America.

And that Constitution which they have always supported so loyally, certainly is their defense now, for it guarantees to the "I AM" Activity as well as to all religions, the freedom to found, and to continue with, their teachings. And I feel sure that you likewise who are pledged to support that Constitution which guarantees to you the same rights, will want to see that the rights of others are equally protected - "Equal justice under law".

Thanking you for your investigation into these charges, and for your support of the constitutional rights of all citizens equally, I remain

Sincerely yours,

(signed) Meda Abbott

Dear Sir

It is with a profound admiration, and respect for the Fearless and efficient manner you conduct your Department and with a deep sence of Justice that I Write you, voicing a protest against the unjust indictment recently returned against Mrs G. that would in any manner prove harmful to any American Institutions, Industries or in any way Contrary to the Principles of Freedom Equality and Justice.

Certain activities of a subversive nature in California has come before the Public in the Press and some investigations are being Conducted in the interest of Justice. One of the most flagrant violators and trouble makers in that section has been one Harry Bridges. Any of the Communistic Harry Bridges actions with which he has been Connected has been enough to Deport him.

Under the Department of Commerce he has been protected, and continued in his attempts thru strikes, tie ups of industries, and other means to destroy the Morale of this Country hoping to establish a Dictatorship in this Country and become one of the ruling forces

I have had the priveledge of attending thirty-four Classes Conducted by Mr and Mrs G. W. Ballard in Los Angeles and about the same number Conducted by their Associates in many of the Big Cities of our Country.

I can truthfully state under Oath that at no time was there ever any Soliciting of funds, nor were there ever a Charge made for any of the Classes, nor were the Collection plates passed around. Neither from the platform or in private was there ever one word said against this Country, any of its officials or its people.

Funds for Un American activities are being demanded by those trying to tear down this Country and much of the money which is being Spent comes from those European Countries who to day are in the throes of a Bloody War and to be used for distructive intent.

I trust Sir in the interest of Justice you will use your Power, and Influence to see this indictment against Mrs G. W. Ballard, Her Son and those associated with Her Squashed and full Indemnation of any Wrong be given them.

DETAILS: This case is predicated on the information received on Saturday, July 27, 1940, from Mr. J. B. SIMSON, who is employed by the Railway Express Agency in Honolulu and who resides at 3530 Trousseau Street, telephone 786593, who called at this office and advised that while delivering a package to Mrs. H. SHELTON, 1840 Anapuni Street, he had become engaged in conversation with Mrs. SHELTON and she had advised him that one STRAUCH was very pro-Hitler. Mrs. SHELTON informed that STRAUCH, who lives on Makiki Street near the Masonic Temple, is a notary public and is the leader in Honolulu for the "I A." group; that this group meets in a room in the upstairs of STRAUCH'S home, and that there is a big picture of Hitler in this room.

Mrs. H. SHELTON, 1840 Anapuni Street, was interviewed and stated that P. R. STRAUCH is a real estate man and notary public and was reported to her as being pro-Hitler and leader of the "I A." group. This group has meetings in his home once or twice a week and these were formerly attended by a very intelligent woman named Mrs. HARRY KING who formerly resided with Mrs. SHELTON and also with Miss SHIBATA, WPA worker in Honolulu. She stated that she had heard from Mrs. KING that a picture of Hitler hangs in the church part of this house and that STRAUCH brags about Hitler being a member of the "I A." group. Mrs. SHELTON described STRAUCH as being a person 60 years of age; height, 6 feet; weight, 140; married, and pasty-looking.

Mrs. SHELTON appeared to be a little over-zealous in this matter, and it is believed that she would be prone to exaggerate. During the discussion, she intimated that she believed that anyone who was not a member of the Protestant religion was doomed to purgatory.

Mrs. HARRY KING, Cottage A, Captain Cook Avenue, employed by the Underwood Typewriter Company, Merchant Street, Honolulu, stated that she only attended the "I AM" society on two or three occasions and sung a few hymns and, to her knowledge, there was no mention of Germany, Hitler, or any politics. She stated that she had never heard any of the members of this group say anything to the effect that STRAUCH was pro-Hitler or pro-German, and she was positive that there was no picture of Hitler hanging in the room in which they were meeting. She stated that she was not a member of the "I AM" group but was a Catholic.

Due to the fact that there appears to be no evidence of espionage in this case, it is being closed on the authority of the Special Agent in Charge.

RE: EDNA W. BALLARD, et al.,
"I AM";
MAIL FRAUD

Dear Sir:

This office is in receipt of a letter from the U. S. Attorney at Los Angeles, California, dated August 29, 1940, requesting the use of an accountant for duty in Los Angeles, Cal., to work upon the above-captioned case. The accountant is to examine books, records, ledgers, and journals in an endeavor to ascertain the amount of personal profit obtained by the members of the "I AM" cult, also the records of the agents who placed radio broadcasts and sold the transcriptions thereof, in an endeavor to ascertain the personal profit obtained.

It is estimated that there is from one month to five weeks accounting work to be done by one accountant. The trial will take approximately one week. I am assigning Special Agent (A) THOMAS M. MULHERIN to work on the instant matter, in absence of instructions of the Bureau to the contrary.

Very truly yours,

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED DATE 11/24/82 BY SP8 BCE/mg

Synopsis of Facts: TEN DAY REPORT.

Details: As a result of investigation by Post Office Inspectors an indictment was returned by the Federal Grand Jury at Los Angeles, California, on August 28, 1940, against the twenty-four individuals whose names and aliases are set forth in the title of this report. This indictment alleges in substance that a large number of people were defrauded through false representations, pretenses and promises. It is stated that the victims purchased books, magazines, pictures, articles, and other paraphernalia offered for sale by the defendants and were induced to become followers and accept the teachings and movement sponsored by the defendants, commonly known as the "I AM" movement, and were induced to give, send, and pay money and give other things of value to the defendants because of these false representations.

L.A. 36-138

The indictment alleges that GUY W. BALLARD, who died at Los Angeles, California, on December 29, 1939, was represented by the defendants to have been selected by the alleged "ascended master", Saint Germain, as a divine messenger, and it was represented that the words of the alleged divine entity, Saint Germain, would be transmitted to mankind through the medium of the said GUY W. BALLARD. The indictment alleges that EDNA W. BALLARD (wife of GUY W. BALLARD) and DONALD BALLARD(Son of GUY W. BALLARD) were stated to have been selected as divine messengers through whom the words of the alleged "ascended masters", including the alleged Saint Germain, would be communicated to mankind under the teachings commonly known as the "I AM" movement. It is stated that the defendants represented that the various books which were written by GUY W. BALLARD were dictated by Saint Germain and sold under such representations. It is stated that GUY W. BALLARD, during his lifetime, and EDNA W. BALLARD and DONALD BALLARD had claimed to have attained a supernatural state of self-immortality, which condition enabled them, and each of them, to be entirely free from ailments common to man, and to conquer disease, death, old age, poverty, and misery, which power or condition and supernatural state the defendants and each of them, represented they could and would transmit to others willing to pay therefor or willing to part with other things of value therefor to the defendants. It is alleged that all these representations were made for the false and fraudulent purpose of securing money or other things of value from the persons intended to be defrauded, and that the defendants knew the representations to be false.

The principal office of the two corporations maintained by the BALLARDS is in Chicago. These corporations are known as "SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION" and "SAINT GERMAIN PRESS". However, the principal revenues of the corporations were obtained in the Los Angeles vicinity and a branch office was maintained in Los Angeles. The greater part of three separate sets of books have already come into the possession of the Post Office Inspectors, those of the SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION, Chicago, and both the Chicago and Los Angeles records of the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS.

The persons other than the BALLARDS named in the indictment are their associates who aided them in preaching the doctrines of the "I AM" movement and in collecting funds from members of the movement.

The purpose of the accounting investigation in this case is to determine the amount and source of cash receipts and the amount and reasons for cash disbursements broken down in so far as possible to show the benefit to the various defendants.

The investigation to date indicates that cash receipts and disbursements are handled by both the SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION and the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS and that there are a large number of intercompany transactions. It also appears that prior to the incorporation of the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS on December 19, 1939, considerable of the business of the "I AM" movement was shown in the personal records of the BALLARDS which have not and probably will not be produced for examination. In order that a proper classification of cash disbursements may be made it appears that it will be necessary to examine thousands of receipts and memoranda, some of which have not already been produced. A request for the missing records has been made on the defendants' attorneys by the United States Attorney and it is stated that the missing corporate records will be produced in Los Angeles.

In addition to the examination of the records of the SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION and the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, it appears that it may be desirable to examine the records of the TED DAHL ADVERTISING AGENCY, Los Angeles, which arranged the radio broadcasts for the "I AM" movement and also the records of R. R. DONNELLEY & SONS COMPANY, Chicago, Illinois, which published the books of the "I AM" movement.

The trial of this case has been set for November 19, 1940, and it is estimated that the greater part of the intervening time will be required to complete the examination as above outlined.

Special Agent JAMES C. SLOANE and the writer performed investigative activity in connection with the case. Special Agent SLOANE worked from September 4, to 14, 1940, while the writer worked on September 4, 6, 9, 10 and 14, 1940.

Dear Sir:

Only because you were unable to get a postponement do I write again. I know by that you felt further investigation was necessary and the 19th of November is not far off. If you drop the suit your fifth column will multiply no end, the world will be assured the " Mighty I AM" presence has proven its power over all and St. Germany will reign supreme.

Your case is fraud and you can prove fraud even to proving they are Nazis' while presuming to be heads of a Peace organization, at the same time you can release these deluded people by showing them how they were deluded. When you do this the Nazi agents will realize you understand their inner workings and their morale will be broken.

Judge Leon R. Yankwich was born in Rumania . About the time this case goes to trial I think his native country will be in the Nazi vice and as you unfold the case to him I believe he will vision his adopted country in the same vice and as it dawns on him you will get full co-operation. I worked all night, night before last trying to figure this case out, and I think I have got it.

OCT 5 RECD

A surprise attack is always good, it disorganizes. I would suggest you go over into their camp and break their defense, in this manner. Have the Attorney General start his opening address thus, - " By their Works ye shall know them." Then brief your written evidence and what you propose to prove, then close with, " The first law book written states, By their works ye shall know them," and we intend to lay before you their works that you may wisely judge just who is wrong, the defendents in this case or the Government of this country."

The fact that you do anything Spiritual will throw their attorney off guard, confuse him, a confused mind does not work well. They intend to refute your material testimony with glorified Spiritual Statements, confuse the issue,(Hitler always confuses issues) . When you enter their camp by starting with a Spiritual statement, you are going to break their defense, as they do not expect any Spiritual statement from you. They expect you to hammer on points of law and materiality. You will show them you can handle the material and the Spiritual both with equal balance. Then of course you will present your found evidence after which ask Mrs. Ballard to take the stand. Iam sure they will put her on,(although in Californis I believe they dont have to) but she likes the stage so well she will take it.

In your first question ask her if she believes in incarnation, I dont think she will know what you mean - if she does'nt read Webster to her. quote- "Incarnation the act of clothing with , or of assuming flesh , embodiment ~~of God~~ in human form, such as the embodiment of God in human form as in the person of Jesus."

Then she will agree that she believes in it, because of course St.Germain came through her husband and all those others, draw her out on how many people came through her husband, and what they did and etc. , dont forget K 17 and the submarines. The case is yours from then on , although they will think it is theirs; you will be lulling the enemy before the Supreme attack. Ask her if these people (St. Germain and etc.) in her opinion were masters. When she says yes ask her if her husband was a master, you can be sure she will say yes to that, then you are set to go.

Ask her what are the marks of a master . She can't give them, she doesnt know them, her very life proves that but she will probably tell you something about ascension, blue rays and lights or even offer a demonstration - do not permit demonistrations she will hypnotize the entire court room. Tell her you have to have proofthat is understandable by all, such as characteristics, then say, " It seems to have been proven to you that your husband was a master and as such - these statements and articles he was sending through mail were true and what he claimed. Now that is what you have to prove to the court that these statements can be backed by concrete evidence. What was it your husband had that could be materially seen like objects or discerned such as traits of character, that proved he handled super natural powers. Its quite likely she will say his large following. Your answer then will be the Devil had a following too, did he not ? and does today.

Then your Supreme Blitzkrieg. Say, Mrs Ballard I believe we had better test your Spirits and see if they are of God. That is the advise of the first law book- the bible- maybe even you are mistaken.

" Was Christ a Master ? (the world credits him as one) she will have to answer yes to that. Did he take from the people or did he give to the people ? That is the first mark of a master, he always gives he never takes. Was he humble in his ways or did he put on a big show to let every one know he was here ? He was humble - that is the second mark of a master. Did he claim to be doing the miracles he performed ? No he said"It was the father in him that did the works." Did he ever say he was a master No - he recognized only one master " God". Did he seek gold and treasures? No - Did he seek self aggrandizement? No - He said, "Go and tell no man of the works ye do." Did he work with the material at hand or did he create his own ? He worked with what was here , he restored Lazarus to his body , he made wine out of water, he multiplied the loaves and fishes, he always worked with that which was, followed the law laid by the creator. He was a builder , never a destroyer.

The way to test a Spirit that is coming through some one like your husband is to find out whether they are builders or destroyers. If Mr. Ballard thought he was working with builders instead of destroyers then he should have used these tests. Whether ignorant or aware of the law we are subject to the law and must pay the penalty of ill advisement.

To complete our case let us test these Spirits and by their character find out what they are. You required all of your followers to destroy all their books and follow only your books , did you not ? What man in the world today required a nation to destroy all of its books and follow only his books , Hitler.

You do not permit co-habitation among your people, in doing that you are destroying the American race. What man in the world today teaches race worship, wants only the German race to survive and wishes to destroy all others, yes, Hitler. You are particularly antagonistic to astrological books are you not ? What man in the world today is a noted astrologer, goes by the maps of the heavens? Hitler. It wouldnt be wise to have any one else understand those maps also, would it ?

What man has his people so hypnotized that they know only one mind, his, are unable to exercise logic and reason, dominated completely by his will ? Hitler. What man wants to reduce the strength of all other nations ? Hitler. Do you realize that is what you are doing when You cut out the strength and life giving foods of the people, weakening them so they are unable to stand attack, weakening first their minds through hypnotism and then their bodies through reduction of the right foods.

We are asked to test our Spirits and know they be of God and we are warned of false prophets. By their works we shall know them whether it be on this plane of existence or the one beyond. By their works we shall know them , this looks to me not like St. Germain but St. Germany.

The case will be yours and you will have fought it on their own ground making the victory complete. The Government being the prosecutor has the right to the last word, hence in the final rebuttal I would suggest incorporating this material at the end of the speech.

" This is a case of fraud right straight through , on the material world and the Spiritual as well. These Spirits do not stand the test of the Builder, the Master Builder who at no time took from the world but gave to it. Who was humble in Spirit and action - who sought to build nations not destroy them, who sought to build people in character and health not destroy them , who sought above all things to make them strong in mind and heart and independent in action.

" I have written these my laws in your hearts and minds and hence forth thou shalt reap as thou hast sown."

He said, - - - - - If you follow false prophets you must suffer the disillusionment .

Christ did not take money and jewels from the people stating the end of the world is at hand. He never asked for the material wealth of any one, nor has any succeeding Master since. The Master Buddha the great light of Asia said, "Possessions bring grief," and today this order is learning the truth of that statement.

(Jury)

I ask you ladies and gentlemen to bring in a verdict of guilty, "That this country may continue in Liberty and Union now and forever; One and Inseperable."

I do not feel you will mis-understand me but in case you do, I want you to know that I dislike women who presume to tell men what to do, Iam not trying that. Iam only trying to co-operate for I do understand about Masters and Mastership. Iam somewhat of an authority on it so I know when people are real in it and when they are not.

I would never have interefered with this movement had it not proven by its acts and statements dangerous to the nation and its people. As a rule these things flare up and die without any particular danger I know how very dangerous wrong handling of peoples emotions can become, so much so, that I put it into print this year, something I never intended to do. The times are such something has to be done. The Library of Congress will quite likely loan you a copy if you feel you need proof of my ststement.

I know you are the investigator and the Attorney General has to handle the case. This material offered is briefed and can be enlarged upon . In handling your case in this manner you will need very few if any witnesses outside of Mrs Ballard. You will win and go down in history as having performed a very great act. Your letter of September 17th. received, thank you.

E. Leta Hoskins.

ST. GERMAIN SOCIETY, DR. FRANCIS M. JAHN, MR. ____ EKEY, MRS. ____ EKEY	ESPIONAGE

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

ST. GERMAIN SOCIETY reported pro-Nazi with JAHN and EKEYS as leading members. Investigation shows this Society is connected with the cult "I AM" and the EKEYS are leaders of this organization. No evidence of espionage or sabotage.

- C -

DETAILS:

On June 17, 1940 [redacted] b7D advised that the ST. GERMAIN SOCIETY publishes books and pamphlets advocating the overthrow of the American Government. It was [redacted] contention that the ST. GERMAIN SOCIETY is composed of Germans and that MRS. EKEY, of the Majestic Hotel, Philadelphia, Pa., is a member and conducts meetings at this hotel on Tuesday and Friday evenings. He alleged further that DR. FRANCIS M. JAHN is also a member of this organization and he conducts meetings on Tuesday and Friday evenings in room 307 of the Horn and Hardart Building, 16th and Chestnut Streets, Phila., Pa.

Detective WILLIAM SIMMLER, Jr., of the Philadelphia Detective Bureau, on July 3, 1940, determined that JAHN is a licensed osteopathic physician with offices at 307 Horn and Hardart Building, northwest corner of 16th and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia, Pa., and he resides at 3705 Hamilton Street. He shares his office with Dr. C. T. JUSTICE and Dr. FLOYD WHITEBREAD, both osteopathic physicians. Dr. JAHN has been at this address for six years, paying a monthly rental of $45.00 to WILLIAM I. MERKLE COMPANY, INC. His credit is very good.

Detective SIMMLER established that on the following days, which were Tuesdays and Fridays, during June, he left this building where he has his office with a man known as Mr. HOWE, and that no other persons left the building with them. These days were May 14, 21, 28; June 4, 11, 18, 25; May 17, 31; and June 7, 14 and 21, 1940. On Friday, June 21, 1940 a man known as Mr. WRIGHT also left the building with HOWE and JAHN. These persons always left the building each evening at about 8,55 P.M. Mr. WRIGHT is the Doctor's chauffeur and Mr. HOWE is the owner of the premises at 3705 Hamilton Street where he has made his home for the past twenty years. Mr. HOWE conducts an engraving business in the Real Estate Trust Building, Broad and Chestnut Streets and is a very reputable person and business man.

Dr. JAHN has been one of the followers of a man named G.W. OBALLARD, Chief Priest of the cult known as the "I AM". BALLARD died around the first of the year, 1940. Dr. JAHN is supposed to be very engrossed in this religious cult, which may possibly have political ambitions. Mrs. EKEY, of the Majestic Hotel, is a member of the "I AM" cult, together with her husband. They maintain a suite of rooms at the Majestic Hotel, and also rent a large room on the second floor of the Hotel which is used as a reading room and is open to the public. Also maintained by the EKEYS is a large meeting hall at the northeast corner of Broad Street and Girard Avenue, which is also the property of the Majestic Hotel. The EKEYS have lived at this Hotel for three years and enjoy a desirable reputation, both with the management and employees.

Detective SIMMLER reinterviewed the original informant and determined that [redacted] and in the opinion of Detective SIMMLER [redacted] b7D

On July 16, 1940 [redacted] the original informant,

It does not appear that there are any espionage or sabotage activities in connection with this case.

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

ST. GERMAIN SOCIETY reported pro-Nazi with JAHN and EKEYS as leading members. Investigation shows this Society is connected with the cult "I AM" and the EKEYS are leaders of this organization. No evidence of espionage or sabotage.

- C -

DETAILS:

On June 17, 1940 Mr. SAMUEL DAVIS, 3040 Lancaster Avenue, advised that the ST. GERMAIN SOCIETY publishes books and pamphlets advocating the overthrow of the American Government. It was Mr. DAVIS' contention that the ST. GERMAIN SOCIETY is composed of Germans and that MRS. EKEY, of the Majestic Hotel, Philadelphia, Pa., is a member and conducts meetings at this hotel on Tuesday and Friday evenings. He alleged further that MR. FRANCIS M. JAHN is also a member of this organization and he conducts meetings on Tuesday and Friday evenings in room 307 of the Horn and Hardart Building, 16th and Chestnut Streets, Phila., Pa.

Detective WILLIAM SIMMLER, Jr., of the Philadelphia Detective Bureau, on July 3, 1940, determined that JAHN is a licensed osteopathic physician with offices at 307 Horn and Hardart Building, Northwest corner of 16th and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia, Pa., and he resides at

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to Bureau telegram dated October 24, 1940, requesting information as to the dates on which Special Agents A. D. HORN, T. M. MULHERIN, and M. B. MYERSON will report to their new offices on transfer.

Please be advised that Special Agent (A) M. B. MYERSON will depart from Los Angeles on November 3, 1940, and proceed to San Francisco.

Special Agent (A) T. M. MULHERIN is presently engaged in the investigation of the mail fraud case entitled "EDNA BALLARD, et al, 'I AM' MOVEMENT." It is estimated that the investigation in this matter will take until the date of the trial, which is November 19, 1940, and the trial will last for approximately one month. It is, therefore, estimated that Special Agent MULHERIN will proceed to New York City on transfer on or about December 15, 1940.

Special Agent A. D. HORN is presently engaged in making plant surveys on two plants within this district. It is contemplated that this work will take until November 29, 1940, on which date he will leave for Chicago, Illinois.

DETAILS: Since the submission of the ten-day report, practically all the records covering the years 1938, 1939, and the first six months of 1940 for both the SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION and the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, Chicago and Los Angeles Branches, have been turned over to the Government for examination by CHARLES CARR, one of the attorneys for the defendants. An informal request has been made by the United States Attorney for all records since the origin of the "I AM" movement, but as yet no reply has been made by the defense.

A review has been made of the ledgers and journals of both the St. GERMAIN FOUNDATION and the ST. GERMAIN PRESS for the year 1939 and the first six months of 1940, and from such examination it appears that the following receipts and expenditures, exclusive of intercompany transactions, have been made:

INCOME	1939	Jan. to June, 1940
Contributions	$108,903.37	$ 42,139.25
Sales of Books, Charts, etc., less discounts	97,904.69	76,765.12

expenses of DONALD BALLARD, minor son of EDNA W. BALLARD. Large expenditures for hotels and meals, radio expenses, etc. must be further analyzed by examination of original memoranda and vouchers before the extent of benefit to the defendants from such expenditures can be determined.

Further investigation will be conducted to ascertain the amount of receipts and expenses for the year 1938, and further analyses will be made to determine the exact source of receipt and purpose of expenditure insofar as practicable for the period from January 1, 1938, to June 30, 1940. An examination of the records of the TED DAHL ADVERTISING AGENCY will be made. Also analyses of the costs of the numerous articles sold by the BALLARDS compared with their selling price will be made. It is estimated that this work will require the time of two accountants from the present time until the date of the trial which is set for November 19, 1940.

If the records of the BALLARDS from the time of the start of the "I AM" MOVEMENT are obtained a survey will be made of them to determine the amount of original investment by the BALLARDS, if any, and the source of the present investment in the movement as reflected by the following combined balance sheet of the SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION and SAINT GERMAIN PRESS on June 30, 1940:

ASSETS
Current Assets:	$ 85,095.67
Fixed Assets, less depreciation	13,130.08
Deferred Charges	839.72

PATON B. CROUSE, former private secretary to GUY W. BALLARD, has stated that all cash receipts were not turned over or reported to the head office of the MOVEMENT in Chicago but were retained by GUY W. BALLARD. CROUSE produced several lists of checks cashed in Washington, D. C., in 1939, the proceeds of which he stated were retained by BALLARD. CROUSE stated that it was the usual practice of GUY W. BALLARD to cash checks received as donations through the mails and retain the proceeds without record. In view of this Post Office Inspectors visited the hostelries at which the BALLARDS stopped on their tours around the country and insofar as practicable obtained lists of the checks cashed by them. While no record of these individual checks is shown on any of the records of the ST. GERMAIN PRESS, ST. GERMAIN PRESS, INC., or ST. GERMAIN FOUNDATION, there is a record of large amounts of cash received and such cash considerably exceeds the amount received from cashing the checks. CROUSE, however, states that the cash shown consists of actual currency collections and is not part of the proceeds of the checks cashed. However, the only accounting testimony that can be offered in support of this contention is that on a number of occasions GUY W. BALLARD wired money to the Chicago office in multiples of $1,000.00 when money was needed. The records indicate that such monies were received from GUY W. BALLARD personally. It is also to be noted that one of the letters written by GUY W. BALLARD to his son, DONALD BALLARD, states that $100.00 was enclosed which he should make no record of inasmuch as the income tax people might become inquisitive as to its source.

At the request of Special Assistant to the Attorney General JAMES RUFFIN and Assistant United States Attorney NORMAN NEUKOM a test check was made to determine whether or not the sales of the various books and paraphernalia handled by the BALLARDS had all been recorded on the books. Such a check was made covering the whole of the year 1939 involving the examination and listing of the information on 6,309 invoices. This examination showed that there were no substantial differences between the sales reported and the merchandise disposed of except in the case of the following shortages:

Phonograph records	1,955 at selling price of $2.50	$4,887.50
Large charts	271 at selling price of 15.00	$4,065.00

ANNA MAY MEGINNIS, bookkeeper for the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS and FOUNDATION, stated that the above shortages were probably accounted for by the fact that during the latter part of 1939, the BALLARDS ordered the destruction of a large number of records which had been made by Mrs. HARRY N. ROGERS, organist, after the latter's dismissal from the "I AM" MOVEMENT. Miss MEGINNIS also stated that 266 large charts were distroyed in June, 1939 upon instructions of Mrs. EDNA W. BALLARD because, in the latter's opinion, the red appearing in such charts was too bright and the use of bright red is condemned by the leaders of the "I AM" MOVEMENT because "it emanates a destructive vibration".

Analysis of expense accounts to determine the total of the benefits to subjects is progressing and will probably be completed in a period of from one week to ten days time.

The analysis of the records of the TED DAHL ADVERTISING AGENCY will be started during the week commencing November 18, 1940 and should be completed in several days.

If no further requests for accounting investigation are received it is expected that the work as presently outlined will be completed in two weeks. It is to be noted that the trial date has now been set for November 26, 1940 and the attendance of Agent J. C. SLOANE (A) and the writer will be required in Court during the presentation of the accounting phases of the case.

Since the submission of the last progress report the writer has spent seventeen days and Special Agent J. C. SLOANE (A) has spent twenty-two days on this investigation.

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

ACCOUNTING REPORT

"I AM" MOVEMENT conducted as partnership by GUY W. BALLARD and EDNA W. BALLARD under name SAINT GERMAIN PRESS from organization sometime in 1934 or 1935 until March 2, 1938, when SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION incorporated. Shortly thereafter activities of Movement divided between SAINT GERMAIN PRESS and SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION. On December 12, 1939, the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS was incorporated under name of SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, INC. SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION has no capital stock and BALLARDS controlled activities under self-perpetuating arrangement. Of 1000 shares of capital stock issued by SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, INC., 500 were issued in name of GUY W. BALLARD and 500 were issued in name of EDNA W. BALLARD. GUY W. BALLARD died on December 29, 1939, and named EDNA W. BALLARD his sole beneficiary. Financial records obtained do not antedate January 1, 1938, with several exceptions, and cover the period from January 1, 1938, until July 31, 1940, for both corporations and the partnership, except that inventory lists and certain other records not obtained. Records obtained indicate BALLARDS had net worth of $48,538.57 on January 1, 1938, and that on June 30, 1940, EDNA W. BALLARD had a net interest of $64,575.34 in SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, INC., while SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION had an excess of assets over liabilities of $23,758.68. Although SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION was incorporated as a non-profit corporation several of disbursements made by it appear to have been for personal benefit of BALLARDS, and the net profit or loss to be made by it is controlled by the fact that all books and paraphanalia sold by it are purchased through SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, INC., the amount of the discount given the FOUNDATION being determined by EDNA W. BALLARD. Receipts by the two corporations and partnership from Jan. 1, 1938, until June 30, 1940, amounted to $537,153.96, of which $251,658.47 was for contributions and $284,729.34 represented the sale of books. Disbursements amounted to $502,793.61. Of this letter sum amounts disbursed on behalf of defendants amounted to $14,973.55 for GUY W. DALLAIL; $33,336.73 for ELSA W. DALLAIL; $25,283.02 for DONALD DALLAIL; $5,603.10 for BETTY MOWRY; $5,415.46 for MARY VON DELINOYA; $5,093.83 for GRANT L. LEWIS; and $3,525.00 for LOUISE MAGNUS. Books do not show benefits to other defendants, but income tax statements of PAUL STICKELL for four years ended Dec. 31, 1939, indicate net income of $11,415.51 in addition to travel and living expenses; and income tax statements of CHARLES and PEARL FINDLAY for the same period indicate a net income of $55,532.19. Benefits to WILLIAM J. CASSIDY, who filed no income tax returns, not known. Oral testimony of PATON P. CROSBY, former private secretary to GUY W. DALLAIL, indicates that DALLAIL only accounted for a part of collections received. ELSA W. DALLAIL filed apparently false petition for admission to probate of will of GUY W. DALLAIL. Test check of merchandise purchased and sold during year 1939 indicates that all sales are recorded on books.

FINANCIAL HISTORY OF "I AM" MOVEMENT

Financial reports coming into the possession of the writer cover the period from January 1, 1935, to June 30, 1940. From such records it appears that the business of the "I AM" movement was at the beginning of 1935 conducted as a partnership venture by GUY W. BALLARD and ELNA W. BALLARD under the name SAINT GERMAIN PRESS. The proprietorship equity in the business was reflected in two accounts, one of which was known as the BALLARD PERSONAL ACCOUNT and the other of which was known as the SAINT GERMAIN FUND ACCOUNT. It is to be noted that the balance in the SAINT GERMAIN FUND ACCOUNT on January 1, 1935, was transferred to the BALLARD PERSONAL ACCOUNT. The assets of the business as shown by the books on January 1, 1935, amounted to $34,206.05, while the proprietorship equity in such assets amounted to $40,538.57. Schedule A attached to this report is a statement of assets and liabilities as shown by the records on January 1, 1935.

On March 24, 1936, the SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION was incorporated. More detailed information as to this incorporation is included under the caption "ORGANIZATION OF SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION" of this report. Commencing in July, 1936, a portion of the cash receipts and sales were shown on the books of the SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION and on October 31, 1936, a number of assets, liability, income and expense accounts were transferred from the books of the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS to the books of the SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION. From that date, the books, charts, and paraphernalia were for the most part purchased from the printers and makers by the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, some of such merchandise being sold by the PRESS to the ultimate consumer, and some being sold to the SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION at a price between cost and marked sales price and then resold by the FOUNDATION to the ultimate purchasers. The price at which such articles were sold by the PRESS to the FOUNDATION was changed from time to time sometimes retroactively, by adjusting the discount allowed. The FOUNDATION is a non-profit corporation while the entire stock of the PRESS was controlled by GUY W. BALLARD and ELNA W. BALLARD, and in this manner the profits and losses of the two corporations appear to have been regulated to suit the desires of the BALLARDS.

On December 12, 1939, the books of the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS were closed, and new books were opened for the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, INC., on which were entered the assets and liabilities appearing on the books of the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS except that the BALLARD PERSONAL ACCOUNT was transferred to new accounts titled CAPITAL STOCK, PAID-IN SURPLUS and BALLARD PERSONAL ACCOUNT. More detailed information respecting this incorporation is included under the caption ORGANIZATION OF SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, INC., of this report. A summary of the causes of change in the proprietorship equity of the "I AM" Movement between January 1, 1935, and June 30, 1940, has been prepared from the books and is included as Schedule B of this report. Sub-summaries covering the years 1935, 1939, and the first six months of 1940, have likewise been prepared, and are shown as Schedules B-1, B-2, and B-3. It is to be observed that the 1939 schedule includes the business of the unincorporated PRESS only to December 11, 1939, and the 1940 schedule includes the business of the PRESS, INC. from December 12, 1939, to June 30, 1940. This results in some slight distortion of the sub-summaries but appeared the most practicable manner of coping with the fact that no inventory for the PRESS, INC. on December 31, 1939, is shown by the records. Both the summary and sub-summary may also reflect a higher than cost value for the inventories as details of these inventories were not made available to the writer and it is understood from the bookkeeper that the SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION valued its inventories at the price paid the PRESS which is higher than what the press actually paid for the merchandise.

It will be noted from Schedules B, B-1, B-2, and B-3 that some of the receipts particularly in the case of contributions were not taken up through the profit and loss accounts but were directly credited to the BALLARD PERSONAL ACCOUNT or to Surplus or Reserve Accounts. MISS ANNA MAY MCGINNIS, bookkeeper of both the SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION and the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, informed the writer that this was done for the reason that some of the contributions or "LOVE GIFTS" as they were known were made personally to the BALLARDS and, therefore, were not income of the "I AM" Movement. Attention is also drawn to the fact that Schedule B shows an investment of $15,417.51 during the years 1939 and 1940 in houses located at 1620 and 1624 East 84th Place, Chicago, Illinois, which investment does not appear on the books as an asset but is apparently considered as a personal asset of EDNA W. BALLARD, inasmuch as the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS is now charged $50.00 per month rent for the use of part of one of the houses as an office which amount is credited to the personal account of EDNA W. BALLARD.

In addition to the benefits to the BALLARDS and the other persons under indictment as shown by accounts in their names on the books of the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS and SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION, benefits accrued to such persons which were charged to other expense accounts. Analyses of these expense accounts has been made and the benefits to Subjects is set forth in another section of this report.

SCHEDULE C of this report is a statement of assets and liabilities as at June 30, 1940. The following is a reconciliation of Schedules A, B, and C:

Net Worth January 1, 1938, per Schedule A	$ 48,533.57
Increase January 1, 1938, to June 30, 1940, per schedule B	537,153.96
	$585,692.53
Decrease January 1, 1939, to June 30, 1940, per schedule B	502,798.61
Net Worth Per Schedule C June 30, 1940.	$ 82,893.92

In addition to the net worth of $62,3[illegible] on June 30, 1940, as shown by the books it is to be noted that substantially all of the suspense account of $5,455.10 will probably be net worth inasmuch as this account reflects the amount of receipts concerning the source of which the bookkeeper has not been advised by Mrs. EDNA W. BALLARD or her secretary, B. G. MUNDY. What has been said concerning the probable valuation of inventory at more than cost is also applicable to this schedule.

WITNESSES, BOOKS and RECORDS:

WILLIAM F. CALLAHAN, Post Office Inspector, Los Angeles, California
THOMAS M. MULHERIN, Special Agent, Federal Bureau of Investigation, U. S. Department of Justice, Los Angeles, California

On August 27, 1940, there was turned over to WILLIAM F. CALLAHAN, Post Office Inspector, and NORMAN W. NEUKOM, Assistant U. S. Attorney, a number of the books and records of the "I AM" Movement, by Attorneys CARR and GILBERT on behalf of EDNA W. BALLARD and the other defendants. These records were supplemented on October 1, 7, 15, and 22, 1940, by further records turned over to THOMAS M. MULHERIN, Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation by CHARLES CARR, attorney for the defendants. All of the records obtained used in connection with the preparation of Schedules A, B, and C are listed below. Those turned over to CALLAHAN and NEUKOM are indicated by the letter "C" appearing before the record, while those turned over to MULHERIN are indicated by the letter "M".

In addition to identifying the records turned over to him by CARR, Mulherin will testify that he prepared Schedules A, B, B-1, B-2, B-3 and C from the records listed and will furnish information as to the source of receipts and disbursements as indicated by those schedules.

ANNA MAY MEGINNIS, 2112 Lyric Avenue, Los Angeles, California.

Will testify that she entered the employ of the BALLARDS as bookkeeper in May, 1935, and acted as such until August 24, 1940, and that she kept the Chicago Office records of the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS and SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, Inc., and the SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION from information furnished by the BALLARDS and B. O. MUNDY, their secretary, as to some cash receipts and disbursements as well as from purchase and sale invoices and checks. She will identify all records listed as being in possession of Post Office Inspectors except those kept at the Los Angeles Office.

JOHN C. KOSTER, 661 W. Jefferson Street, Los Angeles, California.

According to information furnished to P.O. Inspectors by witnesses, JOHN C. KOSTER kept the books of the Los Angeles Office of the St. Germain Press and St. Germain Press, Inc. KOSTER was indicted in this case but the indictment against him was nolle prossed. Assistant U. S. Attorney NORMAN NEUKOM stated to agent Mulherin that he would prefer to wait until time of trial to subpoena KOSTER for the purpose of having him identify the books.

B. A. JACKSON, 105 West Adams Street, Chicago, Illinois.

Jackson made a number of adjusting entries including the amount of inventory as of June 30, 1940. These adjustments were not posted to the financial records of either the SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION or the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, INC. The statements and journal entries prepared by him were turned over to Post Office Inspector CALLAHAN during the progress of this investigation and have been used by the writer in the preparation of the various schedules included in this report. It will be necessary for Jackson to explain that he obtained the information concerning this inventory and made the adjusting journal entries from records of the SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION and SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, INC. (which records are not now in the possession of the Government) in order that a proper foundation may be laid for the testimony of the writer.

ORGANIZATION OF SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION

The following information was obtained from the minute book and financial records of SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION now in the possession of Post Office Inspectors at Los Angeles, California.

On March 2, 1938, GUY W. BALLARD, EDNA W. BALLARD and HARRY N. ROGERS signed an agreement to become charter members of a non-profit corporation to be known as SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION. The purposes of the corporation which were set forth at considerable length are briefly to teach by word of mouth directly, through the radio and phonograph records, by the printed word and by other available means the doctrines of the "I AM" movement.

On March 24, 1938, the articles of incorporation of the SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION were filed with the Secretary of State of Illinois, and on that date Certificate Number 6674 of the Secretary of State was signed authorizing the corporation to carry on business.

GUY W. BALLARD, EDNA W. BALLARD and HARRY N. ROGERS named themselves the first directors and assumed office as follows:

PRESIDENT:	GUY W. BALLARD
VICE PRESIDENT:	HARRY N. ROGERS
SECRETARY AND TREASURER:	EDNA W. BALLARD

Financial records were not immediately opened for the SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION. The first of such records were opened in July 1938, showing cash receipts and sales. Other records of activity were kept on the books of the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS until October 31, 1938, when a number of asset, liability, profit and loss accounts were set up on the books of the FOUNDATION annotated to indicate that they had been taken over from the unincorporated SAINT GERMAIN PRESS.

The following balance sheet was prepared from the books of the SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION as of December 31, 1938:

SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION
Balance Sheet as at December 31, 1938

ASSETS

Current Assets:
Cash		$3,103.57

B. O. Mundy	2,000.00
Notes Payable	2,174.27
Sales Tax Payable	48.98
Total Current Liabilities		$4,341.85
Owing to Saint Germain Press		14,384.77
Excess of Assets Over Liabilities		14,831.15
		33,557.77

The excess of assets over liabilities is the amount allegedly earned from the incorporation of the FOUNDATION in March until December 31, 1938.

On July 18, 1939, HARRY N. ROGERS resigned as Vice President and member of the Board of Directors, and on October 4, 1939, the resignation was accepted and PAUL A. POTTER was elected to succeed ROGERS.

On January 19, 1940, DONALD BALLARD was elected to succeed his father GUY W. BALLARD, who died on December 29, 1939. The present officers and directors therefore now consist of the following:

PRESIDENT:	DONALD BALLARD
VICE PRESIDENT:	PAUL A. POTTER
SECRETARY AND TREASURER:	EDNA W. BALLARD

The SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION issued no capital stock and the members of the FOUNDATION were such persons who might be selected by the Directors. The minutes are silent as to the names of the persons outside of the directors who were selected for membership.

WITNESS, BOOKS and RECORDS:

Same as set forth under heading "Financial History of I AM Movement."

ORGANIZATION OF SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, INC.

The following information was obtained from an examination of the minute book of the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, INC. which is presently in possession of Post Office Inspectors at Los Angeles, California.

On December 11, 1939, a subscription agreement was entered into proposing to organize the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, INC. under Illinois law for the purpose of printing, publishing, buying and selling books, pamphlets, letters, cards, literature, periodicals, publications and printed matter, and musical and art work. The subscribers were LOUISE MAJERUS, CECILE J. MAJERUS, and PAUL A. POTTER.

On December 12, 1939, certificate of incorporation No. 24,424 was issued by the Secretary of State of Illinois authorizing the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, INC. to commence business.

On December 19, 1939, the incorporators above named, who were also the first directors, assigned their stock 500 shares to Edna W. Ballard and 500 shares to GUY W. BALLARD. Their successors as officers were not named until January 19, 1940, when the following were elected:

PRESIDENT: DONALD BALLARD
VICE PRESIDENT: PAUL A. POTTER
SECRETARY & TREASURER: EDNA W. BALLARD

Although the articles of incorporation authorize the issuance of 2500 shares of capital stock of the par value of $10.00 each, only 1000 shares were issued as follows on December 19, 1939:

GUY W. BALLARD 500 SHARES
EDNA W. BALLARD 500 SHARES

The minute book recites that in consideration of the issuance of the capital stock all of the assets and liabilities of the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, UNINCORPORATED, located at 1620 East 84th Place, Chicago, Illinois, and at 2608 South Hoover Street, Los Angeles, California, were to be transferred to the new corporation. To give effect to this authorization a journal entry was made on the books of the Chicago office of the corporation showing that the following assets were assumed and the following liabilities incurred:

BENEFITS TO SUBJECTS

An analysis was made of the various income, expense, surplus and drawing accounts of the ST. GERMAIN PRESS, the ST. GERMAIN PRESS, INC. and the ST. GERMAIN FOUNDATION for the period from January 1, 1938, to June 30, 1940, and from such examination disbursements on behalf of the following defendants (including GUY W. BALLARD) were ascertained:

GUY W. BALLARD	$14,978.55
EDNA W. BALLARD (includes amount spent for Chicago houses)	38,335.73
DOLAND BALLARD	35,288.02
BETTY O. MUNDY	5,658.10
FRANK VONDER HOYA	5,415.46
GRANT L. LEWIS	6,098.28
LOUISE MAJERUS	3,525.00

The disbursements on account of MUNDY, VONDER HOYA, and LEWIS were for expenses while they accompanied the BALLARDS on tour. The amount listed for LOUISE MAJERUS was paid her as salary for acting in a clerical capacity at the Chicago office.

The books coming into the possession of the writer do not show the disbursements made for the benefit of PAUL STICKELL and WILLIAM J. CASSIERE, who went around the country giving lectures and holding classes in the "I AM" Movement, or of CHARLES SINDELAR and PEARL SINDELAR who operated the printing establishment which published the magazine known as "The Voice of the I Am." However, copies of the income tax statements of STICKELL and the SINDELARS have been obtained for the period from 1936 to 1939, inclusive, and summaries of such returns are set forth hereinafter. Post Office Inspectors advise that they have received information from the Bureau of Internal Revenue that WILLIAM J. CASSIERE did not file any income tax returns.

As an offset to the benefits to BETTY O. MUNDY, she turned over to the ST. GERMAIN FOUNDATION on January 15, 1940, as a contribution, the $2,000 balance of a $3,000 loan made by her to the BALLARDS in 1935 and 1936.

EDNA W. BALLARD owns 500 shares of the capital stock of the SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, INC. in her own name and the only other outstanding shares are the 500 in the name of GUY W. BALLARD, now deceased, who left a Will naming EDNA W. BALLARD his sole beneficiary. It therefore appears that in addition to being the beneficiary of the $38,335.73 expended as above mentioned, she is also the beneficiary of the net worth of the Movement as shown in Schedule C of this report.

Synoptic analyses of the benefits to subjects above mentioned appear under their names in the schedules appearing hereunder:

BENEFITS TO GUY W. BALLARD

	1938	1939		Total
Meals	$3,333.10	$ 604.80		$3,937.90
Hotels	1,736.22	3,691.62		5,427.84
Expenditures for G. W. Ballard Charged to General Expense	$ 24.41			24.41

WITNESSES, BOOKS and RECORDS:

All the books and records set forth in this report under the caption "FINANCIAL HISTORY OF 'I AM' MOVEMENT" will be required as a basis for the introduction of the information as to benefits to subjects. In addition it will be necessary to introduce the certified copies of the income tax returns of PAUL STICKELL, and CHARLES AND PEARL SINDELAR for the years from 1936 to 1939, inclusive, which certified copies are now in possession of Post Office Inspectors.

Either Special Agents THOMAS M. MULHERIN or JAMES C. SLOANE can testify to the information set forth as to the benefits to subjects.

FAILURE TO REPORT ALL RECEIPTS

BETTY O. MUNDY, secretary to EDNA W. BALLARD, made semi-monthly reports to the Chicago office of the ST. GERMAIN PRESS and ST. GERMAIN FOUNDATION showing amounts received from contributions and from the sale of books itemized as to days and indicating the disposition made of such receipts. These amounts are in addition to the amounts transmitted directly to the Chicago office by mail. The reports of BETTY O. MUNDY show that some checks received from contributors and purchasers together with a draft purchased in Los Angeles, or any other city where they might be, are sent to the Chicago office and that a portion of the receipts have been retained by the BALLARDS to defray the traveling and personal expenses of themselves and their assistants. In each instant the amount of checks, the draft and the monies stated to have been retained exactly equals the amount received from sales and contributions as reported by BETTY O. MUNDY.

PATON B. CROUSE, former secretary to GUY W. BALLARD, states that the amount of contributions reported by BETTY O. MUNDY is merely the amount of currency and checks received in the collection boxes at "I AM" classes and that the checks and currency received by the BALLARDS while they were on tour were not reported by BETTY O. MUNDY or even handled by her. CROUSE states that it was the practice of GUY W. BALLARD to open the mail and remove the currency and then turn over the checks to him, CROUSE, to be cashed. CROUSE said that he would then hand over to GUY W. BALLARD the cash received by him from cashing such checks and BALLARD would retain all this cash in his personal possession and make no accounting whatsoever for it. CROUSE said that the checks which he cashed were ashed at the various hotels at which the BALLARDS and their assistants stopped. CROUSE produced three lists of checks which he stated represented checks cashed by him at Washington, D. C. in November and December, 1939. These lists show 13, 18, and 21 checks totaling $783.75, $899.65 and $764.17 respectively. CROUSE stated that he prepared lists of the checks cashed by him in each instant and that, with the exception of the three lists which were in his possession at the time he severed relations with the BALLARDS all of such lists had been turned over to EDNA W. BALLARD or BETTY O. MUNDY by him.

Post Office Inspectors made investigations at the various cities where the BALLARDS had stopped on tour and, where such reports were available, obtained from the hotels and/or banks lists of the checks cashed. The writer summarized such checks and compared the total ascertained with amounts of cash and drafts forwarded to the Chicago office or reported as having been retained by the BALLARDS, and, as indicated by the schedule set forth next below, the amount so reported exceeds the amount of checks cashed in each instant. Schedule follows:

* Cash in Radio Fund Deposits not included

In view of the above situation it appears that the only testimony of value to prove the contention of CROUSE would be his own testimony possibly supplemented by testimony to the effect that the following amounts are shown as having been received from GUY W. BALLARD, no record of the receipt of such cash being shown in the reports of BETTY O. LUNDY.

May 19, 1938	Cashier's check, 5th Ave. Bank, New York, No. 183,996	$1,000.00
May 19, 1938,	Cashier's check, 5th Ave. Bank, New York, No. 183,995	1,000.00
May 24, 1938,	Cash contributed to Song Fund by G G. W. Ballard	350.00
Dec.16, 1938,	Currency from G. W. Ballard	1,000.00

WITNESSES, BOOKS AND RECORDS:

The books and records listed under "FINANCIAL HISTORY OF I AM MOVEMENT" should be used as the basis of the testimony of Special Agent Thomas M. Mulherin to the receipts of cash and cashier's checks from Guy W. Ballard not shown as received from contributions in the reports of BETTY O. LUNDY.

PATON B. CROUSE, Aztec Apartments, 5126 West Washington Bd., Los Angeles, Cal. To identify lists of checks cashed retained by him, and to testify regarding retention of contributions as indicated above.

PORTION OF LEGAL CHARGES MADE TO SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION APPEAR TO BE FOR PERSONAL BENEFIT OF BALLARDS

As stated in another part of this report the SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION was organized as a non-profit corporation. However, as discussed below it appears that a portion of the legal charges paid by that Corporation may have been for the personal benefit of the BALLARDS.

PAYMENT TO EDWARD PRINDERVILLE

Journal voucher No.812 of the Saint Germain Foundation, which is recorded on page 11 of the general journal shows the expenditure of $1510.00 for legal services. This expenditure was made from funds previously received as contributions and mined by the BALLARDS. This journal voucher is supppрted by a memorandum dated Dec. 30, 1938, signed by G. W. BALLARD as follows:

"STATEMENT OF MONEY PAID TO EDWARD PRINDERVILLE, Chicago, Illinois.

Oct. 10, '38	Cash given Mr. Paul Potter for Mr. Edward Prinderville	500.00
Nov. 8	Cash paid in Washington, D. C. to Mr. Edward Prinderville	300.00
Dec. 1	Cash wired from New York City to Mr. Edward Prinderville—fees in Chicago suit	300.00
Dec. 20	Cash wired from Los Angeles to Mr. Edward Prinderville--expenses trip to Los Angeles, Cal.	300.00
Dec. 28	Cash given Mr. Prinderville in Los Angeles	60.00
Dec. 29	Cash given Mr. Prinderville as he left Los Angeles for Chicago	50.00
		$1,510.00"

Mr. PATON CROUSE, former private secretary to GUY W. BALLARD stated that the monies paid PRINDERVILLE in connection with the Chicago suit above mentioned were to defend a suit brought by a Miss Ingraham against the BALLARDS because of misrepresentations made by GUY W. BALLARD in the sale of some oil or gold stocks prior to the time he started the "I AM" MOVEMENT. Mr. CROUSE said that a portion of the monies paid was for the purpose of having PRINDERVILLE obtain better hotel accomodations for the members of the "I AM", and that the monies advanced for the Los Angeles trip were for the purpose of combatting a Dr. GERALD BRYAN who had written a book allegedly exposing the "I AM" MOVEMENT. Mr. CROUSE said that PRINDERVILLE is now dead. More detailed information concerning the Chicago suit is being obtained by Post Office Inspectors.

PAYMENTS ON ACCOUNT OF DONALD BALLARD'S DIVORCE

DONALD BALLARD was divorced from his wife MARJORIE BALLARD in early 1940. According to information received from Post Office Inspectors, the law firm of GIBSON, DUNN and CRUTCHER, and a Mr. Henry B. Ely of that firm represented DONALD BALLARD, and the firm of CLOCK, WESTMAN and CLOCK represented MARJORIE BALLARD. The books of the ST. GERMAIN PRESS, INC. and of the ST. GERMAIN FOUNDATION show the following expenditures during the period from January 1 to July 31, 1940, which appear to be in large part because of this divorce action:

GIBSON, DUNN & CRUTCHER	$4,876.88
HENRY B. ELY	1,000.00
CLOCK, WESTMAN & CLOCK	2,400.00
JOHN LINWOOD HARRIS-- Examination of Guest Document in connection with divorce	100.00
Total	$8,376.88

A complete itemization of the above listed charges does not appear among the records coming into the possession of the writer. However, it does appear from the records which are available that of the amounts paid GIBSON, DUNN & CRUTCHER $75.00 was for a will, that $40.60 was in connection with recording the articles of incorporation of the ST. GERMAIN FOUNDATION in the state of California, and that a claim of PATON CROUSE was handled in connection with the divorce action. However, no full explanation appears among the records as to why $1,761.18 of the above recorded expenditures should have been made against the SAINT GERMAIN FOUNDATION. The $8,376.82 above mentioned was charged on the books in the following manner:

On ST. GERMAIN FOUNDATION BOOKS:
To Accounting and Legal Expense	$1,761.18
On ST. GERMAIN PRESS, INC. BOOKS:
To Accounting and Legal Expense	581.94
To Expense Account in name of DONALD BALLARD	4,388.19
To Drawing Account of EDNA W. BALLARD	1,645.57
Total	$8,376.88

WITNESSES, BOOKS and RECORDS:

Either Special Agent THOMAS M. MULHERIN or JAMES C. SLOANEcan testify that the above information concerning charges made was obtained from the books and records listed under the caption "FINANCIAL HISTORY OF 'I AM' MOVEMENT."

FALSE PETITION FOR ADMISSION OF WILL TO PROBATE FILED BY EDNA W. BALLARD

Under date of January 17, 1940, EDNA W. BALLARD swore to and filed with the Clerk of the Probate Court of Cook County, Illinois a petition for admission of will to probate to which she attached the last will and testament of GUY W. BALLARD dated December 15, 1939, in which he gave and bequeathed to EDNA W. BALLARD all the property of which he might die possessed. The petition recited that GUY W. BALLARD had an estate the total value of which did not exceed $7,500, at the time of his death, December 29, 1939.

In this connection attention is invited to the section of this report captioned "ORGANIZATION OF SAINT GERMAIN PRESS, INC." from which it will be noted that on December 15, 1939, the capital stock of the ST. GERMAIN PRESS, INC. was half in the name of GUY W. BALLARD and the other half in the name of EDNA W. BALLARD, and that the BALLARDS had a joint equity of $61,414.51 in the business, half of which or $30,707.25 appears to have been the property of GUY W. BALLARD. Also, while the books were not closed on December 29, 1939, the date of GUY W. BALLARD'S death, it will be noted from an examination of Schedule C of this report that the BALLARD equity in the ST. GERMAIN PRESS, INC. (including both the Chicago and Los Angeles offices) amounted to $64,575.84 on June 30, 1940.

If it should become possible to introduce this evidence during the course of the trial the information can be shown by causing to be placed in evidence authenticated copies of the petition for admission of will to probate, which is being obtained by Post Office Inspectors, and having Special Agent THOMAS M. MULHERIN testify to the equity of the BALLARDS in the ST. GERMAIN PRESS, INC. as shown by the books of that corporation.

Volume of MERCHANDISE HANDLED and Test for POSSIBLE UNIT SHORTAGE

Information was received from several witnesses to the effect that the BALLARDS had failed to account for all the monies taken in by them. Special Assistant to the Attorney General RUFFIN asked, in view of this, that a check be made to determine whether or not it appeared that an accounting had been made for the various articles sold by them. A test check, covering the whole of the year 1939, and involving an examination of 6309 invoices together with purchase invoices and inventories was made. Such check revealed no substantial difference except the following shortages:

Phonograph records	1985 at selling price of $2.50	$4,987.50
Large Charts	271 at selling price of $15.00	4,065.00

Miss Anna May Meginnis, bookkeeper for the Saint Germain Press and Foundation stated that the above shortages were probably accounted for by the fact that during the latter part of 1939, the BALLARDS ordered the destruction of a large number of records which had been made by Mrs. Harry N. Rogers, soloist, after the latter's dismissal from the "I AM" Movement. Miss Meginnis also stated that 266 large charts had been destroyed in June, 1939, upon instructions of Mrs. Edna W. BALLARD because, in the latter's opinion, the red appearing in such charts was too bright and the use of bright red is condemned by the leaders of the "I AM" because "it emanates a destructive vibration."

As indicative of the volume of merchandise sold by the Saint Germain Press and Saint Germain Foundation the following list of sales for the year 1939 together with the marked sales price of such articles is shown next below:

In addition to the above listed merchandise there were some American Flags and some trinkets sold on which unit purchases and sales were not computed.

CONCLUSION

The investigative activity covered by this report was performed by Special Agents (A) THOMAS M. MULHERIN and JAMES C. SLOANE.

Special Assistant to the Attorney General RUFFIN and Assistant United States Attorneys NEUKOM and LAZARUS, who are handling this case, have stated that they may not use the witness B. A. JACKSON. As much of the information appearing in Schedule B, Schedules B-3 and C is based on journal entries made by JACKSON from records for 1940 which have not come into the possession of the writer, it will be necessary to completely revise these schedules in the event JACKSON is not used.

UNDEVELOPED LEADS

THE LOS ANGELES FIELD DIVISION:

AT LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA:

During the course of the trial of this case, which commences on December 3, 1940, descriptions and personal histories of defendants will be obtained. This information will be included in a subsequent report.

Will follow prosecutive action.

During course of trial, will obtain and examine books of TED DAHL Advertising Agency to determine amount of monies turned over to "I AM" MOVEMENT through that agency and the disposition of such monies.

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Dear Sir:

Recently Patrolman JAMES HIRST, NPA graduate of the Billings Police Department, reported to Special Agent W. T. GRAY of the Butte Field Division that there was being conducted meetings by a group of Billings women at the address of 3312 Fourth Avenue North in Billings, Montana.

Mr. BEN HAGERMAN, who operates a grocery store across the street from 3312 Fourth Avenue North, was contacted by Special Agent GRAY and Patrolman HIRST, and he advised that the house wherein these secret meetings are being conducted is owned by Mrs. B. F. MARTIN who resides at 43 Clark Avenue, Billings, Montana. HAGERMAN stated that this house is used as a meeting place for the "I AM" Religious Group, and is not used as a dwelling house. He further stated that his grocery store is also a sub-agency for the post office, and as such, sells money orders. In this connection, he advised that Mrs. ROY PATTERSON of 133 Broadwater Avenue, Billings, Montana, is apparently the secretary for the "I AM" group, and she occasionally purchases postal money orders at his store which are made out in care of the Saint Germain Press, Box 1133, Chicago, Illinois. HAGERMAN stated further that it is his opinion that these money orders are used for the purchase of literature for the group.

He stated further that the women are rather secretive in their meetings, and always use the back door of the house at 3312 Fourth Avenue North rather than using the front door.

Subsequent to the interview with HAGERMAN, it was reported by FRANK HOULE of Billings, Montana, to Assistant United States Attorney ROY F. ALLAN, that there is a pro-German meeting place located on Fourth Avenue North directly across the street from the Hagerman Grocery Store. He further advised, according to Mr. ALLAN, that pictures of HITLER and STALIN had been seen on the wall, and that the individuals who congregate there sing German songs.

STORY of the PURPLE CULT

Mystic "Fifth Column" in the U. S. A.

by Gerald B. Bryan

A Religion— or a Racket?

Concerning the issues of an important Federal court case, Norman Neukom, prosecuting United States Attorney, has said:

"This is NOT a religious prosecution. The Federal officials charged with the investigation and prosecution of the leaders of the I AM movement stand ready to protect all persons in their constitutional guarantee of the right of religious freedom.

"Nothwithstanding this constitutional guarantee, it is a violation of the law of this land to utilize the mail in the execution of any scheme intended to defraud, whether under the guise of religion, education, patriotism or any other movement."

In Achievement in Exposè Literature

There has never been in the United States a more extraordinary cult than the Ballard GHTY I AM"—nor has there ever been an expose more necessary and outstanding the one which is now ready for your reading.

erald Bryan has combined an in- sting literary style with accuracy tatement and a deep regard for truth. It will be hard to put this k down until its dramatic close. will lead you through a six- record of the weirdest and most acious plan of dictatorship over lives and liberties of others ch has ever been conceived. breathes of the magic and voo- sm of the jungle, yet these things e happened and are happening here in our own United States. lls of modern sorcery, demons, ees of death, magic formulas for lth, youth and immortality—and ctively exposes them. seems hardly possible that such gs could occur in the United es, yet this book is a true history e sensational cult, whose leaders heir political ambitions have sent ith decrees" against high officials ur government.

It Happens Only Once in a Lifetime.

Dear Fellow American:

Only once in a lifetime can such a book as "PSYCHIC DICTATORSHIP IN AMERICA" appear.

Here is what Morton Thompson in his weekly book-review column in the Hollywood Citizen News says of this fascinating, new book by Dr. Gerald B. Bryan:--

> "It is, of its kind, one of the most important books the West has published in some time.* The pages of PSYCHIC DICTATORSHIP IN AMERICA are as fascinating a revelation of a people, and of a cult movement, and of the pitiful spiritual hungers of the idle and the empty, as any comparable information you will find in Zola, or Hugo, or Dickens.
> "I can think of no book I could more conscientiously recommend to you this week. I sincerely hope you read it as a civic duty, as a sociological duty, as a sheer, preventative inoculation."

At no other period in the history of America could the combined influences--economic, spiritual, psychological--have given birth to the most amazing and extraordinary cult which is forced out into the light of day in this book.

When you are through reading PSYCHIC DICTATORSHIP IN AMERICA, you will know for a positive fact that the startling statements presented in the enclosed folder are absolutely true and that these things are now being brazenly foisted on the sincere but unsuspecting masses in America.

PSYCHIC DICTATORSHIP IN AMERICA is beautifully bound in dark blue cloth and is stamped in gold. It contains over 250 pages of fascinating information that is more amazing than fiction. Your copy is ready to go forward to you at once.

Yours very sincerely

Dear Sir:

You seem to have hit a snag; and as I promised to help in this matter in anyway I could, I will proceed with your permission to advise you.

The trouble lies in the fact that the Judge, the defendents and yourself lack in understanding of fundamental law. You have to have a common ground on which to meet and the only one in which you can meet and understand each other is the ground of fundamental law.

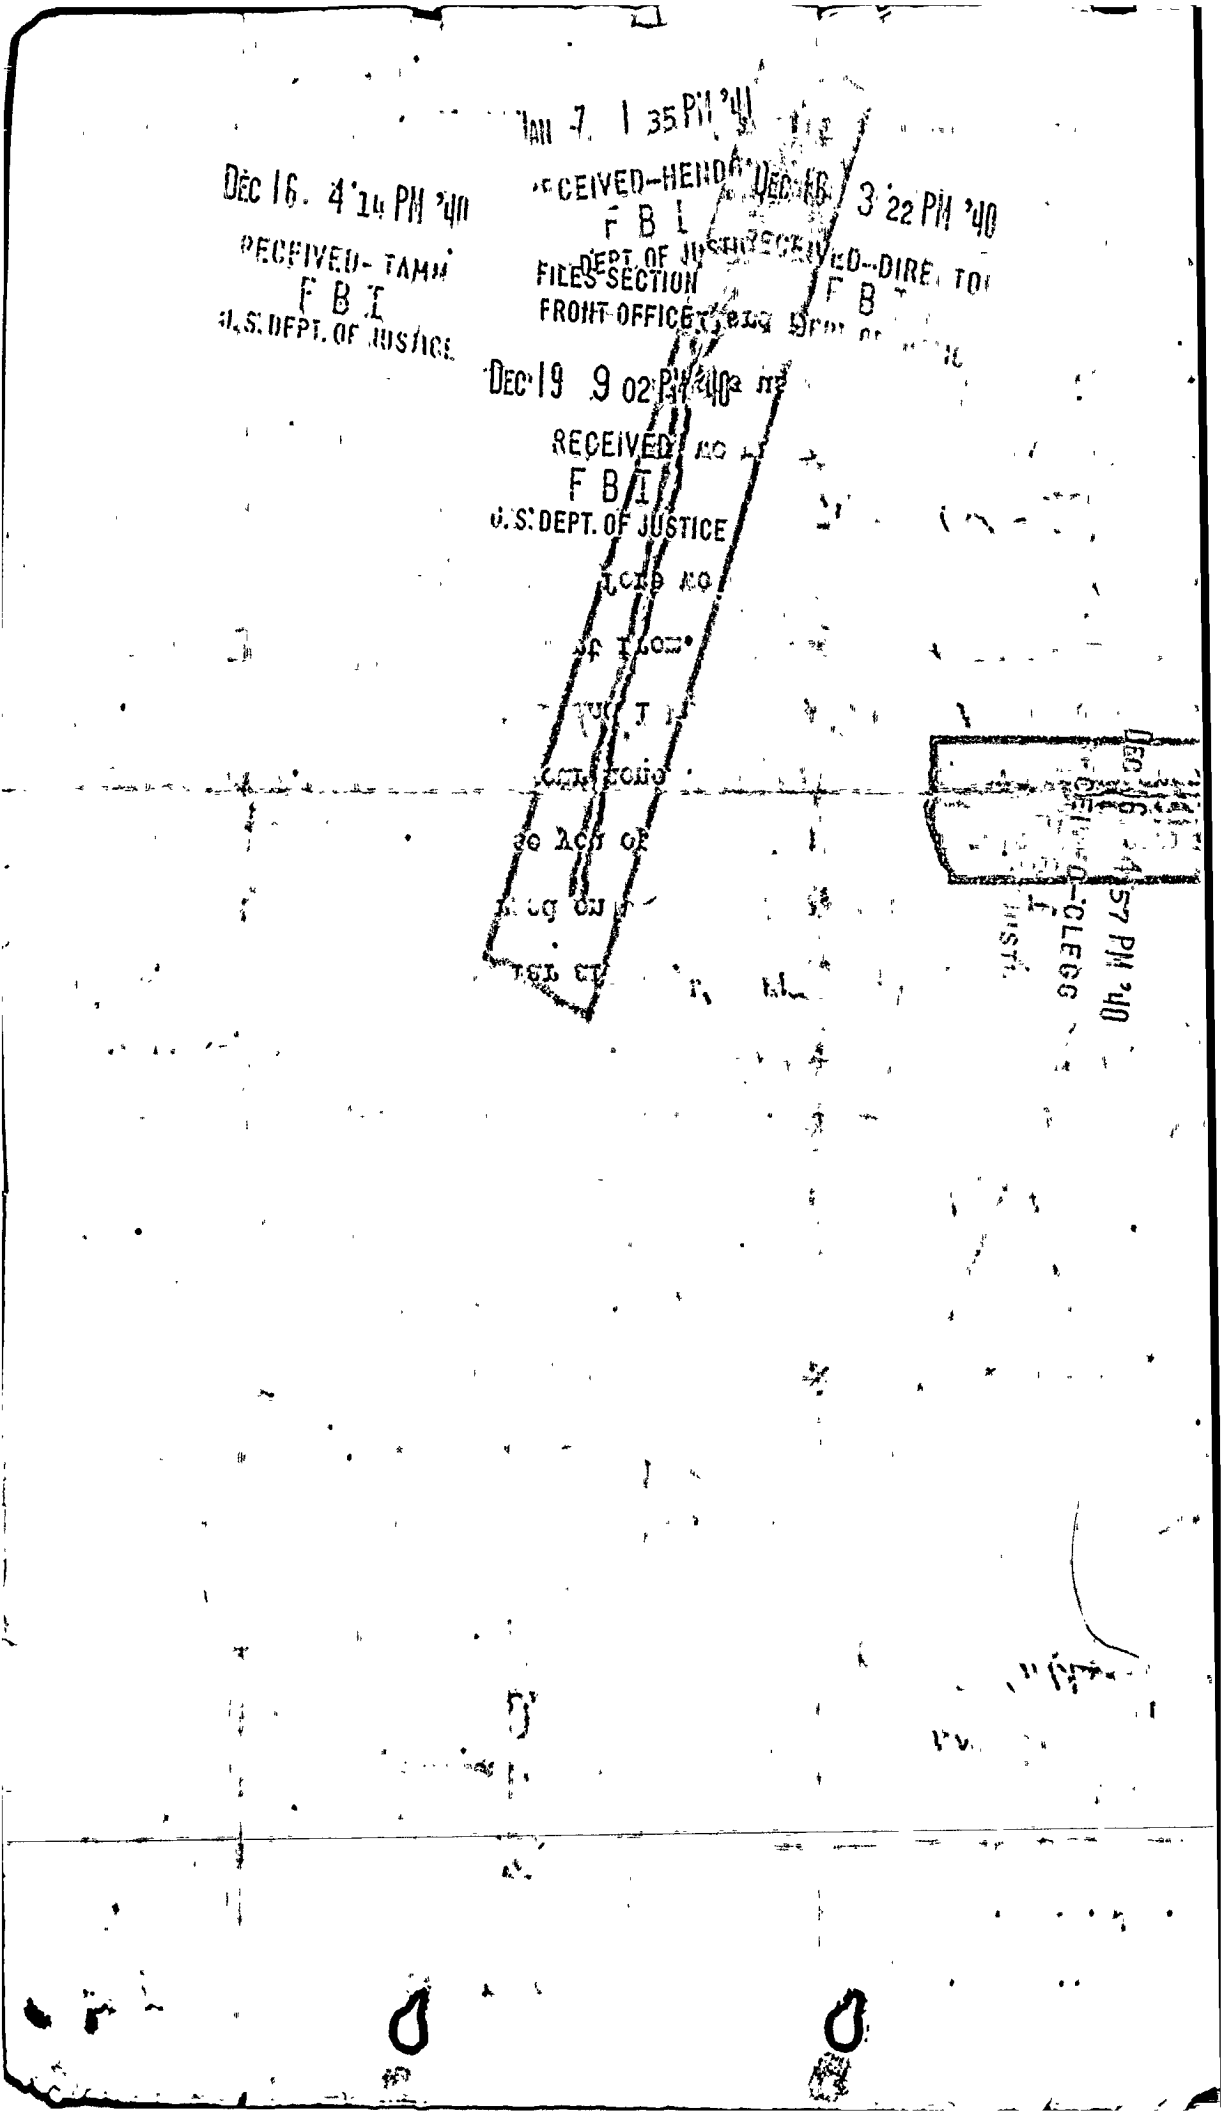

The Judge in discarding his judicial robes and donning a light suit is not in my opinion doing it to favor the "I AM " organization , he wants to make the situation as comfortable as possible for them , as he feels they are far afield. However he is going to see that you proceed carefully and not tread on the religious toes of any one, hence your verbal spankings. Suppose you open your day by addressing the court in in this manner. If it please your honor, I would like to have an understanding. It is quite apparent to me and I know it must be to all concerned that we must have a foundation to start from. This case of material fraud is based on Spiritual fraud and therefore we cannot ignore the Spiritual any more than we can the material.

Further we made a material accusation and they give a Spiritual defense, this obliges us to go into the Spiritual. Part of their defense is based on Mr. Ballard being the re-incarnation of George Washington and St. Germain, therefore we have the right to go into the re-incarnation. Taking a pseudonym as authors do, or changing your name as Mary Pickford did , is not re-incarnation as I will clearly define to the court during the trial.

It seems necessary that we have a mediator between the Spiritual and material, so that both may be understood , I would like to suggest the fundamental laws of life or natural laws if you perfer that term. The first fundamental law of life is that the "Seen " comes out of the " Unseen"; - the idea of fraud in the mind of man preceeds the action of fraud in the outer world, an idea cannot be seen but it is active and brings about action in the outer world.

I agree with your honor, that you cannot photograph the unseen but you can trace the seen object back to its source in the unseen. It is a natural law that every thing that is seen came from the unseen. Iam perfectly willing to grant there are unseen influences operating in the lives of every one. Iam perfectly willing to admit that Mr. Ballard was the re-incarnation of somebody else but Iam not willing to admit it was George Washington or St. Germain . Iam going to find out if it was either gentleman or both and there is a fundamental law to prove that by also.

As a foundation that will agree with all religions let us take natural law for our governing influence, then if we check all happenings in this case to natural law we cannot go wrong. Another fundamental law that should be considered at this time , no one can deny that human being and animal is carried in darkness a period of time before birth. That all seeds of life be it human , animal, plant or vegetable must be subject to a period of darkness before birth. All our food whether fruit vegetable or animal comes through darkness , the seeds in the earth to sprout forth to light , the animal in the darkness of the womb for a given time then forth to light through birth , that the blackness of night decends every twelve hours for the rest and restoration of man.

These are fundamental laws and no one can deny them. Who has the right to say such procedure is evil , if God found it necessary to man ? On this law alone I state the " I AM " movement are wrong in their superstitions on darkness and the color black. To aid them in conforming to this superstition is not helping them. Darkness has its constructive side and black has its constructive purpose in life. Neither one are distructive it is only when you misuse them that they become destructive.

Purple is a prominent color of the rainbow, who is to say that it has done evil to anyone ? I feel with your honor that a sense of humor is a saving grace but also that the rule of logic and reason should be exercised at all times in cases such as these , and that those instances that cannot stand the test of the fundamental laws of life should be ruled out.

Material fraud is the the outcome of Spiritual fraud. A person has first lost their Spiritual balance either by intent --- or influence ---- before they lose their material balance ------ The idea fraud in the mind preceeds the action of fraud in the outer world. These being facts I ask the court to establish fundamental law as our foundation on which to build JUSTICE for all.

I believe Mr. Neukom , this will straighten the matter out for you and get every one started on a proper foundation. I will be willing to help you in any way I can .

Sincerely,
E. LETA ~~HOSKINS~~

Dear Sir;
Although the case of the "I am" movement is now out of the hands of the F. B. I. according to my code of ethics you are entitled to the enclosed copy. If you will check my letter I believe it is the one dated Sept 23, 1940 you will find my prophecy on the situation in Roumania at this time has proven correct.

n view of that you should realize that some power of discernment, my predic
s to the Judges actions should work ou
lso. I feel the Judge will respond ac ~~addicted in that letter~~ if the evidenc is wisely presented.

If the "I am" movement wins this ca
e won't need an F. B. I. or any thing e e will all be under Nazi rule.

Sincerely
E. Leta Hopkins.

GRANT L. LEWIS, against whom the indictment was dismissed.

On December 3, 1940 a jury was empaneled and the case proceeded to trial against EDNA W. BALLARD, DONALD BALLARD, BETTY MUNDY, FRANK VON DERHOYA, CHARLES SINDELAR, PEARL SINDELAR, WILLIAM J. CASSIERE, PAUL STICKELL and GRANT L. LEWIS.

At the close of the Government's case on January 3, 1941, Federal Judge LEON YANKWICH dismissed the indictment against GRANT L. LEWIS. The presenting of evidence was concluded and the Judge charged the jury on January 16, 1941. The jury remained locked up from that date until January 20, 1941 when the Judge dismissed them after they had stated they were in hopeless disagreement. At that time the jury advised that they had reached the verdict of "not guilty" for CHARLES SINDELAR, PEARL SINDELAR and FRANK VON DERHOYA, and that they were in disagreement as to EDNA W. BALLARD, DONALD BALLARD, BETTY MUNDY, PAUL STICKELL, GRANT L. LEWIS and WILLIAM J. CASSIERE. The Judge then dismissed the jury.

During the course of the trial, the writer and Special Agent JAMES A. SLOAN prepared a number of revised schedules to be introduced in evidence on a theory that the inventory of June 30, 1940 could not be substantiated as the Attorneys for the prosecution had decided not to call the accountant, B. A. JACKSON, as a Government witness. Schedules were also prepared showing the benefits to the various Subjects, as well as the sale of books upon the part of Defendants STICKELL and CASSIERE.

Following the trial of the case, United States Attorney WILLIAM FLEET PALMER stated to the writer that he was going to leave the decision as to whether or not a new trial will be had to the Attorney General.

Disposition sheets are transmitted herewith as to all the defendants, including those already dropped from the title of this report, concerning whom an arrest record was found at the office of the United States Marshal at Los Angeles.

Descriptions of all the individuals against whom the case proceeded to trial were obtained by personal observation during the course of the trial and supplemented by information furnished to the

RE: EDNA W. BALLARD, W/AS ETAL
MAIL FRAUD

Dear Sir:

The Los Angeles Field Division is in receipt of a letter dated February 10, 1941, from WM. FLEET PALMER, United States Attorney, Los Angeles, with which were enclosed certain exhibits introduced by the defendants and the government into the trial of the above captioned case, which resulted in a hung jury as to certain principal defendants.

MR. PALMER has expressed his desire to have the Technical Laboratory examine the documents enclosed herewith. To accomplish this, Federal Judge LEON R. YANKWICH has entrusted these exhibits to the government until on or about March 5, 1941, when they must be returned. These exhibits are listed as follows:

1. Defendants' exhibit number 32, consisting of:

Six airmail envelopes, all of which are addressed to the Philosophers Nook, 15 E. Washington St., Chicago, Ill., Suite 718. These envelopes were postmarked at Mount Shasta, California, on the following dates:

September 1, 1930
October 24, 1930
October 24, 1930
September 5, 1930
October 30, 1930
October 28, 1930

2. Defendants' exhibit number 33, consisting of:

Several handwritten and typewritten letters, as follows:

Three page handwritten letter, dated Monday, 10:30, 8/11/30.
Two page typewritten letter, dated Mount Shasta City, Sept. 4, 1930.
One page typewritten letter, dated Sept. 29, 1930.
One page typewritten letter, dated Oct. 1, 1930.

3. Government exhibit number 110, consisting of:

Three page handwritten letter, dated Miami, Florida, Feb. 4, 1935, addressed to: Blessed FERGUSONS, and signed: The Messengers. The BALLARDS.

4. Government exhibit number 84, consisting of:

Three page handwritten letter, dated Pass-A-Grille, Florida, March 13, 1935, addressed to: My Dear Blessed HARRY, and signed: GEORGE.

MR. PALMER advised that defendants' exhibit number 33 is the most important, and consists of the above mentioned letters, all written in the fall of 1930.

MR. PALMER further advised that he does not believe there is much doubt but what all of the handwritten letters in defendants' exhibit number 33 are in fact the handwriting of GUY W. BALLARD. Government exhibits numbers 84 and 110 contain the known handwriting of GUY W. BALLARD, and MR. PALMER requests that the handwriting in these government exhibits be checked with the handwritten letters in defendants' exhibit number 33, to ascertain whether they were written by the same person.

RE: EDNA W. BALLARD, W/AS ETAL
MAIL FRAUD

MR. PALMER is of the impression that the Technical Laboratory might be able to express an opinion as to the age of the paper or type of the four typewritten sheets attached to defendants' exhibit number 33, and that the Technical Laboratory might have access to information which will disclose that either the paper or the type was not, in fact, written as far back as the fall of 1930, but was written at a later date. In case the Technical Laboratory would be in a position to ascertain that fact, such testimony might be material in the event of a re-trial.

The testimony during the last trial regarding the air-mail envelopes, described as defendants' exhibit number 32, was to the effect that the letters contained in defendants' exhibit number 33 were mailed in these airmail envelopes. MR. PALMER requests that the Technical Laboratory examine and compare the typing of the three type-written letters contained in defendants' exhibit number 33 with the three typewritten envelopes contained in defendants' exhibit number 32, postmarked at Mount Shasta, California, October 24, 1930, September 5, 1930, and September 1, 1930, and determine if they were produced by the same machine.

In case it is necessary to un-staple any of these ex-hibits, it is requested that each exhibit be stapled together again in the same order as received, and if possible, stapled through the same holes.

It is requested that the Technical Laboratory give the above matter their immediate attention, as it is very paramount and necessary that the four exhibits enclosed herewith be returned to the Los Angeles Field Office so that they can be delivered to the court in Los Angeles on or before March 5, 1941. It is further requested that the said exhibits be returned to the Los Angeles Field Office via airmail, special delivery, registered mail.

Dear Mr. President:

We recently had a trial here, as you no doubt know, concerning the O"I AM" Organization, and the jury disagreed. I understand that the records are being gone over to ascertain whether the Ballards and Company are to again stand trial on April 24th, or 25th.

Mr. President, I most sincerely hope that they must stand trial again for 'Fraud'. You have been trying your darndest to rid this country of Fifth Columnist and Communists, and all other kinds of 'Ists' and 'Isms', and the I Am's are the largest Fifth Columnists and Communists in this country.

It was brought out in the trial that Mrs. Ballard objected to any of her young men leaders to register for the draft, when the young men of our country were called upon for the draft. Not only that, but it was also brought out that they tried to force people to join their organization by placing fear into their minds. They also advocated a rumor that if you were again elected as President, that the United States would be destroyed. That is not all, they also claim that Mexico is in with the Axis Power, and that all Mexicans have orders to shoot United States Citizens first.

Do you honestly and truly believe it safe to have an organization like that to masquerade as a religious organization when in reality they are nothing but TRAITORS to our country?

It wouldn't surprise me in the least if Mrs. Ballard is also on Fritz Wiedeman's payroll, just Like Lindbergh and Ford. I wasn't surprised at all when I read in the paper that they were on Wiedeman's payroll. Anyone could guess that after the fine speaches they made about our country giving the Axis all the aid they need. What we ought to do is tie a rock around their necks and sink them in mid-ocean.

I hope Mr. President that you will see to it that the Ballards and Company again come up for trial, and I hope that the second time the jury will not disagree. Not only that, I see no reason why Mrs. Ballard shouldn't pay taxes for all her Love Gifts. Others, who do not have what she has, must pay their taxes.

An organization like that is nothing but a menace to this country, and our country should be cleaned out of all this dam graft business.

AN AMERICAN CITIZEN.

Result of examination:

It was concluded that specimens Q1, Q4, Q13 and Q14 were typewritten with the same machine and this machine is equipped with Underwood Pica Type, spaced ten letters to the inch.

It was concluded that specimens Q3, Q15 and Q16 were typed with a machine equipped with Royal Pica Type, spaced ten letters to the inch. The same typewriter was used to type Q15 as was used to type Q16, but no conclusion was reached as to whether the same typewriter was used to typewrite Q3, due to the limited amount of typing appearing on Q3 and also due to the lack of any definite defects appearing in the type characters on the envelope.

The Underwood typewriting impressions on Q1, Q4, Q13 and Q14 were made by a type which was started by the Underwood people October 8, 1924 and made until February 16, 1927. The Royal type impressions on Q3, Q15 and Q16 have been used by the Royal Company since March 20, 1921.

It was not able to be determined the year the specimens were typed nor the age of the questioned paper. However, it is suggested that possibly the hotel stationery be referred to the proper hotel which uses this stationery to ascertain whether there had been any changes in their stationery headings during the years in question.

With reference to the Underwood and Royal typewriting specimens, it might be desirable if possible to secure typewriting that had been typed on these machines from the year 1930 on. If this could be done it might be possible from such specimens to determine when certain defects took place in the machines, thus possibly establishing the approximate time when the typing on the questioned evidence was made.

It was concluded that Q2, and Q5 through Q12 were written by Guy W. Ballard whose known handwriting specimens are designated in the Laboratory's files as K1 and K2. As no mention was made of the pencil notations appearing on the inside of the air mail envelopes no examination was made with respect to these handwritings.

The Los Angeles Field Division is advised that the staples were removed from Q1 through Q16 and although there were other staple marks on the evidence, the staples were put back in the same holes from which they had been removed.

The submitted evidence is being returned under separate cover by air mail special delivery registered mail. Photographic copies of the questioned and known handwriting specimens submitted will be forwarded within the next several days, similar copies of which are being retained in the Laboratory's files.

In the event the additional typewriting specimens are secured the original evidence should be resubmitted at the same time the new specimens are forwarded to the Bureau for further examination.

their 1940 tax returns. At the request of Mr. NEUKOM the writer and Post Office Inspector, VAN METER, checked the records which the writer and Post Office Inspectors had obtained during the course of the investigation and turned them over to JOHN KOSTER, Los Angeles representative of the "I Am Movement", and obtained KOSTER'S receipt therefor.

A review of file Number 14,853 in the office of the United States Clerk of Court, Los Angeles, shows that on April 9, 1941, the Federal Grand Jury at Los Angeles returned a new indictment charging the six persons named in the title of this report with use of the mails to defraud. The scheme alleged is similar to the one alleged in the previous indictment. The new indictment contains eleven substantive counts and one count of conspiracy.

Assistant United States Attorney NORMAN NEUKOM advised the writer that no definite date has been set for the new trial, and that the office of the United States Attorney contemplates no definite action towards setting a trial date until after a conference is had with representatives of the Attorney General's office.

Under date of February 10, 1941, the United States Attorney at Los Angeles requested the Los Angeles Field Division to forward to the Technical Laboratory a number of letters introduced into evidence by the defense at the time of trail as having been mailed to EDNA BALLARD at Chicago by GUY W. BALLARD who at the time of writing them was assertedly at Mt. Shasta, where ST. GERMAIN allegedly appeared to him. It was the Government's contention that GUY W. BALLARD was not at Mt. Shasta at the time the letters were allegedly written and that he could not, terefore, have had the conversations with SAINT GERMAIN which he claimed to have had. The United States Attorney asked that the documents be examined, first to determine if they were in the handwriting of GUY W. BALLARD when compared with known specimens of BALLARD'S handwriting also forwarded, and second to determine if an examination of the stationery, the ink and the markings thereon would enable the Technical Laboratory to fix the time of writing--which might possible be at a time later than 1930.

The letters and samples of handwriting mentioned in the preceding paragraph were on February 13, 1941, forwarded to the Bureau with request that the examination desired by the United States Attorney be made. Under date of February 21, 1941, the specimens were returned to the Los Angeles Bureau office by the Technical Laboratory with the information that an examination indicated that the handwritten portions of the letters appeared to be in the handwriting of GUY W. BALLARD, but that a typewriting examination and an examination of the stationery did not establish that the letters must have been written at a later date than 1930. No conclusion was reached as to the approximate age of the letters. The Bureau asked that samples of the typewriting written from 1930 to date on the typewriters used to type the letters be obtained and that such specimens be forwarded to the Bureau for further comparison.

The results of the Bureau examination were discussed with Assistant United States Attorney NORMAN NEUKOM by Special Agent JAMES C. SLOANE. Mr. NEUKOM said that it was impracticable to obtain the further specimens of typewriting desired by the Bureau, and that no further examination was therefore desired. The letters were returned to Mr. NEUKOM by Agent SLOANE, who returned them to the United States Clerk of Court, who was holding them as exhibits.

MEMORANDUM FOR Mr. FOXWORTH:

At 10:00 P.M. SAC Peterson, Boston, telephoned and advised that the United States Attorney in Boston had requested information concerning one SALLY MANNAKEE and the "I AM Movement".

Mr. Peterson explained thatSally Mannakee, 301 Bennington St., East Boston, Mass., a rabid follower of the "I AM Movement" has been questioned by Secret Service agents for writing letters threatening the President's life. He said this woman is not in custody and that the U.S. Attorney wants to know whether the Bureau files indicate that the "I AM " organization, with which Mannakee is actively associated, is considered subversive or inimical to the welfare of this country's interests.

Peterson said that Sally Mannakee originally came from Kentucky where she went to Berea College, of which Mrs. Roosevelt is a memberc of the Board of Trustees but that Mannakee's parents kicked her out when she joined the "I AM " organization. She now works as a domestic in a Boston household for $4 per week and board but allegedly dresses well and makes frequent trips to New York, Philadelphia, Washington, etc. and travels first class. Her threatening letter to the President was written about June 5, 1941.

Mr. Peterson requested that any information in the Bureau files indicating the nature of this organization be furnished him in the morning by teletype.

Files section advised there is no record on Sally Mannakee. The file on the "I AM MOVEMENT" is attached hereto.

Dear Mr Hoover: - It is shocking & terrible that the resources of our country thru the F.B.I. - should be used for the persecution of religious groups - no matter how mistaken they may seem to be. You may not realize this is what is being done in the case against the "I Am" in Los Angeles but that is what it amounts to. Even in a war torn world with need of every person for more good & more of the Christ Light - anything that aims to uplift or help humanity has tough going. You should know that from your work. There are always plenty of people ~~[illegible]~~ ready and eager to flock to any crusade to run down criminals to run down among the followers of this faith whose teaching is joy Jesus & the Ascended Masters & which has brought joy & help to thousands in America. And what a sight it is - with cars against murderers & thugs & enemies of our country & society waiting to be handled - with taxes mounting to take care of the needs of defense - that any group that brings ~~[illegible]~~ betterment to our people should be subjected to such persecution. Dear Mr. Hoover:

As I am not exactly sure to whom this letter should be sent but knowing that your great organization is doing such a wonderful work by keeping on the heels of these Communists and Fifth Columnists and all other unamericans and as the following information has a lot to do with communists in my opinion,if it does not come within your activities will you please pass it on to where it belongs.

In a local news-paper just recently I saw an article,wherein the Post Office department was considering denying the use of the mails to the Ballard Organization known as the I AM movement, which I believe would greatly please the communists and all unamericans and it is my opinion that the communists are largely responsible for the most unfortunate conditions which have recently befallen the Ballards and their organization.

I do not belong to their sect, am just a humble true American Citizen,born and raised in Ohio, but being interested in the spiritual side of life try to investigate all spiritual teachings,expecting to gather some good from each, so I attended many of the earlier Ballard lectures and know from my own personal experiences that there never was or could be any organization who outwardly manifested love,who prayed outwardly for and really fought for America more than these same Ballards, They openly fought communism and all unamerican deeds and thoughts and even went into the strongholds of communism to fight them,records will show that they went to Seattle Wash,several times with really one purpose in view to laud God and fight atheism which is communism and did a good job of it.

surely there is nothing wrong in assisting in a financial way to help the cause along and I know that many people donated what they could as I did so that the attack upon communism might not only be continued but amplified.

If your great organization would investigate the disgraceful persecution of these people by communists around the country,here in Cleveland, Philadelphia, Washington and of course necessitating police protection In Los Angeles, you would I am sure agree that it is a disgrace to the religious aspects of this country.

If by any chance the mails would be denied to these people and their Christian work and the great flood of communistic and anti American literature in every mail allowed to continue, we true Americans seem to be wasting our time fighting for God and Democracy, to prevail in this great nation.

As I have such great respect for you and tha great work you are doing,sincerely hope that you will interest yourself as best you can in the cause herein referred to.

Re: SALLY MANNAKEE
"I AM" Movement
Internal Security

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to Bureau teletype of June 10, 1941 entitled "I AM" Movement, which was based on my telephone conversation with Mr. Holmes of the Bureau on June 9, 1941.

I received a telephone call on July 7, 1941 from Mrs. Robert Rutherford, Trinity Church Settlement House, 406 Meridian Street, East Boston, Massachusetts, who advised that SALLY MANNAKEE has been employed by her as a domestic for a considerable period of time. She stated it has reached the point where she does not feel she can retain SALLY MANNAKEE any longer. She stated SALLY MANNAKEE is so imbued with the "I AM" Movement that she is practically mentally unbalanced. She stated SALLY MANNAKEE will not eat meat and, in fact, will barely eat in sufficient quantities to keep herself alive. She also will not use certain vegetables which allegedly contain various types of vitamins, including vitamin B-1. Not only does she refuse to eat herself, but she has absolutely declined to feed the child of Mrs. Rutherford anything containing meat or vitamin B-1, although physicians have prescribed same for Mrs. Rutherford's infant.

Mrs. Rutherford stated she believes the "I AM" Movement is something which should be checked by the Government inasmuch as those who become imbued with its so-called religion are more or less fanatics.

I informed Mrs. Rutherford no action could be taken by this Bureau in connection with her complaint, and referred her to the Secret Service, which Department handled the case that involved the writing of a threatening letter to President Roosevelt by SALLY MANNAKEE. At that time SALLY MANNAKEE was thoroughly interviewed by Agents of the Secret Service.

The above is being furnished to the Bureau as a matter of information, and no action is being taken by this office relative thereto.

MEMORANDUM

RE: "I AM" MOVEMENT

The "I Am" Movement was conducted as a partnership by Guy W. Ballard and Edna W. Ballard, under the name of the St. Germain Press, from its organization some time in 1934 or 1935 until March 2, 1938, when the St. Germain Foundation was formed by Guy W. Ballard, Edna W. Ballard and Harry H. Rogers, who became charter members. The St. Germain Foundation was to be a nonprofit corporation. Briefly the purposes of this corporation were to teach by word of mouth directly, through the radio and phonograph records, by the printed word and by other available means the doctrines of the "I Am" Movement. On March 24, 1938, the articles of incorporation for the St. Germain Foundation were filed with the Secretary of the State of Illinois. The first officers were Guy W. Ballard, President; Harry H. Rogers, Vice President and Mrs. Edna W. Ballard, Secretary-Treasurer. These individuals were also the first Directors of this organization. On July 18, 1939, Harry H. Rogers resigned as Vice President and member of the Board of Directors of this organization and on October 4, 1939, his resignation was accepted and Paul A. Potter was elected to succeed Rogers. On January 19, 1940, Donald Ballard was elected to succeed his father, Guy W. Ballard, who died on December 29, 1939.

On December 11, 1939, a subscription agreement was entered into, proposing to organize the St. Germain Press, Inc., under the laws of the State of Illinois, for the purpose of printing, publishing, buying and selling books, pamphlets, letters, cards, literature, periodicals, publications, printed matter and music and art work. The subscribers were Louise Majerus; Cecile J. Majerus and Paul A. Potter. On December 12, 1939, a certificate of incorporation was issued by the Secretary of the State of Illinois, authorizing the St. Germain Press, Inc., to commence business. The Incorporators were the first Directors and assigned their stock in this corporation to Edna W. Ballard and Guy W. Ballard. On January 19, 1940, the officers of this corporation were elected and Donald Ballard was elected President; Paul A. Potter, Vice President and Edna W. Ballard, Secretary-Treasurer.

OCT [illegible]

Since January, 1940, this Bureau has received various complaints that the "I Am" Movement was engaged in activities inimical to the best interests of this country. Also numerous letters were received supporting this organization and claiming that it was an organization thoroughly loyal to this country. There have been complaints that this organization was Communist and on the other hand allegations that the Communists were trying to down the organization. Members of this Movement have been accused of being pro-Nazi and it has been stated that the Ballards were continuously seeing Nazi, Russian and Fascist spies and looking for them, and on many occasions when a foreign tongue was heard the Ballards would immediately cause the staff to return to their rooms. It has also been alleged that this organization objected to conscription and that it has created the impression that it was working closely with this Bureau in connection with un-American activities.

No investigations of these organizations were ever conducted by this Bureau. However, this organization was investigated by the Post Office Department in connection with a possible violation of the Mail Fraud Statutes. The accounting work in the investigation was performed by Agents of this Bureau. As a result of the investigation by the Post Office Department an indictment was returned by the Federal Grand Jury at Los Angeles, California, on August 23, 1940, against 24 individuals. This indictment alleged that a large number of people were defrauded through false representations, pretenses and promises. It is stated that the victims purchased books, magazines, pictures, articles and other paraphernalia offered for sale by the subjects of this indictment and were induced to become followers and accept the teachings and movement sponsored by the defendants, commonly known as the "I Am" Movement, and were induced to give, send, and pay money and give other things of value to the defendants because of these false representations.

This indictment alleged that Guy W. Ballard, who died at Los Angeles, California, on December 29, 1939, was represented by the individuals indicted to have been selected by the alleged "ascended master," St. Germain, as a divine messenger, and it was alleged that the words of the alleged divine entity, St. Germain, would be transmitted to mankind through the medium of the said Guy W. Ballard. The indictment alleges that Edna W. Ballard (wife of Guy W. Ballard) and Donald Ballard (son of Guy W. Ballard) were stated to have been selected as divine messengers through whom the words of the alleged "ascended masters," including the alleged St. Germain, would be communicated to mankind under the teachings commonly known as the "I Am" Movement. It is stated that these individuals represented that the various books which were written by Guy W. Ballard were dictated by St. Germain and sold under such representations. It is stated that Guy W. Ballard, during his lifetime, and Edna W. Ballard and Donald Ballard had claimed to have attained a supernatural state of self-immortality, which condition enabled them, and each of them, to be entirely free from ailments common to man, and to conquer disease, death, old age, poverty, and misery, which power or condition and supernatural state the defendants and each of them, represented they could and would transmit to others willing to pay therefor or willing to part with other things of value therefor to the defendants. It is alleged that all these representations were made for the false and fraudulent purpose of securing money or other things of value from the persons intended to be defrauded, and that the individuals indicted knew the representations to be false.

Although 24 individuals were indicted on November 4, 1940, the indictment against 14 of them was nolle prossed. On January 3, 1941, the indictment against one of the individuals was dismissed. Three of these individuals were acquitted and the Jury having disagreed as to the others, was dismissed on January 20, 1941. On April 12, 1941, new indictments were returned as to the remaining six defendants, and these individuals were to be brought before the court for arraignment and pleas on these indictments on September 8, 1941. It has been reported that since the death of Guy W. Ballard, this organization has gone forward under the auspices of his wife, known to the followers as Lotus Ray King, alias Chanera, and Guy W. Ballard's son. It is said that Mrs. Ballard was formerly affiliated with William D. Pelley before her marriage. Pelley was the leader of the Silver Shirt Movement.

Dear Sir. HAROLD LEE JOHNSON

My name is Harold Lee Johnson age 35.
addres 854 W. Adams. Los Angeles Calif.
son of Mrs Emma L. L. Johnson former Treasurey Invistigate present accupation of both myself & mother
Roominghouse & Boarding.

Catering to the I. Am. students. during Shrine classes, I also do occasional radio Servicing & elect.
Repairing.

ack 1/21/42 Regarding the I. AM I. Am. activity, I am not a student but owing to my above occupation, have had opportunity to hear quite a bit about their activity at first this seemd just another racket which L.A.
is blessed with so much of. but owing to the latest crisses it seems to me there is more to it than that,
this may not amount to anny thing but here it is.

1. Who is St. Germain.
2. Courses — (students have to start a beginners Class sort of weeding out.) he most allways asks the when he does he is promptly ~~told to get back~~ questions, —

Personal opinion: Some time ago (several years)
I saw picture of a rather plump ~~man~~ ~~Indian~~ gentleman

they are told or taught not to fear death but to look upon it as an accession, and when ever any of there members pass on they are immediatly cut off of line of thought that is they are considered acended, and are taught not to grieve (thus removing any sentamentality and building there fanaticism to a higher plane than mear physical.

They were prohibited from taking notes in class (thus removing the possibility of spotter ecd.) the lessons were supposed to be learned. Food: only ~~meat~~ Vegatables are to be eaten all Vilamans such as Bl ecd. are tabue; meat, fowl, fish ecd. anything with a head is not to be eaten, - since as they say every animal knows for some time before it is to die and by eating the flesh that fear is absorbed by the body.

There are estamated about 3,000,000 three million students, the - set of books which they must buy to be admitted cost around $12.00 plus the mouthley magaziens pictures, records, ecd. there are several pictures possibly 6 or 7 that cost around .50¢ .75¢ ea. they also have a bat called a chart which at first I am told cost around $150.00 one hundred & fifty dollars since it has come down considerable in price the teachers say everyone should have his own books as reading an other removes some of the power and if the person who borrows it has ill feeling toward the book the book ~~rubs~~ and this tends to destroy the power of it through the book- & the

this preach the power of the purple flame which is supposed to heal etc

They are to demand there right, as to wealth etc. - & perciptal money, - If they want a new car & demand it and Go and behold a car— etc. the ones that come in & the movement like this part and they have in one frame usually — their pict to below, with bags of money over, or around them which they set befor them when trying to perciptate. Wealth they are taught never & turn down money. as this soon builds up a wall around them. but to except all gifts freely and as if it were from the acended masters and not from the giver— (this often goes the wrong way or back fires & some extent, as sometimes one will get a pot for another or do some small favor and instead of the recipitant thanking the giver as a personal favor, the recipitant ~~refuses~~ thanks the giver or make no mention of it and this sort of goes against the grain, or the person will say — I decreed that the accended masters would do and so — and — just results —

They are taught that whatever the accended Master decree that is. What is to be — such as — I have had occasion & drive several of them from my place & there temple several times and as we would be going if we happend & get a Green light they would at once say — I decreed an open path all other cars & stop etc — one time I asked what if one car of Jains — Is going north and one car of Jains is they should get & the same time with the same Id

I will cut it shorter now as I have given le of my (~~pitiful~~) reasoning.
However it could sum up & that — beside being glorified racket could also in a much more sinister light be a grand buildup for, either sabotage, fifth column, or even spy activity, es if you consider the past information. also they re supposed to be a patriotic organization
But mrs Ballard more than once has said from her pulpit, — Blast the president
President Roosevelt, his family and all they stand for from the face of the earth for ever

And every thing the president did or does for defense. and even before that was criticized severely, this appeals to the members who are Republicans or who owning to the program are loosers in some way or another — from Florida whose husband is a contractor was with a co that did paving and when these contracts were let to W.P.A. etc. it ended —

she got sore — at the President —

this is to give just a summary of the mental and temperments involved —
I am afraid I am being very boring
however as I said — for what it is worth —

They also are instilled with some sort of

GGY GETS A POINTER ON SALADS FROM BOY-FRIEND'S CLEVER M

PICNIC POTATO SALAD

4 to 5 cups cooked potato, cut in balls, diced, or sliced
½ cup scallions, cut in 1-inch pieces
¾ cup celery, sliced
2 cooked frankfurters, sliced
2 teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 cup Best Foods Real Mayonnaise
Hard-cooked eggs, sliced
Whole radishes
Romaine, or other salad greens

Lightly toss together potatoes, scallions, celery, frankfurters and seasonings with Best Foods Real Mayonnaise. Place in refrigerator to allow the Real Mayonnaise to blend and develop the flavors of these salad ingredients. This makes your salad amazingly more appetizing. Carry salad to picnic in covered bowl or jar. (Save your empty, quart-size Best Foods Real Mayonnaise jars for this purpose!) Arrange salad on romaine or other greens in salad bowl. Garnish with egg slices and radishes (as illustrated). Serves 6.

Many inquiries ... to us regarding fish... the Jackson Hole country.

For the benefit of those contemplating this trip, here is a condensed version of an expedition undertaken by Jim Kitchen, his son, Albert; Ed Boyd and Maurice Staker.

They left Lake Henshaw at 7:30 a. m. and made Las Vegas late the same night. Leaving the next morning for Salt Lake City, they arrived at Yellowstone in the late afternoon. Here they picked up an expert fisherman guide, Eddie Exum, who knew the country thoroughly.

On the first day they fished Lake Hebgen where four limits of rainbow trout, averaging two and a half pounds each, were taken. These fish responded to wet flies, compromising gray hackle, brown hackle and black gnat.

The following morning, they drove an additional 30 miles to a private lake in Antelope Valley and again that evening were rewarded with four limits of trout from three and a half to four pounds each. Numerous five and six-pound fish were hooked into, but lost.

Early the following day they started out for the Snake River and Montana Lakes. They declare that without exception, they found this one of the finest fishing locations in the United States. There was a rise in every cast and some of the trout were of such size that they would break the leaders before they had a chance to fight them.

The next day they headed for Inland Lodge, where Joe Stewart, one of the hunting guides, took them out for their first elk trip. In this country, there are moose, elk, deer, black and grizzly bear. One has to watch himself at every step, as it's no fun to run on to a big grizzly when one's not prepared for him.

They hunted for two days. Each bagged his elk. The meat was packed carefully and carried back by the party in their cars. They arrived at Lake Henshaw with the meat in excellent condition and are heading back again shortly to enjoy this trip all over again.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. LADD

Reference is made to the attached teletype from Los Angeles to the Bureau regarding "I Am," religious organization, which has advised that the entire Pacific Coast is to be bombed, February 12, 1942.

At the instructions of Mr. Kramer, the writer conveyed this information to Colonel J. T. Bissell of G-2 and lieutenant Commander Rhea Whitley of ONI at 3:00 P.M. today. The writer informed both of these gentlemen that the information was being checked on and that the respective field offices of each on the West Coast as well as headquarters in Washington, D. C., would be advised of any developments of importance.

In regard to this matter Colonel Bissell stated that the War Department had received information that February 12th is the date that the Japanese have claimed that they are going to oust General MacArthur and take Singapore from the British.

Respectfully,

Attention: Lieutenant Commander Rhea Whitley

Dear Admiral Wilkinson:

Reference is made to the information furnished to Lieutenant Commander Rhea Whitley of your office, February 10, 1942, telephonically, by a representative of this Bureau, wherein you were advised that information had been obtained by this Bureau to the effect that the entire Pacific coast would be subjected to a bombing raid on February 12, 1942.

An inquiry of Charles Sindelar, owner of the Sindelar Studios, Los Angeles, California, revealed that the monthly publication of the "I Am" movement is published at his studio. Upon being questioned concerning the alleged rumor, Sindelar stated that he had heard nothing concerning this matter, and that he had held a meeting with approximately one hundred members of the movement on February 10, 1942, and that none of them had heard of this information.

Sindelar remarked that he attributes the circulation of this alleged rumor to enemies of the organization.

An investigation is being conducted by this Bureau to determine the extent of the circulation, and, if possible, to ascertain the source from which this rumor originated.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. E. A. TAMM

RE: I AM CULT

SAC Bryce of the El Paso Office telephonically advised that he had received information from Special Agent Ferris who is at Santa Fe that he, Ferris, had been informed by one [redacted] whom Ferris has found to be a very reliable informant, [redacted] that the I Am Cult is a Communist organization and is moving from the West Coast into the interior, that there are approximately fifty members of this cult presently in Santa Fe, New Mexico. Mr. Bryce stated that members of this cult have been coming to Santa Fe for the last two or three weeks and the El Paso Office has been watching them very closely.

Mr. Bryce advised that the local leader of the I Am Cult in Santa Fe is one Mrs. Dave Cholis (phonetic) the wife of District Judge Dave Cholis; and due to her connection with this organization, she and the judge are on the verge of obtaining a divorce.

Mr. Bryce stated that [redacted] informed her that the Communist Party had requested the cult to leave the West Coast inasmuch as within the next few weeks the Communists have organized for the expressed purpose of taking command of all railroad and blocking all highways with their personally owned automobiles in order to stop any travel along the West Coast and prevent the transportation of troops.

I told Mr. Bryce that the only information we had on this group was that it was a religious racket on the West Coast, that we had not received information that it was tied in with the Communist Party, but that there is a possibility that it might be tied in with the Communist Party and therefore he, Bryce, should follow this matter very closely, that all possible information should be obtained from informants with regard to this group, but that no investigation should be made. Mr. Bryce stated that he is sending another agent to Santa Fe to assist Ferris so that Ferris can devote most of his time to developing information from informants.

Mr. Bryce stated that he will submit a letter to the Bureau on the information obtained thus far and will keep the Bureau advised of all developments.

Respectfully,

D. M. Ladd

RE: "I AM" CULT,
INTERNAL SECURITY - C.

C #225,748

Dear Sir:

This is to advise that Special Agent THOMAS MYERS of the El Paso Field Division telephonically contacted Special Agent R. A. KNITTLE of the Denver Office on the afternoon of February 11, 1942, and advised that during the course of an investigation in California, it had been reported that the above-named cult had been engaged in subversive activities at the instigation of the Communist Party, and that rumors had begun that the cult is to destroy all railroads between the East and West Coasts upon instructions of the Communist Party; and, that a confidential informant at Santa Fe, New Mexico, had advised that the cult has been requested to block all highways and railroads with their private cars to prevent troop and material movements. It was also related that Mrs. DICK ABDIE, 49 Scoett Street, San Francisco, California, had received a letter from the headquarters of this cult, place not known, informing that the entire Pacific Coast would be bombed on February 12, 1942, which is a Japanese holiday.

Mr. MYERS stated that the Bureau had requested that certain members of this cult be interviewed openly concerning the above-mentioned rumors. He further stated that investigation had indicated that Mrs. EDNA BALLARD and her son, DON BALLARD, who have more or less recently assumed the leadership of this cult, are presently at the Brown Palace Hotel in Denver, Colorado, and it was indicated that they had received a telegram on the previous day and were possibly residing at the Brown Palace Hotel under the name of MUNDY.

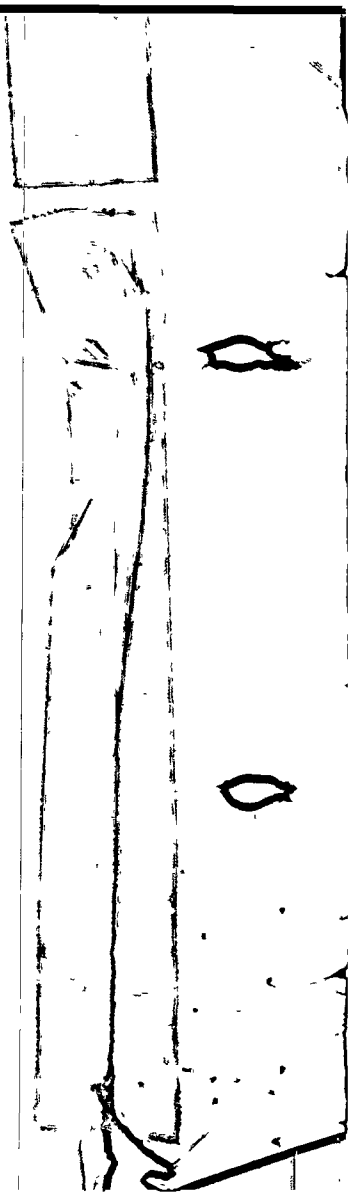

Investigation revealed that DON BALLARD had registered at the Brown Palace Hotel, Denver, under that name on February 6, 1942, and checked out on February 8, 1942; and, that a Mrs. G. W. BALLARD, together with a Mrs. B. O. MUNDY, had also registered at the hotel on February 6, 1942, and had taken adjoining rooms, having arrived at the hotel together. It was learned that both Mrs. BALLARD and Mrs. MUNDY were still registered at the hotel.

Both Mrs. BALLARD and Mrs. MUNDY were located in the lobby of the hotel by Special Agent R. A. KNITTLE and the writer, and were interviewed concerning the above-mentioned rumors. Mrs. BALLARD stated that she is the Secretary of the organization, and Mrs. MUNDY is her personal secretary, and is also a member of the organization. Mrs. BALLARD advised in the initial stages of the interview that she had been subjected to so much criticism and persecution by enemies of the "I AM" Cult that she did not care to answer any questions. However, after she was informed of the nature of the inquiry being made by this Bureau, she became very incensed and indignant, but stated she would also like to know the source of these rumors as there is no foundation in fact for them.

Mrs. BALLARD advised that the decrees of the "I AM" Cult have always condemned Communism, that they have always fought Communism, and have endeavored over the period of some nine years to make the American people conscious of the evils of Communism in this country. She stated that there is no organization, and that persons who participate in it are merely students who come freely and voluntarily to meetings which are held and which are open to any persons who care to come, regardless of race, creed, or color, and at the meetings the students are instructed in the proper manner of living so that they will be rewarded in the life to come. She stated that this organization is very patriotic, and in all of their meetings Americanism is taught. She advised that the rumor that the "I AM" Cult was planning or contemplating sabotage is the creation of some enemy of the cult and has absolutely no foundation in fact. She stated that the cult has so few friends as evidenced by the attitude of the entire population, and particularly newspaper writers, during the recent trial for mail fraud at Los Angeles, California, that she is unable to give even an indication of who might be responsible for starting such a rumor. Specifically referring to the letter that was allegedly written by the "I AM" Cult to Mrs. DICK ABDIE, she advised that no such letter was ever written, and that the only person authorized to correspond in behalf of the cult is Mrs. MUNDY, her own personal secretary, who, for the past several months, has signed all mail, and that she is quite certain that Mrs. MUNDY signed no such letter, nor does the cult have any information regarding the contemplated war activities of the Japanese.

She further advised that the "I AM" Cult has no stationery with printed letterhead, and that the only stationery used in the past several months is that of the Biltmore Hotel at Los Angeles, California, where she and Mrs. MUNDY resided and considered as headquarters.

Mrs. B. O. MUNDY was also interviewed in this regard, and the information she furnished was substantially the same as that related by Mrs. BALLARD.

The summary of the above facts was furnished to Mr. R. P. KRAMER of the Bureau on the evening of February 11, 1942.

No further inquiry in this regard is contemplated by this office.

Very truly yours,

G. A. NICHOLSON
Special Agent in Charge

REFERENCE: Report of Special Agent DONALD W. GERE, Denver, Colorado, dated 10-18-43.

DETAILS: AT CHEYENNE, WYOMING

Doctor GEORGE D. WHITE, 2519 House Avenue, Pastor of the Baptist Church of Cheyenne, and President of the Cheyenne Ministerial Association, advised that the Subject organization was not active in the State of Wyoming to his knowledge. Doctor WHITE stated that at some time in the past he had heard rumors of such an organization and advised that there might be a few adherent to the cult in this vicinity but that no organized activity existed in the State of Wyoming as far as he has been able to determine.

Reverend C. L. RODDA, Pastor of the Nazarene Church, Cheyenne, Wyoming, residence, 609 East 20th Street, Cheyenne, advised that he has never heard of the Subject organization and does not believe that it is active in the State of Wyoming or anywhere near the vicinity of Cheyenne.

Reverend PAUL L. FERGUSON, Pastor of the Assembly of God Church, residence, 320 West 23rd Street, Cheyenne, Secretary of the Cheyenne Ministerial Association, advised that he had heard of the movement several years ago but that no activity of an organized nature has ever come to his attention.

No record of the Subject organization could be located at the Laramie County Sheriff's Office or the Cheyenne, Wyoming, Police Department.

concerning the I AM CULT to Patrolman HIRST and Special Agent W.T. GRAY of this Bureau that he had maintained a close watch on the activities of the I AM CULT. He stated that he had not developed any additional information.

HAGERMAN related that the following individuals were members of the I AM organization, namely, Mr. and Mrs. ROY PATTERSON, 135 Broadwater Street, Mr. PATTERSON being a Certified Public Accountant; Mr. and Mrs. ROSCOE WARD, 220 Locust Avenue, Mr. WARD being Secretary and Credit Manager of the Charboneau Motor Company; Mr. and Mrs. HEWES HARRIS, 1045 N 30th Street, Mr. HARRIS being an osteopath, and Miss PATRICIA BUCHANAN, 911 2nd Street W, Miss BUCHANAN being a music teacher.

Continuing HAGERMAN informed that all of the above persons are middle aged and that they have all resided at Billings, Montana, for many years. He stated he knows the PATTERSONS, the WARDS and Miss BUCHANAN personally, and informed that in his opinion they are entirely 100 per cent loyal Americans, and he stated he felt sure their loyalty was unquestionable, however, he characterized these persons as being religious fanatics who allowed their imaginations to run away with them.

Mr. HAGERMAN further informed that he has talked on many occasions to Mrs. PATTERSON, Mrs. WARD and Miss BUCHANAN in an attempt to discuss the present war in an effort to ascertain their views. He stated in this connection that at no time have any of the three persons mentioned given him any indication that they are not loyal American citizens. Mr. HAGERMAN informed further that he would continue to attempt to obtain additional information.

Chief of Police VAL LECHNER was interviewed concerning the PATTERSONS, the WARDS and Miss BUCHANAN, and Chief LECHNER informed that he had known all of them for a period of over twenty years and stated that in his opinion they are all entirely loyal American citizens. He stated he could not comment on their religious views as he has had no knowledge concerning the I AM organization.

Mr. BEN F. MARTIN of the Martin Lumber Company advised his wife owns the home at 3312 4th Avenue North, which she rents to the I AM CULT. He stated that the monthly rental is paid on various occasions by Mrs. WARD or by Mrs. PATTERSON. According to Mr. MARTIN, he has known Mrs. PATTERSON and Mrs. WARD for a number of years and has engaged them in conversation concerning the present world conflict, and has found them to be entirely loyal Americans. Mr. MARTIN stated that he has been in the house at 3312 4th Avenue North on many occasions to do repair work, and stated that each time he has made it a point to note what is contained in the home. He stated that outside of a little literature, he has not noted anything of a suspicious nature. According to Mr. MARTIN, this cult has an American flag in the room at all times.

In conclusion Mr. MARTIN informed that he, in the event anything of a suspicious nature comes to his attention, would immediately advise the Butte Office.

REVEREND H.H. FOX, 224 Lewis Avenue, retired Methodist Minister, and REVEREND H. MOORMAN, 4th and Division Streets, Baptist Minister, both churches being in the near proximity of the I AM home, 3312 4th Avenue North, were interviewed concerning instant organization. However, both advised that they knew of the organization but knew very little concerning it.

Mr. WARNAHA of the Warnaha Drugstore, which is located across the street from 3312 4th Avenue North, advised that he has been interested in the activities of the organization for the past two years and stated that inasmuch as he more or less knew the members, it was his opinion that there was no subversive activities connected with the organization. Mr. WARNAHA also informed that all of the members were middle aged and he characterized them as religious fanatics.

The records of the Billings Credit Adjustment Bureau were checked concerning each of the members of the I AM CULT, at which time it was noted that all the members enjoy good credit records.

DENNIS O'BRIEN, Clerk of Local Draft Board No. 2, Billings, Montana, informed he has known all members of the cult for many years and stated that in his opinion all the members were fanatics on religion but were entirely loyal Americans.

Mr. EARL CLINE, United States Commissioner and a prominent member of the Masons Lodge at Billings, Montana, informed that he has known all of the members of the I AM CULT for many years. He stated that at the time he was active Secretary of the Masonic Lodge, approximately two and one-half years ago, that the I AM CULT held several meetings in the Masonic Temple at Billings. He stated that both PATTERSON, WARD and HARRIS have all resided in the city of Billings for many years and in his opinion all the members are fanatics on religion but are loyal Americans.

Continuing he stated that he has on various occasions discussed the Subject of religion with ROSCOE WARD and that in these discussions WARD has never indicated that his sympathies are anything but American. He stated further that on these occasions WARD has stated to him his religious views and beliefs and that he feels that WARD and other members of the organization have religion deeply rooted in their systems.

In conclusion Mr. CLINE stated he does not know HARRIS very well but stated he would vouch for his Americanism.

On January 6, 1944, Mr. BEN F. MARTIN was recontacted at which time he informed that since last being contacted by Agent, he had paid more attention to the home, however, he informed that he has noticed nothing of a subversive nature at the home at 3312 4th Avenue North.

that she had known both Mr. and Mrs. BALLARD who have been the leaders of the "I AM" CULT for many years. She stated that prior to Mr. BALLARD'S death he had been very fair and sincere in his religious viewpoints and teachings, however, Mrs. SMITH stated that Mrs. BALLARD was not sincere and that she had become "money crazy." Mrs. SMITH stated she became interested in the "I AM" CULT in 1935 and that until approximately one year and a half ago Mrs. SCOTT JONES had been leader of the organization in Salt Lake City. Mrs. JONES, according to Informant, was a very intellectual, fair and high-type person. According to Mrs. SMITH, Mrs. JONES had give up the leadership of this group inasmuch as the organization had become more interested in financial schemes than they were in the basic religious plans of this organization. Mrs. SMITH stated she knew of no members in this organization who are now here who have ever been against the best interest of this country. This group, according to Mrs. SMITH, is one hundred per cent back of the American Constitution; that they always wear the flag over their hearts and advocate that America must lead this world back to civilization.

According to Mrs. SMITH the only things she knew of about the organization that might be considered subversive would be the fact that they believe and prophesy that there will be a world upheaval eventually. Because of this they believe that material things, including money, will be of little value, or at any rate will have little exchange value. It is possible, according to Mrs. SMITH, that someone may have misinterpreted the prophesy above mentioned with regard to statements that War Bonds woul have no value. Mrs. SMITH was impressed with Mrs. BALLARD'S will to obtain finances from the members of the organization and stated that many people left the organization for this reason.

According to Mrs. SMITH, RAY KING HUGHES is now the present leader and that he knew HUGHES to be a religious fanatic but a person who would not be against the best interests of this country.

Mrs. SCOTT JONES, 1740 Hubbard Avenue, advised that she had been leader of the "I AM" CULT for many years, however, she advised that approximately one year and a half ago she had given up the leadership of this group and at that time RAY KING HUGHES had been the local leader.

Mrs. JONES stated that since giving up the leadership of this group she has attended very few meetings inasmuch as she is disliked by the present group. She stated she has never heard any member of this group make any statements against the best interests of this country nor does she know of any principles advocated by the organization which could be considered seditious or in any way against this country.

She advised that in Salt Lake City, Utah and many other parts of the country this organization is degenerating and becoming very weak because of the present leadership of Mrs. BALLARD. Mrs. JONES mentioned various schemes that had been used by Mrs. BALLARD for obtaining money. She advised that a great many books, pins, rings, vases and other things advocated for various rituals have been sold to various members by Mrs. BALLARD at great profit. She advised that she felt the organization under the leadership of Mrs. BALLARD had become merely a financial venture; that Mrs. BALLARD was no longer interested in the fundamental principles as set out in the original books of the organization. According to Mrs. JONES there are only two things she knows about the organization which might be against the best interests of the country. She advised that she knew the organization was at one time against the practice of innoculations for various diseases and that they prophesied that great changes were about to take place and consequently that money and other material things of the present may have no value in the near future. Mrs. JONES advised that as long as she was leader of the Salt Lake City Group and so far as she knows at the present time there is no one in Salt Lake City who is a member of this group for any purpose other than religious purposes. The group in the main spend their time studying the book "I AM DISCOURSE." According to Mrs. JONES there is nothing in this book that would hurt anyone and nothing in it against the best interest of this country. Mrs. JONES advised she knew of her own knowledge that the group at the present time is not against war so far as fighting to defend the principles of this country is concerned.

Mrs. JONES stated that she knows the organization has no basis for being against buying war bonds except for the fact that they think that the great change which is to take place will make money and other things worhtless. Mrs. JONES advised that she knew the present leader RAY KING HUGHES and that she knew him to be a religious fanatic that was born and raised in Provo, Utah. According to Mrs. JONES he became interested in the "United Order Group" in Salt Lake City, Utah several years back and then became interested in the "I AM" CULT and because of his belief in this organization went to Los Angeles, California to live. Approximately two years ago, at the time Mrs. BALLARD was in Los Angeles and advocated that all followers of the "I AM" CULT leave the coast for inland cities because of the difficulties that were to come up on the coast, HUGHES came back to Salt Lake City. Mrs. JONES advised that inasmuch as she had been disgusted in the organization just prior to this time because of the many requests for money, the organization had discontinued meeting in Salt Lake City.

HUGHES contacted Mrs. JONES upon his return to Salt Lake City, obtained chairs, furniture, articles for the ritual, etc. from Mrs. JONES and started to hold meetings again.

According to Mrs. JONES, HUGHES has a group of approximately fifteen or twenty people who are active in the organization now, as compared with seventy-five, two years ago when she was a member of the organization in Salt Lake City. Mrs. JONES, stated that she is familiar with all of the present members and knows them to be a group of elderly individuals who are religious fanatics. To Mrs. JONES' knowledge none of these individuals could be considered subversive and because of their age and beliefs she advised that none of them could be considered dangerous to the better interests of this country.

Inasmuch as the above information indicates that there is nothing being done by the organization in Salt Lake City which could be considered subversive and since there is nothing to indicate that any seditious statements have been made by any members in this Field Division, this case is being referred upon completion to office of origin.

PEARL DIEHL (phonetic) had recently returned from Washington, D. C., where she had been working in "Communications". (Informant could not advise what was meand by the term "Communications"). DIEHL is reported to have recently published 10,000 copies of a book entitled "I AM, THE DESTINY OF THE UNITED STATES". DIEHL has been barred from meetings of the "I AM" backed by BALLARD due to her activity in writing this book, but has advised that she still believes in the "I AM" movement or similar work and has gone to San Francisco where she intends to start a new movement.

Informant also stated that a man by the name of TERRAR, who was Mrs. BALLARD's radio announcer at one time is now a captain in the Intelligence Division of the U. S. Army and is coming west in the near future and will join PEARL DIEHL in San Francisco. Informant further advised that Mrs. Ballard had threatened to publish the names of some members of the movement who were very prominent in public life if she were convicted at her trial in Los Angeles. This statement concerning Mrs. BALLARD's intention was made by a man in company with his attorney at the time of her trial and was heard by the informant and others at that time.

On March 10, 1944, RAY A. EDWARDS, head of the Personnel Department, San Diego Gas and Electric Company, advised that JESSIE WEISEMAN and HAZEL DAVIS were presently employed by that company, DAVIS in the position of supervisor and WEISEMAN in the Billing Department. EDWARDS also stated that MARY HURLEY, a former employee who was connected with the "I AM" movement, left about three weeks ago and is now believed to be in the State of Colorado.

PHILLIP A. BAILEY, Auditor, San Diego Gas and Electric Company, stated that JESSIE WEISEMAN brought the "I AM" Movement into the company in the first place several years ago and presented it as an idea of advancing religion. She influenced HAZEL DAVIS to adhere to some of the principles of the movement but DAVIS later had some difficulty with her husband over the movement and dropped it and is not now believed to have any connection whatsoever with the movement.

It was stated by the informant that DAVIS and WEISEMAN do not now appear to be on friendly terms and apparently have nothing to do with each other. Mr. BAILEY advised that JESSIE WEISEMAN has had no leave since 1933 which would permit her to go to Colorado and that HAZEL DAVIS had been on sick leave during 1942 and was gone about three and one-half months from the company but he has reason to believe she did not leave San Diego. BAILEY stated that at the outset when he noticed JESSIE WEISEMAN's activities in the company she was warned to desist and advised that such campaigning would not be condoned at the premises of the San Diego Gas and Electric Company.

BAILEY gave the following information concerning WEISEMAN and DAVIS:

MAXINE DAVIS

Address:	4639 Mississippi
Salary:	$165 per month
Birthdate:	May 28, 1900
Birthplace:	LaSeur, Minnesota
Height:	5' 6"
Weight:	125
Complexion:	Dark
Employed:	May 28, 1926 as PBX operator—still in that position.

JESSIE WEISEMAN

Address:	2427 5th Avenue, San Diego
Salary:	$135 per month
Birthdate:	March 19, 1909, New York City
Height:	5' 10"
Weight:	138
Eyes:	Blue
Hair:	Blond
Employed:	October 7, 1933 to July 7, 1941 as PBX operator and on the latter date transferred to the Billing and Collection office where she is presently working.

BAILEY stated that Miss WEISEMAN apparently took up the "I AM" movement after she came into the company and that it appears to have made a deep impression upon her, the extent of which is evidenced by the fact that she wears only certain colors presumed to be in harmony with her personality and has the habit of attempting to absorb a great amount of light in order to strengthen her qualities of "radiation".

E. J. WRIGHT, Assistant Superintendent, Collection Department, stated that JESSIE WEISEMAN had recently lost her mother, who was reported to be the leader of the "I AM" movement in San Diego and that Miss WEISEMAN is taking over her mother's work as the local leader. He stated that she had received numerous contributions for the movement at the Gas and Electric Office although she was not permitted to actively engage in any campaigning or soliciting in furtherance of the movement. He further stated that Miss WEISEMAN showed no distress whatsoever in the death of her mother in the belief that her mother was merely departed and that she actually seemed relieved after her mother's death. Mr. WRIGHT also stated that the company is fully cognizant of the activities of Miss WEISEMAN, although she is considered somewhat "queer" in that she has no close friends in the company, apparently enjoys no social life whatsoever and yet seeks the company and converses easily with the men employees of the company.

A check of the indices of the San Diego Police Department and Sheriff's Office, the files of Confidential Informant [redacted] and [redacted] was made without result. b7D

A check of the files of Confidential Informant [redacted] indicated that REX RAYMOND DAVIS and wife, HAZEL MAE, reside at 4639 Mississippi Street; that DAVIS is a truck driver for the City Street Department and Mrs. DAVIS is employed by the San Diego Gas and Electric Company. No derogatory information is contained in that file.

information, MRS. BALLARD conducted an extensive school in Denver and then proceeded to Chicago for a seven-weeks class, running through Christmas and January of 1944. T-1 advised that MRS. BALLARD has manifested plans for acquiring some property in the mountains near Santa Fe, New Mexico and there, building quarters where schools for the "IM AM " youth may be held in the future . These plans are still pending and no definite action has been taken.

According to T-1, the "I AM"youth have recently begun publication of a pamphlet called "I AM ASCENDED MASTER YOUTH IN ACTION" which is published by Miracles, Incorporated, Denver, Colorado; further, that the "I AM" youth have held meetings at the Wild Bason Lodge between Denver and Estes Park, Colorado. T-1 states that the youth movement includes youth up to and including thirty years of age.

T-1 has been advised that the membership in Santa Fe, New Mexico remains at approximately five hundred individuals. T-1 has received no information indicating that the group in Santa Fe have engaged in any activities which might be termed anti-American, or that MRS. BALLARD has made any statements to the group which could be termed un-American.

By letter dated October 6, 1943, the Chicago Office advised that they had received information from a complainant to the effect that the "I AM" group were supposed to achieve their purpose in obtaining members by giving drugs to prospective members. This information was discussed with Confidential Informant T-2, who stated that she had never heard of the "I AM" group engaging in such activity, but stated that she had heard MRS. BALLARD instruct the members not to eat in restaurants as the food was drugged. T-2 had no further information concerning this matter. T-2 is in constant contact with members of the "I AM" cult and advised she had received no information indicating that that group is presently engaged in anti-American activities or that MRS. BALLARD has made statements indicating anti-American sympathies.

This office was further advised that BALLARD registered at the West Virginian Hotel, room 606, on the night of April 15, 1944; that he is an Air Corps Cadet stationed at Concord State Teachers College, Athens, West Virginia. Since that date it is our information that he has been transferred to Camp Pickett, Virginia to the Infantry Division.

At the time this information was furnished to this office an inquiry was made at the Concord State Teachers College, Athens, West Virginia, to determine if BALLARD actually was an Air Corps Cadet, at which time it was learned that he had been transferred to Camp Pickett, Virginia. BALLARD'S mother, according to information received at the college, is EDNA M. BALLARD, 206 McKenzie, Santa Fe, New Mexico. The person to be notified in case of an emergency is Miss GENEVIEVE CHAVEZ, 130 E. Buena Vista, Santa Fe, New Mexico.

Information was furnished this office by Confidential Source #2 to the effect that BALLARD usually leaves camp every weekend in order to make long distance calls in regard to a case in the U. S. Supreme Court in which his mother is a defendant; further, that he is quite outspoken in his hostility toward the United States Army and the country as a whole, indicating that he did not want to be in the army. Further statements made by him indicated that he wished to go to Mexico to take out citizenship papers.

It will be noted that in one instance BALLARD stated that the spy trials in which he was interested were in Chicago and that his father was being tried. However, in the second instance he mentions that his reason for wanting the weekend pass was in order to make telephone calls concerning a case in which his mother was a defendant which was pending before the Supreme Court. No information is available in this office as to the father's name.

The Denver Office has advised that they have no record on GENEVIEVE CHAVEZ. The Washington Field Office has informed that they have no information concerning Dr. and Mrs. BOND BREFFLER, nor do they have anything concerning REBECCA HAGGERS, GENEVIEVE CHAVEZ, or EDNA M. BALLARD.

The Chicago office has informed that their files contained information concerning EDNA M. BALLARD who was a Subject in a file entitled "I AM CULT, A Religious Organization, INTERNAL SECURITY-C, SEDITION," and that El Paso is the Office of Origin.

No investigation is being made or requested by this office, and the above information is being forwarded to the Bureau with the thought in mind that the Bureau may wish to furnish it to the headquarters of G-2 since BALLARD is apparently in the Army under their jurisdiction.

Inquiry by the Bureau's Huntington Office reflected that Ballard was, at the time of the above mentioned telephone conversations, an Air Corps Cadet, stationed at Concord State Teachers College, Athens, West Virginia, but that he had subsequently been transferred to Camp Pickett, Virginia to the Infantry Division. Ballard's serial number was ascertained to be 36350310.

From a different confidential source information was received by the Huntington Office to the effect that Ballard usually left the post while stationed at Athens every weekend in order to make long distance calls in regard to a case in the United States Supreme Court in which his mother was a defendant; further that Ballard was outspoken in his hostility toward the United States Army and the country as a whole, indicating that he did not want to be in the army. This same source of information advised that further statements made by Ballard indicated that he wished to go to Mexico to take out citizenship papers.

For your further information relative to Donald Ballard, I would like to advise that he and his mother, Edna W. Ballard, have been the leading figures in the "I Am" organization, which is a religious cult with headquarters presently located at Santa Fe, New Mexico since the death of his father, Guy W. Ballard, at Los Angeles, California on December 29, 1939. This organization was investigated by the Post Office Department for violation of the Mail Fraud Statutes, and after a trial on mail fraud charges on February 17, 1942 Mrs. Ballard was given a suspended sentence of one year, fined eight-thousand dollars and placed on probation for one year, while her son, Donald, on the same day was given a one year suspended sentence, fined four-hundred dollars and placed on probation for one year. Previous to this conviction the headquarters of the "I Am" cult had been in Los Angeles, California. Available information indicated that the "I Am" cult has established local branches in many cities throughout the United States and has a considerable following.

The above data is being furnished for your information and any action you may deem proper.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TOLSON

Re: "I Am"

As a matter of record Mr. Roy Emery connected with the National Park Service telephoned on June 26, indicating that he was personally acquainted with you and was very well acquainted with Mr. Hillory Tolson. Evidently Mr. Emery is quite well to do and owns the Stanley Hotel at Estes Park, Colorado. He stated that representatives of the religious cult "I Am" had recently contacted him negotiating to buy the Stanley Hotel to operate for the cult. He had received information from the hotel manager that this was a crackpot outfit who were against the war and claimed that it was caused by the Krupps, the du Ponts and similar people. Mr. Emery requested confidential information as to whether the outfit was subversive. He stated that apparently they had some money since he was asking $350,000 for the hotel. Mr. Emery was acquainted with the fact that Mrs. Ballard and other representatives of the group had been indicted and convicted for mail fraud activities at Los Angeles and otherwise seemed to have a pretty good idea of the background of this group.

I told Mr. Emery that it was impossible for me to recommend one way or the other as to what negotiations he should have. His principal concern was that he did not want to sell his property even at a personal benefit if these people would be a discredit to the community. I told him that insofar as I knew the group did not have foreign backing and was an allegedly religious cult although allegations had been made from time to time that it was principally operated for the personal benefit of some of those connected with it. Mr. Emery stated that if the group did purchase the Stanley Hotel he would let me personally know the details of the negotiations. Mr. Emery seemed to be a very substantial individual.

DETAILS: AT OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent LAMONT L. THOMPSON:

The East Bay Headquarters for this movement is located at 3255 Grand Avenue, Oakland, Telephone No. HIghgate 1008. Mr. and Mrs. VIRGIL L. BROWN, 353 Grand Avenue, Oakland, California, are the organizers for the movement.

On September 11, 1943, BROWN was interviewed under pretext at the "Sanctuary" at 3244 Grand Avenue. BROWN appeared to be a high pressure salesman of questionable mental stability. He stated that he is a Pullman conducter and is in Oakland only two or three days a week.

The "Sanctuary" is a fantastic place. Certain colors have deep spiritual and religious significance for the "Cult" and, therefore, the interior decoration scheme is almost unbelievable. For example, the floors are eggshell blue, all upholstery is gold in color. The pictures on the wall are predominantly purple or orchid. There is some highly significant reason for each fixture in the building. The chapel in the sanctuary impressed Agent THOMPSON as having been planned for purposes of hypnotism. To the right of the rostrum is a large piece of framed purple glass, and when the electricity is turned on rays of light play on this prop and the effect is that of a purple flame about a yard high and 18 inches wide. To the left of the rostrum is a frame the same size on which is painted the diagramized symbolism of the "I Am". This also has a wavering light shimmering on it. With the use of such props it seems that mass hypnotism might easily be induced, particularly in view of the selling methods used by the two BROWNs.

AT SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA.

The San Francisco Headquarters of the "I Am" Movement is located at 1337 Sutter Street, Telephone TUxedo 0668. The leader of the movement is Mrs. LORETTA SELF. Mrs. SELF was interviewed under pretext by the writer and went into great details, giving the background and beliefs of the "Cult." She stated that they symbolized the world as a human body with India as the head and America as the heart of this body. Hence, in order to keep the world healthy and functioning, it is necessary that America be kept healthy, both physically and spiritually. She added that the "Cult" was free of any political ties, and that they were strongly opposed to Facism, Socialism and Communism. She explained that her concept of Communism was division of property and wealth by the State, and the control of same being held by the Government. Mrs. SELF stated that the movement believes that an individual is entitled to "whatever fruits might result from the exhaustion of their physical energies."

In answer to a query by the writer, relative to the "Cult's" stand on the war and Selective Service, Mrs. SELF replied that the "I Am" 'Cult's' stand was a "win the war organization" and that Mrs. BALLARD, one of the founders of the "Cult" had a son presently serving in the United States Army. She said that the movement was in favor of a victorious America in the present conflict, because only by this means could the world survive.

Confidential Informant [redacted] was contacted in an effort to ascertain the address of Mrs. LORETTA SELF. He stated that the telephone in the headquarters of the "I Am" Cult was listed to Mrs. b7D

IDA INGRAHAM, who gave her title as reading room superintendent, and that there is no other record of a telephone for Mrs. INGRAHAM or for Mrs. L. SELF.

The San Francisco Telephone Directory presently lists LORETTA M. SELF residing at 390 Liberty Street, San Francisco.

The San Francisco files contains a communication regarding the Cult's "I Am" activities of an Australian by the name of COLIN, 230 California Street. A check of the Union Steamship Company of New Zealand, Ltd., 230 California Street, San Francisco, produced no information. Mr. CASEY of this address stated that most Australian and New Zealand seamen use 230 California Street as their United States address. In this, COLIN does not seem to be greatly interested in the movement.

A review of the files in the San Francisco Field Division reflects that since the writing of the referenced report, only one non-specific and anonymous complaint has been received in this office in regard to subject organization. This complaint alleges that a Mrs. BLONDER, 295 Eddy Street, San Francisco, is active in "I Am".

Inasmuch as there is no evidence of either subversive activities or teaching of the "I Am " cult, in this field division, this case is being referred upon completion to the office of origin, subject to being reopened should information reach this office which would warrant further investigation.

REFERRED UPON COMPLETION TO THE OFFICE OF ORIGIN.

be answered.

I don't know whether you have heard or not, but Mrs. Ballard started a class in Chicago on Thanksgiving Day which was to continue until January 15th - the Seven Sacred Weeks. When that time came it was announced that it would continue indefinitely, and recently the news came that it would "possibly" continue until Easter. They are having two meetings a day all that time. How I should love to be there!

The Denver Class was very lovely. I never saw a more beautiful stage -- all white -- and much white was worn during the entire class. "Mamma" blessed personally every one attending the class (except those who had received the blessing in the Sante Fe Class). It took her hours every day and almost a week. Bless that precious one for that service.

Oh yes, in the Chicago Class, Saint German gave a dictation and Daddy gave two dictations - through Mamma - just exactly as they came through Mr. Ballard - by flashing words of Light before ~~them~~ her.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I am interested in writing an article or series of articles, on the "I AM" religious sect, of which you have probably heard. This organization, or it's leader, Mrs. G. W. Ballard, was charged and I believe, convicted of using the mails to defraud. If my memory serves me correctly, this took place between 1942 and 1945. If the details of this case are available to the public, could you furnish me with them, or tell me where I might obtain them?

Sincerely yours,

EX-4 RECORDED 62-31722-131

My dear Senator:

Your letter dated June 9, 1947, has been received and I wish to advise that the records of this Bureau do not reflect whether meetings of the "I Am" Movement are presently held in Kansas City.

The following background information, however, may be of interest to you:

The "I Am" Movement was originally conducted as a partnership by Guy W. Ballard and Edna Ballard and was incorporated, March 24, 1933, as the Saint Germain Foundation in the state of Illinois. The Ballards and one Harry Rogers were the officers and directors of the new corporation. Rogers subsequently resigned and Paul A. Potter was elected to succeed him as Vice President. Guy W. Ballard died December 29, 1939. His son, Donald, succeeded him as President.

The organization was investigated by the Post Office Department in connection with a possible violation of the mail fraud statutes. FBI Agents, however, did the accounting work. Twenty-four individuals were indicted at Los Angeles, California, on August 23, 1940. The indictment alleged fraud through false representation, pretenses, and promises, resulting in the transmittal of money and other things of value to the defendants. It stated that Guy W. Ballard had been represented by the indicted individuals to have been selected by Saint Germain as a divine messenger. He was to transmit to mankind Saint Germain's words.

The indictment further alleged that Edna Ballard and Donald Ballard had also been selected as divine messengers through whom the words of alleged "ascending masters," including Saint Germain, would be communicated to mankind through the teachings of the "I Am" Movement.

These divine messengers had claimed to have obtained a supernatural state freeing them from disease, death, old age, poverty, and misery. Representations were also made that they could and would transmit this supernatural state to others willing to pay for it.

Only Mrs. Edna Ballard and her son, Donald, were found guilty upon trial. On February 17, 1942, Mrs. Ballard was given a suspended sentence of one year, fined $8,000, and placed on a year's probation. Her son was given a one-year suspended sentence, fined $400, and placed on probation for one year. Various allegations have been received by the FBI to the effect that the "I Am" Movement was engaged in activities inimical to the best interests of this country--including adherence to Nazism and Communism, and opposition to the recent war effort. Mrs. Ballard, however, claims her organization is a patriotic group and that Americanism is taught at all its meetings. Available information indicates that the "I Am" Cult has established local branches in many cities throughout the United States and has a considerable following.

I trust the above information will be of value.

With expressions of my highest esteem and best regards,

Sincerely yours,

NOTE: The above information obtained from File 62-56722-89 and 62-56722-122. It is noted that the investigation conducted under this file number into the activities of this organization, under an Internal Security-C and sedition character, was placed in a closed status in October, 1944.

Dear Mr. Phillips:

Your letter dated July 15, 1948, has been received and I appreciate your writing to me concerning the matter you mentioned. I regret that I cannot be of service in connection with your request for information which may be in the files of this Bureau, as, in accordance with a long-standing policy, our files are confidential and available for official use only. I am sure you will understand the reason for this rule and that no inference will be drawn that we do, or do not, have information in our files because of my inability to be of assistance. Accordingly, it will not be possible to have one of our Agents contact you in this regard. It is suggested that you may desire to contact the Chief Inspector, Post Office Department, Los Angeles, California, for any information which he may be able to furnish you concerning the trials held there.

Sincerely yours,

John Edgar Hoover
Director

Department in connection with a possible violation of the mail fraud statutes and Agents of this Bureau did the accounting work. Twenty-four individuals were indicted at Los Angeles, California, in August, 1940, for fraud through false representations, pretenses, etc. Only Mrs. Edna Ballard and her son, Donald, were found guilty upon trial. In February, 1942, Mrs. Ballard received a suspended sentence of 1 year, was fined $8,000 and placed on one year's probation. Her son was given a one year suspended sentence, fined $400 and placed on probation for one year.

Various allegations have been received by the FBI to the effect that the "I Am" movement adhered to Nazism and Communism and opposed the recent war effort. Mrs. Ballard, however, claims her organization is a patriotic group and that Americanism is taught at all its meetings. Available information indicates that the cult has established local branches in many cities throughout the country and has a considerable following. It is noted that the investigation conducted into the activities of this organization under Internal Security - C, and Sedition character, was placed in a closed status in October, 1944. Gentlemen:

This is not a crank letter. It is an endeavour to check up on the religious sect called the Ballardites, the Foundation of St. Germain, or more popularly known as the "I Am" association.

As you undoubtedly know, the cult is now making Mount Shasta City its international headquarters. At least, this is th ir ultimatum to the people of this place. They have purchased much property here and intend to purchase more. They intend to set up international "markets" here. They intend to have a youth conclave here once a year.

Last evening, Mrs. G. W. Ballard and her staff appeared before an open meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of this place and made a speech. She appeared, as I understand it, of her own volition to appeal to the people of Mount Shasta for tolerance. She guaranteed that she would aid the City of Mount Shasta, materially. She would "bless us all". If, she said, we wanted her help she would gladly give it and thereby enable this city to prosper. If, she continued, we did not want her help she would lead her people off by themselves and carry on their own program. She wants the people of this town to watch her for a while and judge her by the fruits of her mighty works.

DEFARTMENT RECORDING

Frankly, she said nothing in her speech that was definite. She neither explained her cult nor did she state what "construction" for the good meant to her and to her people. She simply used the term "construction" time and time again without qualifying the term in the least. In the question and answer period which followed her speech, I asked her from the floor to define "construction". I told her that Hitler had told the Germans he would "construct" Germany and the world, and I cited several other examples of people who, in the past, have tried to construct a new world. She did not answer the question, but simply indulged in more platitudes. My remarks caused quite a disturbance. The president of the Chamber of Commerce said that I was introducing a religious controversy. He wanted it confined, he said, to commercial matters. Of course, she had spent one and one half hours about religion and had even had one of her "staff" play two selections of her sacred music on the piano in the middle of her speech that the audience might receive some of her power. RECORDED, INDEXED, SERIALIZED, FILED, FBI 31 JUL 30 1948 I requested the president of the chamber that since she had told us that she would "construct" our youth by religious means to prevent a third world war. I said, further, that in this instance it was necessary to know just what it was that she meant by construction. But, to no avail. The president was adamant and would allow no further mention of religion. The upshot was that he meeting ended in a near riot.

There were upwards of 200 people there.

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED DATE 12/14/82 BY SP2 [illegible]

This morning, I have had several telephone calls from people in the community (most of them unknown to me completely and not members of my church) suggesting that I do what I could to get the "I AM" sect out of town and keep them there. I am willing to do what I can. I am the minister of the only recognized protestant church in the community. There is a Roman Catholic Church and the priest will undoubtedly do what he can. I am, further, a major in the chaplain reserve, Army of the United States. I served in the ETO as a combat chaplain from June 18th to VE Day. I received the Bronze Star Medal for meritorious achievment and the Oak Leaf Cluster to the Bronze Star Medal for heroic action. I am, further, a graduate of Brothers College, Drew University. I studied for one year at Yale. I received my B.D. degree at Union Theological Seminary. After the war I completed the work for the Ph.D. degree at Drew University in Christian Ethics. I am an ordained Methodist minister and am assigned to the California Conference of the Methodist Church. I mention this to let you know that I feel myself competent to lead a fight against what I assume is a sect of fakirs, swindlers, and whatever else the Ballardites are.

However, I am working in the dark. I cannot find out just what it is they believe. I know, for certain, practically nothing. I have talked with Mrs. Mary Lee Lathrop who claims some knowledge of the sect at first hand. She was involved, she says, in the Los Angeles trial of the Ballardites. If what she tells me is true then we don't want them here or anyplace in the United States. Freedom of religion is not license to spread a false society among our people.

Therefore, I should like to appeal to your office for help. I need accurate, verifiable information, since I want to make no false statements. I have read the article in Coronet (June 1948) by Elmer Irey, former chief of Intelligence, U.S.Treasury. In that article Ballard is referred to as a swindler. Is that article a fact? I also have read an article by Freddie Francisco in the San Francisco Examiner of recent date. He calls Ballard a swindler. If these articles are fact, the sect is undoubtedly undesireable. I do not feel free to take as fact, though, newspaper articles unless they are verified by competent authority. Also, what about the trials? Can I get that information and get it verified? Will you please send me any information you can or, at least, tell me where I can get the facts? I would appreciate it if one of your agents could come here (if one is not already here) to advise me as to what to do and to give me some first hand information. I know, however, that your office is busy and may not consider this matter significant enough to warrant the time of your office. Please, in any event, advise me of what you can do and will do in this matter.

I am willing to do all I can and I know I shall have some following in the community and I am hoping that following will grow. If you think I should keep still, I shall do it if you can give me some good reasons for so doing. The fat is in the fire, now. The townspeople know I shall carry the fight to the Ballardites and I am not afraid of their "supposed" curses.

With kindest thanks, I am,

Sincerely,

Randolph E. Phillips

My dear Mr. Lorenzen:

I have received your letter of July 20, 1948, and in response to your request, I am happy to furnish you with the following information which is a matter of public record concerning the "I Am" Society.

The "I Am" movement was originally conducted as a partnership by Guy W. Ballard and Edna Ballard, and was incorporated as the St. Germain Foundation in March, 1938, in the State of Illinois. Guy W. Ballard died in 1939. The organization was investigated by the Post Office Department in connection with a possible violation of the mail fraud statutes. Twenty-four individuals were indicted at Los Angeles, California in August, 1940, for fraud through false representations, pretenses, etc. Only Mrs. Edna Ballard and her son, Donald, were found guilty upon trial. In February, 1942, Mrs. Ballard received a suspended sentence of one year, was fined $2,000 and placed on one year's probation. Her son was given a one year suspended sentence, fined $400 and placed on probation for one year.

It is suggested that you may desire to communicate with Mr. D. L. Lambert, Chief Postal Inspector, San Francisco, California, for any further information which he may be able to give you concerning this organization. It is a pleasure to be of assistance to you in this regard.

With kind regards,

"I AM" CULT

The "I Am" movement was conducted as a partnership by Guy W. Ballard and Edna W. Ballard under the name of Saint Germain Press from its organization sometime in 1934 or 1935 until March 2, 1938, when the Saint Germain Foundation was formed by Guy W. Ballard, Edna W. Ballard, and Harry M. Rogers, who became charter members. The Saint Germain Foundation was to be a nonprofit corporation the purposes of which were to teach by word of mouth, through radio and phonograph records, by the printed word and other available means the doctrines of the "I Am" movement.

DECLASSIFIED BY SP4 BJD/jrc
ON 6/28/83 per Letter Warp dated 4/11/83

On March 24, 1938, the articles of corporation for the Saint Germain Corporation were filed with the Secretary of the State of Illinois. The chief officers were Guy W. Ballard, president, Harry M. Rogers, vice president, and Mrs. Edna W. Ballard, secretary-treasurer. On July 18, 1939, Harry M. Rogers resigned as vice president and member of the board of directors of this organization and was replaced by Paul A. Potter. Donald Ballard was elected to succeed his father, Guy W. Ballard, who died on December 29, 1939.

In December 1939, a subscription agreement was entered into proposing to organize the Saint Germain Press, Inc. under the laws of the State of Illinois for the purpose of printing, publishing, buying and selling books and other printed matter. The subscribers were Louise Majorus, Cecil J. Majorus and Paul A. Potter. On December 12, 1939, a certificate of corporation was issued by the Secretary of the State of Illinois authorizing the Saint Germain Press, Inc. to commence business. On January 1940, the officers of the corporation were collected and Donald Ballard was elected president, Paul A. Potter vice president, and Edna W. Ballard, secretary-treasurer.

This Bureau began receiving complaints in January 1940 to the effect that the "I Am" movement was engaged in activities inimical to the best interests of this country. Also numerous letters were received supporting this organization and claiming it to be thoroughly loyal to this country. This organization was investigated by the Post Office Department in connection with a possible violation of the mail fraud statutes. As a result of the investigation by the Post Office Department an indictment was returned by the Federal Grand Jury at Los Angeles, California, on August 28, 1940, against 24 individuals. This indictment alleged that a large number of people were defrauded through false representations, [illegible], and promises. It also stated that the victims purchased books, [illegible]ines, pictures, etc. offered for sale by the organization and these [illegible]viduals were induced to become followers and accept the teachings of the "I [illegible] movement and were induced to give money and other things of value to the organization because of these false representations. This indictment alleged that Guy W. Ballard, who died at Los Angeles, California, on December 29, 1939, was represented by the individuals indicted to have been selected by the alleged "Ascended Master" Saint Germain as a divine messenger and it was stated that the words of the alleged divinity Saint Germain would be transmitted to mankind through the medium of Guy W. Ballard. The indictment further alleged that Edna W. Ballard, wife of Guy W. Ballard, and Donald Ballard, son of Guy W. Ballard, were stated to have been selected as divine messengers through whom the words of the alleged "Ascended Masters" including Saint Germain would be communicated to mankind under the teachings known as the "I Am" movement. It was further stated that Guy W. Ballard, during his lifetime, Edna W. Ballard, and Donald Ballard had claimed to have obtained a state of super immortality which condition enabled them to be entirely free from ailments common to man. It was alleged that all of these representations were made for the false and fraudulent purpose of securing money and other things of value from the persons intended to be defrauded and that the individuals indicted knew the representations to be false. (62-56722-58 and 89)

Although 24 individuals were indicted on November 4, 1940, the indictments against 14 of them were nolle prossed. The indictment against one of the individuals was dismissed, three of the remaining individuals were acquitted and the jury having disagreed as to the others was dismissed January 20, 1941. On April 12, 1941, new indictments were returned as to the remaining 6 defendents and in a trial extending from December 2, 1941 through January 31, 1942, Mrs. Edna W. Ballard and her son Donald Ballard were found guilty while the other defendents were acquitted. On Feburary 17, 1942, Mrs. Ballard was given a suspended sentence of one year, fined $8,000 and placed on probation for one year while her son was given a one year suspended sentence, fined $400 and placed on probation for one year. (62-56722-59,76-89)

During the course of the investi ation in Los Angeles in the early part of Feburary 1942, it was determined that many of the published statements of the "I Am" movements and oral statements made by Mrs. Ballard had condemned former President Roosevelt for permitting an investigation to be made of the "I Am" organization by the Post Office Department and for permitting the prosecution of the leaders. (62-56722-77)

It was reported at Santa Fe that the "I Am" movement was a Communist group moving to the interior of the country after being advised to do so by the Communists of the Pacific Coast inasmuch as the Communists were organized for the express purpose of taking command of railways and blocking highways in order to stop travel and transportation of troops. Investigation at that time in Santa Fe, New Mexico, failed to reveal the sources of this rumor as well as the rumor that the West Coast would be bombed on Feburary 12, 1942.

Mrs. Edna W. Ballard was interviewed in Denver, Colorado, concerning the above rumors and she advised that the decrees of the "I Am" Cult had alwa condemned Communism and tried to make the American people conscious of the evils of Communism. Mrs. Pallard claimed that her organization was a patriotic group and that in all their meetings Americanism was taught.

(62-56722-66)

It was reported in 1942 by another governmental agency that the "I Am" Cult was some times known as the "Purple Cult" and was stated to be a religious movement which had four subversive aspects. First: Members were urged to will that Saint Germain blast the president from the earth. Second: The members were told that no oath is binding. Third: Leaders urged members not to buy defense bonds. Fourth: Members are urged not to register for the draft. This movement also teaches the doctrine of reincarnation and that members can get any material object by willful thinking. It was further said that the meetings achieve a frenzied mass hypnotism.

It was further reported by an individual who claimed to be a member of the "I Am" Cult in Santa Fe, New Mexico, that the principal topic of discussion at meetings was the obtaining of money by means of love gift boxes. This individual also furnished the pledge card used by "I Am" members who join what is known as the one hundred per cent "I Am" class. The pledge is as follows:

"I desire to so LIVE that the Ascended Masters CAN work through me at any moment! To be worthy of this Great Privilege I MUST put into practice and LIVE the suggestions which They Make. I know that by so doing I too WILL gain My Eternal Freedom and Ascension. I am thoroughly aware that these are, in brief:

"THOU SHALT HAVE NO OTHER GODS BEFORE ME". Bible. 1st Commandment. 1936 Sep. Voice P 4.

"Every individuals first duty is Adoration and Love to the "One Mighty I AM Presence, to gain his Mastery, Eternal Freedom and make his Ascension as soon as possible". Saint Germain and Jesus. The Magic Presence, and Discourses.

"Whatever your attention is upon is your God, for there your energy is flowing and your energy IS your life. "Saint Germain. 1936 Sep. Voice P. 4. Read P XXX-3 Discourses.

"I URGE the students everywhere, with all of the Love at My command, to FORGET EVERYTHING ELSE YOU HAVE EVER STUDIED, STAND ONE HUNDRED PER CENT IN AND WITH YOUR "MIGHTY I AM PRESENCE," and the "I AM DISCOURSES" by SAINT GERMAIN, and you will have such Freedom, such Joy, such Accomplishment, that will forever dissolve all doubt and fear from your consciousness. When such Great Freedom is at your door, just for your acceptance and application, can you understand how great is Our Love and Desire to fully enable you to grasp these simple majestic Laws, that you may have the same Freedom which we experience? However, THIS CAN ONLY COME THROUGH YOUR JOYFUL WILLING ACCEPTANCE AND APPLICATION OF THE TRUTH WHICH WE GIVE." Jesus. 1936 Feb. Voice, P. 5.

Consequently I have absolutely severed ALL connections with ALL Occult Orders, Spiritualism, and organizations that might divert my attention and possibly prevent me from STANDING ONE HUNDRED PER CENT WITH MY OWN "MIGHTY I AM PRESENCE."

Dear Sirs:

I wonder if you could send me any information in regards to a Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ballard and son Donald, and their activities in an organization under the name of, "The I AM Activity".

The reason I am requesting this information is, in the last couple of years there has been an organization under the above name that has invaded our city, and as I am only an ordinary citizen I can not do anything about it without some concrete information. Some of my closest friends are involved and have become ardent followers of the activity.

I read an article in the Coronet Magazine, I believe it was the June issue 1948. The article was written by a member of the Treasury Department and was concerning said Mr. Ballard. I would appreciate any information in regards to this activity and any assistance you could suggest in putting a stop to the growth of it's followers.

YOURS truly, J. B. Masti

Gentlemen:

I have been asked by a friend for my evaluation of the "I AM" movement. Since I have read only one book, been to only one lecture, and talked personally with only one of their leaders (Mr. Stickel), I hesitate to say what I think before investigating further. If I had to give my judgment at this time, it would be that some of their teachings are based on spiritual and psychological truths that are not wholly recognized by the orthodox faiths, but that there is a lot of what I call nonsense about communication with and visions of people who are dead; furthermore, that this business of issuing "decrees" can be very dangerous in the wrong hands -- and I think any good psychologist would agree with me.

I want to find out what I can about the leaders. My feeling is that they are either weak-minded or psychopathic or charlatans. However, I may be wrong and I am hoping that you can either tell me something about them (the only ones whose names I know are a Mrs. Ballard, a Godfry Ray King, and a Mr. Stickel) and about the St. Germain Foundation, or else direct me to a reliable source of information -- some responsible agency, either governmental or non-governmental. I seem to remember vaguely something in the newspapers some years ago about income tax evasion and using the mails to defraud. Is there such a thing as a Better Business Bureau which has information on a national scale? This comes to my mind because I understand that every local "I AM" group which buys a house for their meetings has to deed it over to the St. Germain Foundation. To whom do the assets of the St. Germain Foundation belong legally?

I am enclosing a self-addressed stamped envelope and shall appreciate any information you can give me.

Very truly yours,

Grace Provost Bulboaca

J. Edgar Hoover, Esquire,
Chief, Federal Bureau of Investigation,
Department of Justice,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:-

I am writing you in regard to Communist Infiltration in The "I AM" Activity here in Kansas City.

I have been a member of The "I AM" Activity for a number of years, and just recently, a lady who knew I was a member, asked me if The "I AM" was Communistic? I said"NO', just the opposite, The "I AM" stands for everything that is Good, Honorable and Holy, and you know the Communist do not."

Well, she says,- "I have a friend, a Printer, who has been printing Communistic Literature for a man, and this man is a doctor and is at the head of the Communist Organization here in Kansas City; and he also told the Printer that he was a member of The "I AM", and that The "I AM" is a Communist Organization."

Now that is a falsehood, in fact a lie. The "I AM" Activity is a Patriotic, Educational and Religious Activity, and our membership represents only those who are striving for Perfection for themselves, mankind and the whole world.

I have tried to find out who this man is, but the lady who told me does not care to be involved and does not care to involve the Printer, so I went to the F. B. I. Office here and was interviewed by Mr. Burke, and he said I would have to write you and ask for the name of this man, as he was not privileged to give it out.

Since I have heard about this, I am just a little suspicious of some of our members, and I would like to submit their names for verification, as to whether or not, they are members of the Communist Organization,, namely, as follows:

RECORDED - 93 62-[illegible]-72-139

INDEXED - 93 10 JUN 14 1954

EXCEPTED JUN 14 1954

Dr. Harold L. Poole, a Chiropractor. His office is at #3319 Prospect Avenue, Kansas City, Missouri, and he lives on his 180-acre farm at Blue Springs, Mo., which is about twenty-five miles from Kansas City.

Dr. Jerry L. Crownover, a Chiropractor and who is Dr. Pool's son-in-law. His office address is also #3319 Prospect Ave., K. C. Mo., and he also lives on a farm about seven miles from Dr. Poole.

Mr. James S. McMillen, who is a nephew of Dr. Poole. I do not know his occupation. He lives here in the City, but I am not sure of his address.

Miss Hattie E. Heithecker, lives at #3019 Montgall St., K.C. Mo. and is a sales-lady for the Avon Cosmetics.

All of the above men, their wives and children, and Miss Heithecker, are members of The "I AM" Activity here, so I would appreciate very much, if you would inform me as to the status of these people, for if they want to be Communist, we have no place for them in our Organization.

If none of the above named are Communist, could you tell me the name of the man who is at the head of their Organization here, that I may check farther, as we also have other doctors in our Organization.

I have not revealed this to any of our members; have just decided to take it upon myself to find out the truth about it, and if it does happen to be true, I will submit it to the proper officials of The "I AM" Organization.

Thanking you for your cooperation in this matter, I am,

Sincerely,

Dear Sir:

I have filed a Will Contest in the Estate of Gertrude E. Anderson on behalf of my client, the daughter of the deceased. There is $375,000.00 in the estate which was left to the Saint Germain Foundation and the I Am Sanctuary. It was left under very unusual circumstances. I am meeting shortly with a representative of the California Attorney General's office to examine their files regarding the aforementioned organizations.

It is our position that the Will was written under the undue influence of the I Am Sanctuary and Saint Germain Foundation.

If any representative of your organization has investigated this organization I would very much appreciate his calling me COLLECT at his earliest convenience.

Thank you for your anticipated cooperation.

Dear Sir,

Before you read any further let me assure you that I am not a "crack pot" and that I am quite serious.

This coming August I am to be married to a really wonderful man but I am very suspicious of his religion, which he wishes me to join.

It is the "I AM Religion" and he talks of himself as being an "I AM Student". It would appear to me that one can believe in a religion without going to great expense. The "I AM Religion" is the exact opposite. It requires its "students" to buy special books written by Godfre Ray King (printed by the Saint Germain Press Inc., 8409-11 Stony Island Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60617); mystical charts and drawings of wierd looking ascended masters; records of I AM music; song folders; crystal cups; decree books, etc.

There are many I AM Temples all over the U.S.A., their main one being in Chicago. I have enclosed the one in Massachusetts.

REC 107 62-56722-143

Is this a recognised religion or is it some kind of racket and could hypnosis be a part of their indoctrination process? The reason I ask this is because my fiancee is a very intelligent level headed person studying to be a Chartered Accountant and this religion is so wierd and contrary to his entire nature that I am wondering if the teachers of this religion resort to group hypnosis to induce their students to believe everything they say without questioning it.

Please find out if this is a legitimate religion. It is very important to me because my fiancee has just invested $2000 to be given, plussall interest earned, to the Saint Germain Foundation. SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

Investigation at Seattle reflects that certain decrees against the Selective Service Act have been issued and repeated by the I AM group as recently as November 1942. The son of the group leader at Seattle is presently a draft delinquent and was recently arrested at Seattle and two other members of the organization at Seattle have been reported as draft delinquents. Membership list at Seattle obtained and set forth.

REFERENCE: Letter from Bureau dated June 15, 1943. Report of SA JOHN J. BRACKEN dated May 20, 1943 at Chicago, Illinois.

DETAILS: Mrs. DOTTIE D. FOWLER, 1808 24th Avenue North, telephone East 0042, advised that she first heard of the BALLARD family in the spring of 1935 at which time the BALLARDS were conducting a series of lectures at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium in Seattle. She had previously been interested in theosophy and the Unity movement and was impressed by Mr. BALLARD's claim that he had been reincarnated to save the rest of the World by teaching them the doctorines of St. Germain and the instructions of the "I AM". Thereafter she attended several meetings conducted by the BALLARDS in Seattle and was contacted by a Mrs. JENSEN who came from Los Angeles to organize groups of the I AM cult at Seattle, Washington. Mrs. JENSEN suggested that Mrs. FOWLER be a leader of the group in Seattle and with some reluctance Mrs. FOWLER agreed to do so.

Thereafter she was furnished with several books of instructions on how to conduct meetings of the I AM cult. She had in her possession the I AM group leader's instruction book No. 3 which is copyrighted by the St. Germain Press, Inc, 1940 and was published by that press at P. O. Box 1133, Chicago, Illinois with a branch office at P.O. Box 428 Los Angeles, California. This book was written by Mrs. G. W. BALLARD and DONALD BALLARD and gives 18 pages of instructions on how to conduct meetings and the purposes and aims of the I AM cult. On page 4 of this book it states that the purpose of the study groups organized by the I AM is to enable the people of America to understand the instruction of the "ascended masters" and through their own calls to the "mighty I AM presence" secure assistance to protect America against war and destruction. The book states that group leaders should not ask for money or assistance, but that if money is needed for group activities, a meeting should be had at which all request the "I AM presence" to send money and thereafter if the members themselves wish to give certain sums as "free gifts of love" this will be all right. It specifies that copyrighted outlines may be purchased from the St. Germain Press to be followed by each group which were enumerated as follows:

(1) Regular study groups
(2) Fundamental groups
(3) Group leaders instructions
(4) Sunday school

The booklet refers to "100% Groups" but does not identify their nature. It specifies that no one should be allowed to attend a study group until he has attended the full 7 classes and has received a suitable card of admission to the study group from the one in charge of the fundamental group. It states that until permanent cards are provided by the St. Germain Press each group leader is being asked to provide suitable cards for his own groups which will be considered by the BALLARDS as evidence that a person holding one is a real "I AM student" when they apply for one of the large class cards.

Mrs. FOWLER advised that 100% students of the I AM are those who are believed by the group leader to implicitly follow the instructions of St. Germain which specify that no meat is to be eaten, that the member is not to use narcotics, tobacco, liquor, excess sugar, salt, strong tea or coffee and that no member is to indulge in any kind of sex activity. Each 100% member is to examine his own conscience to see whether he desires the instruction of the "mighty I AM presence" more than anything else and lives to serve it only. This booklet has been identified by the writer and is being furnished to the El Paso Field Division for its information as an enclosure.

Mrs. FOWLER advised that she was closely identified with the group in Seattle until about January 1941, when she withdrew and resigned her leadership. Thereafter she stated that the group in Seattle was managed by Mr. DAVID SAYRE for a time and later was taken over by Mrs. JESSIE J. BULLIS who resides in the Cornelius Apartments, 306 Blanchard Street and holds meetings at the I AM meeting room 209½ Seneca Street in Seattle. Mrs. FOWLER stated that DAVID SAYRE left Seattle in order to go to work at the I AM mine which is located near Boulder, Colorado. Mrs. FOWLER advised that this mine was donated to the BALLARDS by a rich student and the proceeds of the mining operations go directly to the BALLARDS who claim to administer them for the benefit of all the I AM students. Mrs. FOWLER stated that during the time she was the leader of the group at Seattle they were holding meetings at the Montlake Theatre which she rented for this purpose and the group was constantly enlarging as new members came into the activity. She believed for a long time that the group was trying to promote the golden rule among its members and so was sincerely interested in promoting its activities here in Seattle. She stated that she began to doubt the organization when it manifested political interests and the government began to investigate its mail fraud aspects. Thereafter she withdrew from the group and testified at the mail fraud trial at Los Angeles, California.

During a class in 1939 at Los Angeles Mrs. FOWLER heard Mrs. BALLARD say that there were 1,000,000 people in contact with the work and before another year passed there would be 2,000,000 followers, and as soon as they reached 3,000,000 they could govern the United States. Mrs. FOWLER stated she did not believe the group ever had 3,000,000 members but that the membership must have been considerable in view of some of the testimony she had heard concerning the number of books sold by the BALLARDS to members of the organization.

Mrs. FOWLER recalled that from October 18, to October 27, 1940 BILL CASSIERE who is presently in the U.S. Army but who at that time was an "accredited messenger" or national representative for the I AM cult, was in Seattle and he there informed the students that the trial against the BALLARDS, himself and other defendents was soon to begin. He asked for "love gifts" and stated that if they were not forthcoming and Mrs. BALLARD was convicted all of the I AM students would go to concentration camps, the group leaders to jail and all reading rooms would be closed.

Mrs. FOWLER advised that "love gifts" were commonly accepted by the members as a means of indicating their respect and admiration for the BALLARDS and the I AM activity and that these gifts were placed in a box which was maintained at the meeting place for this purpose. She advised that the BALLARDS wished people to believe that no money was collected, but as a matter of fact considerable amounts of money were sent by each group to the national organization as a result of these "love gifts" received from students. When CASSIERE came to Seattle in 1940 he was collecting money for a defense fund and at one time Mrs. FOWLER received a letter from the St. Germain Defense Fund requesting her to solicit amounts from all the students to forward to a post office box address at Los Angeles. She stated that this money was collected from the students and forwarded to Los Angeles for this purpose.

One of the activities in Seattle which was carried on by the group was the arrangement of radio broadcasts over KOL. The broadcast consisted entirely of recordings of instructions by the BALLARDS for students and was continued for sometime 15 minutes a week on Sunday morning. Mrs. FOWLER stated that the program was paid for by Mr. J. D. ZINKE who owns the J. D. Zinke shoe repair shops on the West Coast and who was an I AM follower at that time. Mrs. FOWLER stated, however, that money was used from national funds to pay for these broadcasts in part but she was not certain how this was arranged. At one time in 1938 the Seattle group rented records from the BALLARDS to play over the radio at a rate of $20 per record and after these records were used they were returned to Mrs. BALLARD. The BALLARDS were constantly urging Mrs. FOWLER to get enough money together to pay for the radio time, but the Seattle group was unable to contribute enough to pay for this time entirely.

Mrs. FOWLER stated that some of the decree books contained decrees against the draft and she stated that since the time she left the organization the BALLARDS had become more violently opposed to the Selective Service system, particularly, she believed, because DON was eligible for service. She understood that when Mrs. BALLARD was at a meeting in September of 1942 she had given decrees against the draft and she furnished the writer with a copy of one of these decrees which is not set forth here inasmuch as it is found in one of the decree books later referred to. Mrs. FOWLER knew that many of the persons who were members were sincerely trying to better themselves morally by becoming members of the I AM group and she recalled that many of the persons who belonged at Seattle were very fine people whom she was certain had no subversive tendencies of any kind. She stated that members became so endowed with the infallibility of the BALLARDS that they were sometimes trapped into following their orders even though they might advocate opposition to the draft.

She stated that when the organization was founded on a national scale, a former lieutenant of PELLEY was made a messenger by the BALLARDS and that he had written to the Silver Shirt organization in Seattle to advise them to join the I AM cult on Silver Shirt stationery. As a result of this Mrs. FOWLER knew that some of the members of the I AM cult at Seattle were silver Shirts prior to the time they became members or were interested in Silver Shirt activities. She stated that DAVID SAYRE and GEORGE PATTERSON who were very active in the I AM groups at Seattle were formerly Silver Shirts. She believed that PATTERSON was now at Santa Fe, New Mexico and that SAYRE had left the group and was somewhere near Boulder, Colorado.

She recalled that shortly after SAYRE took over the leadership of this group in January of 1941 he received a message from the national headquarters which was later repudiated by Mrs. BALLARD, to the effect that the students must leave the West Coast since a catastrophe was to annihilate all the people who lived here because of the punishment of the leaders of the I AM at Los Angeles. Mrs. FOWLER believed that this message was brought to Seattle by EARL THOMAS who was an "accredited messenger" of the I AM cult but that later SAYRE told everyone that this was not a bona fide message from the leadership of the I AM cult or from St. Germain. As a result of the fact that this message was given to the members at Seattle numerous persons left Seattle and went to Santa Fe or Boulder or Denver, Colorado which were suggested places of refuge from the impending holocaust.

A list of members which Mrs. FOWLER had previously furnished to confidential informant SE-1 was obtained and reviewed with her and she pointed out the names of various members who had definitely left the organization to her own knowledge. These persons who were formerly members and are now out of the organization are the following:

MILLARD GRANT ARNOLD and wife, Route 2, Box 945, Edmonds, Washington
Mr. A. L. CLEVELAND, 1508 Franklin Avenue, Seattle, Washington
Mr. FERD and FAY B. WHEELER, 10329 Meridian Avenue, Seattle, Washington, telephone, Vermont 2975
Mrs. ELVA P. SMITH, c/o JOHN J. SULLIVAN, Smith Tower Building, Seattle, Washington

Of the members she pointed out the ones which had gone to Sante Fe or Denver as a result of the message above referred to and these will be designated in the membership list by an appropriate symbol.

Mrs. FOWLER believed that some of the young men were encouraged to resist the Selective Service system by the I AM cult but she had no definite information to this effect. She stated she had obtained the information regarding the decrees against the draft from Mr. A. L. CLEVELAND and that she had attended no meetings of the organization since she left it in 1941. She stated the membership list previously furnished was one of that date and that other persons may have left the group since she was a member. Mrs. FOWLER furnished several copies of the "Voice of the I AM" which are being forwarded to the El Paso Field Division as enclosures with this report.

Mrs. HAZEL M. BRITTON, executive secretary, Seattle Better Business Bureau, 857 Central Building, advised that the I AM first came to the attention of that Bureau on January 14, 1938 when the Los Angeles office wrote concerning it. A letter dated January 28, 1938 shows that the Chicago Better Business Bureau found that a commercial agency had a record of a GUY B. BALLARD who lived at 6525 Bosworth Street, Chicago in 1928. At that time he was 48, married and was secretary of the Cottonwood Association, Ltd., Room 81, 30 North LaSalle Street. The association was a trust association under Federal laws organized to develop western land. When he was interviewed he refused to state where the lands were but advised he was also interested in the development of Arizona mining property.

The Chicago office also advised that on March 23, 1929 two indictments were returned in Cook County against GUY BALLARD for operating a confidence game. The complaining witnesses were MINNIE J. ANDERSON of 4700 Beacon Street, Chicago and ADELENE BECK, 628 Gary Place. The indictments were dismissed August 16, 1929 with leave to reinstate because BALLARD was outside the jurisdiction.

Mrs. BECK was interviewed by the Chicago office and stated that the indictment was in connection with a gold mining stock promotion scheme called the "Lake of Gold Inc.". One HERBERT M. PARKHURST was associated with BALLARD in the Lake of Gold project.

An attorney ALFRED F. BECK represented a complainant against BALLARD, a MARY I. INGHAM of Chicago who was fleeced by BALLARD in a gold mining scheme.

In June 1937 BALLARD resided with his wife EDNA at 1620 East 84th Street, Chicago and he left that year for California.

Regarding the St. Germain press, Post Office Box 1133, Chicago, Illinois, the Chicago office had advised that the name appeared as early as 1934 with a bank account in Chicago. A local publisher REUBEN R. DONNELLEY in 4 years prior to 1939 printed about $100,000 worth of material for the St. Germain press.

By letter dated June 24, 1938 the San Francisco office advised that the cult had a local office there and that Mr. and Mrs. FRANCIS EKEY were leaders in San Francisco.

In February 1939 the Los Angeles Office wrote saying that Washington, D.C. had received an inquiry from Attorney PERCILLA LAWYER RANDOLPH asking for copies of letters addressed from GERALD B. BRYAN which requested information about BALLARD. The Los Angeles office indicated that such inquiries should be referred there since Los Angeles had a considerable file on BALLARD and was interested in what RANDOLPH was seeking information regarding BRYAN about.

On May 13, 1939 Miss CORA TRENT SLIFFORD, 353 West 57th Street, New York said the cult claimed 400,000 members in a letter directed to the Seattle office and that it had a large reading room in Seattle. On June 23, 1939 a WILLIAM J. MARTIN whose address is unknown, wrote stating two families he knew were leaving Seattle because of the I AM cult and that the group condemed Russia but said nothing about Germany, Italy and Japan. He requested information concerning the organization but since no address was furnished by him his letter was not answered.

Mr. ARCHIE TAFT, manager of KOL, Northern Life Tower Building, advised that a fifteen minute program for the I AM cult was first placed through the Allied Advertising Agency, Inc. 553 Southwestern Avenue, Los Angeles, California and that this contract was continued from August 28, 1938 to August 20, 1939. He advised that later material for the I AM was placed through the Ted Dahl Advertising Agency 4354 West 3rd Street, Los Angeles. This material was placed for an indefinite period on August 27, 1939.

He stated the group had a fifteen minute period on Sunday and used transcriptions which came from the headquarters of the I AM at Los Angeles. The programs were sponsored by J. D. ZINKE of the Zinke Shoe Stores and the local I AM group represented by Mrs. FOWLER. They were discontinued about the end of 1940 when the organization was being prosecuted at Los Angeles.

Mr. ROY S. LEIGHTON, personnel manager, Frederick and Nelson, 5th and Pine Street, address Route 2, Box 945 Edmonds, Washington advised that he and his wife were members of the I AM organization from the beginning of 1938 to the end of 1940. He stated that it was about as fine a group of people as he ever met and he had no indication that it was engaged in subversive activity although they opposed war as a malignant activity. He stated that the principles urged members not to have a destructive or unkind thought and above all to avoid any such acts. His only criticism of the organization was that they continually sought money either for publications or as "love gifts". He stated that the following employees of Frederick and Nelson are presently active in the youth group of the organization which is called the Ascended Masters Youth.

Miss AGNES BAXTER, 7413 8th Avenue N.W., telephone, Sunset 2053
Miss MARGARET SAYRE, daughter of DAVID SAYRE, referred to above, 919 2nd Avenue West, Garfield 1328
Miss CLARA WIESS, 203 Bellevue Avenue North, telephone, East 9825

Mr. LEAVERETT G. TALLMAN, a salesman with offices at 1024 Joshua Green Building, home address, Route 1, Edmonds, Washington advised that he had been interested in the organization of the BALLARDS since 1935 when he first saw them addressing a group at the Chamber of Commerce Building. He stated he was a member of the I AM until 1938 but that he left the organization because Mrs. BALLARD dismissed Mrs. M. O. ADAMS who lives near Poulsbo, Washington and who was leading a group of study students to which TALLMAN belonged.

He stated in January or February of 1943 Mrs. BALLARD came to Seattle and had a chat with him. He refused to go back into the organization although she requested him to do so. Mr. TALLMAN advised that he had been a member of the Silver Shirt Legion of American at one time and that GEORGE PATTERSON of Seattle who was a local leader of the Silver Shirts had gone to Boulder, Colorado to be a mining engineer for the I AMs at their mine there. He did not believe that Mr. PATTERSON was still in the organization. It is noted that Mr. TALLMAN was in correspondence with Mr. H. E. MARTIN, executive director of the Foundation Fellowship, a BALLARD front organization at Ashville, North Carolina, in 1935. At that time he indicated that he was active at Seattle in attempting to build a "Christian Commonwealth" and that he was acquainted with Mr. ROBERT C. SUMMERVILLE, who was a leader of the organization of the Silver Shirts in Seattle.

Mr. ALBERT L. CLEVELAND, who is employed as a music instructor by the Sherman Clay Company 1624 4th Avenue and who resides at 1508 East Franklin Avenue, advised he was a member of the I AM at Seattle from 1936 until September 1942. He resigned because he was unable to believe the tenats of the cult and felt that Mrs. BALLARD was a fraud.

During the time he was a member he had charge of the music. He stated that at meetings the group sang songs of a patriotic nature which were songs in praise of the BALLARDS and various other ascended masters. He stated that the organization never advocated the non-purchase of war bonds

but were against the draft and in September 1942 Mrs. BALLARD led the group in decrees against the draft. He stated the group was anti ROOSEVELT, anti-Communist but not anti-Semitic as far as he knew. He said meetings were open until about the first part of 1941 or the latter part of 1940 when they began to hold closed meetings. At that time they issued membership cards containing the name and number.

Regarding the organization in Seattle he believed there were about 180 active members in September 1942. About 75 to 100 attended meetings and there were less than 60 men who were members. He advised that JAMES OAHILL, a Seattle Tacoma Shipbuilding Corporation hull foreman, was head of the men's group called the "Minute Men". The women were organized and directed by JESSIE BULLIS who was leader of all the Seattle activities. They were called the "Daughters of Light". The young people were known as the "Youth Group" or the "Ascended Masters Youth" group and when he left the organization the various groups met en todo about four times a week. He said Mrs. BULLIS lives at the Cornelius Apartments with her son, CHARLES, who works for the I AM movement.

At the present time they have a music temple which is in operation 24 hours a day. At this temple they play records of I AM music. The organization is self supporting in Seattle and in fact sends money to Los Angeles for the national organization. He stated the following persons are other members who are active at the present time:

KATHLEEN OAHILL, sister of JAMES
SAM McLAREN
JOHN C. FLAGLER
Mr. LOYD
Mr. FRANKLIN, employed Pacific Coast Stamp Works
Mrs. TRIXIE COLLINS, employed City Planning Commission
Mr. C. C. RUHTE, janitor, Bigelow Building
Miss ELEANOR THOMPSON, who was formerly a leader of a small group at Tacoma where meetings were held near the Y.M.C.A. building.
Mrs. MARYBELLE BEERMAN

Mr. CLEVELAND could not recall the exact decree which was given by Mrs. BALLARD against the draft but he stated that it was not similar to the one published in the I AM decrees but was made up by Mrs. BALLARD at the time.

Mrs. ALVA P. SMITH, 7407 35th Avenue N.E., telephone, Vermont 3389 advised that it was two years since she had attended meetings regularly but she has been very friendly with Mrs. CATHERINE R. FLAGLER, 2049 36th

N.E. and her husband, JOHN C. FLAGLER, who operates the Twin Fir Studios, a photographic shop at 12530 Bothell Way, telephone, Sheridan 4820. She stated they are 100% members of the activity.

Mrs. SMITH stated she started attending the meetings of the group in 1938 when they were holding meetings in the theatre at Montlake. At that time Mrs. FOWLER was the leader at Seattle.

In January 1941, Mr. DAVID SAYRE took over the leadership of the group and about the end of that year, Mrs. BULLIS came in to take over the leadership after being appointed by Mrs. BALLARD. Regarding the policies of the group, she stated you have to attend seven weeks of fundamental classes before you can attend a study group or a major meeting. She advised that fundamental group membership cards had been issued to her and she furnished them to the writer so that they might be photographed. Photographs of her fundamental membership cards were made and it is noted that one of these cards has on the one side, "I AM Study group, fundamental No. 161", and on the other side it has a list of dates beginning August 4, 1941 and ending September 15, 1941 showing attendance at seven meetings. Another card which was green in color had printed on one side, "I AM reading room, New Orpheum Theatre Building, Seattle, Washington" and on the back was written, Mrs. ALVA P. SMITH, 7047 35th N.E. Seattle, Washington and the number 161. The third card was headed No. 161 and it had Mrs. SMITH's signature written on it. In printing on the front of the card was the following: "Admit the undersigned to Seattle I AM sanctuary Study Group". The back of this card stated, "The holder of this card has attended seven fundamental classes, January to July 1941" and was signed "Sanctuary group". Mrs. SMITH also possessed identification card No. 12819 which was issued by the national organization through Mrs. FOWLER on August 6, 1940. The card stated that it was not transferable and must not be loaned and bore the following statement in printing: "This card is issued to the person whose signature appears below to grant him or her admission to the private classes conducted by Mr. and Mrs. G. W. BALLARD and son, DONALD, in consideration of certain guarantees of good faith offerred by the signer and attested to on the registration blank. This card must be kept on the person of the signer when on the premises and is subject to immediate return without protest on request". The negatives of the various membership cards are being forwarded to the El Paso Field Division and one print of each card is being retained in the files of the Seattle Field Division.

About September of 1941 Mrs. SMITH stated that the I AMs had available at the reading room copies of a speech against "Unions Now". Mrs.

BALLARD sent for 1,000 copies of this speech to someplace in Washington, D.C. and they were distributed at the headquarters of the I AM in Seattle.

About this time Mrs. FLAGLER went to Los Angeles to a class of I AMs and wrote that there was a movement on foot to sell this country to England and that St. Germain had told Mrs. BALLARD that the activity of the decrees was against this movement. Mrs. SMITH stated that Mrs. FLAGLER told her at one time that Mrs. BALLARD had told the young people who belonged to the I AM to go to Denver, Colorado to avoid the draft. Later however, Mrs. FLAGLER said that Mrs. BALLARD had not made this statement.

In 1940 PAUL STICKELL, an accredited messenger of the I AM came to Seattle with a form letter to be written to various senators and Congressmen in order to influence them in favor of the I AM organization. A copy of the form letter referred to by Mrs. SMITH was later obtained from Mrs. FOWLER and is being forwarded as an enclosure with this report to the EL Paso Field Division. The letter states that the I AM activity is an educational and patriotic activity and that thousands of people are interested. It advises that it is against Communism, Fascism, Nazism the Fifth Column and all subversive activities and is designed to sustain our form of government in its original form.

Mrs. SMITH stated that it might be desirable to contact Miss MARGARET BALL who is employed at Lowman and Hanford who was formerly a member of the I AM cult. She furnished copies of the decrees of the I AM group which are being furnished as an enclosure with this report to El Paso. She also furnished the booklet entitled, "I AM Fundamental Group Instructions" which is being furnished as an enclosure with this report to the El Paso Field Division.

Mr. T. V. DEMPSEY, employed John Davis and Company, 807 2nd Avenue advised that the building at 209½ Seneca Street is rented by his agency and that the space therein on the mezzanine floor has been rented for two years by Mrs. JESSIE BULLIS. She pays $115 a month in cash and a new lease was signed on May 15, 1943 for one year. A Mrs. FLORENCE HEATON signed the lease of April 15, 1942 as a witness. There was no record of this individual in the 1942 city directory.

Mrs. THELMA HOUSE, telephone operator, Cornelius Apartments, 306 Blanchard, advised that Mrs. JESSIE BULLIS resided in apartment 803. She is usually alone in the apartment but her son visits her at times. She dresses in purple and has several children, one of whom is married and in Seattle, one who is married and in Chicago. She is described as follows:

Age	58
Height	5'3½"
Weight	125
Hair	Red

There is no record of Mrs. BULLIS at the Seattle Police Department or King County Sheriff's Office, however the Seattle Credit Bureau records reflect that Mrs. JESSIE F. BULLIS of the Cornelius Apartments, in September 1934 resided at 6222, 29th Avenue N.E., and resided at 2911 East 73rd Street in January 1936, and presently resides in the Cornelius Apartments.

She was formerly employed as a file clerk with McKesson Stewart and Holmes in 1934 and later as a stenographer and bookkeeper at Underwood Typewriter Company, Seattle. She listed no references and her credit is satisfactory for small amounts.

A check of the records of the Captain of the Port reflect that JAMES JOSEPH CAHILL was presently residing at 6325 14th Avenue N.E.; telephone Kenwood 6887. He was born October 7, 1897 at Denver, Colorado. He has as relatives the following persons:

MARIE BRAWLEY, sister, 501 Harvard Avenue North, Seattle, Washington
KATHLEEN CAHILL, sister, 501 Harvard Avenue North, Seattle, Washington
JACK M. CAHILL, brother, Seattle, Washington

He stated that he attended Broadway High School, was employed by the Seattle Tacoma Shipbuilding Corporation and was formerly employed by the Bremerton Navy Yard. He gave as references the following persons:

K. C. HOPEY, 3367 46th Avenue N.E. Seattle, Washington
SAMUEL McLAREN, Hotel Linwood, Seattle, Washington
WALTER LOYD, 10710 Victory Lane, Seattle, Washington

A picture of him was obtained and is being retained in the file of this case.

The files of the Captain of the Port also reflect that SAMUEL S. McLAREN who was born November 9, 1890 at Forest Hill, Prince Edward Island Canada and who was formerly employed by the Puget Sound Navy Yard, is presently working for the Todds Seattle Dry Dock Company. He stated he was a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He gave as references the following persons:

JOHN M. MILLER 1200 Alki, Seattle, Washington
J. J. CAHILL, 6325 14th Avenue N.E., Seattle, Washington
Mr. NISSON, 2805 East Madison, Seattle, Washington

He stated he was naturalized at Garden City, New York on June 7, 1918. A picture of him was obtained and is being retained in the file of this case.

A review of the decrees furnished by Mrs. ALVA SMITH referred to above reflects that in the one set of decrees the following decrees are of interest:

No. 14 ASCENSION FOR WAR VICTIMS

"Mighty I AM Presence" and all Great Beings and Forces of Light! Take command of all who are forced out of the body through war or made to go to war against their will and give them their Ascension in this embodiment.

No. 18 WORLD DISPENSATIONS

A review of the files of the Seattle Field Division reflects that Mrs. BULLIS was listed as a member of the Silver Shirts or as a person interested in the Silver Shirts in the files of WILLIAM DUDLEY PELLEY recovered at Ashville, North Carolina and in the files of ROBERT CARLYLE SUMMERVILLE.

The files also reflect that CHARLES NEWBERRY BULLIS is presently a Selective Service delinquent with his Local Board No. 245, 2301 46th Street, Long Island City, New York for failure to advise of change of address and appear before the advisory board on April 13, 1943. CHARLES BULLIS is reportedly taking his obligations under the Selective Service Act very lightly and was doing work for the I AM group traveling around the country in connection with their activities. He was reported to object to service in the Army because of his religious beliefs. BULLIS was arrested at Seattle by Special Agent FRED CONNERS and stated that he was willing to serve in the Army and that the I AM cult did not teach objection to the Selective Service Act from conscientious or other motives. He advised the cult was opposed to the war but not to the draft and that members were willing to serve even in combatant capacity. Mrs. BULLIS was interviewed in attempting to locate her son and she furnished substantially similar information concerning the cult and its beliefs.

A review of the files reflects that JAMES WARD KEMP who was formerly a member at Seattle of the I AM cult was reported as delinquent under the Selective Service Act on December 14, 1942 for failure to keep the Local Draft Board 6, Seattle advised of his change of address and to fill out and complete his questionnaires. KEMP was apprehended at Santa Fe, New Mexico on March 11, 1943 and cleared his delinquency. Various informants in this case indicated that KEMP might be avoiding service because of his interest in the work of the I AM group but there was no definite information that this group influenced KEMP to avoid the Selective Service Act.

LOUIS BURBICK, JR. a member of the I AM group at Seattle has also been reported as a Selective Service delinquent and cleared his delinquency as a result of his arrest at Ouray, Colorado. He was delinquent with King County Board 3 at Kent, Washington for failure to report for induction. He was arrested at Ouray, Colorado on June 3, 1943 by the Sheriff at that Place.

It is noted that in the files of the Seattle Field Division a Mrs. LALLA C. CHESLEY, 1931 9th Avenue West, Seattle, Washington reported that CHARLES BULLIS was dodging the draft, September 19, 1942, by falsely claiming to support his mother and that he is commonly known as the "red headed angel" of the I AM cult.

The following list of names is a list of the members of the organization furnished to confidential informant SE-1. It reflects membership as of January 1941.

TITLE	CHARACTER OF CASE
"I AM" CULT, A Religious Organization	INTERNAL SECURITY - C SEDITION

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

Investigation at Seattle reflects that certain decrees against the Selective Service Act have been issued and repeated by the I AM group as recently as November 1942. The son of the group leader at Seattle is presently a draft delinquent and was recently arrested at Seattle and two other members of the organization at Seattle have been reported as draft delinquents. Membership list at Seattle obtained and set forth.

REFERENCE: Letter from Bureau dated June 15, 1943. Report of SA JOHN J. BRACKEN dated May 20, 1943 at Chicago, Illinois.

DETAILS: Mrs. DOTTIE D. FOWLER, 1808 24th Avenue North, telephone East 0042, advised that she first heard of the BALLARD family in the spring of 1935 at which time the BALLARDS were conducting a series of lectures at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium in Seattle. She had previously been interested in theosophy and the Unity movement and was impressed by Mr. BALLARD's claim that he had been reincarnated to save the rest of the World by teaching them the doctorines of St. Germain and the instructions of the "I AM". Thereafter she attended several meetings conducted by the BALLARDS in Seattle and was contacted by a Mrs. JENSEN who came from Los Angeles to organize groups of the I AM cult at Seattle, Washington. Mrs. JENSEN suggested that Mrs. FOWLER be a leader of the group in Seattle and with some reluctance Mrs. FOWLER agreed to do so.

Thereafter she was furnished with several books of instructions on how to conduct meetings of the I AM cult. She had in her possession the I AM group leader's instruction book No. 3 which is copyrighted by the St. Germain Press, Inc, 1940 and was published by that press at P. O. Box 1133, Chicago, Illinois with a branch office at P.O.Box 428 Los Angeles, California. This book was written by Mrs. G. W. BALLARD and DONALD BALLARD and gives 18 pages of instructions on how to conduct meetings and the purposes and aims of the I AM cult. On page 4 of this book it states that the purpose of the study groups organized by the I AM is to enable the people of America to understand the instruction of the "ascended masters" and through their own calls to the "mighty I AM presence" secure assistance to protect America against war and destruction. The book states that group leaders should not ask for money or assistance, but that if money is needed for group activities, a meeting should be had at which all request the "I AM presence" to send money and thereafter if the members themselves wish to give certain sums as "free gifts of love" this will be all right. It specifies that copyrighted outlines may be purchased from the St. Germain Press to be followed by each group, which were enumerated as follows:

(1) Regular study groups
(2) Fundamental groups
(3) Group leaders instructions
(4) Sunday school

The booklet refers to "100% Groups" but does not identify their nature. It specifies that no one should be allowed to attend a study group until he has attended the full 7 classes and has received a suitable card of admission to the study group from the one in charge of the fundamental group. It states that until permanent cards are provided by the St. Germain Press each group leader is being asked to provide suitable cards for his own groups which will be considered by the BALLARDS as evidence that a person holding one is a real "I AM student" when they apply for one of the large class cards.

Mrs. FOWLER advised that 100% students of the I AM are those who are believed by the group leader to implicitly follow the instructions of St. Germain which specify that no meat is to be eaten, that the member is not to use narcotics, tobacco, liquor, excess sugar, salt, strong tea or coffee and that no member is to indulge in any kind of sex activity. Each 100% member is to examine his own conscience to see whether he desires the instruction of the "mighty I AM presence" more than anything else and lives to serve it only. This booklet has been identified by the writer and is being furnished to the El Paso Field Division for its information as an enclosure.

Mrs. FOWLER advised that she was closely identified with the group in Seattle until about January 1941 when she withdrew and resigned her leadership. Thereafter she stated that the group in Seattle was managed by Mr. DAVID SAYRE for a time and later was taken over by Mrs. JESSIE J. BULLIS who resides in the Cornelius Apartments, 306 Blanchard Street, and holds meetings at the I AM meeting room 209½ Seneca Street in Seattle. Mrs. FOWLER stated that DAVID SAYRE left Seattle in order to go to work at the I AM mine which is located near Boulder, Colorado. Mrs. FOWLER advised that this mine was donated to the BALLARDS by a rich student and the proceeds of the mining operations go directly to the BALLARDS who claim to administer them for the benefit of all the I AM students. Mrs. FOWLER stated that during the time she was the leader of the group at Seattle they were holding meetings at the Montlake Theatre which she rented for this purpose and the group was constantly enlarging as new members came into the activity. She believed for a long time that the group was trying to promote the golden rule among its members and so was sincerely interested in promoting its activities here in Seattle. She stated that she began to doubt the organization when it manifested political interests and the government began to investigate its mail fraud aspects. Thereafter she withdrew from the group and testified at the mail fraud trial at Los Angeles, California.

During a class in 1939 at Los Angeles Mrs. FOWLER heard Mrs. BALLARD say that there were 1,000,000 people in contact with the work and before another year passed there would be 2,000,000 followers, and as soon as they reached 3,000,000 they could govern the United States. Mrs. FOWLER stated she did not believe the group ever had 3,000,000 members but that the membership must have been considerable in view of some of the testimony she had heard concerning the number of books sold by the BALLARDS to members of the organization.

Mrs. FOWLER recalled that from October 18, to October 27, 1940 BILL CASSIERE who is presently in the U.S. Army but who at that time was an "accredited messenger" or national representative for the I AM cult, was in Seattle and he there informed the students that the trial against the BALLARDS, himself and other defendents was soon to begin. He asked for "love gifts" and stated that if they were not forthcoming and Mrs. BALLARD was convicted all of the I AM students would go to concentration camps, the group leaders to jail and all reading rooms would be closed.

Mrs. FOWLER advised that "love gifts" were commonly accepted by the members as a means of indicating their respect and admiration for the BALLARDS and the I AM activity and that these gifts were placed in a box which was maintained at the meeting place for this purpose. She advised that the BALLARDS wished people to believe that no money was collected, but as a matter of fact considerable amounts of money were sent by each group to the national organization as a result of these "love gifts" received from students. When CASSIERE came to Seattle in 1940 he was collecting money for a defense fund and at one time Mrs. FOWLER received a letter from the St. Germain Defense Fund requesting her to solicit amounts from all the students to forward to a post office box address at Los Angeles. She stated that this money was collected from the students and forwarded to Los Angeles for this purpose.

One of the activities in Seattle which was carried on by the group was the arrangement of radio broadcasts over KOL. The broadcast consisted entirely of recordings of instructions by the BALLARDS for students and was continued for sometime 15 minutes a week on Sunday morning. Mrs. FOWLER stated that the program was paid for by Mr. J. D. ZINKE who owns the J. D. Zinke shoe repair shops on the West Coast and who was an I AM follower at that time. Mrs. FOWLER stated, however, that money was used from national funds to pay for these broadcasts in part but she was not certain how this was arranged. At one time in 1938 the Seattle group rented records from the BALLARDS to play over the radio at a rate of $20 per record and after these records were used they were returned to Mrs. BALLARD. The BALLARDS were constantly urging Mrs. FOWLER to get enough money together to pay for the radio time, but the Seattle group was unable to contribute enough to pay for this time entirely.

Mrs. FOWLER stated that some of the decree books contained decrees against the draft and she stated that since the time she left the organization the BALLARDS had become more violently opposed to the Selective Service system, particularly, she believed, because DON was eligible for service. She understood that when Mrs. BALLARD was at a meeting in September of 1942 she had given decrees against the draft and she furnished the writer with a copy of one of these decrees which is not set forth here inasmuch as it is found in one of the decree books later referred to. Mrs. FOWLER knew that many of the persons who were members were sincerely trying to better themselves morally by becoming members of the I AM group and she recalled that many of the persons who belonged at Seattle were very fine people whom she was certain had no subversive tendencies of any kind. She stated that members became so endowed with the infallibility of the BALLARDS that they were sometimes trapped into following their orders even though they might advocate opposition to the draft.

She stated that when the organization was founded on a national scale, a former lieutenant of PELLEY was made a messenger by the BALLARDS and that he had written to the Silver Shirt organization in Seattle to advise them to join the I AM cult on Silver Shirt stationery. As a result of this Mrs. FOWLER knew that some of the members of the I AM cult at Seattle were silver Shirts prior to the time they became members or were interested in Silver Shirt activities. She stated that DAVID SAYRE and GEORGE PATTERSON who were very active in the I AM groups at Seattle were formerly Silver Shirts. She believed that PATTERSON was now at Santa Fe, New Mexico and that SAYRE had left the group and was somewhere near Boulder, Colorado.

She recalled that shortly after SAYRE took over the leadership of this group in January of 1941 he received a message from the national headquarters which was later repudiated by Mrs. BALLARD, to the effect that the students must leave the West Coast since a catastrophe was to annihilate all the people who lived here because of the punishment of the leaders of the I AM at Los Angeles. Mrs. FOWLER believed that this message was brought to Seattle by EARL THOMAS who was an "accredited messenger" of the I AM cult but that later SAYRE told everyone that this was not a bona fide message from the leadership of the I AM cult or from St. Germain. As a result of the fact that this message was given to the members at Seattle numerous persons left Seattle and went to Santa Fe or Boulder or Denver, Colorado which were suggested places of refuge from the impending holocaust.

A list of members which Mrs. FOWLER had previously furnished to confidential informant SE-1 was obtained and reviewed with her and she pointed out the names of various members who had definitely left the organization to her own knowledge. These persons who were formerly members and are now out of the organization are the following:

MILLARD GRANT ARNOLD and wife, Route 2, Box 945, Edmonds, Washington
Mr. A. L. CLEVELAND, 1508 Franklin Avenue, Seattle, Washington
Mr. FERD and FAY B. WHEELER, 10329 Meridian Avenue, Seattle, Washington, telephone, Vermont 2975
Mrs. ELVA P. SMITH, c/o JOHN J. SULLIVAN, Smith Tower Building, Seattle, Washington

Of the members she pointed out the ones which had gone to Sante Fe or Denver as a result of the message above referred to and these will be designated in the membership list by an appropriate symbol.

Mrs. FOWLER believed that some of the young men were encouraged to resist the Selective Service system by the I AM cult but she had no definite information to this effect. She stated she had obtained the information regarding the decrees against the draft from Mr. A. L. CLEVELAND and that she had attended no meetings of the organization since she left it in 1941. She stated the membership list previously furnished was one of that date and that other persons may have left the group since she was a member. Mrs. FOWLER furnished several copies of the "Voice of the I AM" which are being forwarded to the El Paso Field Division as enclosures with this report.

Mrs. HAZEL M. BRITTON, executive secretary, Seattle Better Business Bureau, 857 Central Building, advised that the I AM first came to the attention of that Bureau on January 14, 1938 when the Los Angeles office wrote concerning it. A letter dated January 28, 1938 shows that the Chicago Better Business Bureau found that a commercial agency had a record of a GUY B. BALLARD who lived at 6525 Bosworth Street, Chicago in 1928. At that time he was 48, married and was secretary of the Cottonwood Association, Ltd., Room 81, 30 North LaSalle Street. The association was a trust association under Federal laws organized to develop western land. When he was interviewed he refused to state where the lands were but advised he was also interested in the development of Arizona mining property.

The Chicago office also advised that on March 23, 1929 two indictments were returned in Cook County against GUY BALLARD for operating a confidence game. The complaining witnesses were MINNIE J. ANDERSON of 4700 Beacon Street, Chicago and ADELENE BECK, 628 Gary Place. The indictments were dismissed August 16, 1929 with leave to reinstate because BALLARD was outside the jurisdiction.

Mrs. BECK was interviewed by the Chicago office and stated that the indictment was in connection with a gold mining stock promotion scheme called the "Lake of Gold Inc.". One HERBERT M. PARKHURST was associated with BALLARD in the Lake of Gold project.

An attorney ALFRED F. BECK represented a complainant against BALLARD, a MARY I. INGHAM of Chicago who was fleeced by BALLARD in a gold mining scheme.

In June 1937 BALLARD resided with his wife EDNA at 1620 East 84th Street, Chicago and he left that year for California.

Regarding the St. Germain press, Post Office Box 1133, Chicago, Illinois, the Chicago office had advised that the name appeared as early as 1934 with a bank account in Chicago. A local publisher REUBEN R. DONNELLEY in 4 years prior to 1939 printed about $100,000 worth of material for the St. Germain press.

By letter dated June 24, 1938 the San Francisco office advised that the cult had a local office there and that Mr. and Mrs. FRANCIS EKEY were leaders in San Francisco.

In February 1939 the Los Angeles Office wrote saying that Washington, D.C. had received an inquiry from Attorney PERCILLA LAWYER RANDOLPH asking for copies of letters addressed from GERALD B. BRYAN which requested information about BALLARD. The Los Angeles office indicated that such inquiries should be referred there since Los Angeles had a considerable file on BALLARD and was interested in what RANDOLPH was seeking information regarding BRYAN about.

On May 13, 1939 Miss CORA TRENT CLIFFORD, 353 West 57th Street, New York said the cult claimed 400,000 members in a letter directed to the Seattle office and that it had a large reading room in Seattle. On June 23, 1939 a WILLIAM J. MARTIN whose address is unknown, wrote stating two families he knew were leaving Seattle because of the I AM cult and that the group condemed Russia but said nothing about Germany, Italy and Japan. He requested information concerning the organization but since no address was furnished by him his letter was not answered.

Mr. ARCHIE TAFT, manager of KOL, Northern Life Tower Building, advised that a fifteen minute program for the I AM cult was first placed through the Allied Advertising Agency, Inc. 553 Southwestern Avenue, Los Angeles, California and that this contract was continued from August 28, 1938 to August 20, 1939. He advised that later material for the I AM was placed through the Ted Dahl Advertising Agency 4354 West 3rd Street, Los Angeles. This material was placed for an indefinite period on August 27, 1939.

He stated the group had a fifteen minute period on Sunday and used transcriptions which came from the headquarters of the I AM at Los Angeles. The programs were sponsored by J. D. ZINKE of the Zinke Shoe Stores and the local I AM group represented by Mrs. FOWLER. They were discontinued about the end of 1940 when the organization was being prosecuted at Los Angeles.

Mr. ROY S. LEIGHTON, personnel manager, Frederick and Nelson, 5th and Pine Street, address Route 2, Box 945 Edmonds, Washington advised that he and his wife were members of the I AM organization from the beginning of 1938 to the end of 1940. He stated that it was about as fine a group of people as he ever met and he had no indication that it was engaged in subversive activity although they opposed war as a malignant activity. He stated that the principles urged members not to have a destructive or unkind thought and above all to avoid any such acts. His only criticism of the organization was that they continually sought money either for publications or as "love gifts". He stated that the following employees of Frederick and Nelson are presently active in the youth group of the organization which is called the Ascended Masters Youth.

Miss AGNES BAXTER, 7413 8th Avenue N.W., telephone, Sunset 2053
Miss MARGARET SAYRE, daughter of DAVID SAYRE, referred to above, 919 2nd Avenue West, Garfield 1328
Miss CLARA WIESS, 203 Bellevue Avenue North, telephone, East 9825

Mr. LEAVERETT G. TALLMAN, a salesman with offices at 1024 Joshua Green Building, home address, Route 1, Edmonds, Washington advised that he had been interested in the organization of the BALLARDS since 1935 when he first saw them addressing a group at the Chamber of Commerce Building. He stated he was a member of the I AM until 1938 but that he left the organization because Mrs. BALLARD dismissed Mrs. M. O. ADAMS who lives near Poulsbo, Washington and who was leading a group of study students to which TALLMAN belonged.

He stated in January or February of 1943 Mrs. BALLARD came to Seattle and had a chat with him. He refused to go back into the organization although she requested him to do so. Mr. TALLMAN advised that he had been a member of the Silver Shirt Legion of American at one time and that GEORGE PATTERSON of Seattle who was a local leader of the Silver Shirts had gone to Boulder, Colorado to be a mining engineer for the I AMs at their mine there. He did not believe that Mr. PATTERSON was still in the organization. It is noted that Mr. TALLMAN was in correspondence with Mr. H. E. MARTIN, executive director of the Foundation Fellowship, a BALLARD front organization at Ashville, North Carolina, in 1935. At that time he indicated that he was active at Seattle in attempting to build a "Christian Commonwealth" and that he was acquainted with Mr. ROBERT C. SUMMERVILLE, who was a leader of the organization of the Silver Shirts in Seattle.

Mr. ALBERT L. CLEVELAND, who is employed as a music instructor by the Sherman Clay Company 1624 4th Avenue and who resides at 1508 East Franklin Avenue, advised he was a member of the I AM at Seattle from 1936 until September 1942. He resigned because he was unable to believe the tenats of the cult and felt that Mrs. BALLARD was a fraud.

During the time he was a member he had charge of the music. He stated that at meetings the group sang songs of a patriotic nature which were songs in praise of the BALLARDS and various other ascended masters. He stated that the organization never advocated the non-purchase of war bonds

but were against the draft and in September 1942 Mrs. BALLARD led the group in decrees against the draft. He stated the group was anti ROOSEVELT, anti-Communist but not anti-Semitic as far as he knew. He said meetings were open until about the first part of 1941 or the latter part of 1940 when they began to hold closed meetings. At that time they issued membership cards containing the name and number.

Regarding the organization in Seattle he believed there were about 180 active members in September 1942. About 75 to 100 attended meetings and there were less than 60 men who were members. He advised that JAMES CAHILL, a Seattle Tacoma Shipbuilding Corporation hull foreman, was head of the men's group called the "Minute Men". The women were organized and directed by JESSIE BULLIS who was leader of all the Seattle activities. They were called the "Daughters of Light". The young people were known as the "Youth Group" or the "Ascended Masters Youth" group and when he left the organization the various groups met en todo about four times a week. He said Mrs. BULLIS lives at the Cornelius Apartments with her son, CHARLES, who works for the I AM movement.

At the present time they have a music temple which is in operation 24 hours a day. At this temple they play records of I AM music. The organization is self supporting in Seattle and in fact sends money to Los Angeles for the national organization. He stated the following persons are other members who are active at the present time:

KATHLEEN CAHILL, sister of JAMES
SAM McLAREN
JOHN C. FLAGLER
Mr. LOYD
Mr. FRANKLIN, employed Pacific Coast Stamp Works
Mrs. TRIXIE COLLINS, employed City Planning Commission
Mr. C. G. RUMTE, janitor, Bigelow Building
Miss ELEANOR THOMPSON, who was formerly a leader of a small group at Tacoma where meetings were held near the Y.M.C.A. building.
Mrs. MARYBELLE BEERMAN

Mr. CLEVELAND could not recall the exact decree which was given by Mrs. BALLARD against the draft but he stated that it was not similar to the one published in the I AM decrees but was made up by Mrs. BALLARD at the time.

Mrs. ALVA P. SMITH, 7407 35th Avenue N.E., telephone, Vermont 3389 advised that it was two years since she had attended meetings regularly but she has been very friendly with Mrs. CATHERINE R. FLAGLER, 2049 36th

N.E. and her husband, JOHN C. FLAGLER, who operates the Twin Fir Studios, a photographic shop at 12530 Bothell Way, telephone, Sheridan 4820. She stated they are 100% members of the activity.

Mrs. SMITH stated she started attending the meetings of the group in 1938 when they were holding meetings in the theatre at Montlake. At that time Mrs. FOWLER was the leader at Seattle.

In January 1941, Mr. DAVID SAYRE took over the leadership of the group and about the end of that year, Mrs. BULLIS came in to take over the leadership after being appointed by Mrs. BALLARD. Regarding the policies of the group, she stated you have to attend seven weeks of fundamental classes before you can attend a study group or a major meeting. She advised that fundamental group membership cards had been issued to her and she furnished them to the writer so that they might be photographed. Photographs of her fundamental membership cards were made and it is noted that one of these cards has on the one side, "I AM Study group, fundamental No. 161", and on the other side it has a list of dates beginning August 4, 1941 and ending September 15, 1941 showing attendance at seven meetings. Another card which was green in color had printed on one side, "I AM reading room, New Orpheum Theatre Building, Seattle, Washington" and on the back was written, Mrs. ALVA P. SMITH, 7047 35th N.E. Seattle, Washington and the number 161. The third card was headed No. 161 and it had Mrs. SMITH's signature written on it. In printing on the front of the card was the following: "Admit the undersigned to Seattle I AM sanctuary Study Group". The back of this card stated, "The holder of this card has attended seven fundamental classes, January to July 1941" and was signed "Sanctuary group". Mrs. SMITH also possessed identification card No. 12819 which was issued by the national organization through Mrs. FOWLER on August 6, 1940. The card stated that it was not transferable and must not be loaned and bore the following statement in printing: "This card is issued to the person whose signature appears below to grant him or her admission to the private classes conducted by Mr. and Mrs. G. W. BALLARD and son, DONALD, in consideration of certain guarantees of good faith offerred by the signer and attested to on the registration blank. This card must be kept on the person of the signer when on the premises and is subject to immediate return without protest on request". The negatives of the various membership cards are being forwarded to the El Paso Field Division and one print of each card is being retained in the files of the Seattle Field Division.

About September of 1941 Mrs. SMITH stated that the I AMs had available at the reading room copies of a speech against "Unions Now". Mrs.

BALLARD sent for 1,000 copies of this speech to someplace in Washington, D.C. and they were distributed at the headquarters of the I AM in Seattle.

About this time Mrs. FLAGLER went to Los Angeles to a class of I AMs and wrote that there was a movement on foot to sell this country to England and that St. Germain had told Mrs. BALLARD that the activity of the decrees was against this movement. Mrs. SMITH stated that Mrs. FLAGLER told her at one time that Mrs. BALLARD had told the young people who belonged to the I AM to go to Denver, Colorado to avoid the draft. Later however, Mrs. FLAGLER said that Mrs. BALLARD had not made this statement.

In 1940 PAUL STICKELL, an accredited messenger of the I AM came to Seattle with a form letter to be written to various senators and Congressmen in order to influence them in favor of the I AM organization. A copy of the form letter referred to by Mrs. SMITH was later obtained from Mrs. FOWLER and is being forwarded as an enclosure with this report to the EL Paso Field Division. The letter states that the I AM activity is an educational and patriotic activity and that thousands of people are interested. It advises that it is against Communism, Fascism, Nazism the Fifth Column and all subversive activities and is designed to sustain our form of government in its original form.

Mrs. SMITH stated that it might be desirable to contact Miss MARGARET BALL who is employed at Lowman and Hanford who was formerly a member of the I AM cult. She furnished copies of the decrees of the I AM group which are being furnished as an enclosure with this report to El Paso. She also furnished the booklet entitled, "I AM Fundamental Group Instructions" which is being furnished as an enclosure with this report to the El Paso Field Division.

Mr. T. V. DEMPSEY, employed John Davis and Company, 807 2nd Avenue advised that the building at 209½ Seneca Street is rented by his agency and that the space therein on the mezzanine floor has been rented for two years by Mrs. JESSIE BULLIS. She pays $115 a month in cash and a new lease was signed on May 15, 1943 for one year. A Mrs. FLORENCE HEATON signed the lease of April 15, 1942 as a witness. There was no record of this individual in the 1942 city directory.

Mrs. THELMA HOUSE, telephone operator, Cornelius Apartments, 306 Blanchard, advised that Mrs. JESSIE BULLIS resided in apartment 803. She is usually alone in the apartment but her son visits her at times. She dresses in purple and has several children, one of whom is married and in Seattle, one who is married and in Chicago. She is described as follows:

Age	58
Height	5'3½"
Weight	125
Hair	Red

There is no record of Mrs. BULLIS at the Seattle Police Department or King County Sheriff's Office, however the Seattle Credit Bureau records reflect that Mrs. JESSIE F. BULLIS of the Cornelius Apartments; in September 1934 resided at 6222 29th Avenue N.E., and resided at 2911 East 73rd Street in January 1936, and presently resides in the Cornelius Apartments.

She was formerly employed as a file clerk with McKesson Stewart and Holmes in 1934 and later as a stenographer and bookkeeper at Underwood Typewriter Company, Seattle. She listed no references and her credit is satisfactory for small amounts.

A check of the records of the Captain of the Port reflect that JAMES JOSEPH CAHILL was presently residing at 6325 14th Avenue N.E., telephone Kenwood 6887. He was born October 7, 1897 at Denver, Colorado. He has as relatives the following persons:

MARIE BRAWLEY, sister, 501 Harvard Avenue North, Seattle, Washington
KATHLEEN CAHILL, sister, 501 Harvard Avenue North, Seattle, Washington
JACK M. CAHILL, brother, Seattle, Washington

He stated that he attended Broadway High School, was employed by the Seattle Tacoma Shipbuilding Corporation and was formerly employed by the Bremerton Navy Yard. He gave as references the following persons:

K. C. HOPEY, 3367 46th Avenue N.E. Seattle, Washington
SAMUEL McLAREN, Hotel Linwood, Seattle, Washington
WALTER LOYD, 10710 Victory Lane, Seattle, Washington

A picture of him was obtained and is being retained in the file of this case.

The files of the Captain of the Port also reflect that SAMUEL S. McLAREN who was born November 9, 1890 at Forest Hill, Prince Edward Island Canada and who was formerly employed by the Puget Sound Navy Yard, is presently working for the Todds Seattle Dry Dock Company. He stated he was a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He gave as references the following persons:

JOHN M. MILLER, 1200 Alki, Seattle, Washington
J. J. CAHILL, 4325 14th Avenue N.E., Seattle, Washington
Mr. NISSON, 2805 East Madison, Seattle, Washington

He stated he was naturalized at Garden City, New York on June 7, 1918. A picture of him was obtained and is being retained in the file of this case.

A review of the decrees furnished by Mrs. ALVA SMITH referred to above reflects that in the one set of decrees the following decrees are of interest:

No. 14 ASCENSION FOR WAR VICTIMS

"Mighty I AM Presence" and all Great Beings and Forces of Light! Take command of all who are forced out of the body through war or made to go to war against their will and give them their Ascension in this embodiment.

No. 18 WORLD DISPENSATIONS

"Mighty I AM Presence", All Great Beings and Forces of Light! In the name of the humanity of earth, we call to the Great Central Sun to Saint Germain whatever Dispensations are necessary to stop the on-rushing war thruout the world.

No. 28 IMMEDIATE DISPENSATION REQUIRED

(Jesus, at the Chicago Class, asked all to make this call quickly and steadily so this Light can act, before war can be brought into America. The destructive forces are planning to draw America into war within the next six months.)

"Mighty I AM Presence" and all Great Beings from the Great Central Sun! In the name of the humanity of earth and the sanity of mankind, give to Saint Germain, Jesus, Arcturus, the Goddess of Liberty and Others of the Ascended Masters whatever Dispensations are required to release that Light as of a thousand suns THIS INSTANT everywhere; and to annihilate all human selfishness and discord from the planet forever. Do this in the Name of the Light of God that never fails and hold it eternally sustained.

All ignorance from our land!
All intended destruction from our land!

No. 494 KILL ALL WAR PLANS

"MIGHTY I AM PRESENCE," HIGHER MENTAL BODIES OF ALL MANKIND, ALL GREAT BEINGS, POWERS AND LEGIONS OF LIGHT!

Kill all war plans from our land!
Kill all war plans by God's Hand!
Kill all war plans now today!
Kill all war plans nor to stay!
Kill all war plans in every way!
Kill all war plans by God's Blue Ray!
Kill all war plans, their cause, effect, record and memory to stay.!

And annihilate! Annihilate! Annihilate! all war plans from America and the world in every way; and make them take their toll in the brains and bodies of the war makers and their claws today!

GOD ALMIGHTY ACT! ACT! ACT! AND FOREVER HOLD SWAY!

No. 503 LEGAL ACTIVITIES

"MIGHTY I AM PRESENCE," GREAT HOST OF ASCENDED MASTERS AND ALL COSMIC BEINGS!

I refuse to accept those indictments, that tax investigation, that citation or that plagiarism suit any longer or that draft for our American boys. "I AM" the Presence which by the Power of This Light is your Master! Be Thou dissolved and consumed by the Powers of Light Forever!

A review of the files of the Seattle Field Division reflects that Mrs. BULLIS was listed as a member of the Silver Shirts or as a person interested in the Silver Shirts in the files of WILLIAM DUDLEY PELLEY recovered at Ashville, North Carolina and in the files of ROBERT CARLYLE SUMMERVILLE.

The files also reflect that CHARLES NEWBERRY BULLIS is presently a Selective Service delinquent with his Local Board No. 245, 2301 46th Street, Long Island City, New York for failure to advise of change of address and appear before the advisory board on April 13, 1943. CHARLES BULLIS is reportedly taking his obligations under the Selective Service Act very lightly and was doing work for the I AM group traveling around the country in connection with their activities. He was reported to object to service in the Army because of his religious beliefs. BULLIS was arrested at Seattle by Special Agent FRED CONNERS and stated that he was willing to serve in the Army and that the I AM cult did not teach objection to the Selective Service Act from conscientious or other motives. He advised the cult was opposed to the war but not to the draft and that members were willing to serve even in combatant capacity. Mrs. BULLIS was interviewed in attempting to locate her son and she furnished substantially similar information concerning the cult and its beliefs.

A review of the files reflects that JAMES WARD KEMP who was formerly a member at Seattle of the I AM cult was reported as delinquent under the Selective Service Act on December 14, 1942 for failure to keep the Local Draft Board 6, Seattle advised of his change of address and to fill out and complete his questionnaires. KEMP was apprehended at Santa Fe, New Mexico on March 11, 1943 and cleared his delinquency. Various informants in this case indicated that KEMP might be avoiding service because of his interest in the work of the I AM group but there was no definite information that this group influenced KEMP to avoid the Selective Service Act.

LOUIS BURBICK, JR. a member of the I AM group at Seattle has also been reported as a Selective Service delinquent and cleared his delinquency as a result of his arrest at Ouray, Colorado. He was delinquent with King County Board 3 at Kent, Washington for failure to report for induction. He was arrested at Ouray, Colorado on June 3, 1943 by the Sheriff at that Place.

It is noted that in the files of the Seattle Field Division a Mrs. LALLA C. CHESLEY, 1931 9th Avenue West, Seattle, Washington reported that CHARLES BULLIS was dodging the draft, September 19, 1942, by falsely claiming to support his mother and that he is commonly known as the "red headed angel" of the I AM cult.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE OFFICER IN CHARGE

Subject: DONALD BALLARD
T/5, ACN 33350310
5th Provisional Training Company
Aberdeen Proving Ground, Maryland.

Ref: Covering Memorandum.

I

This investigation was requested by basic communication dated 19 July 1943 from the CAC of S, G-2, WDC, Presidio of San Francisco, California, to determine the discretion, integrity, and loyalty of Subject, who is considered potentially subversive. Also to determine if Subject is identical or in any way connected with Donald LaVern Ballard, a sailor of 766 - 19th Avenue, San Francisco, California.

II

Investigation of Subject disclosed that he is the son of Guy W. and Edna W. Ballard, founders of the "I Am" cult; that Subject's father passed away in December 1939, and his mother operated the cult. Subject was dominated by his mother, who gave him all the money he desired.

Subject was tried together with his mother for fraudulently obtaining money through the mail and found guilty, but has been granted a new trial by the Circuit Court of Appeals. The trial judge stated that there was no evidence in the case indicating that Subject was subversive. Investigation at the Biltmore Hotel, Subject's place of residence; interview with Subject's attorney; and an examination of the files of the Los Angeles Examiner failed to disclose any subversive tendencies of Subject.

MID Det. Tws
file

Subject's military record shows he was inducted into the Army 20 January 1943 at Santa Fe New Mexico and sent to Fort Bliss, Texas. 6 February 1943 Subject was transferred to Ordnance Replacement Training Center, Aberdeen, Maryland. 15 May 1943 Subject was transferred to 5th Provisional Training Company, Aberdeen Proving Ground, Maryland. This record also shows that Subject was born in Chicago, Illinois, 12 May 1918, making Subject twenty-four years of age in 1942. The Donald LaVern Ballard, Sailor, 766 19th Street, San Francisco, California, referred to in Summary of Information, MID, Washington, D. C., dated 10 June 1943 was twenty-eight years of age in 1942. Also police records show he checked out of the Rosslyn Hotel, Los Angeles, California, 2 March 1943, a case having been filed against him for having absconded with $122 of Union dues. The ages and places of residences of Subject and Donald LaVern Ballard are not identical and it is believed definitely that they are separate individuals.

III

Although there has not been found any evidence disclosing Subject to be potentially subversive it is recommended that the two Assistant U. S. District Attorneys who were the prosecutors of Subject be first interviewed. Their names and addresses are as follows:

1. Norman Neuken, CAII, San Diego, California.

2. Ralph Lazarus, Army Air Corps, Lemoore Field, California.

Re: Record Check.

On 18 October 1943 this Agent checked the files of the Los Angeles Examiner, Los Angeles, California, concerning the Subject, and also the "I Am" cult.

The files, being both numerous and bulky, dated back from date Subject and his mother was indicted, July 24, 1940. The files show that the "I Am" cult was a religious cult founded by Guy W. Ballard and Edna W. Ballard in Chicago, Illinois; that the main office was moved to California with offices in the Biltmore Hotel, 515 S. Olive Street, Los Angeles, California, and incorporated under the name of the St. Germain Foundation. Books were printed and sold to adherents of the cult. Cost of printing was 27¢ and the books were sold for $2.50.

Members of the "I Am" cult professed to be patriotic and against all Fifth Columnists and strikes. During the trial of Subject, which lasted eight weeks, Subject as well as other adherents wore little flags of the United States in their lapels. Mrs. Edna Ballard claimed that the cult had prevented the West Coast from being bombed.

A review of the various files failed to disclose anything showing that Subject was subversive or that the organization itself was subversive, but there was no doubt that the organization was out to get money in any way possible from adherents and if the leaders had to be subversive to get money then that is what they would do. In other words, the "I Am" cult was purely a racket.

Re: Residence Check

On October 15, 1943, this Agent interviewed Mr. Albin Knocke, Assistant Manager, Biltmore Hotel, at the Biltmore Hotel, concerning the Subject.

Mr. Knocke stated he only knew Subject casually as a guest of the hotel, and could not tell anything personally about him.

Records of the hotel showed Subject lived in the hotel from April 2, 1941, until February 4, 1942.

Re: Neighborhood Check

On October 15, 1943, this Agent interviewed Mr. E. S. Bernard, manager, Biltmore Hotel, at his office in the Biltmore Hotel, Los Angeles, California, concerning Subject.

Mr. Bernard stated he knew Subject as a guest of the hotel; that he often talked to him and found Subject to be interested in radio. Subject and his mother, Edna Ballard, never discussed the "I Am Cult" movement according to Mr. Bernard. Mr. Bernard also stated that he never heard Subject say anything regarding the Selective Service law, nor say anything at any time concerning the government which would indicate that Subject was subversive.

Mr. Bernard stated that Subject was personable, and as far as he knew, never got into any argument while in the hotel.

Re: Interview with James M. Carter, Acquaintance.

On October 14, 1943, this Agent interviewed James M. Carter, Esquire, Assistant United States District Attorney, at his office in the United States Post Office Building, Los Angeles, California, concerning Subject.

Mr. Carter stated that he was in charge of the Criminal Division of the United States District Attorney's office in Los Angeles, and that he knew Subject only by name and the fact that there was a case pending against Subject, et al, but United States Government for defrauding by use of the mails.

Mr. Carter stated that as he recalled, the actual defendant in the case was Edna W. Ballard, Subject's mother, and that Subject merely went along with his mother as she supplied him with any necessary funds that he might need from time to time.

Mr. Carter stated that the attorneys that had tried the case were: Norman Neukom, Esquire, and Ralph Lazarus, Esquire; that neither was no longer in the United States District Attorney's office. He stated that Neukom is now a member of the Office of Naval Intelligence at San Diego, and Lazarus is now in the Army Air Corps at Lemoore Field, California, and that they could tell much more about the Subject and the working of the "I Am Cult" than probably any other persons other than the organizers in Southern California.

Agent's Notes: — It is recommended that Norman Neukom, Esquire and Ralph Lazarus, Esquire, be interviewed regarding Subject and his relations with the "I Am Cult".

Re: Acquaintance Check

On October 14, 1943, this Agent interviewed David S. Cannon, Esquire, attorney at law, Bank of America Building, Room 524, 650 South Spring Street, Los Angeles, California, regarding the above-named Subject.

Mr. Cannon stated that he had been the attorney of Subject and Subject's mother, Edna W. Ballard, together with twenty-one other defendants in the case of United States of America vs. Subject et al.

Mr. Cannon stated that the case was one of mail fraud against Subject et al, in which the principal defendant was Subject's mother, Edna W. Ballard, and that the only knowledge he had of Subject was through his association with Subject during the course of the trial, and after the date of sentence of Subject.

Mr. Cannon stated that Subject was rather odd, and was one of the most vulgar young men he had ever come into contact with. Whether the Subject was a fool or a man of genius, Mr. Cannon could not say, but as to whether or not Subject was subversive, Mr. Cannon stated that at no time had Subject ever given him any evidence of such. Mr. Cannon felt that Subject was slightly dominated by his mother, Edna W. Ballard.

Mr. Cannon stated that Subject was rather frail; about 5' 9" tall; weighing approximately 125 pounds; light brown hair, and as he recalled was about 23 or 24 years of age.

Mr. Cannon stated that he could give no further information concerning Subject, and was sorry that he had not paid any too much attention to the Subject at the time of the trial as he felt that the Subject's mother, Edna W. Ballard was the most important defendant in the case.

Re: Interview with Hon. J. F. T. O'Connor, United States District Judge, District of Southern California, Los Angeles, California

On October 14, 1943, this Agent interviewed Judge J. F. T. O'Connor, at his office in the United States Post Office Building at 312 North Spring Street, Los Angeles, California, concerning Subject.

Judge O'Connor stated that he was the trial judge in the case of United States vs Subject, et al, the case being one in which the Subject was charged with attempt to defraud by use of government mail.

Judge O'Connor was of the opinion that Subject was completely dominated by his mother whom he described as a woman dressed in the very latest fashion, completely covered with diamonds and furs.

Although the judge stated that Subject was a member of the "I Am Cult," it was his impression that Subject did not care much about this organization but only did what was told him by his mother, mainly because she supplied him with a great deal of money.

The Judge stated that he did not know Subject other than the fact that he had been a witness on the stand in the course of the trial; that he had not known him before, nor had he seen him since the time of sentence, date of sentence having been February 16, 1942.

Judge O'Connor stated that there was no evidence to show that Subject was subversive in any way, or disloyal to the government of the United States.

Re: Police Check

Basic communication dated 19 July 1943, from CAC of S, G-2, WDC, Presidio of San Francisco, California, in addition to requesting an investigation to determine the discretion, integrity and loyalty of Subject, also requested an investigation to determine whether or not Subject was and is, the one and same person as Donald LaVern Ballard, a sailor, of 766-19th Avenue, San Francisco, California.

Files of the Federal Bureau of Investigation show that Subject was a member of the "I Am Cult"; that he was tried December 2, 1941, together with his mother, Edna Ballard, in the United States District Court in Los Angeles, California, for using mails to defraud and conspiracy. Subject found guilty on three counts and sentenced February 17, 1942, on each count for 30 days, sentence to be concurrent and suspended, and fined a total of $400.00. Subject appealed and a new trial granted.

No record in Office of Naval Intelligence or Los Angeles Police Department regarding Subject.

The records also show that Donald LaVern Ballard, a National Maritime Union Patrolman employed to collect dues, absconded with $122 in $1.00 bills of union funds. James. W. Drake, National Maritime Union Post Agent signed complaint #348093 (See San Pedro Division, Los Angeles, Police Department), against said Donald LaVern Ballard. Drake stated that Donald LaVern Ballard checked out of the Roslyn Hotel, Los Angeles, California, March 2, 1943, and had not been seen since that time.

RE : Covering Memorandum

Pursuant to copy of Summary of Information dated 10 June 1943 from MIS, War Department, Washington, D.C., to the AC of S, G-2, WDC & 4th Army, Presidio of San Francisco, California, requesting investigation of one, DONALD LaVERNE BALLARD, 766 19th Ave., San Francisco, California, to determine if identical to DONALD BALLARD, 515 So. Olive Street, Los Angeles, California, and by letter dated 19 July 1943 from the AC of S, G-2, WDC & 4th Army, Presidio of San Francisco, California to the OIC, San Francisco Branch Office, G-2, WDC & 4th Army, an investigation was conducted in this area by this Agent.

Investigation reveals that DONALD LaVERN BALLARD, 766 19th Ave., San Francisco, California, is not identical with one DONALD BALLARD, 515 So. Olive Street, Los Angeles, California, according to information set forth on Summary of Information in basic communication.

This Agent suggests that the finger prints as submitted by DONALD BALLARD, 515 So. Olive Street, Los Angeles, ASN 38350310, upon his induction into the Army and those of DONALD LaVERNE BALLARD as indicated on record of arrest received from California State Bureau of Identification be compared for positive identification with those which are on file at the F.B.I. Identification Bureau, Washington, D.C.

The indices of the following law enforcement agencies reveal the following records on DONALD LaVERN BALLARD:

MEMORANDUM FOR THE OFFICER IN CHARGE

SUBJECT: DONALD LaVERN BALLARD
766 19th Ave.,
San Francisco, California

RE : Police Check

On 28 July 1943 the files of the FBI Field Office, the ONI 12th Naval District, both of San Francisco, California, and the California State Bureau of Identification at Sacramento, California, were examined with reference to DONALD LaVERN BALLARD, and the following information was revealed:

FBI No record

ONI Files reflected that DONALD LaVERN BALLARD, (Seaman's Identification Z-155372) Was arrested, tried and convicted by the Provost Marshal's Office in Hawaii on charges of sabotage on the SS PONCA CITY at Pearl Harbor 3-25-42. Subject, an A.B. seaman and dock delegate, objected to the size of a hauser placed aboard the vessel by a Navy tug and made an attempt to cut the hauser. When Subject was arrested he endeavored to get the crew to walk off the ship in his behalf. His action delayed convoy sailing for 30 minutes. The Judge sentenced him to one year at labor, stating he was lucky not to get five years. Subject was released two days later at the request of a Merchant Marine Captain to complete his crew. Subject's employment on U.S. vessels was authorized in June, 1942, after he had been cleared by FBI and PMO court in 14ND. Subject stated he sincerely regretted toe episode described above and stated he had learned his lesson. On 3-6-42 James W. DRAKE, National Maritime Union Port Agent, signed a complaint at the San Pedro Division, Los Angeles Police Department, alleging that Subject had absconded with $122 of Union dues. Subject had been employed as National Maritime Union Patrolman, collecting union dues aboard ships entering San Pedro. Subject described as 28 years, 5'9" tall, as of April, 1942. His wife resides at 766 19th Ave., San Francisco, California.

the group had moved from 617 East South Temple. Mrs. BAUCHMAN stated that she knew very little about the group aside from the fact that she had noticed the cars collecting in that vicinity and that her husband had heard the group singing hymns during the course of their various meetings.

The Salt Lake City Retail Creditmen's Bureau records were made available by Miss Marion Briggs and revealed that RAY KING HUGHES on August 15, 1939 resided at 863 South University Avenue, Provo, Utah and prior to that had lived at 18 West First North, Provo, that in 1939 he had been employed by the Forrest Service, Department of Grazing as a purchasing agent but that he also indicated that he had an income from an orchestra. The credit record of subject showed employment at Feltman and Curme and that at the present time the subject indicated that he is employed at the Stewart Novelty Company, Salt Lake City.

Confidential Informant T-1 stated that previously he had noticed three families living in the residence at 617 East South Temple but that recently they had moved and he had information that they were living at 121 First Avenue. Informant T-1 stated that in addition to RAY KING HUGHES and his family there was a Mr. and Mrs. GEORGE HUNTER residing there. He stated further that there was also an old lady living at that address whose name he did not know. Informant T-1 stated that prior to moving to 617 East South Temple HUGHES had lived at 717 East Second South.

Mr. ED F. SCHAUER, manager of Feltman and Curme, stated that RAY KING HUGHES had worked for him afternoons from May, 1942 to January, 1943. He stated that GEORGE HUNTER is HUGHES' son-in-law but that although he was not closely associated with either man, during the time he had been in conversation with them and he had never heard either of them make any statement which could be considered subversive nor had he ever heard either discuss the "I Am " group. Mr. SCHAUER stated that he believes that RAY KING HUGHES is presently employed by the Stewart Novelty Company at the Playmor Amusement Company. Mr. SCHAUER stated that Mrs. EDNA KING, who is a cousin by marriage to RAY KING HUGHES, could possibly furnish further information in regard to the subject. Mr. SCHAUER stated that Mrs. KING is presently employed by the War Manpower Commission as office manager and is perfectly competent and reliable.

Mrs. EDNA KING was interviewed in her office in the Continental Bank Building. RAY KING HUGHES is the son of Mrs. KING'S deceased husband's cousin. She stated, however, that she is quite friendly with RAY KING HUGHES and has visited his home many times. However, Mrs. KING stated that she knows very little about the "I am" religious group aside from the fact that it is a psuedo-scientific organization and that at times she has gotten into serious arguments with HUGHES because her religious beliefs differ from his. She stated that RAY KING HUGHES has a son, RAY HUGHES, who is presently in the United States Army, and that his son-in-law, GEORGE HUNTER, is also in the Army. Mrs. KING stated that to the best of her knowledge the "I AM" group members are vegetarians and have a belief that a person is effected by his associations and as an example, indicated that the group believed that light rays were very important in a person's life in that if a person wears light colored clothing, he would feel happier than if he wore dark colored clothing. Mrs. KING stated that RAY KING HUGHES has been a member of the group for a number of years and that he apparently got in on it while he was in Los Angeles where he worked for the Douglas Aircraft Corporation. She stated that GEORGE HUNTER has been in the group for a longer period of time and that his home is in southern California.. Mrs. KING stated that RAY KING HUGHES is presently buying the property at 121 First Avenue and although she does not know where he is obtaining the money, she feels confident that he will be able to swing some sort of a deal.

At Local Draft Board Number 14 Miss ALTA S. BUHLER, Clerk, made the file on RAY KING HUGHES available which indicated that he registered while living at 717 East Second South and that he had also been known by the names of RAFAEL HUGHES and KARL KING. Subject, at the time of registration, indicated that he was employed by Smith & Adams, 225 Edison Street, that he was married at Farmington, Utah on February 25, 1922 to his wife LUCILLE A. HUGHES. He indicated that in 1942 he had three children under the age of [redacted] b6 a son, [redacted] born [redacted] a son, [redacted] born b7C [redacted] and a son, [redacted] born [redacted] He also indicated that he had a daughter, [redacted] who was born [redacted] HUGHES indicated that his father, HARRY HUGHES, lives at Spanish Fork, Utah, that his mother, LA RENE KING BLEEKER, resides at Ogden, Utah, his sister, Mrs. J. L. WILDE, resides at Ogden, Utah and his sister, Mrs. HENRY CONRAD, JR., resides at McGill, Nevada. The subject's selective service file further reflects that he is presently employed by the Stewart Novelty Company, 133 East Second South, Salt Lake City.

The records were also made available on GEORGE FRANKLIN HUNTER, HUGHES' son-in-law, and he indicated his mother, Mrs. LEILA HUNTER, resided at 959 West 32nd, Los Angeles. It further reflected that HUNTER enlisted in the reserve corps of the signal corps on November 12, 1942 and was assigned Army Serial Number 19171712.

HUNTER indicated that he had been employed at the Morrison & Merrill Lumber Company and also at Smith & Adams Awning Company, 225 Edison Street.

Mr. HARRY ADAMS, Smith & Adams Awning Company, stated that HUNTER had only worked for about two months and had left because he did not like the work. He stated that HUNTER had worked on a truck, that he knew nothing about him and knew nothing about the organization.

Mrs. WALTER P. WILDING, 1725 East 13th South, who was formerly Mrs. LULABELLE ELDRIDGE and who was formerly the owner of the place at 121 First Avenue, stated that although she has never had personal dealings with RAY KING HUGHES and that the negotiations were handled by Mr. JOHN ALDER of the First Security Bank, Salt Lake City, she knew that HUGHES had purchased the property for $12,000 at $130 per month, which payment is to include taxes. Mrs. WILDING stated that she had returned to the place at one time to give HUGHES keys and at that time she noticed that the room which she had formerly used for a studio was filled with chairs and it seemed to her that HUGHES was planning to run some kind of a school or to give lectures. However, Mrs. WILDING stated that she had no information in regard to the group but that if she had any, she would advise this office.

Mr. JOHN ALDER, First Security Bank, advised that he had conducted the negotiations with RAY KING HUGHES in regard to the purchase of the property and that HUGHES had paid $2,000 down and had made a contract to pay $130.00 per month. Mr. ALDER stated that during the conversation with HUGHES, HUGHES had indicated that certain amounts of this money would come from contributions by the various people in attendance at his meetings. Mr. HUGHES also indicated that he had sold his car in order to make up the $2,000 down payment. Mr. ALDER said that HUGHES was very careful to advise him about all the contributions were voluntary and that they could charge nothing for the attendance at the meetings but that he had received no further information from Mr. HUGHES. Mr. ALDER advised that the only person he knew who was a member of this group was Mrs. ERNEST L. SMITH, 902 East Second South, Salt Lake City, who had discussed the "I Am" group with him in 1940 or 1941 and that at this time she indicated that the "I Am" group had been set up because the revelation was originally intended for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints but because they had departed from the teachings of God, a new group had to be formed and that accordingly a man drinking at a spring in the mountains of California had achieved wonderful powers and consequently had been ordered to form the new group.

Investigation reveals that Mrs. SMITH is the mother of Doctor E. LINWOOD SMITH, whose offices are at 54 East South Temple. A lead is being set out to conduct a neighborhood investigation in regard to Mrs. SMITH

b7D

At the Credit Rating Bureau records made available by Miss MARYAN BRIGGS reflected that there was a report of June, 1931 on ERNEST L. SMITH which indicated that he was retired from the Oregon Shortline Railroad in 1929 and that he had previously been General Manager and that his credit was good for a reasonable amount, that he received a pension and owned no property. A credit report dated January, 1935 on Mrs. HELEN L. SMITH indicates that she resides at 856 East First South, is about 55 years of age and is a widow, further that she has a son living with her, Dr. E. LINWOOD SMITH. No suits, judgments or derogatory information was contained in the file.

RAY KING HUGHES is described as follows:
